

THE STEEPLE

The Church of the Nativity

January 3, 2018

Our Mission:

God's family at the historic Church of the Nativity is joyfully and energetically committed to sharing Christ's love and healing by proclaiming the Good News of the Gospel through worship and service to the world.

CHURCH
NATIVITY,
EPISCOPAL

Est. 1843

As we peer into 2018, it is necessary to plan and ponder how the year will unfold. And yet, we can get so preoccupied with planning and predicting tomorrow that we miss the gift of today.

The psalmist reminds us, "This is the day that the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it." (Psalm 118:24) This is the day that the Lord has given us. Not yesterday or another day. This day. We hope and pray for more days, better days, blessed days. And through God's grace and mercy, perhaps our prayers will be answered. However, for now, the Lord had gifted you and me with this day.

Frederick Buechner, in "Listening to Your Life", comments on the gift of today. "In the entire history of the universe, let alone in your own history, there has never been another just like it and there will never be another just like it again. It is the point to which all your yesterdays have been leading since the hour of your birth. It is the point from which all your tomorrows will proceed until the hour of your death. If you were aware of how precious it is, you could hardly live through it. Unless you are aware of how precious it is, you can hardly be said to be living at all."

This day may be filled with joy or sadness, "busy-ness" or boredom. Or maybe a little of each. Rejoice and be glad in it, or weep and be sad in it. Do not let it slip away. This is the day that the Lord has made.

Men's Wednesday Night Bible Study

Dear Friends,

This is an invitation to attend a Men's Bible Study that will begin on Wednesday, January 10th in the first floor library of Joffrion Hall at 6:00 pm. We'll have three additional sessions on the following Wednesdays. The first class will consider "Adam and Atoms" and will reveal – among other things - where Vince Gilligan (creator of Breaking Bad) came up with Walter White's alias "Heisenberg".

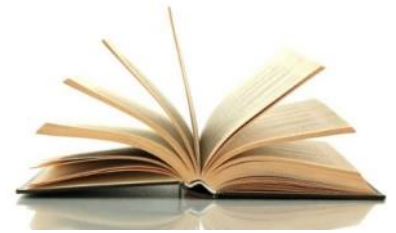

Before you decide, re-read Jesus's thoughts below.

"Take this most seriously: a 'yes' on earth is 'yes' in heaven; a 'no' on earth is 'no' in heaven. What you say to one another is eternal. I mean this.

When two of you get together on anything at all on earth and make a prayer of it, my Father in heaven goes into action. And when two or three of you are together because of me, you can be sure that I'll be there." Matthew 18: 18-20 (The Message)

So apparently, then, Jesus will be there. Will you? Hope so.

LEM & Lector Training Opportunity

The laity are the people of the church who through the organizations of the church (e.g., vestry, Christian education, parish programs, etc.) live the Christian faith by bearing witness to Christ wherever they may be. Two very special ways to serve as a lay person include being a Lector and a LEM (Lay Eucharistic Minister).

What is a Lector?

A Lector is a lay person trained in reading scripture. The term is from the Latin, "to read". There is no license required for this ministry, just a willingness to read the lessons and prayers during services.

What is a LEM?

A Lay Eucharistic Minister is licensed by the bishop to administer the consecrated elements during the Eucharist.

What is a LEV?

A Lay Eucharistic Visitor is licensed to go from a Sunday Eucharist to share the sacraments with members of the congregation who are unable to be present because of illness or infirmity.

If you are interested in participating in an upcoming training session in order to begin serving as a Lay Eucharistic Minister or as a Lector please contact Deacon Bob Serio (bserio@nativity-hsv.org or 256-509-5931).

If your name is not on this schedule, rest assured you’ll be used first in February! Thank you all (families AND acolytes) who help us with this important ministry at Nativity!*
