THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN'S PRAYER

Almighty God, we pray that You will bless our work in mission and ministry in the world. Help us to pray fervently, labor diligently and give liberally to make known the power of your love given through your son, Jesus Christ. Let us not forget the lessons from the past nor fear the challenges of the future. Anoint us with your grace and shine in our hearts as we reflect your light throughout the world. Amen

The Rt. Rev. Dabney T. Smith
Fifth Bishop of the Diocese of Southwest Florida

The Rt. Rev. Dabney Tyler Smith was elected bishop coadjutor of the Diocese of Southwest Florida on December 9, 2006. He was ordained and consecrated as a bishop on March 10, 2007 at the Cathedral of St. Jude the Apostle in St. Petersburg, FL. He was seated as the fifth bishop of the diocese September 15, 2007 at St. Peter's Cathedral in St. Petersburg.

Prior to his election, he had been rector of Trinity Church, New Orleans, LA, since January 2005. The church, with about 2,500 members and seven associate clergy, includes Trinity Episcopal School (pre-K through eighth grade with 329 students), and a counseling and training center.

In post-Katrina New Orleans, he served on the Jericho Road Episcopal Housing Initiative that exists to create desperately needed housing for hurricane victims. He was also on the steering committee of Common Good, a public partnership of faith-based, nonprofit, civic and higher-education organizations that brings the voice of the citizens of New Orleans to the table with the political and business sectors. He served on the Diocesan Rebuilding Committee for the Diocese of Louisiana and on the diocesan executive board.

He earned a B.A. in broadcasting production from the University of South Florida, Tampa (1980); an M. Div. from Nashotah House, cum laude (1987); and a D. Min. from Seabury-Western Theological Seminary with special focus on congregational development (1999). He served at Holy Trinity in Melbourne, FL; St. Michael and All Angels in South Bend, IN.; and Grace Church in Port Orange, FL.

He is president of the Bishop Gray Retirement Foundation serves as a member of the board of directors of the Dominican Development Group, the Board of Regents of University of the South and Board of Trustees of Nashotah House. He was recently appointed by the Presiding Bishop to serve on the Standing Committee on Mission and Evangelism. In the Diocese of Southwest Florida, he serves on the board of Berkeley Preparatory School in Tampa. At the 2015 General Convention, he was elected to serve as a member of Executive Council.

He also served the wider Church as chairman of the Episcopal Church Building Fund, board member of the Seminary of the Southwest and member of the House of Bishops Planning Committee. He is a former Vice President of Province IV, where he sat on the Presiding Bishop's Council of Advice.

Born in 1953, Bishop Smith is a Florida native, the son of the late The Rev. Dorsey and Dorothy Smith.

He and wife Mary Wallis Smith are the parents of five grown children: sons Dabney Smith and Andrew Bennett Wallis and daughters Alicia Caputo, Megan (Meg) Wallis and Ashton Williston. They have six grandchildren, Dabney Tyler, Charles Tyler, Emma, Isabella, Abigail, and twins James Christopher and Lucas Tyler.

His hobbies include music (he played guitar and keyboards in various groups for many years), and reading history and biographies.
October 2017

Dear Sisters in Christ:

Episcopal Church Women

As you begin your church planning for 2018, I invite you to revisit the Diocesan Convention theme, WORK, PRAY & GIVE.

Work, pray, and give is a phrase from the Catechism response to the question “What is the duty of all Christians?” It is, of course, not the full response. The theme and the full response in the Catechism have to do with the missional purpose of spreading the kingdom of God. Working, praying and giving have to do with our Christian duties of living into that mission.

We have a healthy number of congregations living vital mission by feeding the underfed, evangelizing in the 21st century, dealing with conflict with the Biblical imperative of Peace, and the ongoing work of dismantling racism. Our work does not just happen when we are doing social work or participating in programs. Healing our world happens when people in our parishes engage ministry in their daily lives and when we dedicate our work to the glory of God.

The teachings within our diocese and the business of the church, all have to do with working, praying and giving, for the spread of the kingdom of God. There are other kingdoms, or sovereignties not of God, that seek our lives. Spreading God’s kingdom is the work of the Church. It is why we are here. Work, Pray, and Give!

Faithfully yours,

The Rt. Rev. Dabney T. Smith
Fifth Bishop of Southwest Florida
ECW Diocesan President’s Message . . .

Dear Episcopal Church Women Friends,

I am so excited about what God wants to do with our ladies Ministry!

It is the desire of our heart to reach women inside and outside of the church with the love of Jesus, see women grow in their walk with the Lord and apply God’s Word to their lives. We want to encourage, equip, and strengthen women in their faith by providing women with Bible studies/knowledge, retreats and outreach opportunities.

As your newly elected President of the Episcopal Church Women for the Diocese of Southwest Florida, I am looking forward to working with you serving our Lord in our churches, communities and beyond. Keeping the women’s groups connected is extremely important to the success of women’s ministry. Many people join the women’s ministry for support and friendship. I am hoping to encourage women to support one another in their relationship with God so that through spiritual friendships, mentoring, modeling and teaching on another, we might experience the love, hope, and freedom to become all that God intends us to be. I personally invite you to participate in the various expressions of this important ministry.

Your 2018-2020 Board is looking forward to meeting you and serving with you for the next three years. We urge you to reach out to us for support and guidance in your women’s ministries.

Blessings to you!

ORGANIZATION OF EPISCOPAL CHURCH WOMEN

NATIONAL
The purpose of this organization shall be to assist the women of the Episcopal Church to carry on Christ’s work of reconciliation, mission, and ministry in the community, nation, and the world, and to take their place in the life, governance, and worship of the Church. National officers are elected and national by-laws are adopted. The officers are responsible for planning and implementing the Triennial Meeting. For current information visit: ecwnational.org

TRIENNIAL
The Episcopal Church Women of the Episcopal Church meet every three years concurrently with the General Convention. The purpose of the Triennial Meeting is to provide a forum wherein the concerns of the whole Church may be explored in freedom and mutual caring. The meeting is spiritually oriented, of an educational nature, and inclusive of all women. The Triennial Meeting discusses issues and concerns of women in workshops and panel discussions. For current information visit: ecwnational.org

PROVINCE
ECW Provinces correspond with those of the national church. Our province is called Sewanee. A Woman’s Conference is held yearly at Kanuga in early June for the women of Province IV. Kanuga Episcopal Conference Center is in North Carolina near Hendersonville. For current information visit: ecwnational.org/province-IV

DIOCESE
The Diocesan Executive Board is elected by the delegates representing each parish and mission at the Annual Meeting held each November. The officers are President, President-Elect, Secretary, Treasurer and the elected chairs of the following ministries: Church Periodical Club, United Thank Offering, and Mission & Ministries. The President shall appoint other chairmen who may be needed to carry out the work of the Board. The purpose of the Diocesan Executive Board is to assist branches in ways to deepen the spiritual lives of church women and to foster their active participation in the whole church program. For current information visit: episcopalswfl.org

DEANERY
The organization of the Episcopal Church Women of the Diocese is divided into seven Deaneries; each Deanery has an elected Deanery Director. The Deanery Directors sit on the Diocesan Executive Board and serve as liaison between the ECW Diocesan Executive Board and the branches. Deanery gatherings are held throughout the year. Deanery colors are: Clearwater—Red; Fort Myers—Turquoise; Manasota—Gold; Naples—Burgundy; St. Petersburg – Green; Tampa—Purple; Venice – Royal Blue.

BRANCHES
A Branch is the ECW organization of an individual congregation. The ECW Diocesan organization is available to assist with the work of the Branches. The ECW Offices of the Branch, in consultation with the Priest-in-Charge, should plan, promote, direct, and evaluate the work of the branch.
THE NATIONAL CHURCH: The Episcopal Church, a branch of the Anglican Communion, is comprised of nine provinces, representing 99 dioceses in the USA, 9 additional provincial dioceses, 12 additional territorial dioceses, and the convocation of the American Church in Europe.

General Convention: The Legislative Body of the Church is composed of the House of Bishops and the House of Deputies, clerical and lay. It meets every three years and will meet again in June 2018. All legislation must be concurred on by both houses.

Executive Council: The Executive Body of the Church is comprised of representatives (Bishops, Priests, and Laymen) elected by the Convention and the Provinces. The Council, together with a staff of salaried workers, carries out the program ordered by the General Convention.

The Presiding Bishop: Elected by the General Convention, is the President of the Executive Council and presides over the House of Bishops and joint sessions of the Convention.

The Most Reverend Michael Curry
Episcopal Church Center
815 Second Avenue
New York, NY 10017

The Province: The Episcopal Church is divided into 9 geographical provinces. Southwest Florida belongs to the Fourth Province (Province IV) which consists of 20 dioceses in 9 southern states.

The Provincial Synod: Is the annual meeting of Bishops, Clergy and Lay representatives from all dioceses in a province.

The Dioceses: A diocese is a group of congregations under the jurisdiction of a Bishop. In the Diocese of Southwest Florida, there are a total of 76 congregations.

Annual Diocesan Convention: The Convention, attended by delegates from the parishes and missions, adopts a program and budget for the diocese and elects clerical and lay members to the Diocesan Council and the Standing Committee.

Diocesan Council: The Council is composed of clergy and laity. Meetings of the Diocesan Council are presided over by the Bishop. The Diocesan Council is charged with the development and prosecution of the program of the Diocese.

Standing Committee: The Standing Committee is a council of advice to the Bishop.

The Deanery: The Diocese is divided into deaneries. There are 7 deaneries in the Diocese of Southwest Florida: Clearwater, Fort Myers, Manasota, Naples, St. Petersburg, Tampa, and Venice. The Bishop appoints a Dean who presides over meetings of the clergy and laity of the deanery. In our Diocese, these meetings are called convocations.

Women’s Ministries: For current information visit: ecwnational.org or episcopalchurch.org/page/women-church
When you enter your church, all is in readiness. The silent ministry of the Altar Guild has been at work. All the proper vessels, vestments, and hangings are in place. The silver and brass have been polished, and all the linens have been washed and ironed. In some churches the flowers have been arranged. Everything in the sanctuary has been prepared by the Altar Guild. Its members are God’s housekeepers. All who perform these chores are devoted to God and are privileged to serve Him.

The Diocese is divided into two areas. The Northern area has three Deaneries (Clearwater, St. Petersburg, Tampa) and the Southern area has four (Fort Myers, Manasota, Naples, Venice).

CHURCH PERIODICAL CLUB (CPC)

The Church Periodical Club is an independent, affiliated organization of the Executive Council of the Episcopal Church, dedicated to the worldwide ministry of the printed word. In this diocese it is administered by the Episcopal Church Women. All churches are asked to participate whether there is an ECW Branch or not.

The Presiding Bishop designates a CPC Sunday, but with the approval of each congregation’s Priest-in-Charge. It may be held at any time of the year. In our diocese one-half of the offering may be retained by the congregation for books, Bibles, Sunday School curricula, etc. for use within the congregation. Undergraduate Student Book Grants are available in our Diocese. See ECW Handbook/CPC, form on page 16, or contact CPC Diocesan Director.

The CPC Mile of Pennies (MOP) is an outreach program to provide books for children grades K-12. One mile of pennies equals $844.80 and a MOP grant is for that amount. The MOP collection must be remitted by the Diocese in full to the national organization. Checks are to be made out to ECW Diocese of Southwest Florida and marked for CPC Mile of Pennies. SEND ALL CPC AND MOP MONIES, BOOK GRANT FORMS TO ECW DIOCESAN TREASURER: BERRY LUDWIG, 12255 7TH ST. EAST, TREASURE ISLAND, FL 33706.

UNITED THANK OFFERING

United Thank Offering (UTO) is a ministry of The Episcopal Church for the mission of the whole church. Through United Thank Offering, men, women, and children nurture the habit of giving daily thanks to God. These prayers of thanksgiving start when we recognize and name our many daily blessings. Those who participate in UTO discover that thankfulness leads to generosity. United Thank Offering is entrusted to promote thank offerings, to receive the offerings, and to distribute the UTO monies to support mission and ministry throughout The Episcopal Church and in invited Provinces of the Anglican Communion in the developing world.

Grants are awarded annually and must meet the criteria set forth by the United Thank Offering Committee. Grants are submitted to the Bishop’s office, reviewed by the committee, and the Bishop writes his recommendation. The ECW Diocesan UTO Director will forward annual UTO dates and criteria for grant information to the churches when it becomes available. The Grant applications and UTO supplies are available on line: https://www.episcopalchurch.org/united-thank-offering.

United Thank Offering Prayer

Source of all creation, all love, all true joy, accept we pray, these outward signs of our profound and continuing thankfulness for all of life. Bless those who will benefit from these gifts through the outreach of the United Thank Offering; and keep each of us ever thankful for all the blessings of joy and challenge that come our way; through him who is the greatest gift and blessing of all, Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. Amen

MISSION & MINISTRY

In 2002, Province IV added a chair for Mission & Ministry to their board of directors, and in 2004, our Diocesan Board followed their lead. The purpose of Mission & Ministry arm of our Diocesan ECW is twofold: 1) to raise the awareness of mission work being done throughout the Diocese by serving as a conduit of communication from the local branches to the Diocesan Board, and vice versa; 2) to support one another’s mission work through sharing, not only of resources, experience and knowledge, but especially, through prayers. This team includes the respective deanery representatives for Mission & Ministry, as well as the coordinators for youth ministry, scholarship funds and mission projects for our companion diocese, the Dominican Republic; Asian Ministry; and representatives or coordinators of any upcoming ministries, as these arise.

Sarah Howell
MEMORIAL FUND

The Sarah Howell Memorial Fund is a ministry that was created by and administered by the Episcopal Church Women in the Diocese of Southwest Florida.

In May 1988 this new ministry was named in memory of Sara Howell, who had served as ECW Diocesan Chair of Christian Social Concerns. Sara had, years before, found herself a single parent with no means of support or any job skills. She met her challenge, entering the workforce and sustaining both herself and her daughter. Encouraging women to fulfill their individual potential through education was important to Sara.

The intent and purpose of this ministry is to provide needed financial aid and support to Episcopal women seeking entry or re-entry into the job market. Paramount among those needing assistance are single parents who must support their families as well as older women who need training to return to the workforce. In this challenging economy more women are finding it necessary to advance themselves beyond minimum wage employment by training and education.

Most support for the Sarah Howell Memorial Fund is provided by ECW branches through their outreach budgets and also from memorial or recognition gifts. Every dollar given means new life, new vision and hope to an Episcopal woman in need of help, be it your friend, a woman in your church, a neighbor or yourself one day. Each gift from the heart is a true testament of accepting our mission to be women helping women.

SARAH HOWELL MEMORIAL FUND PRAYER

“Heavenly Father, bless we pray for those we strive to help in the memory of our sister, your servant,
Sara Howell. Grant them new life and new vision. Amen

The Daughters of the King is a religious order for lay women in the Episcopal, Anglican, Roman Catholic and Lutheran churches, and was organized in 1885. Every Daughter pledges herself to a lifelong program of prayer, service and evangelism, dedicating herself to the spread of Christ’s kingdom, especially among women and girls. There is a three-month preparation period before final vows are taken.

Daughters are young and old, rich and poor, beautiful and plain, community leaders and mothers, doctors and teachers, secretaries, executives and housewives, sinful and wavering, generous and strong. Daughters are ordinary human beings enabled by God’s grace to do His work. The symbol of the Order is a silver Greek cross, which members wear at all times.

THE MOTTO OF THE ORDER

For His sake

I am but one, but I am one.
I cannot do everything, but I can do something.
What I can do, I ought to do.
What I ought to do, by the grace of God, I will do.
Lord, what will you have me do?

Cornerstone Kids, Inc., DONATION FORM
(After-School Program)
St. James House of Prayer, Tampa

The mission of Cornerstone Kids, Inc. is to reach at-risk inner-city children and to assist in their educational, spiritual, and emotional development in a safe, secure and nurturing environment.

Cornerstone Kids, Inc. is 501 (c) (3) Outreach Ministry of St. James House of Prayer, Tampa, FL, which provides a comprehensive after-school program in which the children of the Tampa Heights Community who are five to eleven years of age can receive homework assistance, tutoring, computer training, reading comprehension, arts and crafts, educational/recreational activities and field trips. There are approximately 40 children enrolled in the program. In addition to the activities offered, a hot nutritious meal is served daily. The program operates 5 days a week from 2:30 PM to 5:30 PM with a staff of six and a small pool of volunteers.

Cornerstone Kids, Inc. has a diverse fourteen-member board of directors that make decisions concerning the direction and fiscal management of the program and assists with projects and fundraising responsibilities. Funds are generated through grants, special projects, fundraisers, contributions from private donors, churches, friends, and parishioners; to meet its yearly operations budget.

Summer Program: During the summer, the Cornerstone Kids Program operates on a modified schedule Monday through Thursday from 12 noon until 4 pm. Lunch is served daily. The curriculum includes computer training, beginners Spanish, etiquette training, songs and movement, indoor board games, arts, and crafts, organized outdoor activities, field trips and other enrichment activities.

History: The Rector of the House of Prayer Episcopal Church started the program as Cornerstone Kids Club 24 years ago. The intent was to provide a safe place for the children in the Tampa Heights community to play and avoid the negative influences “on the street” and of an empty home. Today, Cornerstone Kids, Inc. is a comprehensive After-School Program that serves 45 children in the Tampa Heights community.
