  - Traces of the Trade Conference: Church leaders are invited to attend a seminar featuring two screenings by filmmaker Katrina Browne. Her feature-length documentary, “Traces of the Trade: A Story from the Deep North,” will be screened March 3 at St. Andrew’s Church, 2233 Woodbourne Ave., Louisville, KY 40205. Her short film, “Repairing the Breach,” will be screened March 4. Browne’s work is geared toward confronting the black/white divide, understanding the impact and legacy of the slave trade, and how racial reconciliation can be recognized and attained. Dr. Felicia LaBoy will also be in attendance on March 4 to co-facilitate discussion with Browne and to provide materials exploring racial reconciliation. Dr. LaBoy is the Associate Dean of Black Church Studies and Advanced Learning and the Associate Professor of Black Church Studies at the Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary. Join us at St. Andrew’s Episcopal Church for the seminar on March 3-4. To learn more, visit: www.episcopalky.org/traces-of-the-trade.html and the Facebook event page.
