LAS VEGAS 2026 TRIP PLANNING GUIDE

Looking for ideas on how to make the most of your next Las Vegas visit? We've got you covered. Check out these helpful suggestions while planning your getaway to the world's most exciting destination.

PLANNING TIPS

Creating the perfect Las Vegas itinerary is easy. With 320 days of sunshine, as well as numerous options for dining, sports, entertainment and more, you're sure to have a memorable experience. To help make your planning easier, here are a few tips.

Make Reservations Ahead of Time

Once you've got your dates down, it's time to book that room! It's best to lock in accommodations early, especially if you have something particular in mind. After you've set up your resort home base, start making restaurant reservations. Planning your meal choices will allow you to organize the rest of your stay more easily.

Purchase Tickets in Advance

Want to see your favorite band or comedian? Looking forward to a fabulous Las Vegas show? Can't wait to see iconic sights and attractions? It's always best to purchase show and concert tickets in advance, but also consider purchasing attraction tickets early as well. You'll likely have a larger selection for seated experiences and often won't have to stand in line at a box office.

MUST-TRY RESTAURANTS

Las Vegas is a major foodie destination, offering world-class restaurants and unique dining experiences easily found on and around the Las Vegas Strip. Many come from award-winning celebrity chefs and feature every type of cuisine. Bring your appetite and indulge at any of these culinary hot spots.

PISCES BAR & SEAFARE AT WYNN LAS VEGAS

CARBONE RIVIERA AT BELLAGIO

Indulge in the seafood-forward fine-dining destination that blends the classic Carbone glamour with Italian Riviera style. The menu celebrates the sea with show stopping whole fish presentations, luxurious lobster pasta and the beloved Carbone classics. You'll leave blissfully satisfied and beautifully indulged.

MOTHER WOLF AT FONTAINEBLEAU LAS VEGAS

James Beard Award-winning chef Evan Funke has opened his first restaurant outside California. He offers a traditional approach to Roman cuisine, with pizzas and pastas making the menu alongside classic dishes like grilled whole branzino and fettucine with prosciutto and white truffle.

Valley of Fire State Park is a must-see while you are visiting Las Vegas. Whether you're coming for the superbloom or craving a scenic drive, Valley of Fire State Park can be reached by using either I-15 or Northshore Drive. There are many exquisite examples of rock art left by these ancient people, also known as the Anasazi, at several sites within the park. There is also a large variety of desert animals and reptiles located within the park's boundaries. A visitors information center, located within the park, includes exhibits on the geology, prehistory and ecology of the park.
