THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN’S PRAYER

Almighty God, we pray that You will bless our work in mission and ministry in the world. Help us to pray fervently, labor diligently and give liberally to make known the power of your love given through your son, Jesus Christ. Let us not forget the lessons from the past nor fear the challenges of the future. Anoint us with your grace and shine in our hearts as we reflect your light throughout the world. Amen
November 2013

Dear Sisters in Christ:

Episcopal Church Women

As you prepare your events and activities for 2014 be mindful of this year’s 45th Annual Convention of the Diocese of Southwest Florida theme: Christ is Made the Sure Foundation; the words, of course, taken from that beloved Hymn Number 518. The theme is a reminder that no matter what the task, no matter what the difficulty, no matter how grand or modest our strivings, we are safe in everything when we make Christ the “head and cornerstone.”

The words were adapted from Latin by John Mason Neale, a Victorian priest who did so much to re-invigorate the Anglican church in the 19th Century. They read:

Christ is made the sure foundation, Christ the head and cornerstone,
Chosen of the Lord and precious, Binding all the church in one;
Holy Zion’s help forever, and her confidence alone.

Growing up with the 1940 Hymnal, we sang this hymn to a different tune and the 1982 Hymnal re-matched the lyrics to the 17th century composer Henry Purcell’s grand tune of Westminster Abbey. I have always drawn strength from this ancient hymn and look forward to singing these words in unison, when we come to the table as the body of Christ, in our many Diocesan Congregations in 2014.

It was with great joy that I welcomed this year’s special convention guest; The Presiding Bishop, The Most. Rev. Dr. Katharine Jefferts Schori; who generously shared time with members of convention answering questions, Preaching and Celebrating on Friday. I celebrated her arrival not only as a personal friend and fellow Floridian, but as the precious representative of a long line of Christian leaders who gave us the legacy that we are striving to live out, “Binding all the church in one”.

May you continue to lead and participate in the many ministries throughout our Diocese and the world. I invite your prayers for our common mission in Christ alone.

Faithfully yours,

The Rt. Rev. Dabney T. Smith
Fifth Bishop of Southwest Florida
To the Women of the Episcopal Church,

Another year has passed and your Board is now on their last year of service to the women of the Episcopal Church.

It has been an exciting year beginning with a wonderful annual meeting program led by our guest speaker, Lindsay Hardin Freeman, who is returning this year. We have had informative combined meetings in January followed by gatherings of each deanery in the spring, a trip to the Province IV Women’s Conference at Kanuga and ending with the fall leadership conferences.

New branches have been formed, and we are reaching out to every woman in the Episcopal Church to urge her to move out beyond her local congregation and join in exploring what is happening in our Diocese and in other churches.

As a board, we continue to offer our help in developing new branches and in supporting others while encouraging all women to take advantage of programs which have been created to be of interest and value to each person.

Remember that our mission statement emphasizes the word “together”—alone we are weak, united we are strong.

“Many Women, Many Ministries: Together we worship Christ, we serve, we support our churches and God’s Kingdom”.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH

THE NATIONAL CHURCH: The Episcopal Church, a branch of the Anglican Communion, is composed of nine provinces, representing 99 dioceses in the USA, 9 additional provincial dioceses, 12 additional territorial dioceses, and the convocation of the American Church in Europe.

General Convention: The Legislative Body of the Church is composed of the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies, clerical and lay. It meets every three years, and will meet again in July 2009. All legislation must be concurred on by both houses.

Executive Council: The Executive Body of the Church is composed of representatives (Bishops, Priests, and Laymen) elected by the Convention and the Provinces. The Council, together with a staff of salaried workers, carries out the program ordered by the General Convention.

The Presiding Bishop: Elected by the General Convention, is the President of the Executive Council and presides over the House of Bishops and joint sessions of the Convention.

The Presiding Bishop: The Most Reverend Katherine Jefferts Schori Episcopal Church Center, 815 Second Avenue, New York, NY 10017

The Province: The Episcopal Church is divided into 9 geographical provinces. Southwest Florida belongs to the Fourth Province which consists of 20 dioceses in 9 southern states.

The Provincial Synod: Is the annual meeting of Bishops, Clergy and Lay representatives from all dioceses in a province.

The Dioceses: A diocese is a group of congregations under the jurisdiction of a Bishop. In the Diocese of Southwest Florida, there are a total of 76 congregations.

Annual Diocesan Convention: The Convention, attended by delegates from the parishes and missions, adopts a program and budget for the diocese and elects clerical and lay members to the Diocesan Council and the Standing Committee.

Diocesan Council: The Council is composed of clergy and laity. Meetings of the Diocesan Council are presided over by the Bishop. The Diocesan Council is charged with the development and prosecution of the program of the Diocese.

Standing Committee: The Standing Committee is a council of advice to the Bishop.

The Deanery: The Diocese is divided into deaneries. There are 7 deaneries in the Diocese of Southwest Florida: Clearwater, Fort Myers, Manasota, Naples, St. Petersburg, Tampa, and Venice. The Bishop appoints a Dean who presides over meetings of the clergy and laity of the deanery. In our Diocese, these meetings are called convocations.

ORGANIZATION OF EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN

NATIONAL
The purpose of this organization shall be to assist the women of the Episcopal Church to carry on Christ’s work of reconciliation, mission, and ministry in the community, nation, and the world, and to take their place in the life, governance, and worship of the Church. National officers are elected and national by-laws are adopted. The officers are responsible for planning and implementing the Triennial Meeting. For current information visit: ecwnational.org

TRIENNIAL
The Episcopal Church Women of the Episcopal Church meet every three years concurrently with the General Convention. The purpose of the Triennial Meeting is to provide a forum wherein the concerns of the whole Church may be explored in freedom and mutual caring. The meeting is spiritually oriented, of an educational nature, and inclusive of all women. The Triennial Meeting discusses issues and concerns of women in workshops and panel discussions. For current information visit: ecwnational.org

PROVINCE
ECW Provinces correspond with those of the national church. Our province is called Sewanee. A Woman’s Conference is held yearly at Kanuga in early June for the women of Province IV. Kanuga Episcopal Conference Center is in North Carolina near Hendersonville. For current information visit: ecwnational.org/province-IV

DIOCESE
The Diocesan Executive Board is elected by the delegates representing each parish and mission at the Annual Meeting held each November. The officers are President, President-Elect, Secretary, Treasurer and the elected chairmen of the following ministries: Church Periodical Club, United Thank Offering, and Mission & Ministries. The President shall appoint other chairmen who may be needed to carry out the work of the Board. The purpose of the Diocesan Executive Board is to assist branches in ways to deepen the spiritual lives of church women and to foster their active participation in the whole church program. For current information visit: episcopalswfl.org

DEANERY
The organization of the Episcopal Church Women of the Diocese is divided into seven Deaneries; each Deanery has an elected Deanery Director. The Deanery Directors sit on the Diocesan Executive Board and serve as liaison between the ECW Diocesan Executive Board and the branches. Deanery gatherings are held throughout the year. Deanery colors are: Clearwater—Red; Fort Myers—Turquoise; Manasota—Gold; Naples—Burgundy; St. Petersburg – Green; Tampa—Purple; Venice – Royal Blue.

BRANCHES
A Branch is the ECW organization of an individual congregation. The ECW Diocesan organization is available to assist with the work of the Branches. The ECW Offices of the Branch, in consultation with the Priest-in-Charge, should plan, promote, direct, and evaluate the work of the branch.
When you enter your church, all is in readiness. The silent ministry of the Altar Guild has been at work. All the proper vessels, vestments, and hangings are in place.

The silver and brass have been polished and all the linens have been washed and ironed. In some churches the flowers have been arranged. Everything in the sanctuary has been prepared by the Altar Guild. Its members are God’s housekeepers. All who perform these chores are devoted to God and are privileged to serve Him.

The Diocese is divided into two areas. The Northern area has three Deaneries (Tampa, Clearwater, St. Petersburg) and the Southern area has four (Manasota, Venice, Fort Myers, Naples).

For additional information about the Altar Guild please refer to the Episcopal Church Women Diocese of Southwest Florida Handbook.
The Church Periodical Club is an independent, affiliated organization of the Executive Council of the Episcopal Church, dedicated to the worldwide ministry of the printed word. In this diocese it is administered by the Episcopal Church Women. All churches are asked to participate whether there is an ECW Branch or not.

The Presiding Bishop designates a CPC Sunday, but with the approval of each congregation’s Priest-in-Charge. It may be held at any time of the year. In our diocese one-half of the offering may be retained by the congregation for books. Bibles, Sunday School curricula, etc. for use within the congregation. Undergraduate Student Book Grants are available in our Diocese. See ECW Handbook/CPC or contact CPC Diocesan Chair.

The CPC Mile of Pennies (MOP) is an outreach program to provide books for children grades K-12. One mile of pennies equals $844.80 and an MOP grant is for that amount. The MOP collection must be remitted in full to the national organization. Checks are to be made out to ECW Diocese of Southwest Florida and marked for CPC Mile of Pennies. ALL CPC AND MOP MONIES ARE TO BE SENT TO THE ECW DIOCESAN TREASURER, BERRY LUDWIG, 12255 7TH ST. UNITED THANK OFFERING

The United Thank Offering is a unique ministry of giving and outreach. Every gift provides both intangible and real spiritual benefits for the recipient and the giver. Offerings come through grateful prayers and giving.

Grants are awarded annually and must meet the criteria set forth by the United Thank Offering Committee. Grant applications are available each October from the Bishop’s office. Completed requests must be returned in December. A screening committee then reviews the requests and suggests two to the Bishop to be sent to the Episcopal Church Center office.

Contributions to the Memorial and Gift Trust Fund are welcome. Income from this fund supports the work of the United Thank Offering Committee so every penny of the offerings is granted.

UTO MISSION STATEMENT
To expand the circle of thankful people. To achieve this mission, we encourage daily prayers, offerings and awareness of the abundance of God’s blessings.

United Thank Offering Prayer
Source of all creation, all love, all true joy, accept we pray, these outward signs of our profound and continuing thankfulness for all of life. Bless those who will benefit from these gifts through the outreach of the United Thank Offering; and keep each of us ever thankful for all the blessings of joy and challenge that come our way; through him who is the greatest gift and blessing of all, Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. MISSION & MINISTRY

In 2002, Province IV added a chair for Mission & Ministry to their board of directors, and in 2004, our Diocesan Board followed their lead. The purpose of Mission & Ministry arm of our Diocesan ECW is twofold: 1) to raise the awareness of mission work being done throughout the Diocese by serving as a conduit of communication from the local branches to the Diocesan Board, and vice versa; 2) to support one another’s mission work through sharing, not only of resources, experience and knowledge, but especially, through prayers. This team includes the respective deanery representatives for Mission & Ministry, as well as the coordinators for youth ministry, scholarship funds and mission projects for our companion diocese, the Dominican Republic; Asian Ministry; and representatives or coordinators of any upcoming ministries, as these arise.

“Our roots are mission and to our roots we shall return”

The Sara Howell Memorial Fund is a ministry that was created by and administered by the Episcopal Church Women in the Diocese of Southwest Florida.

It was in May 1988 that this new ministry was named in memory of Sara Howell, who had served as ECW Diocesan Chair of Christian Social Concerns. Sara had, years before, found herself a single parent with no means of support or any job skills. She met her challenge, entering the workforce and sustaining both herself and her daughter. Encouraging women to fulfill their individual potential through education was important to Sara.

The intent and purpose of this ministry is to provide needed financial aid and support to Episcopal women seeking entry or re-entry into the job market. Paramount among those needing assistance are single parents who must support their families as well as older women who need training to return to the workforce. In this challenging economy more women are finding it necessary to advance themselves beyond minimum wage employment by training and education.

Most support for the Sara Howell Memorial Fund is provided by ECW branches through their outreach budgets and also from memorial or recognition gifts. Every dollar given means new life, new vision and hope to an Episcopal woman in need of help, be it your friend, your church neighbor or yourself one day. Each gift from the heart is a true testament of accepting our mission to be women helping women.

SARA HOWELL MEMORIAL FUND PRAYER

“Heavenly Father, bless we pray for those we strive to help in the memory of our sister, your servant,

Sara Howell. Grant them new life and new vision.

Amen

The Daughters of the King is a religious order for lay women in the Episcopal, Anglican, Roman Catholic and Lutheran churches, and was organized in 1885. Every Daughter pledges herself to a lifelong program of prayer, service and evangelism, dedicating herself to the spread of Christ’s kingdom, especially among women and girls. There is a three month preparation period before final vows are taken.

Daughters are young and old, rich and poor, beautiful and plain, community leaders and mothers, doctors and teachers, secretaries, executives and housewives, sinful and wavering, generous and strong. Daughters are ordinary human beings enabled by God’s grace to do His work. The symbol of the Order is a silver Greek cross which members wear at all times.

THE MOTTO OF THE ORDER

For His sake
I am but one, but I am one.
I cannot do everything, but I can do something.
What I can do, I ought to do.
What I ought to do, by the grace of God, I will do.
Lord, what will you have me do?
