I hereby grant _________________ permission to document through audio and/or video recording and transcription oral history interview(s) for the purpose of preserving historical information and heritage. The interview(s) may be transcribed and made available for scholarly use. The information I agree to share with the interviewer is to be used for the purposes of documenting the history of the Episcopal Church in the state of Alabama. When this material becomes available, it may be read, quoted, or cited from and disseminated for educational and scholarly purposes unless a specific restriction is made below.

This consent does not preclude any use which I may want to make of the information contained in the recordings or transcription. I understand that I retain the ownership of all intellectual property rights in the contents of the interview(s).

I understand that I may withdraw from the interview at any time. I understand that I have the right to request that any tape made during the interview be given to me or destroyed or that no transcript be made of its contents. I understand that I may stop the recording at any time to discuss or clarify how I wish to respond to a question before proceeding.

Subject to the provisions below, upon completion of the interview(s) the tape and contents of the interview will belong to the Episcopal Diocese of Alabama.

I desire that the following restrictions be placed on this material:
I would like a copy of any interview recording and transcript to be given to:
