Sunday, April 1

8:00 a.m. Lighting of the First Fire and The Feast of the Resurrection
Holy Eucharist Rite I
Lighting of the First Fire takes place at the front entrance of the church. We enter the church in candlelight procession. We recount the story of creation, then celebrate the glory of New Creation with the proclamation of the Paschal Alleluia and singing of the Gloria. Please bring bells to ring. Incense will be used at this service.

10:30 a.m. Holy Eucharist Rite II with Full Choir & Special Music and Flowering of the Cross
Children are asked to bring flowers. Extra will be provided.

Easter Egg Hunt after the 10:30 a.m. Service In the Park

After the 10:30 service, St. Luke’s will have a special Easter High Coffee Hour.

Donations are being taken for Easter Flowers. Suggested donation amount is $5.00 to $25.00, although any amount will be accepted. Please let us know if it will be “in memory of,” or “in thanksgiving for.” Remember to mark your check for Easter flowers. Please get your dedications in by March 26th so they will be in the Easter Sunday bulletin.

HOLY SATURDAY
MARCH 31
8:00 a.m. Holy Eucharist Rite I
10:30 a.m. Holy Eucharist Rite II with Dramatic Presentation of Gospel Reading

Gather in the Parish Hall to parade together to the Sanctuary in memory of our Lord’s Triumphant Procession.

Please sign up for one or more hours throughout the night for the “watch” with the Blessed Sacrament. This is a remembrance of our Lord’s asking of his disciples, “Will you not watch with me for one hour?” Men are especially encouraged to sign up for hours during the night. Information and instructions will be provided for personal prayers and meditation. You may come at any hour during the time following the Maundy Thursday service until the next day before the 12:15 p.m. Good Friday service the next day.
By Nick Burrows

I am participating in the Idaho Falls Public Library’s Extreme Book Nerd challenge. I know a few other people in our church are also participating and I think it’s great to be able to discuss ideas for books with each other. For those not familiar with it, the challenge is to read 50 books in 50 categories. Books cannot be used in multiple categories and categories cannot be used for multiple books.

One of the categories this year, is “A wildcard book”. For this category, each participant draws a random category and I drew “A book in the nonfiction 200s”. For those, like me, who did not memorize the Dewey Decimal system, the 200s are books on religion. For this category, I chose to read Bishop Curry’s book, Crazy Christians.

The book is essentially 13 sermons that were delivered by Bishop Curry between 2001 and 2012 at either the North Carolina Diocesan Convention or the General Convention that have been adapted for prose. Throughout the book, I was frequently reminded about why I am an Episcopalian. But I would like to share one particular passage that especially spoke to me.

The passage is from a chapter titled “Down with Walls of Division and Up with the Dream of God” when Bishop Curry writes about how his parents found themselves in the Episcopal church. They both grew up Baptist and became Episcopalians as young adults. His mother was confirmed while in graduate school and was an Episcopalian when she met his father, a licensed Baptist preacher. Bishop Curry describes the first time that his father attended an Episcopal church.

“That morning my parents were among the few African-Americans in the congregation. This was the 1940s. Jim Crow was alive and well. Segregation and separation of the races was still the law in much of the land. The armed forces had not yet been integrated. Brown v. the Board of Education had not taken place, and it was long before the Montgomery bus boycott. Martin Luther King Jr. was still in seminary. Still, my father saw on the altar only one cup from which everyone was to drink.

“My father didn’t feel comfortable going up for communion, but when my mother went up, he watched closely. Was the priest really going to give her communion from the common cup? And if he did, was the next person really going to drink from that same cup? And would others drink too, knowing a black woman had sipped from that cup? He saw the priest offer her the cup, and she drank. Then the priest offered the cup to the next person at the rail, and that person drank. And then the next person, and the next, all down the rail. When my father told the story, he would say: ‘That’s what brought me to the Episcopal Church. Any church in which black folks and white folks drink out of the same cup knows something about a gospel that I want to be a part of.’”

As I read that, my mind was blown to read that glimpse of history and know that our church used a common cup, even at a time when people were required to drink from separate water fountains. I love how inclusive the Episcopal Church is and has been. Ultimately, as Episcopalians, labels simply do not matter because we are all brothers and sisters in Christ.

March Outreach: Seminary Support by The Rev. Susan E. Speir

Seminary is a vital experience for many ordained and lay people who are called to the ministry in the Episcopal Church. Episcopal Churches are not all Rectored Parishes, especially in places like Idaho where we have small rural churches. We do have some other ways to assist people in fulfilling the requirements for ordained ministry. Some seminaries have begun online courses and others are opening their doors for part time education. The Episcopal Church has 10 seminaries and some additional Anglican/Episcopal schools throughout the United States.

Since your Rector attended the Seminary of the Southwest, donations for Seminary Education (student education or seminary endowment) will go there this month. You may remember that a seminarian from this diocese and this church, Joseph Farnes, also obtained his education from SSW in Austin, Texas. A traditional seminary education for an M.div. degree to become an ordained priest costs well over $100,000 for the three years. Housing can be in addition to this amount.

The description of the school where Joseph and I attended follows. Let us all be generous this month in helping to perpetuate Theological Education!

Seminary of the Southwest

Seminary of the Southwest forms men and women for the service of Christ in lay or ordained ministry within the church and the larger society. Southwest’s vision is to be a community for formation and leadership within the church supported by a strength of program, endowment, and environment that assures excellence in theological and pastoral education.
From Your Spiritual Director
By Cher Stone

Pam Mayes gave me an article a few days after I gave my sermon on stillness and listening for God. I thought the essence of the article was something that we could all use during Lent as a very simple exercise. The suggestion given is to try to do something that fills you with wonder. Think about when you feel your soul lift, or when you feel as though you are breathing for the first time in a long time. Where do you find wonder?

Here are a few things you might try:
* Stand in a field at dawn or sunset
* Hold a small sleeping child
* Listen to music that never fails to bring a tear
* Pause in the woods during a rainfall
* Take a leisurely hour at a museum or gallery
* Spend ten minutes of silence in the morning
* Attend a service where prayers are sung or silence is kept
* Make your favorite yeast bread
* Walk the river

If these ideas are not for you I invite you to join a group of prayers beginning March 11 at 9:15 in the Parish Hall. We will begin a 2 week prayer cycle aimed at our concerns over violence against women and children. We will be together on 3 Sundays and during the week, each person will have a small book of prayers - one for each day - to say at home. It is a small effort, but powerful in its results. I hope you can join in.

Join us to pray in community and discussion:
March 11
March 18
March 25
We will meet at 9:15
Have you been thinking what you can do to help at St. Luke’s?
This column provides ways for you to help St. Luke’s. Some items may take 10 minutes, some things may take an afternoon, or maybe 2 hours a month, and some may be asking for a bigger commitment of your time and talent. We hope that you will able help us!

Coffee Hour sign up sheet is available!
Our sign up sheet for Coffee Hour has so many open spaces! Hosting coffee hour only takes a small amount of time. Bring some cookies or other goodies to the church, make coffee, put everything out, and clean up after. Celebrate something in your life (like a birthday, anniversary, or family) by hosting coffee hour. The sign up list is posted on the wall by the window to the kitchen.

Spring is on the way!
Why not put an hour on your upcoming calendar to help out at the church? In spring, we always need some yard/outside clean-up, planting, and weeding. Contact the office if you can help.

If you can fulfill any of these current needs at St. Luke’s, please contact the church office at 208-522-8465 or stlukes@qwestoffice.net. We will see that the right person gets your information and contacts you.

From the Buildings & Grounds Committee
“Moving the furniture”
will take place in the office on April 18th. Laurie’s desk will be in the reception area of the office; financials will be in the middle office, and the larger office that was Suzanne’s office will be turned into a small conference room for classes, tellers, vestry meetings, etc.

Men’s Fellowship
The Men’s Club will be meet at the downtown Villa on Saturday, March 10 at 9 am. Due to Eastern Deanery Days, Nick will not be able to attend, but others are welcome to meet. Please note, while this is a church fellowship activity, each individual is responsible for the costs of his own food and beverage purchases.

Art Studio
Friday, March 30, 7 p.m. — 9:00 p.m.
As this is Good Friday, we will work on a contemplative and spiritual project together. Novices and friends are welcome. Please bring a snack or drink to share.

FRUIT LADYBUGS

Get creative in the kitchen with this sweet springtime snack.

What you need:
- Strawberries (washed)
- Knife
- Plate or wax paper
- ½ cup melted chocolate chips
- Zippered baggie
- Scissors
- Blueberries (washed)
- Adult help

What you do:
1. De-stem the strawberries. Cut in half and then cut a small V atop each half to make the ladybug body. Set them on a plate or wax paper.
2. Place the melted chocolate in a baggie and cut off the tip of a bottom corner.
3. Pipe a dividing line and “spots” on each strawberry. Also use the chocolate to attach a blueberry “head” by the V shape.
4. Pipe chocolate antennas and legs onto ladybugs.
5. Let harden. Enjoy!

The St. Luke’s Prayer Chain

“This is the confidence we have in approaching God: that if we ask anything according to his will, he hears us.” 1 John 5:14

The St. Luke’s Prayer Chain is made up of church members who are called to the ministry of prayer. Any member of the Prayer Chain may be called to initiate a “prayer request.” This request is then passed along the chain until it returns to the member who received the call. (If one member is unavailable to receive the call, Prayer Chain members will call the following person on the list.) The Prayer Chain members will keep all prayer requests confidential.

Thank you for the Pancake Supper!
The Pancake Supper on Shrove Tuesday was a great success, and special thanks should go to everyone who worked on the evening. A big thank you especially to Scott Lee, Buddy Hall, and Marcy Nigg without whose work the evening would not have happened!

SouperBowl of Caring Fundraising
Thanks to the generosity of St. Luke's Parish, the church raised an additional $186.00 for the Soup Kitchen before the big game. After the holidays, giving for food charities often slows, so a big thanks to all who helped raise money for this wonderful charity during this time!

Thank you to Amanda Lee for taking over our nursery and for spending slow times cleaning the nursery and the choir vesting room.

Thank you to all those who assisted with the 2 funerals in February, including food, changes in liturgical hangings, ushering and greeting guests.
