Four Commitments of Christians:

1. Our first commitment is to preach the Gospel.

2. Our second commitment is to teach those we bring to God through Christ Jesus those things necessary for our life in this world and the world to come.

3. Our third commitment is to feed the hungry.

4. Our fourth commitment is to heal human brokenness as we participate in the ministry of reconciliation.
Principles of Common Life

That in order to support the work of the Great Commission and a ministry of service, the following principles for our life together are adopted:

1. The basic unit of the Church is the baptized laypersons and ordained working with their Bishop to carry out the Great Commission and Christ’s vision of servant ministry.

2. The mission and ministry of the Diocese are expressed primarily through the unique and varied lives of local congregations. Our congregations gather and find strength through worship and prayer as they extend the good news by word and action to the communities that we serve.

3. It is through individual acts of Christian service summed up in Jesus’ vision of the last judgment, and those other servant ministries to which we are called by the contemporary world that the church reaches out in love to the world Christ died to redeem.

4. Matthew 25 ministry is primarily the work of the laity led in their service by the deacons. This work should be based in and supported by local congregations where the church finds its primary interchange with the world.

5. The mission and ministry of the whole Diocese lived in the local Ecclesia is enhanced and strengthened by partnerships of congregations working together with the Bishop. Those partnerships seek to serve the world and to share the good news of the Kingdom of God. These partnerships are especially necessary in the work of church extension and the founding of new congregations.

6. The Bishop and the Bishop’s staff serve the whole church by offering vision, support and oversight for mission acting as a bridge between our local congregations in their particular ministry and the life and mission of the Episcopal Church and the Anglican Communion.

7. We accept as our criteria for assessing the vitality of our Diocesan community the health of our local congregations.

8. The budget of this Diocese reflects our common commitment to the Great Commission lived in the life of our congregations and our partnerships in mission beyond our Diocese.
Priorities of the Diocese

The priorities by which we order our life as a diocese:

- To develop the ministry of all baptized persons.
- To enhance the life of our local congregations.
- To continue the extension of the Church in the communities we serve by the establishment of new congregations.
- To raise our vision of mission from our own congregations and diocese to the global mission of Christ who sent his apostles into the world.

Sermon to the 39th Annual Convention
The Right Reverend Dabney T. Smith
Fifth Bishop of the Diocese of Southwest Florida

The letter of St. Paul to the Galatians contains a lengthy section that sets the tone for this address and, in fact, voices our convention theme of Live in the Spirit. The scriptural piece my focus is on begins in chapter five where he exhorts the Christian’s to live by the Spirit so as to be freed from the works of the flesh such as fornication, idolatry, enmities, strife, quarrels, dissensions, factions, envy and things like these that imperil, fracture and poison the faith community.

In contrast, he continues to inform us what the fruit of the Spirit is: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. These, of course, build up the faith community. Live by the Spirit means simply walk with the Spirit of God. In other words, it means conduct yourselves as the Church as guided by God's Spirit. We are mutually interdependent upon one another in the Spirit.

We will note that Paul writes here less about sensual sin and more about the attitude of the human will in chosen opposition to God's will. St. Paul adds in chapter six, “If you sow to the Spirit, you will reap eternal life by the Spirit. So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up. So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith.”

It was with real pleasure that I preached at the investiture service in September that mission is not in addition to who we are; mission is who we are in the Church. Now I intend to expand on those thoughts. Active mission identifies the Church's life, and the Church's life energy is fueled by the Spirit of God. Again, the theme for our diocesan convention is “Live in the Spirit.” In one sense, this is theologically redundant for a Church convention because there is no Church without the Spirit. Having said that, “Live in the Spirit” is a useful and instructive phrase that quickly articulates many thoughts about what we do and who we are in the Church.

So then, Live in the Spirit, and, as Paul writes, “Whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith.” I believe that the Diocese of Southwest Florida has wonderful and multiple opportunities before it that deserve our work. If we are guided by the Spirit, sow to the Spirit, live in the Spirit, we will reap much. These are some of the opportunities I have seen thus far in my somewhat short, but very full, time here.

I see new neighborhoods in many areas of the diocese and we need to think prudently and act faithfully in planting new congregations, organized missions and/or new fellowships. I am not defining where, when, or how this needs to develop. I am merely pointing out the obvious. I am now appointing these members of the clergy: Ray Bonoan, Donald Fishburne, Ann McLemore, Kyle Bennett, John Hiers, Shanda Mahurin and John Adler to the Congregational Development Committee. This committee is defined in our diocesan canons and I think it is imperative to re-energize this dimension of our diocese. This is a fresh beginning for this committee. It will need to evaluate demographics, resources, training needs and make recommendations for congregational strength in our diocese. The persons now appointed do not canonically complete the committee. Canon 21 states, “The Bishop shall appoint a Committee for Congregational Development. It shall consist of one clergy and one lay representative from each of the Deaneries.” This list of appointments will simply allow us to get started.
I now want to emphasize some areas of the 2008 budget. I was not able to attend all of the Deanery convocations due to my mother’s death and, therefore, missed the opportunity to clarify my thoughts regarding the formation of the budget. First, let me thank all of you again for your sustaining prayers and notes during this personal loss. Your words of affection and encouragement have helped Mary Ellen and me tremendously. You have become treasure in my heart.

There is a line item in the 2008 budget for an assistant bishop. Please recognize that the amount represents a concept, not a decision. I have been encouraged from many quarters to get an assisting bishop on board. I realize, though, that I have not even visited every congregation yet. My desire is to live into being the bishop of Southwest Florida. First, then, I want to be here doing the work. Secondly, there needs to be more detailed conversation about the need, purposes and definition of an assisting bishop’s role in the life of this diocese. I have not asked anyone to serve in this capacity. The line item in the budget simply makes it a possible position if the conversation in the Spirit finalizes it as a decision.

The next area in the budget has to do with the creation of the position Canon for Mission and Outreach. This position assumes some responsibilities of an existing staff position and adds a new dimension to our opportunity for mission.

Many of you already know that I have asked Canon Michael Durning to remain on staff as Canon to the Ordinary. His positive response is of benefit to me and the diocese. I have also asked that the responsibilities of the Canon to the Ordinary expand to include ministry development and working with the Commission on Ministry. I want to take this opportunity to express my huge gratitude to Fr. John Monsour for his diligent and detailed work in ministry development for our diocese. His work at the Samaritan Counseling Center precludes full-time presence on the diocesan staff but he has clearly left a healthy and defining mark on our workings. John will continue his beneficial consulting to the diocese and to me and I thank you for that.

The new position of Canon of Mission and Outreach will assume the particular responsibilities having to do with the vocational diaconate. I believe that one area of mission that we can strengthen and further equip is the diaconal presence in our diocese.

The Canon for Mission and Outreach will have oversight of the School for Ministry that will include the ordination track for the vocational diaconate. My sense is that the diocesan school for ministry needs to be a diocesan resource for equipping the saints. It already has many successes. I believe it needs to be strengthened and broadened. Again, Fr. Monsour will be available to consult so that the program can mature without having aspirants slip through the cracks.

An additional responsibility for the Canon for Mission and Outreach will be to explore the establishment of Episcopal Charities in the Diocese of Southwest Florida. I see this as both a financial and programmatic resource for the life of the diocese. When functioning, Episcopal Charities will seek grants and financial gifts to provide revenue for outreach programs in diocesan, deanery and parish initiatives. The canon will work with the deacons to further identify community needs and assist congregations in collaborative efforts.

One illustration points to the need. This 2008 budget includes a line item for continued ministry with the Haitian community because the need has become greater than the Naples and Fort Myers deaneries can meet alone. It is my hope that eventually, Episcopal Charities will provide some serious financial resource muscle to meet outreach needs in our diocese for generations to come. I have asked the Rev. Deacon Dennis McMannis to return to our diocese to become the canon for Mission and Outreach.
Another area of great concern to me is the Church sowing the Spirit in the lives of young adults. This is the final budgetary line item on which I will comment. The position of chaplain to the University of South Florida is being re-established. There are some who may say that paying for a college chaplain will not produce any revenues. That is correct. This position will not pay for itself. It will, though, pay rich dividends in the development of the lives of young people. It is more important for us to be intentionally present in the lives of young adults than it is to have a revenue stream from them.

College chaplains have the mission opportunity to form young adults for Jesus Christ. That needs to be in the budget. I have asked the Rev. Denise Guinta to serve as chaplain. Furthermore, I recognize mission initiative to young adults as college students at USF is simply one area of approach. We have other college chaplaincies to recognize and more to organize. The Diocese of Southwest Florida is blessed with multiple college campuses.

Beyond the budget, then, I am announcing a new commission on Young Adults and Higher Education Ministry. I am asking this group to explore the opportunities in this diocese and make available resources to help our congregations live in the Spirit with young adults. Today I appoint Charlie Farrell, Jackie Hartley, Rachael Kendzior, Vanessa Riutta, Daniel Ruiz, Roger Schwenke, Andrea de la Torre, Justus Doenecke, and clergy members Jim Hedman, Denise Guinta, Ryan Whitley, Mike Branscombe, Chuck Hatfield, Arthur Lee, Don Nicholson and Tom Thoeni for this effort. It is my hope that we will build upon the already present strengths we have in young adult ministry, such as Vocare, and that by next convention we will have goals and a strategic plan in place.

Now a word about the Anglican Communion. The bottom line is this: We are in the Anglican Communion. As you are perhaps aware, I have now been to two House of Bishops’ meetings both scheduled after the February Primates Communiqué.

I have also attended a consultation in Spain with both American and African bishops and which included six primates. In all cases I have heard and sensed a strong desire to remain together for the work of healthier global Anglican mission. There are four instruments of communion in the Anglican Communion: The Archbishop of Canterbury, the Anglican Consultative Council, The Lambeth Conference, and the Primates. I am pleased to note that the report of the Standing Committee of the Anglican Consultative Council was predominately positive regarding the September House of Bishops meeting. I have been invited to the 2008 Lambeth Conference and, in fact, just received a supplementary invitation two weeks ago.

Does this mean everything is resolved within our Communion? By no means. I think it does mean that there are many agreed-upon issues of mission on our global plate: poverty, the AIDS/HIV pandemic and other urgent disease problems, clean water, ongoing disaster relief and other issues. We are best situated to address them by working together in communion, in the Spirit.

I am pleased that our diocese is now a member of the Compass Rose Society. This is an organization that supports the work of the Anglican Communion and the Archbishop of Canterbury. I do not know how the future will continue to unfold within Anglicanism but I do know God is working His purpose out. I like being an Episcopalian. I like being an Anglican. I fully expect to be both for the rest of my life.

I know that there is much in life I cannot control but I can control being faithful here with you. I am so grateful to serve Our Lord in this diocese with you. We have much to honor and celebrate. In August I met with the Standing Committee, the Diocesan Council, and the Council of Deans as a time for me to think out loud with leaders of our diocese.
In discussion we noted many pleasing elements of our diocesan life together in the Spirit. We celebrated that the Diocese of Southwest Florida has an energizing and growing Men’s Ministry initiative. We celebrated women’s evangelism and the continuing “Believe in a Miracle” event. We celebrated strong outreach to the Dominican Republic, vibrant parishes, vital youth ministry programs, a goodly number of healthy Episcopal schools, renewal programs, cohesiveness in the diocese and DaySpring.

Regarding DaySpring, our conference center, allow me make this comment. There is a difference between opinions, ideas, recommendations and decisions. You may have heard many things about DaySpring but there has been only one decision made about it. I am appointing a committee to report directly to Diocesan Council on the ongoing life and purpose of Dayspring. Fr. Ed Henley has agreed to chair this committee. It is appropriate for Diocesan Council to be directly involved in the life of our conference center as they are the elected organization with fiduciary responsibility between diocesan conventions. DaySpring is a wonderful asset to our diocese. I am thankful for it and plan to proceed with both mission mindedness and business sensibility in its operation and purpose.

I now close with something deeply personal. I hope you will not find this offensive but, rather, helpful. The hours and days after Mother’s death and entrance into larger life contained many experiences of grief.

One of those grief expressions was a sense of regret for times wasted and words left unsaid. The grief sensation defined itself as a feeling that I wanted my life to matter. Certainly the death of ones parents puts one in a clarifying sense of ones own mortality.

Yet there is an irony in that the time of deep personal loss offers a gift of clarity. The clarity is that I do not want to waste my life. I do not want to waste my life and energy on activities driven by fear, anger or anxiety. I want my life to matter and make a difference. I want my life to be expressed by the fruit of the Spirit that is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control. I want to spend the energies of my life serving our Lord.

That is my earnest desire for our diocese in mission. I pray that we will matter and make a difference in the lives of people for whom Jesus died. Let us not waste our lives on things that hurt us and destroy our faith community.

Let us live in the fruit of the Spirit. Let us reap eternity because we have sown the Spirit of God. Let us live in the Spirit.

Convention was called to order at 10:30 A.M.

1. Bishop Smith made the following appointments for this Convention:
   - Secretary of Convention: Mrs. Anne Stadel
   - Dispatch of Business: The Reverend Douglas Zimmerman
   - Parliamentarian: Mr. Jim Park
   - Elections Committee: The Reverend Vincent Scotto
   - Resolutions Committee: The Reverend Becky Robbins-Penniman

2. Mrs. LeAnna Hood presented the report of the Credentials Committee.
   “One half of the clergy entitled to vote in the Convention and lay delegates from one half of the congregations entitled to representation, which duly assembled shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.” (Article 9 of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Southwest Florida).

   The total number of clergy accredited to vote is 98, 87 of this number are present. The total number of congregations accredited to vote is 76, with a total number of 217 lay delegates. 78 congregations with 188 lay delegates are present. Thereby a quorum is established.

3. Reporting for the Committee on Congregational Development, The Reverend Christopher Gray moved, “The Committee on Congregational Development recommends seat, voice, and vote for all congregations, those currently not current are working toward resolving the apportionment receivables and we recommend full seat, voice, and vote for everyone.” The motion was approved.

   The Reverend Canon Michael Durning and Judy Starke presented a short pre-agenda skit on “Mission and Ministry”, followed by the distribution of "M&Ms".

4. In the discussion of pre-agenda items, The Reverend Charles Davidson, St. Vincent’s, St. Petersburg noted, “. . . there are Alternates representing Delegates. . .” Canon Durning responded with the clarification, “If you are here as an Alternate and you are taking the place of a Delegate, what you should have done is talk to the registration table with the Priest-in-charge of your congregation, in order to be re-credited as a Delegate.”

   The Reverend Canon Michael Durning, responded to the request for seat and voice for various people beginning with priests who are Interim Rectors and priests from other jurisdictions, these Priests-in-charge, who are not canonically resident, were welcomed:

   - The Reverend John Corbiere (Connecticut), Interim Priest - St. John’s, Naples
   - The Reverend Stanley Dull (Pennsylvania), Priest-in-charge – Epiphany Church, Cape Coral
The Reverend Theodore Edwards (Albany), Priest-In-Charge at St. George’s, Bradenton
The Reverend Hector Lopez (Columbia), Vicar of St. Francis, Tampa
The Reverend Robin Whitlock (Louisiana), Priest-in-charge, St. Augustine’s, St. Petersburg.
An assisting cleric, not canonically resident, The Reverend Victor J. Scalisi, Jr. (Quincy), Assistant - Church of the Redeemer, Sarasota, was also granted seat and voice.

All were welcomed, and requested to stand and be recognized.

Requested, too, was seat and voice for lay representatives of the Unorganized Missions. The Vicars of those congregations, The Reverend Tara McGraw and The Reverend Read Heydt, are canonically resident in the Diocese. These lay representatives were from the Church of the Resurrection, Naples and St. Andrew’s, Boca Grande. The motion was made and approved.

5. Canon Durning introduced the newly canonically resident clergy:

The Reverend Charles “Chip” Connelly (by ordination)
The Reverend Andrew McMullen (by Letters Dimissory Diocese of West Missouri)
The Reverend Eric Mills (by Letters Dimissory, Diocese of Fort Worth)
The Reverend Charles Jon Roberts (by ordination)
The Reverend Christopher Schuller (by Letters Dimissory, Diocese of Georgia)
The Reverend Andrea Suess Taylor (by Letters Dimissory, Diocese of Massachusetts).

Those present stood for recognition and welcome.

6. The Reverend Marcia Davenport, Chaplain, St. John’s Parish Day School, Tampa, introduced guests:

Mrs. Eunice Sunday, Head Teacher, Kamaiba Primary School, South Rwenzori Province, Diocese of Uganda
Ms. Fiona Masika, a student at that school. Kamiba Primary School has been St. John’s sister school for four years.

Mrs. Sunday presented Bishop Smith, our “chief”, with the gift of a walking stick.

7. The Transition Planning Committee: Ms. Karen Patterson, Standing Committee, Mr. Charles “Chuck” Miller, detail man, and Archdeacon Gary Cartwright, were recognized for making the diocesan transition year between bishops run smoothly. As a token of affection and appreciation, Bishop Smith presented each with a gift.

In appreciation and thanksgiving for her leadership, Cis Dalton, Past President of the Diocesan ECW, was presented with a service pin on behalf of the Diocese of Southwest Florida.
8. Bishop Smith thanked The Reverend Dr. John Monsour for being an ongoing invaluable asset to the life of this Diocese.

Canon Durning noted the next item to be a point of personal privilege. The Reverend Christopher Villagomez, St. Chad's Episcopal Church, Tampa, presented the Bishop “a gift to welcome him to the diocese.” The Reverend Villagomez described the gift, a guitar, as, “your Consecration, Investiture, Christmas and birthday gift.”

9. The Final Credentials Report was given by LeAnna Hood. “The total number of Clergy accredited to vote is 98, 87 of this number are present. The total number of Congregations accredited to vote is 76, with a total number of 217 lay delegates. 78 congregations with 198 lay delegates are present.

10. The Reverend Douglas Zimmerman gave the Report of the Committee on the Dispatch of Business. He moved that items 11–32, as proposed, be accepted as the Convention agenda. There was no discussion on the agenda. Motion was approved.

11. The Reverend Vincent Scotto presented the report of the Nominations and Elections Committee, followed by an explanation of the election process. Nominations made prior to the Convention were listed in alphabetical order. Nominations from the floor were called for at this time for the open positions.

Motion was made that nominations be closed; approved.

12. As the first ballots were cast, The Reverend Becky Robbins-Penniman moved that, “all of those nominations where there are as many candidates as there are slots be filled and moved and affirmed by acclamation.” This was seconded; approved.

The Reverend Scotto clarified that delegates may vote for fewer candidates than open positions. If a delegate votes for more candidates than positions that delegate’s ballot is disqualified.

While a Deacon representative from each Deanery collected the ballots, the presentation of reports began with:

Women’s Ministries: “Believe in a Miracle” - Ms. Jackie Robe – On February 9, 2008, 1000 women will gather in Venice for Renewal of the Spirit, to self examine their faith. The Rt. Reverend Nedi Rivera, Suffragan Bishop of Olympia will guide this spiritual journey. Also, Elisabeth Von Trapp will be presented in concert.

Commission on Ministry – The Reverend Michael Branscombe, Chair - Summary: The goal/ purpose of the Commission is to nurture those who feel called by God to minister in His Name. Every person will be enabled to grow.

Dominican Development Group - Ms. Jackie Robe, member of Executive Board – Southwest Florida has spent ten (10) years in this diverse ministry in the Dominican Republic. Special recognition was given to Dr. Bob Stevens, “the spark” that runs the mission team.

ECW - Ms. Joan Kline – Diocesan President - This report summarized Mission and Outreach programs of the ECW. They have begun Asian and Hispanic ministries and support many Diocesan programs. Southwest Florida exhibits strong leadership in Province IV, and in the national ECW. Both the Haitian Ministry, Immokalee and Holy Spirit, Safety Harbor received grants this year.

Episcopal Relief and Development – Ms. Jody Tiffany, Diocesan Co-Coordinator – ERD provides disaster relief all over the world. Their goal is to raise $3,000,000 by the end of 2009, specifically to fight diseases in the developing world, especially malaria and HIV/Aids.

Diocesan Council – Judy Stark –
Council’s report on the redirection of funds from 2007 budget -
“At Convention last year the 2007 budget was amended to redirect the asking of the National Church from 18% down to 10%, but unresolved was how to distribute those redirected funds ($120,000 to $130,000). Diocesan Council was pleased to make the following allocations of those funds in the service of Mission and Ministry:”

- 50% - to purchase Katrina cottages in New Orleans, safe modular homes for hurricane victims,
- 20% - Episcopal Migration Ministries to support there settlement of refugees from Africa within the Diocese of Southwest Florida,
- 15% - Ethnic Congregational Development – to support the seminar in the Philippines and bring that seminarian here for missionary internship,

15% - Dominican Development Group - to pay the travel expenses of the Director on missionary work outside this diocese, and to pay for the booth at General Convention.

Evangelism – The Reverend Charles Mann –

The Evangelism Committee mandate is simple, "Go, and make disciples.” This Committee sponsors many seminars and conferences to assist in the mission of evangelism, the biggest task in 2008 will be YouthQuake (November 14 – 16, 2008 in Bradenton).

This completed the elections.

Bishop Smith then extended “Our thanks to the Diocesan staff, in particular to Jan Nothum and LeAnna Hood, for the great work they did helping put this Convention together.”

Returned to Presentations:

Camp Able - The Reverend Kyle Bennett –
This camp is a new ministry of the Diocese for children with special needs. All were invited to participate; most specifically needed are high school youth to be counselors. The number of campers is most limited by the number of high school youth who participate. Dates for the next camp: July 25 – 31, 2008. For Information, see www.CampAble.org. Convention attendees viewed a video of last summer’s camp.

24. Bishop Smith introduced the budget presentation with a prayer for George McLaughlin, CFO, who has been ill. Al Getz, Chair of the Finance Committee summarized the budget. Expected receivables for 2008 are $3,156,000, expenses $3,141,000. Georgiana Kyser, St. Chad’s, questioned the decrease in property insurance expense from 2007. The Reverend Chris Gray, St. Mark’s, Venice, volunteered that this change had been explained at the Venice Deanery Meeting to be due to adjustments and re-evaluation by the Church Insurance Corporation. The next question noted the budget indicated that, for 2009 and 2010, we will be “in the hole”. Bishop Smith speculated that the future figures are generated by a percentage point, and not meaningful. Following this discussion, the budget was adopted unanimously.

Men’s Ministry- Jay Crouse, Director Episcopal Men’s Ministries –
On behalf of the Diocesan leadership team he thanked Diocesan Convention clergy and delegates for endorsing a vision to create an initiative to intentionally draw men back into the life of our 78 Episcopal churches. He also thanked Bishop Smith for his enthusiastic support. More than 50 congregations are involved in men’s ministries. Through years of providing quality ministry program, Episcopal Men’s Ministries has emerged as the ecumenical leader of ministry to men throughout Southwest Florida.
Youth, Young Adult, and Higher Education - The Reverend Katherine Tate, Director –
The present focus for Youth Ministries in this Diocese is not as ministry to youth, but ministry by youth. This means all young people, not just youth but young adults, are seen as partners in ministry. Our youth have developed leadership, on the diocesan level, nationally, and internationally. The first bilingual Vocare will be held at DaySpring in June 2008.

Committee on Constitutions and Canons
The Reverend Becky Robbins-Penniman gave the Report of the Committee on Constitutions and Canons. In their packets, delegates each received a disc containing more than 100 pages of the 2007 discussion draft of the proposed revisions to the Canons of the Diocese of Southwest Florida. At the 2008 Convocations she will ask that the Deans give time on the agenda to let the Committee on Constitutions and Canons receive comments from those who have read the revisions.

Resolution 2007-1 Resolution for the authority to divert apportionment funding; offered by The Reverend Joel Borsch, Rector, Christ Church, Bradenton.

RESOLVED, the 39th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida meeting at Venice on the 20th day of October 2007

That this Convention grants the Ecclesiastical Authority the ability to continue to respond pastorally to those congregations and individual members in the Diocese of Southwest Florida who, for reasons of conscience, desire to redirect funds which would otherwise be sent to support the program work of the national church (TEC) and to send those funds to the Episcopal Diocese of the Dominican Republic in support of the ministries in that diocese: and

That this authority is granted through the calendar year 2008.

Explanation: No additional explanation provided.

The Reverend Ed Rich, St. Catherine's, proposed an amendment changing “Ecclesiastical Authority” in the first line to read “Bishop”. He offered this amendment because the Bishop, unless unable to fulfill his office, is the Ecclesiastical Authority. The resolution suggests a pastoral relationship with a congregation. This would be better offered by a person than a committee. The Reverend Morsch accepted this as a friendly amendment.

Knute Malmborg, St. Matthew's, proposed adding, “or to support missions in Haiti” after the second occurrence of the word diocese in the last line. The Reverend Morsch accepted this as a friendly amendment.
The Reverend Fred Robinson spoke in favor, as a pastoral reality for those who do not feel they can give to the National Church.

The Reverend John Adler proposed adding, if the resolution passed, “Further, that the Convention directs the CFO to provide a regular monthly accounting of funds received and disbursed.” In discussion, The Reverend Morsch asked, “To what end? This is public record.” The Reverend Adler stated that in the Naples-Fort Myers Convocation, when questions about this and other funds were raised there was no reply. He stated he had heard this same report from other places.

On the Resolution as amended: The Reverend Ted Copland, St. Boniface, noted Convention did not adopt a resolution like this last year. “The current Canons, when combined with common sense and compassion, allow individuals and congregations to act in good conscience without violating the conscience of others.” In summary, adopting this was not appropriate.

Amendment 2007-1 - Motions were made and seconded for each amendment. Vote on the resolution was: 121 for, 146 against - The resolution was not adopted.

Resolution 2007-2: Resolution to amend Canon VIII concerning the selection of a congregation’s wardens.
Offered by The Reverend Donald Fishburne, Rector, and the Vestry and Congregation of St. Michael and All Angels Church, Sanibel.
Resolved, the 39th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida meeting at Venice on the 20th day of October, 2007.

That the Section 1 of Canon VIII Of Wardens, Vestries, Bishop’s Committees and Electors be amended as follows:

Section 1. In every Parish and Organized Mission in this Diocese there shall be an annual meeting of the congregation, within one hundred twenty days before or on the twenty eighth day of February, and at said meeting an election by ballot, of a Vestry or Bishop’s Committee, consisting of no fewer than five persons as may be fixed by the Congregation’s Charter, and who shall continue in office until their successors are elected and qualified. In such election a majority of votes shall decide the choice, provided, however, that in the case of an Organized Mission, the names of those chosen shall be submitted to the Bishop for his approval and appointment. As to a Parish, of the persons so chosen, one QUALIFIED ELECTOR shall be appointed Senior Warden by the Rector and one QUALIFIED ELECTOR shall be designated and elected Junior Warden by the Vestry. As to a Mission, of the persons so chosen, the Vicar or Priest-in-charge shall nominate FROM QUALIFIED ELECTORS a Senior Warden and the Bishop’s Committee shall nominate FROM QUALIFIED ELECTORS a Junior Warden and other officers. The names of all Mission officers so nominated shall be submitted to the Bishop for his approval and appointment. Nothing herein contained shall prevent a Congregation from establishing terms of office more than one year, provided the term of one or more members of the Vestry or Bishop’s Committee shall expire each year.

Explanation: Discussion of benefits of flexibility were attached, and a ‘Case in point’ was presented.
The Rev Donald Fishburne offered corrections to agree with the original submission, followed by his explanations for this (see strikeouts and upper case additions above). These were moved and seconded as the first amendment.

The Reverend Becky Robbins-Penniman, as Chair of the Constitutions and Canons Committee, spoke against this, reporting that “a majority of members of this Committee voted to disapprove of the key changes to Canon 8 proposed by Resolution 2007 – 2.” As rector of a congregation she was for a spirit of flexibility, therefore spoke in favor of the amendment as a matter of principle and philosophy.

The Reverend Ed Rich, St. Catherine’s, said this resolution would undermine the quality of the church. He spoke against it because the representatives of the congregation would not be elected by the congregation, and the wardens would not have term limits.

The Reverend Hayden Crawford, St. Michael’s and All Angels, would allow this amendment to permit part year residents to participate “because we are a transient diocese”.

The Reverend Sharon Lewis, Holy Spirit, Osprey, saw the Senior Warden’s presence and support as essential. She suggested the issue be studied. The Reverend Fishburne stated, “It has been studied for three years.”

Amendment 2007-2 Discussion; A 2/3 vote closed debate. Vote on perfected amendment: 105 for, 155 against. The resolution was not adopted.

Resolution 2007-3: Resolution to include The Reverend John Edwin Culmer, D.D., in the calendar of Lesser Feasts and Fasts on the date of June 19th.

Offered by The Reverend Hayden Crawford, the congregation of St. James House of Prayer, Tampa, and The John E. Culmer Chapter of the Union of Black Episcopalians of Southwest Florida.

Resolved, the 39th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida meeting at Venice on the 20th day of October, 2007.

That the Convention establish a task force for the purposes of making application to the Standing Liturgical Commission of the General Convention of The Episcopal Church to alter the calendar of the Episcopal Church to include the Reverend John Edwin Culmer, D.D. in the Calendar of Lesser Feasts and Fasts, with a commemoration date of June 19;

and

That the completed application shall be submitted to the Standing Liturgical Commission of The Episcopal Church at least eighteen (18) months before the next meeting of the General Convention.

Discussion: Navita Cummings James, St. James House of Prayer, encouraged the acceptance of this resolution, in the spirit of asking our church to deal with the history of race and to help us to understand ways to move forward. She declared, "This individual is a great model for us." The Reverend Tom Thoeni, St. Peter's, Plant City, pointed out it was within the Bishop’s authority to direct congregations to commemorate any feast of any local saint within our diocesan bounds.

Amendment 2007-3 - Moved; seconded; resolution adopted.

Resolution 2007-4: Resolution for the establishment of a diocesan fund to aid the funding of clergy children.

Offered by the Manasota Deanery and the Venice Deanery, meeting in joint convocation on September 5, 2007.

Resolved, the 39th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida meeting at Venice on the 20th day of October, 2007.

That this Convention directs the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese of Southwest Florida to establish a Scholarship Fund providing financial aid for post-secondary education to the children of those clergy members of the Convention who have the right to seat, voice and vote. Funding will be established by a transfer of 1% of the actual expenses of the diocese for the immediately preceding fiscal year.

Awards from this fund shall be as determined by a Scholarship Committee consisting of three clergy members of Convention who are presbyters, and two electors of congregations that are members of Diocese. The Committee members shall be appointed by the Bishop for staggered three-year terms, with the initial terms made in a manner to effect staggered terms. Criteria for receiving a grant shall be based primarily on financial need, as determined by the Committee. The decisions of the Committee shall be final and non-appealable.

"Children" shall include natural, adopted and step-children under twenty-six (26) years of age for whom the clergy member of Convention is the legal guardian.

The Reverend Denise Healy, St. Catherine’s, encouraged an amendment to the resolution to include children of all clergy in good standing, or those who have seat and voice. At this time the resolution excludes the children of all deacons. The Reverend Ed Rich, St. Catherine’s, made the amendment, dropping the words ‘and voice’.

The Reverend Joel Morsch stated the point of the fund was for children of underpaid stipendiary priests. He encouraged the resolution be a starting point for funding post high school education, with amendment possible in the future. Canon Durning noted that deacons make valuable contributions to the diocese, and the resolution should be extended to include their children. He suggested the amendment be extended to: “canonically resident clergy”, replacing “seat, voice, and vote”. As a Point of Order, The Reverend Becky Robbins-Penniman stated the resolution was written to match the Constitution, only canonically resident clergy are members of Convention. The Reverend Joe Diaz, Holy Trinity, urged the inclusion of deacons in this resolution as appropriate reward for the work they do. The Reverend Ed Rich stated the provisions The Reverend Joel Morsch suggested apply equally to all clergy, so the issue is whether we respond faithfully to all clergy. All were in favor of the amendment.

"Live in the Spirit" The 39th Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida 80

The Reverend Ed Rich proposed another “friendly amendment”, to change the words, “Ecclesiastical Authority” to “Bishop” The Reverend Morsch accepted this.

The Reverend Hayden Crawford raised the question of whether, as amended, this would apply to non-canonical clergy sitting in Convention with seat and voice. As a “Point of Order”,

The Reverend Ted Copland questioned whether a “friendly amendment” can be approved when the resolution was submitted by two deaneries, and not a single person.

The Reverend Becky Robbins-Penniman stated, “The Bishop is not the one to create funds in a budget, the Diocesan Council does, so perhaps the appropriate amendment should direct the Diocesan Council to create a fund.”

The Reverend Ed Rich rescinded his prior amendment and moved that the Convention direct the Diocesan Council to create a fund. This was seconded and approved.

The Reverend Tom Thoeni spoke to the amendment both personally and to say it would be a good way to recruit and retain clergy in this diocese. The Reverend Vincent Scotto moved postponement, to refer this resolution to Diocesan Council for further review. Seconded. Janet Jordan, St. Mark’s, Tampa, questioned how, “after passing a budget, Convention could affect 1% of the expenses of the budget.” She was, therefore, in favor of referring this to Diocesan Council.

Amendment 2007-4 - Moved. Seconded. After much discussion all voted in favor of referral to Diocesan Council for further review.

The Reverend Becky Roberts-Penniman announced the date and location of the next Diocesan Convention: October 17 and 18, 2008, at St. Stephen’s School, Christ Church, Bradenton.

Additional resolutions tabled:

Resolved, the 39th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida meeting at Venice on the 20th day of October, 2007.

Celebrate with joy the Centennial anniversary of the founding of St. James, Tampa, and the 10th anniversary of St. James House of Prayer, Tampa.

Moved; seconded; all in favor.

The Reverend Becky Robbins-Penniman asked Convention to adopt the Courtesy Resolutions as passed out in their packets.
26. Courteous Resolutions:

On behalf of the Thirty-Ninth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida, we take pleasure in moving that greeting be sent to the Most Reverend Katharine Jefferts Schori, Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church, that we uphold her in our prayers; that we thank her for all her leadership as Presiding Bishop; and that we ask God’s richest blessings and empowering of the Holy Spirit be upon her.

On behalf of the Thirty-Ninth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida, we take pleasure in moving a vote of thanks and appreciation to our Diocesan Bishop, Dabney T. Smith, for his ongoing pastoral care, concern, guidance, and affirmation of the people of this diocese.

On behalf of the Thirty-Ninth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida, we take pleasure in moving a vote of thanks and appreciation to the third bishop of the Diocese of Southwest Florida, Rogers S. Harris and Mrs. Anne Harris.

On behalf of the Thirty-Ninth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida, we take pleasure in moving a vote of thanks and appreciation to the fourth bishop of the Diocese of Southwest Florida, John B. Lipscomb and Mrs. Marcie Lipscomb.

On behalf of the Thirty-Ninth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida, we take pleasure in moving that greetings and best wishes be sent to our Companion Dioceses and their bishops:

- Dominican Republic – The Rt. Rev. Julio C. Holguin
- South Carolina – The Rt. Rev. Edward L. Salmon and The Very Rev. Mark Lawrence, Bishop Elect
- Western Louisiana – The Rt. Rev. D. Bruce MacPherson
- Georgia – The Rt. Rev. Henry Louttit

Assuring them of our prayers and desire to be supportive in our partnership with them as companion dioceses.

On behalf of the Thirty-Ninth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida, we take pleasure in moving a vote of thanks and appreciation to the people of the St. Mark’s Episcopal Church in Venice and Church of the Good Shepherd in Venice for all their time and continuing efforts in helping with the events for this convention.

On behalf of the Thirty-Ninth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida, we take pleasure in moving a vote of thanks, appreciation and Blessing to our Chancellor, Mr. Theodore Tripp, Jr., and to the Diocesan Vice-Chancellors, Sally Foote, Gregory Hearing, and H. Hamilton (Chip) Rice.

On behalf of the Thirty-Ninth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida, we take pleasure in moving a vote of thanks, appreciation and Blessing to those serving in this convention; Mrs. Anne Stadel, The Secretary of the Convention, The Rev. Doug Zimmerman, Dispatch of Business, The Rev. Becky Robbins-Penniman, Resolutions Committee, The Rev. Vincent Scotto, Elections Committee, and Mr. Jim Park, Parliamentarian, and to all convention volunteers.

On behalf of the Thirty-Ninth Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida, we take pleasure in moving that greetings, congratulations, and blessings be sent to St. David’s Church, Englewood, St. Dunstan’s Church, Largo, and St. Elizabeth’s Church, Zephyrhills, in recognition of their 50th Anniversaries.

Courtesy resolutions and move them into consideration. The Courtesy resolutions were adopted by acclamation.

27. The business of Convention being complete, motion was made for adjournment, and seconded.

The 39th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida closed with prayer at 2:56 P.M.
Bishop Gray Inns Foundation, Inc.

The Bishop Gray Inns Foundation’s scholarship program continues to provide financial aid to low-income elderly Episcopalians from the dioceses of Southwest, Southeast, and Central Florida seeking help with the high costs of retirement community living and medical expenses. We do still gratefully receive donations from individuals and parishes from the three dioceses. The Board of Trustees would like to preserve the endowment fund as much as possible, using only the income from investments for scholarship assistance. During 2007, we have helped 19 scholarship recipients, some of whom still live in the former Bishop Gray Inns facilities. Approximately $200,000 was distributed for scholarship assistance this year, and we hope to increase that amount in 2008, as more applications are received.

CEDAW Task Force

The diocesan convention of 2005 passed a resolution to take action on behalf of CEDAW: Treaty for the Rights of Women (Convention for Ending Discrimination Against Women) through a newly created task force. CEDAW has presently been endorsed by 189 countries, but sadly, not by the United States, who has only signed it as acknowledgement, however, not ratification. Who else, in addition to the U.S., has not ratified CEDAW? Iran, Qatar, Palau, Tonga, Somalia, and Sudan.

At Bishop Lipscomb’s request, a Task Force was created to explore ways in which our own communities could become more involved in this important issue. Because of the complexities of this issue we decided to begin by looking within our own country. We sent out a letter to all the parishes in this diocese. We provided a petition to send to senators, as well as other ways to have an impact by joining the Episcopal Public Policy Network in educating Senators on the importance of CEDAW. Parishes were asked to call and write members of Congress to let them know how important ratification of CEDAW is to women in the United States and around the world. We also provided a booklet from the Office of Women’s Ministries. The booklet, Beijing Circles, acts as a resource to enable parishes to engage in conversation about women’s issues. We asked that churches consider starting a Beijing Circle in their parish. To date I have heard from three parishes who are willing to use this resource in their parishes.

Faithfully submitted: The Rev. Canon Gigi Conner on behalf of the Task Force Members:  Ms. Linda A. Osmundson, Executive Director of CASA; Ms. Marcia S. Cohen, P.A.; Ms. Susan Churuti, County Attorney; Dr. Navita Cummings-James, Associate Professor, University of South Florida; Ms. Susan Guise, President, League of Women Voters, Pinellas County and delegate to the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women; Ms. Ann Haendel, world volunteer; Ms. Sandy Hoover, member of St. Peter’s Cathedral; Ms Ann Piccard, Assistant Professor of Legal Skills, Stetson University and Ms. Anita Pernell-Arnold, Chair and Training Director, PRIME Institute.

Commission on Ministry

Since we last gathered for Convention in 2006 the Commission on Ministry has been adapting to several changes that directly affect its work. With the appointment of a new Bishop to oversee the Commission, the appointment of a new Chair, a number of resignations from the Commission, and with revisions to Title III of the Canons, the time was right to examine closely the purpose and functioning of the Commission on Ministry within the Diocese of Southwest Florida.
The Commission has enthusiastically begun the process of working with Bishop Smith and The Rev. Dr. Monsour, director of Ministry Development, to provide the resources necessary to enable ministry within the diocese.

During 2007, the Commission on Ministry met with two seminarians at the end of their college training and before their ordination as transitional deacons. The Commission was able to hear about seminary life, both challenges and joys, and the ordinands' expectations for their parish ministry. The Commission was keen to hear about the cost of seminary education and its impact on the personal finances of the seminarians.

The Commission on Ministry provided support and liaison for the Lay Discernment Committee of five applicants for vocational diaconate training. At the time of writing the Commission is preparing to meet and interview these applicants for deacon training.

One postulant, Eric Cooter, will be entering seminary at Sewanee in 2007.

At the time of writing this report, nine people had registered for Vocations Information Day on Sept. 8, 2007, at St. Mary Magdalene Episcopal Church in Bradenton.

The Commission is keen to develop an active fellowship of vocations within the Diocese of Southwest Florida. It will be a place for informal sharing for those who feel God’s call on their lives. The group will meet several times each year to share in study, prayer and for fellowship with others exploring what it means to respond to God’s call. This group is open to anyone who feels a call to lay or ordained ministry. During 2008 the Commission hopes to promote these gatherings widely and increase attendance. In a similar vein but with a focus on youth the Commission will be looking at ways to foster vocational community among the young adults of the diocese. Working closely with the Youth and Young Adult ministry of the diocese we hope to plan events that will foster young vocations.

In summary, it is my hope that the Commission on Ministry can continue to promote and enable a diversity of ministry in the Diocese of Southwest Florida. Whether such ministry is lay or ordained it is always centered around people responding to God’s work in their lives, the Commission on Ministry seeks to promote a culture of discernment that provides nurture and encouragement to all who step forward in faith to serve their Lord.

DaySpring Conference Center

The DaySpring Conference Center had another successful year in 2007. In terms of the numbers — guests, revenue, meals served. etc. — we had a very good year. Based on projections made in early third quarter, we expect to host approximately 36,000 guests by year’s end; some stay several days,
Reports to Convention

others come for meetings and same day events. We expect to welcome about 80 new groups to our growing family of regulars and our kitchen staff is on track to serve over 110,000 meals. Revenue at year-end should be at or near $2 million. This will allow us to pay all of our operating expenses out of guest revenue.

While most indicators were positive, we did experience a significant loss in 2007. Camp Edgar, which has booked the entire youth area for six weeks for the past four summers, unexpectedly canceled its 2007 reservation due to financial problems with its parent organization. It was also unable to pay the balance owed for its 2006 camp, because of the short notice and the long lead-time needed to fill the vacancy, we were unable to book a large part of the youth area, which resulted in a significant loss of summer income. While we were able to meet all of our operating expenses through guest revenue, we were not able to fund our reserve maintenance account.

The situation also limited our ability to provide financial assistance to individuals and groups who would otherwise be unable to afford to come to DaySpring.

On a more positive note, gifts, donations and in kind contributions allowed us to rebuild our 60-foot tall high ropes climbing tower and begin construction of an outdoor stone labyrinth adjacent to St. Thomas Chapel. The Episcopal Church Women of the diocese raised funds for the labyrinth project.

DaySpring sponsored its first diocesan-wide vestry retreat in early March. The diocese contributed $5,000 to help underwrite the cost and the Episcopal Church provided speakers from the Office of Congregational Development. DaySpring contributed the equivalent of $20,000 so there would be no cost to attendees. All congregations were invited and 43 took advantage of the offer. A total of 340 vestry members and clergy attended the two-day event. The retreat was so successful, that planning is underway for a second diocesan-wide vestry retreat on Feb. 29 to March 1, 2008.

Success is measured in less tangible ways. In 2007, DaySpring hosted “Camp Able” its first retreat for handicapped young people. It also hosted “Kamp For Kids” a camp for children of prison inmates. DaySpring welcomes ministries of all kinds and persons of all faith traditions as well as not-for-profit organizations and education groups. We believe DaySpring provides a loving and nurturing environment where people of all ages, races and creeds can experience the love of God. This is how we fulfill our calling to the ministry of hospitality, which is our ultimate indicator of success.
Deacon’s Council
Convener: The Ven. Lucien A. Watkins
Co-Convener: Deacon Denise C. Healy
Deacon Members: Barbara Carmine, Denise Healy, Sandra Jamieson, Rick Leanillo, Fran McKinney, Bob Millott, Melissa Sands, Marcia Tremmel. Recently retired: Jack O'Reilly

Bishop John Lipscomb established the Deacon’s Council in this diocese at his first meeting with the community of deacons. In the past year, the Deacon’s Council has assisted with the planning and execution of two meetings with the Bishop for all the deacons. All active deacons must attend at least one meeting with the Bishop each year. In addition, members of the council have encouraged all deacons to become involved promoting the U.N.’s Millennium Development Goals (MDG).

Articles written by deacons about each of the goals have and will continue to appear in The Southern Cross until all eight goals have been addressed. The Deacon’s Council seeks to improve communication within the Community of Deacons as well as providing opportunities for growth. In the future, look for a new link to deacons’ doings on the diocesan website.

Deacons are engaged in a variety of outreach ministries and have a wealth of knowledge. The Council encourages you to talk to the deacons of this diocese.

Diocesan Council Actions 2007
(All resolutions listed below were approved, unless otherwise indicated)

Meeting #309 - January 20, 2007
• Resolution 309-1.
  Mrs. Stark moved, Mrs. Kline seconded, to approve the minutes of the November 30, 2006, meeting as written.

• Resolution 309-2.
  Mrs. Robe moved, Mrs. Kline seconded, to reserve the date of Saturday, October 20, 2007, with the Venice Community Center being the first venue to consider and St. Mary’s, Tampa, the second venue to consider.

• Resolution 309-3.
  An adjustment be made to the 2007 Diocesan budget of $5,500 ($6,000 per year annualized) to establish an automobile allowance for the Bishop Coadjutor.

• Resolution 309-4.
  Mr. Getz moved, Mrs. Kline seconded the 2007 Apportionment Proposal as follows: The action taken by Diocesan Convention, which reduced that portion of the diocesan budget for 2007, which represents funding of the National Church asking from approximately 24% of the operating income of the Diocese of Southwest Florida to 10% of that income, or a tithe, does not affect the obligation of any congregation to fund their diocesan apportionment in full.
Reports to Convention

The congregations and people of this Diocese may, as a matter of conscience, request:

- that the percentage of their apportionment, that would otherwise represent funds paid by the Diocese to the Episcopal Church as a part of the National Church asking, be paid by the Diocese to support the Dominican Development Group,
- or
- that the percentage of their apportionment, that would otherwise have been paid by the Diocese to the Episcopal Church, prior to the action of the Diocesan Convention, be paid to the Episcopal Church. The diocesan Chief Financial Officer shall implement the intention of the resolution and report to the Diocesan Council the responses received from the congregations and people. The diocesan staff shall prepare and distribute such forms as may be required to allow the people and congregations to understand, act upon, and communicate their wishes concerning either of these options. Neither action offered above shall be considered to be a basis for a determination of arrearages in payment of diocesan apportionments. It passed with one negative response.

Meeting #310 -March 17, 2007
- Resolution 310-1.
  Mr. Getz moved, Mrs. Stark seconded, to approve the minutes of the January 20, 2007, meeting with the following correction under Report from Consecration Transition Committee:… Mrs. Joan Kline was not part of hospitality, but was in charge of transportation.

This will begin with the next payment.

- Resolution 313-8.
  The committee recommended to Council approval of St. Peter’s Cathedral request to obtain a loan from Synovus Bank providing that the loan does not include the Sanctuary and Memorial Gardens.

Episcopal Church Women

Note: This report was inadvertently omitted from the convention book.

From among the 78 congregations in the Diocese of Southwest Florida, the Episcopal Church Women are actively engaged in varying aspects of mission work around the world.

Not every congregation has an ECW branch; however, we all know that every woman is an Episcopal Churchwoman and their hearts have been touched and led by the power of the Holy Spirit to reach out and in love connect with their sisters and brothers in Christ in the continental United States and around the globe.

“Mission” work can be defined in different ways. There is the missionary who may or may not be ordained. He or she has had a “calling” to give up or leave behind the comforts of home, family and jobs to answer that call and work in a foreign environment in the name of Jesus Christ. There is the layperson who finds they have a “real heart” for mission and works within the structure of the church to do all they can to assist these individuals in the mission field either physically or monetarily.
In Southwest Florida we have women who fall into both of these categories, and the passion for this work has become contagious. One woman from our cathedral, Karen Carroll, has had the “call” and gave up everything and is now actively pursuing the life of a missionary.

Our diocese has a companion relationship with the Dominican Republic. We are blessed to have Dr. Robert Stevens, the executive director of the Dominican Development Group based at DaySpring, our diocesan camp and conference center.

Through his encouragement we have been educated and involved in the Dominican Republic. We have and continue to send exploratory teams to visit, which produces the taste to become more involved on a higher scale. Whetting this appetite to go back has produced many an individual to become part of a work team.

Our work teams have built schools and churches; we’ve dug latrines and carved pews. We’ve painted buildings, laid floors and concrete, and helped with roofing. Our women have interested contractors to go and do electrical work and aid us in obtaining supplies and directing many phases of the work. Obviously that’s the physical aspect. Medical teams of doctors, nurses and laity have inoculated, examined and furnished supplies in many poor areas.

We have touched the hearts of a family foundation that donated the funds to build and equip a dormitory that will accommodate 24 persons at their camp and conference center. Playground equipment has been donated to a school. We take very seriously the responsibility to raise 400 scholarships for the school children each year. The ECW has paid for the medication of an HIV/AIDS child for over seven years who was never expected to live and is now maturing into a lovely young woman. One ECW group visiting there brought 100 Bibles that were distributed to local churches. Another ECW member was so inspired and impressed by a young man entering seminary she assisted with his tuition and financial obligations.

Throughout the diocese other individual parishes have continued relationships with congregations in Honduras and Haiti; providing the same kind of work teams that go to the Dominican Republic.

When the horrific hurricanes Katrina and Rita hit our sisters in Province 1V, we sent funds to help, but more importantly we lifted them up in prayer asking God to envelope them with His love, mercy and protection.

“Mission” work can be defined in different ways. There is the missionary who may or may not be ordained. He or she has had a “calling” to give up or leave behind the comforts of home, family and jobs to answer that call and work in a foreign environment in the name of Jesus Christ. Reports to Convention

Work has begun and will continue in the Diocese of South Rwenzori in the Province of Uganda. Education scholarships were provided for 22 girls at the Bishop Mazareka Orphanage and shoes for them have also been provided. Our ECW spiritual director, Pastor Sharon Lewis, was invited by Bishop Jackson to hold a Healing Conference in Rwenzori. Fr. Philbert Kalisa invited her healing team to Rwanda and the Language Institute in Costa Rico extended the same invitation to her.

Episcopal Men’s Ministries

In celebration of the 10th anniversary of Episcopal Men’s Ministries in the Diocese of Southwest Florida, Bishop John Lipscomb announces the establishment of the National Center for Episcopal Men’s Ministries and A Journey in Disciple Making.

In making this announcement, Bishop Lipscomb stated: “With 10 years of productive and dynamic ministry experience in Southwest Florida, the National Center will serve as a vital resource to all Episcopal dioceses and congregations passionate about drawing men back to our Episcopal churches.” A Journey in Disciple Making is the new leadership initiative of Episcopal Men’s Ministries to equip and transform Christian men of all denominations and fellowships in preparing to disciple 100,000 new men of faith in Southwest Florida from 2007–2017.

From its initial formation as a men’s ministry task force and prayer group, Bishop Lipscomb, EMM Director Jay Crouse and a team of deanery representatives from around the diocese have guided Episcopal Men’s Ministries in developing and sustaining ministries to men in most of the 78 congregations of the diocese, producing a guidebook for planting a congregational ministry to men, and implementing an annual DaySpring retreat for diocesan men entitled Building God’s Kingdom Man to Man.

In 2004, responding to Bishop Lipscomb’s vision of revival in Southwest Florida and God’s calling 1,000 men to a new relationship with Jesus Christ, Episcopal Men’s Ministries spearheaded an ecumenical program for Christian men of all denominations and fellowships in Southwest Florida inspired by Luke 10:1 and entitled “Equipping The 70 Seminars.” Guided by an ecumenical leadership team, the training initiative consisted of three equipping seminars, presented by nationally recognized men’s ministry teachers, where participants were taught further about discipling, sharing their faith and defending their faith.

On May 20, 2006, 52 Episcopal men joined 24 men from 13 other denominations and fellowships as graduates of the program, and were “sent out” two-by-two to serve their churches and communities as disciples to new men of faith. Under the leadership of the ecumenical team, a new series of Equipping the 70

Seminars will begin in the fall of 2007. A Journey in Disciple Making is a culmination of 10 years of men’s ministry experience. The initiative offers a variety of programming opportunities, prayer groups, bible and small group studies, and other events for spiritual growth and personal development, in order to draw men and their families into the life of a church, and provide a proven path to an authentic and fulfilling Christian manhood. We seek to promote the development of intentional congregational ministries to men in Episcopal and other Christian churches and fellowships in Southwest Florida, with the vision of preparing our Christian men to disciple 100,000 new men of faith who will be raised up over the next 10 years.

In preparation for the Sept. 7-8, 2007 men’s conference, “A Journey in Disciple Making” at DaySpring, Jay Crouse, Director of Episcopal Men’s Ministries and A Journey in Disciple Making, joined by Bishops John Lipscomb and Dabney Smith, spoke to more than 250 diocesan men at three recent deanery dinners.

The men’s dinners were hosted by Fr. Philip Read and St. Luke’s in the Fort Myers Deanery, Pastor Sharon Lewis and Church of the Holy Spirit for the Manasota Deanery, and Fr. Dennis Kezar and St. Mary’s in the Tampa Deanery.

Our bishops spoke of the importance of ministry to men in the church, followed by Jay’s talk and presentation covering the history of the diocesan men’s ministry over the last ten years, current membership statistics for our church, and the terrific opportunity we have for “Welcoming Men Back to the Episcopal Church.” Citing the need not just to challenge men to become the disciples God has called them to be, but to offer ongoing opportunities to become trained and equipped to disciple new men of faith and seek to transform their families, churches, and communities, Jay engaged and encouraged the men, and introduced the September 2007 men’s conference “A Journey in Disciple Making.” This conference will call together Christian men from Southwest Florida to hear a common vision for discipling new men of faith and learn more about comprehensive, church-based disciple-making ministries to men in our churches.

Contact Jay Crouse at jaycrouse@aol.com, or (941) 957-1271, for information about men’s ministry and A Journey in Disciple Making.

Episcopal Relief and Development

ERD provides emergency assistance in times of disaster; rebuilds devastated communities and offers long-term program development solutions to fight poverty. ERD’s mandate is found in Matthew 25: 37-40.

ERD is the Relief and Development agency of the Episcopal Church. With the support that the National Episcopal Church offers ERD, it makes sense for individual... parishes and persons to sponsor ERD over other relief and development organizations. The contributions of the National Church mean that 92 cents from each dollar that we receive goes directly towards our programs. This ratio is phenomenal as most other organizations send on average about 75 percent of their gifts overseas. The in-kind contributions of the Episcopal Church make this possible. In a sense, the national sponsorship is akin to a matching contribution from an employer. As such, it is best to encourage Episcopalians to achieve the Millennium Development Goals through ERD and its mission and not other non-Episcopalian agencies.

What are the Millennium Development Goals? How are the MDGs connected to the Episcopal Church and ERD? At the start of the new millennium, leaders from 191 nations, including the United States, agreed on a plan to cut extreme global poverty in half by 2015. Together, they created the eight Millennium Development Goals. (See www.er-d.org)

At the 2006 General Convention, the Episcopal Church voted to make the MDGs a mission priority and endorsed a partnership with ONE: The Campaign to Make Poverty History. All of Episcopal and Relief and Development’s international programs address the MDGs.

Congregations can choose a variety of ways to support the work of Episcopal Relief and Development. Direct, unrestricted donations, will always be of importance, as they allow the board of director’s immediate access to funds so they can grant money in emergency relief situations, as well as for development needs. Other means include donating funds designated to a particular area of need, selecting from the Gifts for Life catalog, or purchasing Bishops Blend Coffee, a fair-traded, shade-grown product provided by Pura Vida, a nonprofit company.)

The annual ERD Network meeting for diocesan and seminarian coordinators was held in New Orleans, May 17–20, 2007. Site visits as well as plenary sessions provided attendees with a clear focus of how the non-government agencies, and ERD in particular, are the driving force getting things done where government is slow or unable to help.

Diocesan coordinators Maureen Belote (north of the bridge) and Jody Tiffany (south) are available to help any congregation fulfill its mandate to spend at least one Sunday per year focusing on the work of ERD. Both would like the opportunity to visit every congregation to speak at services or to groups. Every parish is urged to have an active representative to disseminate information about this important ministry.

"Live in the Spirit"  The 39th Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida  97
Evangelism Committee

The evangelism committee has always had as its focus sharing the love Jesus Christ with others. Our members are comprised of persons active in the ministries of evangelism through Alpha, Faith Alive, men’s ministry, women’s ministry, and youth.

We continue to work hard at assisting our congregations in presenting Christ through these wonderful ministries that can have a tremendous impact on parish ministry. However, the committee is also making some exciting efforts to reach beyond our walls by sponsoring special events that will represent our diocese and parishes as a whole in introducing the Gospel.

Major youth event planned: A major event that takes place every year in Ridgecrest, N.C., is a youth event known as “YouthQuake.” Sponsored by Acts29Ministries this nonstop high-energy weekend that begins on Friday night and continues through Sunday morning attracts about 1,500 to 2,000 youth from around the country. The evangelism committee is working through a subcommittee to bring a regional YouthQuake to the Diocese of Southwest Florida. This event will be held in November 2008 and will attract up to 500 youth from around the diocese. Along with national youth leaders, live music, and solid teaching we hope that our youth will be equipped to be effective witnesses for Christ.

A faith-sharing event: Whereas not all of us are called to be evangelists, all of us are called to be witnesses. All of us should be open to share our story as the Holy Spirit opens the door for us. The problem for many is…how do we do that? As of this writing (July 2007) another event we are working on is to introduce not just another program but more of a method in how we introduce ourselves in the community as Christians who are called to share our faith.

Bill Hybels and Mark Mittelberg have introduced this method in a book called Becoming a Contagious Christian. We will be sponsoring special national acclaimed speakers to introduce this method and hope to have Mark Mittelberg with us in early 2008. These diocesan sponsored events will be open to the public in a hope that we can reach outside our denominational walls in sharing the Gospel.

Preaching missions: We will sponsor another preaching mission throughout the diocese in 2008. God is doing a wonderful thing around the world. It is exciting and encouraging to hear how God is moving in the hearts of people in other places. And the church is actually growing at phenomenal rates. Despite the many issues that continue that seem to distract our focus at times…the central mission of our faith continues to grow. Through the testimony of bishops from Africa we will bring sponsor to this mission that will bring the Good News from around the globe.
The evangelism committee is excited about the focus we are taking. It is a focus grounded in the great commission through our continued efforts of tried and true programming and by our special events that we will offer to you. We hope that you are blessed by it. I want to thank the Evangelism Committee of Jay Crouse, director of Men’s Ministry; Ms. Jackie Robe, women’s ministry; Dr. Jerry Steege and Mr. Bob Anderson, Faith Alive; Ms. Candice Stott, youth; and Mr. Art Tavenor, Alpha for all their hard work and dedication to this ministry.

—The Rev. Charles H. Mann, chair

Recovery Ministries

Our Committee on Recovery adheres to a four-fold purpose not unlike that of other organizations. Recovery Ministries of the Episcopal Church USA:
  1. to help the addicted and their loved ones find lasting recovery
  2. by welcoming all 12-step programs:
     a. Alcoholics Anonymous
     b. Al-Anon
     c. Narcotics Anonymous
     d. Emotions Anonymous
     e. Overeaters Anonymous
  3. to raise the awareness of bishops, clergy and church leadership.
  4. to strengthen congregations in their work with various programs

However, by far our most important role as we see it is to raise awareness about addictive disease and urge all congregations to observe “Recovery Sundays” each of our members stands ready to assist in these tasks.

Our committee offers four spiritual retreats a year; three at DaySpring and one beach retreat in June. At each retreat, three of the 12 steps of suggested recovery are explored; the Eucharist is celebrated, we have sunset and sunrise meditations. This past year we have had more than 300 people attend our retreats.

Standing Committee

At the 2006 annual convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida held at the Venice Community Center, the following persons were elected to the Standing Committee: The Rev. Canon Georgene Conner, Mr. Wayne Farrell and The Rev. Douglas Zimmerman. The members listed below submit this report of their canonically required work since the 2006 convention. Pursuant to canon, the vast majority of the work of the Standing Committee is required to be confidential and is therefore not reported.
On Dec. 11, 2006, the newly constituted Standing Committee elected Mrs. Karen O. Patterson as President, The Rev. Cesar Olivero as Vice President and Mr. Wayne Farrell as Secretary. These elections are reflected in the roster above.

Many of the actions taken throughout the course of the year were taken pursuant to canon and they are listed in the paragraphs that follow.

- Recommended that Diocesan Convention be moved to October 20, 2007, and to recommend said date to Diocesan Council.
- Concurred with the pastoral response to the apportionment Plan regarding funds to the national church and to the Dominican Republic through the year 2007 without this reflecting negatively on the parish assessment.
- The Rev. Cesar Olivero was elected to serve as the Standing Committee representative to the Commission on Ministry.
- Interviewed and approved the following for ordination to the transitional diaconate: Jon Roberts and Charles “Chip” Connelly.
- Gave consent to hold an election to the following dioceses: Alabama, Connecticut, Maine, Newark and Tennessee.
- Gave consent to the elections held in the following dioceses: Hawaii, Northwestern Pennsylvania, Oklahoma, Olympia, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia.
- Gave consent for the ordination and transfer of the Rev. Carol Jablonski to the Diocese of North Carolina having been a deacon less than one year.
- Interviewed two candidates for reception into the Episcopal Church: William de la Torre and Mario Castro. Referred to the Commission on Ministry.

Women’s Ministries

On Saturday, Feb. 10, 2007, the second “Believe In A Miracle” revival took place in Venice with over 868 women in attendance. Believe In A Miracle began as a dream of Bishop John Lipscomb in 2005. He asked that an evangelism program be founded to involve all women in the diocese. The first miracle day was held at the DaySpring Conference Center in February 2006, with over 550 people in attendance.

That year, the focus of the day was “Come and See, Go and Tell.” In 2007, the focus of the day was on “Renewal of Baptismal Vows.”

On Saturday, Feb. 9, 2008, the focus will be on “Spiritual Renewal.” Keynote speaker will be The Rt. Rev. Nedi Rivera, suffragan bishop of the Diocese of Olympia. Bishop Rivera is an esteemed speaker and has a fervent passion for the church and its people. The keynote musician will be Elisabeth von Trapp, granddaughter of Maria von Trapp of the “Sound of Music.” Elisabeth is an amazing and dedicated musician who will bring much joy to the day, which will again be held at the Venice Community Center in Venice, Fla. A newsletter giving event details will be mailed in the fall to all previous attendees and to all churches in the diocese. Registration will begin in late October and close in early November. “Believe In A Miracle” is a day of awe and wonder for all women in the diocese and those they are inviting to know our Lord.

Independent Auditor's Report

The Diocesan Council
Diocese of Southwest Florida, Inc.

We have audited the accompanying combined statement of financial position of the Diocese of Southwest Florida, Inc. (the “Diocese”) as of December 31, 2006, and the related combined statements of activities and cash flows for the year then ended. These combined financial statements are the responsibility of the Diocese’s management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with U.S. generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

The Diocese has excluded in the accompanying statement of financial position, an accrual for postretirement benefits, that in our opinion, should be accrued in order to conform with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. The Diocese no longer records a liability for postretirement benefits but records related expenses on the cash basis of accounting. If the Diocese had followed the provisions of SFAS 106, they would have recognized an accrual for postretirement benefits.

In our opinion, except as described in the preceding paragraph, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the combined financial position of the Diocese of Southwest Florida, Inc. as of December 31, 2006, and the combined changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the year then ended in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

The summarized information for 2005, which is included for comparative purposes only, is not intended to constitute an adequate presentation of the Diocese’s changes in net assets, cash flows and its financial position.

Our audit was made for the purpose of forming an opinion on the combined financial statements taken as a whole. The supplementary information contained on pages 12, 13 and 14 is presented for purposes of additional analysis and is not a required part of the combined financial statements. Such information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the combined financial statements and, in our opinion, is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the combined financial statements taken as a whole.

NOTE A – DESCRIPTION OF ORGANIZATIONS

The Diocese of Southwest Florida, Inc. (the “Diocese”) is a not-for-profit corporation existing under the laws of the State of Florida. It is one of 108 dioceses of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the U.S.A (100 domestic and 8 overseas). As such, the Diocese is subject to the Constitution and Canons of the National Church, and to the acts of the General Convention, which is held every three years.

The Diocese of Southwest Florida, Inc. was formed in 1969 as a result of the division of the then Diocese of South Florida. The Diocese is comprised of twelve counties stretching along the west coast of Florida from Hernando County in the north to Collier County in the south. The Diocese of Southwest Florida, Inc. is divided geographically into seven deaneries: Tampa, Clearwater, St. Petersburg, Manasota, Venice, Fort Myers and Naples.

The combined financial statements include the accounts of the administrative offices of the Diocese which are fiscally responsible to the Bishop of the Diocese of Southwest Florida, and also include the accounts of the Dayspring Episcopal Conference Center, Diocese of Southwest Florida, Inc.

Various churches, missions and other religious organizations which operate within the Diocese, but which are primarily responsible to their own governing boards, have not been included in the accompanying combined financial statements.

NOTE B – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND PRACTICES

Basis of Accounting - These financial statements, which are presented on the accrual basis of accounting, have been prepared to focus on the Diocese as a whole and to present balances and transactions according to the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions. Net assets and revenue, expenses, gains and losses are classified as follows:

Unrestricted net assets – Net assets not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Temporarily restricted net assets – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met by actions of the Diocese and/or the passage of time.

Permanently restricted net assets – Net assets subject to donor-imposed stipulations that the assets be maintained permanently by the Diocese. Generally, the donors of these assets permit the Diocese to use all or part of the income earned on related investments for general or specific purposes.

Revenues are reported as increases in unrestricted net assets unless use of the related assets is limited by donor-imposed restrictions. Expenses are reported as decreases in unrestricted net assets. Gains and losses on investments and other assets or liabilities are reported as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets unless their use is restricted by explicit donor stipulation or by law. Expirations of temporary restrictions on net assets (i.e., the donor-stipulated purpose has been fulfilled and/or the stipulated time period has elapsed) are reported as reclassifications between the applicable classes of net assets. Contributions received with donor-imposed restrictions that are met in the same year as received are generally reported as revenue of the unrestricted net asset class.
Contributions, including unconditional promises to give (pledges), are recognized as revenue in the period received. Conditional promises to give are not recognized until they become unconditional, that is when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met. Contributions of assets other than cash are recorded at their estimated fair value. An allowance for uncollectible pledges is provided based upon management’s judgment, including such factors as prior collection history, type of contribution, and individual congregation situation.

Liquidity - Assets are presented in the accompanying statement of financial position according to their nearness of conversion to cash and liabilities according to the nearness of their maturity and resulting use of cash.

Cash Equivalents - Cash equivalents represent short-term investments with original maturities of three months or less at date of purchase.

Investments - Investments are carried at fair value based on quoted market prices.

Beneficial Interest in Trust - The Diocese has a beneficial interest in a perpetual trust, the assets of which are administered by a third party. The Diocese receives distributions of income from the trust and their interest in the trust has been recorded at the fair value of the trust assets. The income received from the trust is restricted for the use of home or maintenance for the elderly and support of missions.

Land, Buildings, and Equipment - Land, buildings, and equipment are stated at cost if purchased, or at estimated fair value at the date of gift if donated. Depreciation on buildings and equipment is calculated using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets.

Diocesan Apportionments - The Diocese’s principal source of revenue consists of apportionments received from congregations located within the Diocese. The apportionment is based upon 10 percent of the congregations’ total operating revenue for the fiscal year ended two years prior. The Diocese also has an annual obligation to the National Church that is based upon 21 percent of the operating income from the fiscal year ended two years prior less a $100,000 exemption.

Conference Center Operations – The Dayspring Episcopal Conference Center, a ministry of the Diocese of Southwest Florida, provides room and board accommodations for various groups and ministries. Advance deposits are recorded as liabilities until the events occur, at which time the amounts are transferred to revenue.

Income Taxes - The Diocese has received a tax determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service which provides that the Diocese is a corporation which meets the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Therefore, no provision for income taxes has been made.

Use of Estimates - Management of the Diocese has made a number of estimates and assumptions relating to the reporting of assets and liabilities and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities to prepare these financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Actual results could differ from those estimates.
NOTE B – SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND PRACTICES (Continued)

Summarized Financial Information for the Year Ended December 31, 2005 – The financial statements include certain prior-year summarized information in total, but not by net asset class. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the Diocese’s financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2005 from which the summarized information was derived.

NOTE C - INVESTMENTS

At December 31, 2006, the Diocese held investments with a fair value of $6,616,531. The composition of these investments was as follows:

NOTE J – PENSION PLAN

The Clergy and the lay employees of the Diocese are participants in separate pension plans. The Clergy are covered by the Church Pension Fund and the lay employees are covered by a defined contribution plan administered by ING Life Insurance Company. The plan covering lay employees calls for annual contributions by the Diocese, based on a percent of aggregate employee compensation. Total pension expense for the year ended December 31, 2006 was $56,166 and $31,589 for the Clergy and the lay employees, respectively. The Church Pension Fund is a defined benefit plan; however, it is part of a National Plan and additional information with respect to the Diocese of Southwest Florida, Inc. is not available as the plan is evaluated on an aggregate basis.

The Dayspring Episcopal Conference Center employees also participate in a separate pension plan through the Church Pension Fund. Total expense for the year ended December 31, 2006 was $47,222.

NOTE K – POSTRETIREMENT BENEFITS

Under a plan adopted January 1, 1999, the Diocese provides certain health care and life insurance benefits for clergy and lay retirees. Eligibility for those benefits occurs upon the attainment of age 65 and a minimum of ten years of service while working for the Diocese. Payment of benefits is limited to $55 per person per month. Total postretirement benefit expense for the year ended December 31, 2006, on the cash basis of accounting, was $104,232.
NOTE L – CONFERENCE CENTER ELIMINATIONS AND RELATED ACTIVITY

The combined financial statements of the Diocese include related conference center balances and activities. For this reason, elimination of related party receivables and payables, along with corresponding revenues and expenses are necessary at year end. At December 31, 2006, eliminating entries were made to properly account for the $1,621,539 investment in Dayspring and $67,651 payable to the Diocese by the conference center, $100,000 of Diocesan support received in 2006 by the conference center and $48,041 of interest paid to the Diocese. In addition, conference center depreciation of $224,627 is included within the combined statement of activities.

NOTE M – CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

Cash and other deposits are federally insured by the FDIC up to $100,000. Cash balances in excess of that amount are potentially subject to concentrations of credit risk. At December 31, 2006, the Diocese exceeded the federally insured limit by approximately $930,000. However, $855,226 of this amount was in a collateralized sweep account. It is the opinion of management that the solvency of the referenced financial institutions are not of particular concern at this time.

NOTE N - CONTINGENCIES

Loans Payable - The Diocese is contingently liable on various loans payable to banks for real property owned by the individual parishes and missions of the Diocese. However, the Diocese would gain possession of the real property if it became obligated to pay pursuant to such guarantee.

NOTE O – LEASE COMMITMENTS

On November 22, 2004, the Dayspring Episcopal Conference Center entered into a lease agreement for five golf carts. Under the terms of the lease, a payment of $950 is due monthly throughout the term of the lease. The lease expires November 22, 2007.

On September 24, 2004 the Dayspring Episcopal Conference Center entered into a lease agreement for a copy machine. Under the terms of the lease, a base payment of $575 is due monthly. The term of the lease is for 60 months.

NOTE P – CONFERENCE CENTER ALLOWANCE FOR DOUBTFUL ACCOUNT

During 2006, an event was held at the Dayspring Episcopal Conference Center by an outside non-profit organization. The net amount due from this event as of December 31, 2006 was $61,458. However, the full amount owed to Dayspring is not anticipated to be collected. As a result, an allowance for doubtful account totaling $30,729 was established to properly reserve for any amounts estimated to be uncollectible.

TOTAL CONFERENCE CENTER EXPENSES $1,946,666

See accompanying notes to combined financial statements & auditor's report.
Proposed 2008 Budget

The following is the proposed preliminary budget for 2008 for the Diocese of Southwest Florida. Also included are budgets for the designated and restricted funds. The major assumptions and highlights of the proposed budget are summarized in this memorandum:

Apportionment revenues

For 2008, apportionment revenues are budgeted to increase by 1.75 percent or $50,164, from the 2007 adjusted budgeted amount of $2,851,847 to $2,902,011. The 2008 budgeted apportionment revenues are derived from the 2006 parochial reports filed by the congregations. The operating revenues of each congregation are multiplied by the 10 per cent tithe rate to develop the budget amount. Note that capital campaign proceeds are subject to the tithe effective for all those campaigns begun after Jan. 1, 2003, as passed at the 1999 convention. Those proceeds will be recorded as capital tithe revenues as well as expense in the operating fund when those proceeds are transferred to a separate account in the designated fund so that they will not have a profit or loss effect on the operating fund. Capital tithe revenue is budgeted to decrease by $5,000 from the $50,000 budgeted in 2007 to $45,000 in 2008.

Uncollectible apportionments

Uncollectible apportionments for 2008 are budgeted to increase by 1 percent, from $108,000 to $110,000. The main component of the increase is due to the fact that the net apportionment receivables have increased from $58,639 at December 31, 2006 to $109,121 at July 31, 2007.

Investment income

Investment income in the operating fund is budgeted to decrease from $133,337 in the 2007 budget to $125,110 for 2008. The investment income amount includes reimbursement from DaySpring for interest on the DaySpring debt, which was retired when we refinanced our debt in January 2002 and also interest on the VBS loan scheduled to be repaid in 2008. Also included is $26,000 from the Leach Trust, $6,000 from the Grace Church mortgage and $19,400 interest on excess Diocesan funds and $26,000 from the Episcopal Church Foundation investments.

Transfers from restricted funds

A separate schedule is included in your package to support the transfers from restricted funds, which is budgeted to increase from $70,182 in 2007 to $85,450 in 2008.

Miscellaneous income

Miscellaneous income is budgeted to decrease from $142,800 budgeted in 2007 to $108,600 in 2008. The primary cause of the increased amount is that youth program revenues are budgeted to decrease from $102,000 in 2007 to $73,800 in 2008. Also the Bishop’s Formation program is budgeting $6,000 of revenue for 2008.

Operating expenses

The details of the operating expense budget are included in the following narrative. Note that a salary adjustment of 4 percent across the board is included. Total operating expenses in the operating fund are budgeted to increase from $3,114,799 in the revised 2007 budget to $3,141,166 in 2008.

Episcopacy

Episcopacy costs are budgeted to decrease from $601,921 adjusted budget in 2007 to $403,326 in 2008 including approximately $55,000 of costs for Bishop Lipscomb’s separation package as the bishop will be retired in 2008.

Assistant bishop and regional pastors

An assistant bishop is budgeted for $58,000 in 2008 and the regional pastor costs are budgeted to increase from the 2007 revised budget amount of $39,904 to $41,200 in 2008. It is planned that the assistant bishop will assist in this area as time permits.
Health insurance retired clergy

Health insurance retired clergy costs are budgeted to increase from $128,250 in 2007 to $141,075 in 2008 reflecting an expected increase in the number of retired clergy and spouses eligible for this benefit.

Youth and college ministries

Youth and college ministries are budgeted to decrease from $306,623 in 2007 to $297,603 in 2008. New cost center accounts have been established as requested by Deacon Tate. Professional expenses for the Director of Youth Ministries are budgeted to remain constant at $3,000 in 2008 the same amount budgeted in 2007. On the revenue side youth program revenues are budgeted to decrease from the $102,000 budgeted in 2007 to $73,800 in 2008.

Church growth and development

Church growth and development costs are budgeted to decrease from $294,583 to $274,084 for 2008. Included in the 2008 budget is the final year grant of $13,334 to St. Monica’s youth program which will complete the $100,000 grant from the diocese.

New mission work

The diocese will continue funding $200,000 in 2008 as it has since 2003.

Ministry and spiritual development

Ministry and spiritual development costs are budgeted to increase from $248,378 in 2007 to $278,200 in 2008 including $30,000 funding for the Haitian Ministry and $70,000 of funding for a chaplain at the University of South Florida.

Program and administration

Program and administration costs are budgeted to decrease from $768,986 in 2007 to $766,117 in 2008. Included in the 2008 budget is $8,000 of sabbatical expenses for the CFO after six-plus years of service as an executive staff member. Although originally budgeted for 2007, the sabbatical was pushed back to 2008 so that the CFO would be available to the new bishop during his first year of service.

Following the Bishop’s 2003 convention speech noting that “we must allow DaySpring to become independent of the diocesan operational budget,” the DaySpring support has been reduced from $30,000 in the 2007 budget to $0 in 2008 although the diocese has been making the principle payments on two mortgages for DaySpring all year and will continue making those payments.

Interest expense for the diocese will remain somewhat constant at $26,318 for 2008 compared to $26,547 in 2007. The cost of the two DaySpring mortgages refinanced by the diocese and the interest on the $360,000 to fund deposits at DaySpring are allocated back to DaySpring. Also the 2006 budget includes $2,000 for disaster preparedness travel in 2008.

Outreach ministries

Outreach ministries expenses are budgeted to increase from the $22,000 budgeted in 2007 to $120,299 in 2008. A canon for ministries and outreach is being added as a new position in the 2008 budget. Support of the wider church Support of the wider church is budgeted to increase from $616,463 in 2007 to $678,382 in 2008. The major change is an increase of approximately $61,000 in the Episcopal Church Asking line item.

Other expenses

Other expenses include payments of $6,000 for the St. Bartholomew’s cemetery maintenance and $45,000 of costs for transferring capital tithe gifts to the Designated Fund. This category of costs did not significantly from 2007.

Diocesan discretionary fund

The Diocesan Discretionary Fund is budgeted at $18,000 for 2008 and represents expenditures authorized by the bishop and is equal to the 2006 budgeted amount.

Operating results
Operating results are budgeted to decrease in 2008 from the revised 2007 budgeted profit of $25,367 to $15,004 in the operating fund. We shall monitor operating results closely throughout the year and continue searching for opportunities to improve financial performance.

The designated fund excess of revenues over expenses increases from $105,456 budgeted in 2007 to $168,120 in the 2008 budget while the restricted fund excess of revenues over expenses is budgeted to increase from $97,375 in the 2007 budget to $116,500 in the 2008 budget.

As adopted in Conventions through 2002
PREAMBLE

The Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, otherwise known as The Episcopal Church, within the area hereafter described does hereby adopt this Constitution as and for its Articles of Incorporation of a corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida. The corporation shall be known as a “Diocese” in accordance with the Constitution and Canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

ARTICLE I
Of Acceding to the General Convention

The Diocese acknowledges its allegiance to be due to the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church and recognizing the body known as The Episcopal Church in the United States of America to be a true branch of said Church, having a rightful spiritual jurisdiction in this country, hereby declares its adhesion to the same and accedes to its Constitutions and Canons.

ARTICLE II
Of the Name and Boundaries of the Diocese

The name of the Diocese shall be Diocese of Southwest Florida, Incorporated.

The boundaries of the Diocese shall include all that part of the State of Florida lying in the Counties of Hernando, Pasco, Hillsborough, Pinellas, Manatee, Sarasota, Charlotte, DeSoto, Lee, Collier, Glades, and that portion of Hendry County lying west of the center line of Range 32 East of the Prime meridian at Tallahassee, Florida, as the same existed under the laws of Florida on October 15, 1969.

ARTICLE III
Of the Annual Diocesan Convention

The members of the Diocese shall be all congregations in union with the Episcopal Church in the above-described area and shall be represented solely by the delegates to the Annual Convention of the Diocese.

The Convention of the Church of this Diocese shall assemble annually at such time and place as shall have been appointed by the preceding Annual Convention; but, for sufficient cause, the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese shall have power to change the time or place, or both, as emergency may require; provided, however, that at least ten days’ notice of such change shall be given to every Vestry and Bishop’s Committee, and to the Minister in charge of every Congregation, and to every member of the Clergy canonically resident in the Diocese.

1

"Live in the Spirit" The 39th Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida 177
ARTICLE IV
Of Special Meetings of the Convention

The Ecclesiastical Authority shall have power to call a special meeting of the Convention at such time and place as it shall determine. The notice of a special meeting of the Convention shall be issued, in writing, to every member of the Clergy and to every Vestry and Bishop’s Committee in the Diocese, at least thirty days before the time appointed for the meeting, and shall state the business for which the Convention is called, and no business shall be transacted at such special meeting beyond that which has been stated in the notice, except with the unanimous consent of the members present.

ARTICLE V
Of the Members of the Convention

Section 1. The Convention shall be composed of the Bishops, together with the other members of the Clergy, and Lay Persons of the Diocese, as provided for in the following sections of this Article.

Section 2. All members of the Clergy in regular standing in this Diocese, shall be entitled to a seat and vote in the Convention; provided, that they shall have been admitted, and at the time of the Convention shall be actually settled as Rector, or Assistant Minister of some Congregation in union with the Convention of this Diocese, or shall be a Canon, Archdeacon, Vicar, Missionary, Chaplain or Church Army Officer in charge of a congregation under the direction of the Bishop, or shall be engaged as an instructor of youth in some institution of learning under the control of the Church, within the Diocese, or shall be a Chaplain on active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States of America. All other members of the Clergy canonically resident in this Diocese shall be entitled to a seat and voice but without a vote.

Section 3. Every Parish in union with the Convention of this Diocese shall be entitled as provided by Canon to be represented by three Lay Delegates.

Section 4. Every canonically organized Mission of the Diocese shall be entitled as provided by Canon to be represented by two Lay Delegates.

Section 5. Lay Delegates shall be chosen by the Vestry or Bishop’s Committee of each Congregation in the Diocese. If the respective Vestry or Bishop’s Committee fails to act, then election shall be by such Congregation duly convened. Delegates shall be canonical electors of the Congregation which they severally represent; but no candidate for Holy Orders shall be elected as a Lay Delegate to any Convention.

ARTICLE VI
Of the Affairs of the Diocese

Section 1. All spiritual affairs of the Diocese shall be the exclusive charge of the Diocesan Bishop, who may, subject to the consent of the Diocesan Council, appoint one or more Archdeacons to assist in the administration of the affairs of the Diocese.
Section 2. The temporal work and mission of the Diocese shall be established by the Convention.

Section 3. The development and prosecution of the mission, work of the Church, ownership of property, and management of all temporal affairs of the Diocese shall be under the supervision and management of the Diocesan Council of the Diocese.

The Diocesan Council shall be composed of the Diocesan Bishop, and members of the Clergy and Laity chosen in a manner prescribed by Canon.

Coadjutor and Suffragan Bishops, the President of the Standing Committee, and the Chancellor shall be ex officio members of the Diocesan Council, without vote.

The Diocesan Council shall have power to create subordinate boards and, with the prior permission of the Convention, legal entities for the accomplishment of its responsibilities.

The Diocesan Bishop shall be the President of the Corporation, Chairman of the Diocesan Council, and Presiding Officer of any Diocesan Convention. Other officers of the Diocese shall be elected by the Council or appointed by the Bishop pursuant to Canon. A quorum shall consist of one more than one-half of the qualified voting members of the Council.

Terms of office of members of Council shall be fixed by Canon.

Section 4. Deaneries within the Diocese shall be established as provided by Canon.

Section 5. This Diocese specifically recognizes the continuation of the Trustees of the Diocese of South Florida, the Endowment Fund Corporation of South Florida; and the William Crane Gray Inn for Older People solely for the purpose of the operation of such entities and the orderly liquidation of this Diocese’s interest therein. Representation from this Diocese to such entities shall be provided by action of the Diocesan Council.

Section 6. The calendar year shall be the fiscal year of the Diocese.

Section 7. The Church Pension Fund, a corporation created by Chapter 97 of the Laws of the State of New York as subsequently amended, is accepted and acknowledged as the authorized and approved pension system for the Clergy of this Diocese and for their dependents.

ARTICLE VII
Of Divine Service at Meetings of the Convention

The direction of Divine Service during the sessions of the Convention shall rest with the Bishop alone. In the absence of the Bishops, all such services shall be in the charge of the President of the Standing Committee.

As adopted in Conventions through 2002

3
ARTICLE VIII
Of the President of the Convention

Section 1. The Bishop of the Diocese shall be Presiding Officer of the Convention, with full ecclesiastical authority. In case of the absence of the Bishop of the Diocese and in the absence of a Bishop Coadjutor and Suffragan Bishop, the President or Senior Clerical Member of the Standing Committee shall call the Convention to order, and, if a quorum be present, a presiding officer shall be chosen pro tempore, from among the Presbyters in attendance. The Bishop may appoint a Presbyter to preside any time the chair is vacant.

Section 2. The Presiding Officer shall be entitled to vote only in case of a tie.

ARTICLE IX
Of Quorum and Methods of Voting in the Convention

Section 1. One-half of the Clergy entitled to vote in the Convention and Lay Delegates from one-half of the Congregations entitled to representation, when duly assembled, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time.

Section 2. The Clergy and Laity shall deliberate in one body. Every member shall be entitled to one vote, and, except when herein otherwise expressly provided, a majority of all the votes cast shall determine any question submitted to the Convention.

Section 3. If any ten members of the Convention, representing no fewer than six Congregations, or any ten Clerical Members shall call for a vote by yeas and nays, the Secretary shall call the roll of the Convention, and the members shall thereupon announce their votes as their names are called by the Secretary. The votes so cast shall be recorded in the Journal, and no member shall be excused from voting, unless by unanimous consent.

Section 4. If any ten members of the Convention, representing no fewer than six Congregations, or any ten Clerical Members, shall demand a vote by Orders prior to the call for a vote, the vote of the Clergy and Lay Delegates shall be taken separately, and a majority of the votes of each Order shall be necessary for an affirmative decision.

ARTICLE X
Of the Secretary of the Convention

Section 1. For each Annual Convention the Bishop shall appoint a Secretary of the Convention, whose duties shall be defined by Canon.

Section 2. At any time in the interval between Annual Conventions the Diocesan Council may, for sufficient cause, of which its members shall be the judges, remove the Secretary and appoint an interim Secretary to act until the next Annual Convention.

As adopted in Conventions through 2002
ARTICLE XI
Of the Chancellor and Vice Chancellors of the Diocese

At each Annual Convention the Bishop shall appoint a Chancellor learned in law, who is a member in good standing of The Florida Bar and who shall be legal advisor of the Diocese. He or she shall be an Elector of the church in this Diocese and shall be entitled, ex officio, to a seat and voice, without vote, in the Convention. At the same time, the Bishop shall also appoint one or more Diocesan Vice Chancellors with the same qualifications as the Chancellor, who, as directed by the Bishop in the absence or inability of the Chancellor, shall perform the duties of that office, and shall perform such other duties as may be designated by the Bishop or the Chancellor. The Bishop shall also appoint a Vice Chancellor in each Deanery, with the same qualifications as the Chancellor, who shall be entitled, ex officio, to a seat in the Convention with all the privileges of membership except the right to vote, unless he or she is a Delegate to the Convention. The Deanery Vice Chancellors shall serve as legal advisors to the parishes and missions in their respective deaneries.

ARTICLE XII
Of the Registrar of the Diocese

The Bishop shall appoint a Registrar of the Diocese. It shall be the duty of the Registrar to preserve copies of the Convention Journal and all other publications and documents and records, relating to the History of the Church in this Diocese. The Registrar shall have charge of the Library and all books belonging to the Diocese and shall keep a record of these and all other historical documents presented with the name of the donor.

ARTICLE XIII
Of the Deputies to the General Convention

Section 1. At the Annual Convention in the second year preceding that of the regular meeting of the General Convention, Clerical and Lay Deputies and Clerical and Lay Alternate Deputies shall be elected to the General Convention, in the maximum number and for the term specified by the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention.

Section 2. If any Deputy elected is unable to attend the General Convention, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall be immediately notified of such inability. It shall be the duty of such authority to fill a vacancy from this, or any other cause, up to the time of the meeting of the General Convention, from the list of Alternate Deputies.

Section 3. Any vacancy in a deputation to any General Convention existing at the time of its meeting, or occurring during its session, or at any special session, may be supplied by the concurrent votes of the remaining Deputies from the list of Alternate Deputies, if practicable; if not, then from any other qualified members of the Diocese.

As adopted in Conventions through 2002

"Live in the Spirit" The 39th Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida
ARTICLE XIV
Of the Standing Committee

The Convention annually shall elect members of a Standing Committee, as provided by Canon.

ARTICLE XV
Of the Election of Officers

The Election of all officers provided for in this Constitution and Canons shall be by secret ballot, except in the event there be only one nominee for the office, and, in the event of failure or neglect to elect at any Convention, the person or persons already in office shall hold over until their successors shall have been regularly elected and qualified. A majority of votes shall be necessary to elect.

ARTICLE XVI
Of Admission to or Suspension from Membership

Provision shall be made by Canon for admission of Congregations into union with the Convention of the Diocese and for the suspension or the dissolution of the relationship with the Convention of a Congregation provided that any such suspension or dissolution shall require an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Convention.

ARTICLE XVII
Of the Forfeiture of Parochial Privileges

Any Congregation may, for causes specified by Canon, be suspended from representation in the Convention or its connection with the Convention wholly dissolved, by a vote of two-thirds of those present. A suspension aforesaid shall not absolve the Congregation from its obligations to the Convention or the Diocese.

ARTICLE XVIII
Of the Election of a Bishop

The election of a Bishop shall be made in an Annual Convention, or in a Special Convention called for that purpose. The vote, by secret ballot, of a majority of the Clergy and of the Lay Members of the Convention, voting separately and concurrently shall be necessary for the election of a Bishop.

ARTICLE XIX
Of Canons

The Convention of the Diocese shall have power to adopt appropriate Canons for the government and function of the Diocese.

As adopted in Conventions through 2002
ARTICLE XX
Of Amendments to this Constitution

This Constitution may be amended, in whole or in part, by any Annual Convention, upon two-thirds majority of the votes of both the Clerical and Lay Delegates voting separately and concurrently, provided, the proposed amendment shall have been submitted to and approved by the previous Annual Convention, upon a majority of the votes of both the Clerical and Lay Delegates, voting separately and concurrently.

ARTICLE XXI
Of Organizing Governments

The Constitution shall become effective upon the adoption thereof by the organizing Convention of the Diocese. The organizing Convention shall have the power to adopt specific rules for its conduct in general conformity with the intent and purpose of this Constitution solely for the purpose of implementing the organizing of this Diocese under this Constitution.

"Live in the Spirit" The 39th Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida 185
CANON I
Of the Diocesan Convention

Section 1. At or immediately prior to the opening of each Convention a list of the Clergy entitled to seats therein, prepared by the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese, shall be delivered to the Committee on Credentials, which Committee shall ascertain the number present and report to the Convention. No member of the Clergy shall take a seat until all Canonical Reports required shall have been made on or before the time specified by Canon, unless sufficient reason be given for the failure, acceptable to the Ecclesiastical Authority.

Section 2. It is declared to be the duty of every member of the Clergy and Lay Person entitled to a seat in the Convention to attend every meeting thereof, and any member of the Clergy failing to attend the Convention shall be required to give reasons for the absence to the Ecclesiastical Authority.

Section 3. Canonically resident non-parochial Clergy, not in active service, are not required to be present at the meetings of the Convention.

Section 4. With respect to any election authorized upon these Canons or the Constitution of this Diocese, the Clergy and Lay Persons entitled to vote at the Convention shall cast one vote for each vacancy to be filled by such election.

a. Election shall be by the highest majority of the ballot votes cast for each office. The delegates shall have one vote on each ballot for each position to be filled.

b. When there is one position to be filled, the nominee receiving the majority of votes shall be deemed elected.

c. When more than one position is to be filled, those nominees receiving the highest number of votes in excess of fifty percent (50%) shall be deemed elected.

d. If after the second ballot the election is not complete, the number of nominees shall be reduced to the number of positions remaining to be filled times 2. The nominees on such ballot shall be the nominees receiving the highest number of votes cast on the preceding ballot, not to exceed twice the number of the positions to be filled; except in the case of a tie vote and the last remaining position on the next ballot, in which case all candidates receiving the tie vote shall be included on the next ballot.

e. Voting shall continue as set forth above until all of the offices/positions are filled.

f. When elections are for different terms of office, the nominee first elected shall be the one elected for the longest term; or if two or more are elected on the same ballot, the candidate(s) receiving the highest number of votes shall be the one(s) elected for the longest term(s).

As adopted in Conventions through 2002
g. This procedure shall not apply to the election of a Bishop.

h. The Convention may proceed to the conduct of other business during the counting of votes, however, balloting may interrupt any other business until all offices/positions are filled.

i. At or immediately prior to the opening of each Convention, the Presiding Officer shall present a Resolution or Resolutions to assist in the orderly functioning and dispatch of business during the Convention. Unless otherwise provided by appropriate Resolution or by the Constitution or Canons, the functioning and dispatch of business at any Convention shall be governed by Robert's Rules of Order (most current and revised edition) and the vote on any Resolution shall be by simple majority of all of the valid votes cast.

Section 5. Any congregation in arrears on any prior year’s apportionment shall, in all events, be granted seat and voice at Convention.

CANON II
Of Evidence of Lay Membership in the Convention

Section 1. The election of Lay Delegates and Lay Alternates to the Convention, if by the Vestry or Bishop's Committee, shall be made at a regular meeting, or at one called especially to elect Lay Delegates and Alternates.

If such election be made by the Congregation, the Electors must have the same qualifications, and the election be conducted in like manner, as is or shall be described by Canon for the election of Vestry Members. Any vacancies that occur in Lay Delegations may be filled by the Rector or Priest-in-Charge of a Mission or, if there be no Rector or Priest-in-Charge, by the Wardens. A Lay Delegate shall have the same qualifications as an Elector in a Congregation.

Section 2. No later than March 1st of each year, the following Certificate shall be filed with the Bishop's office:

“This is to certify that at a meeting of the Rector, Wardens, and Vestry, (or Vicar, Wardens, and Bishop's Committee) of the Congregation of___________, held on the ______ day of ______, the following events have taken place in the manner required by these Canons:

a. The following persons were elected to represent this Congregation as Lay Delegates and Lay Alternates at the Convention of the Diocese to be held on the _____day of______, and that the named Delegates are qualified electors of this Congregation: [the Delegates names shall follow];

b. The premiums for the preceding fiscal year to the Church Pension Fund on account of the Clergy of the congregation have been fully paid;
c. The Annual Parochial Report has been filed in the manner provided by the Bishop’s Office; and

d. The Diocesan Apportionment(s) for the preceding calendar year have been fully paid.

The above Certificate shall be signed by the Rector, Vicar, and by the Senior Warden or Secretary of the Vestry or Bishop’s Committee of the Congregation. In the event the congregation fails to affirmatively provide in the Certificate that the Treasurer’s portion of the Parochial Report, premiums for the Church Pension Fund and Diocesan Apportionment have been completed or paid as of March 1, the Congregation if wishing to vote at Convention shall apply to the Committee for Congregational Development on or before May 1 for vote at Convention. The Committee shall recommend to Convention whether the Congregation shall be granted vote at Convention. Regardless of the failure to file the Certificate, Congregations shall be entitled to vote for election of a Bishop.

Section 3. The Committee on Credentials shall determine the number of Clergy and Lay Delegates attending the Convention and report the totals at the opening session of the Convention.

Section 4. The Delegates elected to the preceding Diocesan Convention shall be Delegates at Special Meetings of Diocesan Convention, except when other Delegates shall have been chosen in the meantime by any Congregation.

CANON III

Of the Secretary of the Convention

Section 1. The duties of the Secretary shall be to take minutes of the proceedings of the Convention; prepare and have printed and distributed the Annual Journal of the Convention; to preserve its Journals and records; to attest the public acts of the body; and faithfully deliver into the hands of a successor all property, moneys, books, and papers relative or belonging to the Diocese, which may be in the Secretary’s possession. It shall also be the Secretary’s duty to give thirty days’ notice to each Congregation of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding or any special Convention. The Secretary shall prepare the roll of the Lay Delegates entitled to seats in the Convention, before the opening of the Convention. The Secretary shall transmit to each officer and to each member of the Clergy of the Diocese, and to each Congregation of the Diocese, and others, upon advance request, a copy of the Journal of the Convention.

Section 2. The Secretary shall also transmit to the proper officers a certificate of the election of Deputies to the General Convention, and to the Provincial Synod.

Section 3. Immediately upon the close of each Convention, the Secretary shall transmit to every officer or Committee of the Convention a certified copy of all the acts of the Convention bearing upon the duties of such officer or Committee as may have been enacted.

As adopted in Conventions through 2002

"Live in the Spirit" The 39th Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida 189
Section 4. The Secretary shall perform such other duties as may be incumbent on the office or as may be provided for by the Convention and shall receive such compensation for services as the Diocesan Council may determine.

Section 5. The Secretary shall have power, with the approval of the Ecclesiastical Authority, to appoint and employ an Assistant Secretary.

CANON IV
Of the Actuary

Section 1. The Bishop shall appoint annually, subject to confirmation by the Diocesan Council, an Actuary, who may be also the Diocesan Administrator. The Actuary shall be entitled, ex officio, to all the privileges of membership in the Convention except the right to vote, unless the Actuary be also an elected Delegate.

Section 2. All deeds, mortgages, insurance policies, and other documents pertaining to the property vested in the name of the Diocese shall be in custody of the Actuary, who shall faithfully keep and deliver the same to any successor.

The Actuary shall make available at all times for the Diocesan Council and the Convention complete records on all the properties so vested.

The Actuary shall be charged with the responsibility of ascertaining the imposition of any taxes, paving assessments, and improvement liens levied against the property of the Diocese, and the expiration of any insurance policies, and shall report the same to the Diocesan Council and to the Annual Convention.

CANON V
Of the Standing Committee

Section 1. The Convention shall elect to the Standing Committee annually, the number of members as set forth herewith.

Section 2. The Standing Committee shall consist of five Presbyters and four Lay Persons, the term of office of each to be three years. No member, either Clergy or Lay, shall serve more than two consecutive three-year terms. Members’ terms of office shall be staggered so that the Convention shall elect annually three members of the Standing Committee. Of those three, one shall be a member of the Clergy or the Laity and not more than two shall be members of either the Clergy or Laity.

Section 3. The Clerical members of the Standing Committee shall be eligible for full membership in the Convention of the Diocese; Lay Members, who must be Electors of the Church domiciled in the Diocese, shall have all the privileges of membership in the Convention except the right to vote, unless they be also elected Delegates.
Section 4. Vacancies in the Standing Committee’s membership, occurring by death or otherwise, may be filled by the Committee until the next Annual Convention, when the vacancy for the remainder of the term shall be filled by election of the Convention, in addition to the elections required under Section 2 of this Canon.

Section 5. The Committee, at its first meeting after each Annual Convention, shall choose a President from among its members. From among either the Clerical or the Lay Members it shall choose a Secretary, who shall keep a full record of all transactions of the Committee. Records of the Standing Committee, and all papers officially in its possession, shall be subject at all times to the examination by the Bishop and the Convention. Five members of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business after due notice of a meeting is given all members.

Section 6. The Standing Committee shall be a council of advice to the Bishop, to be summoned by the Bishop whenever its advice is desired; it may of its own accord advise the Bishop when it considers it needful to do so. All proceedings of the Standing Committee when it is acting as a council of advice to the Bishop shall be strictly confidential unless the Bishop and the Committee shall determine otherwise.

CANON VI
Of the Diocesan Council

Section 1. The Diocesan Council, as hereinafter constituted, subject to the provisions of the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese and the direction of the Convention, shall have oversight of the work of the Diocese, and of such other work as may be submitted to it by the Convention of the Diocese, and shall administer and carry on the same. The Bishop shall be executive head of all such work, and the Council shall assist the Bishop in the administration thereof.

Section 2. The Diocesan Council, hereinafter called the Council, shall be the Board of Directors of the Corporation of the Diocese.

Section 3. The Council shall be composed of the Bishop; one Presbyter, one Lay Man, and one Lay Woman to be elected by the Convention; and one Presbyter and One Lay Person from each Deanery of the Diocese, whose selection by the several Deaneries shall be confirmed by the Convention. The Bishop Coadjutor, the Suffragan Bishops, the President of the Standing Committee, and the Chancellor shall be ex officio members of the Council. The elected or confirmed members of the Council shall be entitled to all privileges of the Convention except the right to vote, unless they be otherwise accredited to vote in the Convention.

Section 4. The Officers of the Diocese shall be the Bishop as President, and the Coadjutor, the Suffragans, and the President of the Standing Committee as Vice-Presidents. All other officers of the corporation shall be elected by the Council. Any Secretary or Treasurer may be, but need not be, a member of the Council. In the absence of the President and Vice-Presidents, the Council shall elect one of its members to preside ex tempore. Any and all actions shall be by majority vote of a quorum, which shall consist of one more than one-half of the qualified voting members of the Council.

As adopted in Conventions through 2002
Section 5. Each Deanery and the Diocesan Convention shall each year elect a successor to the member whose term of office has expired. The term of office of elected Council members shall be two years. An elected member may serve no more than three consecutive terms. Any election to fill an unexpired term shall, for calculation to fill an additional term, be counted as a full term. The Council shall have power to fill any vacancy of members elected by the Convention until the next Annual Convention of the Diocese. A vacancy, if of a Deanery elected member, shall be filled by the Convocation affected, to be confirmed by the next Annual Convention.

Provision for the initial terms of Council members elected from any new Deanery hereafter constituted shall be prescribed by the Ecclesiastical Authority at the time of the Deanery’s creation, in such manner as to provide for the appropriate staggering of terms.

Section 6. At the first meeting of the Diocesan Council following the Annual Convention of the Diocese, the Council shall meet to organize, to elect necessary officers, and to appoint all necessary committees or agencies to implement the work of the Convention of the Diocese, and to fulfill any special mandates or commissions of the Convention. The Council shall meet thereafter at least quarterly. Special meetings may be called by the Ecclesiastical Authority or shall be called upon the request of any seven members. No elected members of the Council may serve at the same time on either the Standing Committee or the Committee for Congregational Development.

Section 7. The Council shall present to all the Clergy entitled to vote in Convention, as described in Article V, Section 2, of the Constitution, and to the Secretary of the Vestry or Bishop’s Committee of the several Congregations a report of its activities for the preceding year, together with the financial statements of the Diocese; and as soon as it can be compiled, an analysis of the annual reports of the Congregations as made on the form required by the General Convention of the Episcopal Church in the United States.

Section 8. At least ten days prior to the Diocesan Convention, the Council shall submit to the Ecclesiastical Authority, to the Secretary of the Convention, to every member of the Clergy canonically resident, and to the Secretary of every Vestry and Bishop’s Committee of every Congregation:

a. an audited financial statement of the affairs of the Diocese for the past year; and

b. a proposed budget for the Diocese; and

c. a schedule showing the apportionment against each congregation to meet the cost of the proposed budget.

Section 9. The Council shall establish committees, including a Finance Committee, as deemed necessary for the execution of its responsibilities. It may enlist the aid of persons not members of the Council.

As adopted in Conventions through 2002
The power of any committee or functionary shall be subject to and limited to the authority of the Council. With the approval of the Diocesan Convention, the Council may form legal entities to assist the Council in its work and to manage funds, properties - both real and personal, trusts and other responsibilities for which the Council is accountable, such entities to have only managerial powers with all actions subject to the formal approval of the Council. Prior to the encumbrance or alienation of any real property owned or controlled by the Diocese, or any Congregation in the Diocese, or any corporation, or institution, or organization under the control of the Diocese; written consent and approval of the Bishop and Diocesan Council are required; and any encumbrance or alienation of any real property designed or used for regular services of worship, whether having been consecrated or not, shall also require the previous consent of the Bishop acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee of the Diocese.

Section 10. Only the Council, acting upon recommendation by the Committee for Congregational Development, shall have the power to amend, modify, or suspend any apportionments placed on Parishes or Missions.

Section 11. The Registrar, to be appointed by the Bishop, may be an Assistant Secretary of the Council, without vote. In addition to the duties required by the Constitution, the Registrar shall keep the Diocesan Register of Clergy canonically resident, those received and transferred, the Register of Ordinations, those suspended or deposed; and keep the Diocesan Journal of persons confirmed or received from other Communions; and keep a record of marital judgments and of persons readmitted to the Sacraments in accordance with the provision of the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention.

Section 12. The Council is empowered to elect representatives of the Diocese, who shall be parochial Clergy canonically resident, or qualified Electors of a congregation in the Diocese, to:

a. The Synod of Province IV; and
b. The Trustees of the Diocese of South Florida; and
c. The Board of Managers of the Endowment Fund Corporation of the Diocese of South Florida; and
d. Any other corporation, institution, organization, or other body with whom the convention of the Diocese recognizes an official relationship calling for representation from this Diocese.

The Convention annually shall elect Diocesan representatives, who are canonically resident or qualified Electors in number, for the terms required by the Constitution(s), Canons or By-laws of Bishop Gray Inns f/k/a William Crane Gray Inn for Older People and the Trustees of the University of the South (Sewanee).

As adopted in Conventions through 2002

"Live in the Spirit" The 39th Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida 193
Section 13. The administration of the affairs of The Church Pension Fund in this Diocese shall be in the hands of the Diocesan Council, which shall perform all necessary duties in accordance with the rules of The Church Pension Fund.

CANON VII
Of Rectors and Other Ministers

Section 1. Subject only to the Bishop of the Diocese, the Rector or Priest-in-Charge of the Congregation has exclusive charge, under the Constitution and Canons, of all things affecting the spiritual interests of the Congregation. The Rector or Priest-in-Charge shall at all times be entitled to the use and control of the Church and all Parish or Mission buildings with the appurtenances and furniture thereof. The Rector or Priest-in-Charge shall at all times be entitled to access to the church, to open the same for public worship, for catechetical, or other religious instruction, marriages, baptisms, burials, and all other offices authorized by the Church. The Rector or Priest-in-Charge shall have full charge of all services in the church and spiritual direction and control of all Church Schools, Parish Schools, and all other associations connected with the Congregation.

Section 2. It is the duty of the Rector or Priest-in-Charge to give directions concerning the worship of the Church, together with all that appertains thereto. The Rector or Priest-in-Charge may from time to time appoint fit persons to perform, under supervision and direction, such duties relative to the service and decoration of the Church as may properly be done by Lay Persons.

Section 3. The Rector or Priest-in-Charge of any Congregation is, ex officio, President of the Vestry or Bishop’s Committee and of the Congregation and has the right to vote at all times.

Section 4. No member of the Clergy may be called as Rector by any parish without approval of the Bishop.

Section 5. No member of the Clergy may be called as Assistant Minister by any parish without the approval of the Bishop.

Section 6. Every member of the Clergy temporarily vacating their cure shall arrange in advance with the Vestry or Bishop’s Committee for the supply of services and the care of the Congregation during the absence. If the member of the Clergy be paid wholly or in part by the Diocese, the approval of the Ecclesiastical Authority shall be received in advance of such absence.

CANON VIII
Of Wardens, Vestries, Bishop’s Committees and Electors

Section 1. In every Parish and organized Mission in this Diocese there shall be an annual meeting of the congregation, within one hundred twenty days before or on the twenty-eighth day of February, and at said meeting an election by ballot, of a Vestry or Bishop’s Committee, consisting of no fewer than five persons as may be fixed by the Congregation’s Charter, and who shall continue in office until their successors are elected and qualified. In such election a majority of votes shall decide the choice, provided, however, that in the case of an Organized Mission, the names of those chosen shall be submitted to the Bishop for his approval and appointment. As to a Parish, of the persons so chosen, one shall be appointed Senior Warden by the Rector and one shall be designated and elected Junior Warden by the Vestry. As to a Mission, of the persons so chosen, the Vicar or Priest-in-Charge shall nominate a Senior Warden and the Bishop’s Committee shall nominate a Junior Warden and other officers. The names of all Mission Officers so nominated shall be submitted to the Bishop for his approval and appointment. Nothing herein contained shall prevent a Congregation from establishing terms of office more than one year, provided the term of one or more members of the Vestry or Bishop’s Committee shall expire each year.

Section 2. Only communicant members of a Congregation who are eighteen years of age and over, whose names are duly enrolled as such in the Register of the said Congregation, and who are regular in their attendance upon its services and make stated contributions of record to its general support, shall be a qualified Elector entitled to vote at the annual election of the Vestry or Bishop’s Committee thereof, except that sixteen and seventeen year old persons shall have seat, voice and vote in annual Parish elections, provided they shall have satisfied the other requirements of an Elector, except as to age. The vote of no person shall be questioned unless his or her right to vote shall be first challenged by a qualified Elector. In the event of such challenge, the right of such person shall be passed upon by a committee of three previously nominated by the Rector or Vicar, or in the event there shall be no Rector or Vicar, then by the Senior Warden and confirmed by the Vestry or Bishop’s Committee, and the findings of such committee shall be final and binding.

Section 3. No person shall be eligible as a Warden or Vestry Member or Bishop’s Committee Member who is not a qualified Elector in the Congregation.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of the Wardens to protect the properties of the Parish or Mission and to see that all things needed for the orderly worship of God and for the administration of the Sacraments and Ordinances of the Church be provided. In the absence of the Rector or Vicar, the Senior Warden shall preside at the meetings of the Vestry or Bishop’s Committee. In the absence of both, the Junior Warden shall preside.

Section 5. It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Bishop’s Committee to take charge of the properties of the Parish or Mission and keep the same fully insured, to prepare a budget providing for the necessary requirements and expenditures of the Congregation, to regulate all its temporal concerns, to keep order in the church during the celebration of Divine worship, and, in general, to act as helpers in whatever is appropriate to Lay Persons for the furtherance of the Church’s welfare.

Section 6. In a Parish it shall be the duty of the Vestry to elect, and, with the approval of the Bishop, call a Rector. It is also the duty of the Vestry to provide for the maintenance of the Rector. In the event of any vacancy in the Rectorship of any Parish, it shall be the duty of the Wardens or other officers of such Parish to give immediate notice of the same to the Bishop, and until provision be made for the supply of the same, the Bishop may cause it to be supplied, by missionary services or otherwise.

Section 7. The Vestry or Bishop’s Committee shall annually select a Secretary, whose duty it shall be to take and record the minutes of their proceedings, attest the public acts of the Vestry or Bishop’s Committee, preserve all records and papers belonging to the Congregation, perform such other duties as shall be legally assigned, and faithfully deliver into the hands of a successor all books and documents of the Congregation that may be in the Secretary’s possession. The Vestry or Bishop’s Committee shall also annually select a Treasurer to perform the duties incumbent upon that office, who shall furnish a bond of suitable amount; the books and accounts shall be audited annually and at any other time the Vestry or Bishop’s Committee may direct. The offices of Secretary and Treasurer may both be held by the same person.

Section 8. Meetings of the Vestry or Bishop’s Committee shall be held annually to receive reports of officers and committees, pass on the same, and turn over the affairs of the Congregation to the newly selected Vestry or Bishop’s Committee. Other meetings may be provided for at regular times; or be called by the Rector or Vicar; or, in the absence of the Rector or Vicar, by the Senior Warden, or at the request of two Vestry members or Bishop’s Committee members and the Bishop may call a meeting of the Vestry or Bishop’s Committee of any Congregation and preside at such meeting.

Section 9. All Lay Officers of a Congregation shall hold their respective offices until the election and qualifications of their successors. Each congregation shall adopt a plan that provides for rotation of members of the Vestry or Bishop’s Committee. The Vestry or Bishop’s Committee shall be composed such that no one member shall remain a member for more than six (6) consecutive years.

CANON IX
Of Parochial Registers and Reports

Section 1. In every Congregation the Church Wardens shall provide a Register, in which the Minister, or, if there be none, one of the Wardens, shall record the name and date of birth of each person baptized; and, if a child, the names of its parents and sponsors; the names of all persons married or buried, and the dates of such marriages and burials; together with a list of all the Communicants in the Congregation, with the date of every event recorded, all of which shall be under the signature of the person performing the office or service. From this Register there shall be presented annually to the office of the Bishop, in the manner provided, an accurate statement of the affairs of the Congregation.

Section 2. In every Congregation the Church Wardens shall provide a proper book in which the Clergy, or, if there be none, one of the Wardens, shall record all services held in the Congregation, which record shall show the date, time, place, and kind of service held, the number of persons present, and if the service be that of the Holy Communion, the number making their communion.
CANON X
Of the Formation of a Parish

Section 1. When a Mission shall give evidence of its ability to fulfill its obligations as a Parish in union with the Convention of the Diocese, it shall make application to the Ecclesiastical Authority at least sixty days before the Convention, that application noting:

a. That it accedes to the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of this Church, to the Constitution and Canons set forth by General Convention, and to the Constitution and Canons of this Diocese.

b. That it will pay for the support of its Rector such an amount as may be approved by the Ecclesiastical Authority and Diocesan Council, its apportioned share of funding the Program and Budget as agreed at the Convention of the Diocese, the pension premium on the stipend of the Rector, and such other expenses as may be normally encountered in the operation of a Parish. The applicant shall show also that it has been able to meet such requirements for not less than one calendar year prior to applying for Parish status, and it shall provide evidence that it can continue to do so.

c. That it possesses a place of corporate worship adequate to the needs of its Congregation, the location and tenure of which is established and continued possession of which is reasonably assured.

d. That it represents one hundred households of membership, one hundred average Sunday attendance and annual income at least equal to twice its clergy costs.

Section 2. Together with the aforesaid application there shall be submitted to the Ecclesiastical Authority the proposed Charter of the Parish.

Section 3. Once the application and Charter have been approved by the Ecclesiastical Authority and Diocesan Council, the application shall be submitted to the Convention for final action; or if the approbation of the Ecclesiastical Authority or the Diocesan Council is withheld, it shall be reported in the Convention the reason for the disapproval. Upon approval of such application, the Mission shall forthwith file for record the Charter as required by the laws of the State of Florida.

Section 4. No established Congregation may move from one location to another until due notice has been given to any affected Congregation and consent obtained from the Ecclesiastical Authority and Diocesan Council.

As adopted in Conventions through 2002

"Live in the Spirit" The 39th Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida
Section 5. Any congregation failing in its self support or its financial and/or Canonical obligations to the Diocese for a period of three (3) months, or under extraordinary circumstances as determined by the Bishop, shall receive assistance as deemed necessary by the Bishop with the concurrence of two-thirds (2/3rds) of the Diocesan Standing Committee. Any financial assistance shall require approval by Diocesan Council.

Section 6. A Parish admitted and thereafter failing in its self-support or in its financial and/or Canonical obligation shall become an Organized Mission by a two-thirds vote of the Diocesan Convention. A Parish that finds itself in financial distress between Diocesan Conventions may, at the discretion of the Bishop and with the concurrence of the Council, be considered eligible for financial assistance as an Organized Mission until its status can be determined by the next Diocesan Convention.

Section 7. A Parish having an average Sunday attendance under 75 persons for two consecutive years, shall become an Organized Mission upon 2/3 majority of Diocesan Convention.

CANON XI
Of the Organization of a Mission

Section 1. Not fewer than fifty households with a projected attendance of fifty persons may associate themselves together as an Organized Mission. They must be residents in proximity of the proposed location. They shall first obtain the consent of the Bishop. They shall declare their conformity to the Doctrine, Discipline and Worship of this Church; choose the name by which they shall be known; declare their submission to the authority of the Diocese and the Canons thereof; and make application to the Ecclesiastical Authority to organize and constitute a Mission.

Section 2. Every such application to organize a new Mission must be accompanied by a certificate showing the approval or disapproval of the Rector and Vestry of each Parish, and of the Vicar and Bishop’s Committee of each Mission, within a radius of ten miles of the proposed location, or evidence that such certificate was not obtainable.

Section 3. If it is deemed expedient to act, the Bishop shall appoint a Senior Warden and a Junior Warden, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Bishop’s Committee, such appointments to be renewed annually before the Diocesan Convention. The Canons concerning Parishes shall be applicable to Missions except where otherwise provided.

Section 4. The Bishop shall report to the Convention the Missions which have been organized and are in good standing, and they, thereupon, shall be admitted, and shall report to the Convention. Missions shall be assessed equitably for the support of the Diocese.

Section 5. Should the average Sunday attendance fall below twenty-five, such Mission shall cease to be an Organized Mission.

Section 6. The Bishop shall have jurisdiction over all Mission Congregations with power to appoint or remove any Missionary, either Clergy or Lay Minister, for any cause. The stipends and other compensations of Missionaries shall be established by the Ecclesiastical Authority and approved by Diocesan Council.

As adopted in Conventions through 2002

"Live in the Spirit" The 39th Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida
CANON XII

Of Deaneries

Section 1. The Diocese shall be divided into Deaneries, the number and boundaries of which shall be determined by the Ecclesiastical Authority with the advice of the Diocesan Council. The presiding officer of each Deanery shall be a Dean appointed by the Ecclesiastical Authority annually. The Deanery Convocation shall be composed of all active Clergy canonically resident in the Deanery, the Deanery Chairperson of the Episcopal Churchmen, Episcopal Churchwomen, Episcopal Young Churchmen, and five Lay Persons selected by the Vestry or Bishop's Committee of each Congregation, or, upon the failure of either to act, by the Congregation in annual or special meeting. Of each Lay Delegation, at least two members must be Delegates to the Diocesan Convention.

Section 2. Each Deanery Convocation shall meet at the call of the Dean or of the Ecclesiastical Authority.

Section 3. The purpose of each Deanery shall be to afford opportunity for the Clergy and Laity to come together for conferences, to initiate works and activities at the Deanery and Congregational levels, to promote the work and Mission of the Church, and to prosecute the work of the Diocese within the Deanery.

CANON XIII

Of the Ecclesiastical Court

Section 1. There is hereby established an Ecclesiastical Trial Court in and for the Diocese of Southwest Florida.

Section 2.

a. The Ecclesiastical Trial Court shall consist of five (5) Members of the Clergy and four (4) Lay Persons. All members of the Court must be persons canonically resident within the Diocese and Lay Members must be Electors of the Church.

b. At the Diocesan Convention wherein this Canon is approved, the Convention shall elect the first Ecclesiastical Trial Court and shall stagger their terms to allow for three persons to be elected at each Annual Diocesan Convention to serve on the Ecclesiastical Trial Court for a term of three years. Persons elected shall be from each order as required to maintain the required make up of the Ecclesiastical Trial Court.

c. Vacancies occurring within the membership of the Ecclesiastical Trial Court shall be filled by majority vote of the remaining members of the Court. Persons elected to fill a vacancy must be from the same order as the person they replace. Vacancies must be filled within three months of notification of the vacancy unless sooner required by other provisions of National or Diocesan Canons.
Within two months following each Annual Diocesan Convention the members of the Ecclesiastical Trial Court shall elect from among themselves by majority vote one person to serve as Presiding Judge for a one year term.

Within three months following each Annual Diocesan Convention the members of the Ecclesiastical Trial Court shall appoint a duly licensed attorney to serve as Church Attorney for a one year term.

All persons elected or appointed under this section are eligible to be re-elected or re-appointed upon the expiration of their terms.

If the Ecclesiastical Trial Court is in session at the time of the Diocesan Convention, any new members elected to the Court shall not take office until the Court has concluded any trial then pending. Until the new members have taken office, the time requirements of subsections (d) and (e) shall be suspended.

Section 3.

Charges for which a Member of the Clergy may be made to stand trial are contained in the Canons of the Episcopal Church.

The mode and manner of making charges, securing Presentments, and of conducting trials shall be as established in the Canons of the Episcopal Church.

Section 4. The powers, duties and procedures of the Ecclesiastical Trial Court and the definitions used herein shall be governed by the National Canons as revised from time to time.

CANON XIV

Of the Committee on Constitution and Canons

Section 1. At each third annual session of the Convention, commencing with the Primary Convention, there shall be appointed by the Bishop, subject to confirmation by the Convention, a committee of not less than seven, consisting of four active and canonically resident members of the Clergy and three Lay Persons who shall be Electors of a Congregation in this Diocese. Such committee shall hold office for three years with power to sit between sessions of the Convention. Vacancies in the Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, may be filled by the Bishop, subject to confirmation by the Diocesan Council, until the next annual convention, at which time the replacement can be confirmed.

Section 2. All matters relating to the Constitution and Canons shall be referred to this Committee for consideration. The Committee, meeting prior to the Diocesan Convention, will by majority vote recommend either approval or disapproval of the change as proposed and submitted in writing by the sponsor. The Committee may, provided a majority concurs, and believing the proposed change as submitted has merit but should be reworded and otherwise made to conform to the Constitution and Canons, draft a substitute change to the Constitution or Canons for submission in writing to the Convention.

CANON XV

Of Business Methods

Section 1. It shall be the duty of all Diocesan and Parochial custodians of trusts and permanent funds for Church purposes to deposit the same in trust with some trust company or bank with trust powers or with the Diocese. A full and detailed statement of each fund shall be annually reported to the Diocesan Convention, or the annual meeting of the Vestry or Bishop's Committee.

Section 2. All accounts of Congregations and other institutions shall be audited annually by a certified public accountant or such audit committee as may be authorized by the Finance Committee of the Diocese.

a. All reports of such audits, including any memoranda issued by the auditor or audit committee regarding internal control, allocation and accounting for receipts and disbursements or other accounting matters, together with a summary of action taken or proposed to be taken to correct deficiencies or implement recommendations contained in such memoranda, shall be filed by the auditor or committee with the Bishop or Diocesan Council not later than thirty days following the date of such report, and in no event later than September 1 of each year, covering activity of the previous calendar year. Said reports shall be made in accordance with a format formulated by the Diocesan Council to aid in determining whether the accounts fairly reflect the performance of duties and obligations of the entity audited.

b. Failure to file within the time prescribed shall be reported to the Committee for Congregational Development and the Committee, or a designated member, will meet with the organization affected to determine remedial action; and if not resolved, the Committee will recommend to the Bishop and the Diocesan Convention appropriate action. Any matters disclosed by said reports which are not resolved to the satisfaction of the Diocesan Council shall also be referred to the Committee for Congregational Development for appropriate action.

Section 3. All Church buildings and personal property contained therein shall be insured in a reliable insurance company for an amount to be determined by the Vestry or Bishop’s Committee or other governing body having ownership or supervision of the property. Compliance with this Canon shall be reported in the annual report made by each Congregation.

As adopted in Conventions through 2002

"Live in the Spirit" The 39th Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida 201
Section 4. The Diocese shall have power to call for reports and financial statements from every Parish, Mission, School, Orphanage, Home and other Institutions and Corporations of the Church within the Diocese.

Section 5. Treasurers and custodians, other than banking institutions, shall be adequately bonded; or except treasurers of funds that do not exceed $500 at any one time during the fiscal year.

Section 6. All deeds, mortgages, hypothecations, assignments or other documents executed on behalf of this Corporation shall be signed by the President, or, in the President’s absence, by another corporate officer as designated by the President.

CANON XVI
Of the Commission on Ministry

Section 1. The Commission on Ministry of this Diocese shall consist of twelve voting members, of whom six shall be Presbyters, two shall be Deacons, and four shall be Lay Persons. Members shall be appointed by the Bishop, and confirmed by Convention. Terms shall be for a period of three years. Terms shall be staggered with one-third of the members being appointed annually. In the event of a vacancy, the Bishop shall appoint a replacement to fill the unexpired term. A person may serve two consecutive terms. He or she will then be eligible for reappointment after a period of one year. In addition, one member of the Standing Committee shall serve as liaison to the Commission on Ministry with seat and voice. This person shall be appointed by the Standing Committee.

Section 2. The duties of the Commission on Ministry shall be those prescribed in the Canons of the Episcopal Church; and such other duties relating to the ministry of this Diocese as shall be assigned by the Bishop.

Section 3. The Commission on Ministry shall annually report to the Convention of the Diocese.

Section 4. No voting member of this Commission may serve on the Standing Committee during his or her term of office.

CANON XVII
Of Schools

Section 1. No school providing secular education for young people equivalent to that provided by kindergartens or any of the first twelve grades of the public school system and claiming to be with or under the control, auspices or approval of this Church shall be established by any Parish, Mission or other institution in this Diocese without first obtaining the consent and approval of the Bishop and Diocesan Council nor shall any such school be operated or maintained by any Parish, Mission or other institution in this Diocese without the continued approval of the Bishop and Diocesan Council.

As adopted in Conventions through 2002
Section 2. The Bishop and the Diocesan Council are hereby authorized to make and provide minimum standards and requirements for the establishment, the approval, and the recognition of such schools including reasonable probationary periods. If any school fails to meet such minimum standards, the approval of the Bishop and the Diocesan Council will cease immediately.

Section 3. The Bishop and the Diocesan Council may require reports from all such schools and specify the information to be disclosed by such reports and shall have the right to inspect, or cause to be inspected, such schools at any time. If any school fails to meet such minimum standards, the approval of the Bishop and the Diocesan Council will cease immediately.

CANON XVIII
Of Amendments

Proposed amendments or additions to the Canons shall be submitted in writing to the Diocesan Council and to the Committee on Constitution and Canons not less than sixty days before any meeting of the Convention and a copy thereof shall be sent to the Clergy and Delegates at least thirty days before the Convention. Provided, however; that any Convention, by a two-thirds majority vote of those present and voting, may consider any Canon not submitted in the time required by this Canon.

CANON XIX
Of Resolutions

Any resolution duly adopted by a Deanery Convocation for presentation to the Convention, together with any resolution duly proposed and passed by appropriate committees of the Diocese and Convention in the discharge of their responsibilities shall be considered by the Convention at the appropriate time on the agenda as determined by the Bishop. All other resolutions shall be submitted to the Bishop at least sixty days prior to the Convention; and a copy thereof shall be sent to the clergy and delegates at least thirty days before Convention.

CANON XX
Of Related Organizations

Section 1. No organization, Parochial or Diocesan, shall be incorporated under the laws of the State until it first shall have obtained the consent of the Bishop and the Diocesan Council.

Section 2. No organization shall use the name of this Diocese or any Congregation of this Diocese, or claim to be a Church-related organization, without first having obtained the approval of the Bishop and the Diocesan Council and being chartered as a Corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, the charter of which shall provide:

a. Any amendment of said charter shall be subject to the approval of the Bishop and the Diocesan Council.

As adopted in Conventions through 2002
b. No real property, the title to which is held by or for the use of the Corporation, shall be encumbered, sold, alienated, transferred or conveyed without the prior consent and approval of the Bishop and the Diocesan Council. No approval given hereunder shall imply any authority on the part of the Corporation to incur any liability of any kind against the Diocese.

c. A stated purpose of the Corporation shall be to promote the moral and spiritual values of the Christian tradition as professed by the doctrines of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America.

d. The Bishop shall have the right to approve the selection of the chief executive officer of such Corporation.

CANON XXI

Of the Committee for Congregational Development

The Bishop shall appoint a Committee for Congregational Development. It shall consist of one clergy and one lay representative from each of the Deaneries and each member shall serve for a term of three years. The President of the Standing Committee shall be a member of the Committee ex officio.

The Committee shall report to the Diocesan Council and the Convention at least annually. It shall have the power to study the records of any congregation and institution of, or related to, the Diocese. The Committee shall meet with the Bishop and provide background related to congregations in default in their apportionment. The Committee shall also be empowered to review any petitions by a congregation for a change in status (Parish, Organized Mission, Unorganized Mission), and to provide counsel to the Bishop, Bishop’s Staff and Diocesan Council related to such matters. The Committee is required to make recommendations to the Ecclesiastical Authority, Convention and Council regarding any changes in the status of any congregation that falls below the households of membership, average attendance or income as indicated in Canon X, section 1d, and Canon XI, sections 1 and 5.

The Committee shall organize its labor under three sub-committees:

The Sub-Committee on Apportionments shall act as a resource to the Bishop, to Diocesan Council and to congregations having difficulties meeting their financial obligations to the Diocesan community. It shall also meet with the Bishop regarding Congregations with defaulted apportionments as required in Canon II, Section 2.

The Sub-Committee on Assisted Congregations shall act as a resource to the Bishop, to Diocesan Council and to congregations that have not met the requirements for Parish status as listed in Canon X.

The Sub-Committee on Church Planting shall act as a resource to the Bishop, and Diocesan Council regarding the work of planting congregations throughout the Diocese.

As adopted in Conventions through 2002

204 "Live in the Spirit" The 39th Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida
CANON XXII

Of a Nominating Committee for Episcopal Elections

Section 1. Whenever the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese requests the election of a Bishop Coadjutor or a Bishop Suffragan, and the Convention of the Diocese assents thereto, a Nominating Committee representative of the Laity and the Clergy shall be constituted under the authority of the Convention. That Committee shall be charged with responsibility for conducting a self-study of the Diocese and a process for the screening and selection of candidates in order to present to the Diocesan Convention a qualified slate of nominees from which a Bishop may be chosen. Presentation of a slate selected by the Nominating Committee shall not preclude nominations from the Convention floor.

Section 2. Reflecting the composition of the Diocesan Convention, two-thirds of the membership of the Nominating Committee shall be of the Laity and one-third shall be of the Clergy, the selection process to assure representation from each of the several Deaneries.

Section 3. Provision shall be made by Convention for election by the Laity and Clergy of the Diocese of no less than two-thirds of the membership of the Nominating Committee, the election procedure to assure representation from each of the several Deaneries.

Section 4. The Ecclesiastical Authority, in consultation with the Standing Committee should the Ecclesiastical Authority at that time be the Diocesan Bishop, shall appoint the remaining members of the Nominating Committee, those appointments to give representation on the Committee to each of the several deaneries. The Nominating Committee shall select its officers from among its own members.

Section 5. The method of operation, as well as an operating budget, shall be adopted by the Committee when formed, subject to approval of both the Standing Committee and the Diocesan Council.

Section 6. If the Diocese should be without a Bishop, the above provisions shall be followed, insofar as applicable, for the nominating process for a Diocesan Bishop.

CANON XXIII

Of the Diocesan Review Committee

Section 1. Establishment
There shall be in this Diocese a Diocesan Review committee (the ‘DRC”) to act for the Diocese in disciplinary proceedings under Title IV of the Canons of General Convention.

Section 2. Members
The DRC shall consist of two Priests and one Deacon and two lay persons. The Diocesan Council shall elect one Priest or Deacon to a three-year term, one Priest or Deacon to a two year term, one Priest or Deacon to a one year term, one lay person to a three term, and one lay person to a two- year term. Thereafter, the members of the DRC shall be elected by the Diocesan Convention for three year terms. No member shall serve more than two consecutive terms. Neither a current member of the Ecclesiastical Trial Court, nor a current member of the Standing Committee, shall be eligible for membership on the DRC.

Section 3. President
Each year the DRC shall elect from its members a President who may be a member of the Clergy or a lay person. The election shall be held within two months after Diocesan Convention.

Section 4. Challenges
In any particular case, any member of the DRC may be challenged for cause, either by the Church Attorney or by a Respondent. The members of the DRC who are not challenged for cause shall determine the relevance and validity of such challenges, and their determination shall be final and non-appealable.

Section 5. Vacancies
If a vacancy occurs in the DRC, the Diocesan Council shall name a person to fill the vacancy until the next Diocesan Convention, when an election shall be held to fill the unexpired term. The person chosen to fill the vacancy shall be selected from a list of candidates otherwise qualified for election to the DRC, which list shall be prepared by the Diocesan Council, or a sub-committee formed by the Diocesan Council for such purpose. Vacancies shall be filled from persons of the same order as the person whose absence created the vacancy.

As adopted in Conventions through 2002
