Our mission

As God’s people, we will share the love of God in a way that nurtures body, mind and spirit. Demonstrating God’s love for the world, we will serve a diverse population and accept one another without reservations. By including all people as one family in worship and service to God, we are all empowered and inspired by the Spirit to continue the work of Jesus Christ.
Feminist Theology Book Group Continues Tuesday at Noon

We will explore what feminist theology has to offer for four more Tuesdays during Easter (May 14 - June 4). We selected a collection of essays called Womanspirit Rising: A Feminist Reader in Religion, eds. Carol Christ & Judith Plaskow. Attendance is not required at every session, feel free to attend as your schedule allows. Please try to read each week’s essays beforehand.

Over the next three Sundays we will have a special table set up at coffee hour with the bibles that were presented to our graduating seniors at their Eucharist Retreat. Please stop by to jot down your best wishes and favorite verses. Your words will encourage Angie Goodner, Will Laraway, Emma MacArthur-Warner and Grace Wenzel on their adventures to come and will remind them of the love and community surrounding them at Trinity.

Calling All Photographers!

Whether it’s your profession or your hobby, Trinity needs help capturing special moments in our vibrant parish with photography. Images are a powerful way of telling our story and showing the community who we are. Upcoming events which need coverage are the May 18 Rector Installation, May 19 Children and Youth Sunday, June 2 Graduation Sunday and June 9 Baptism, Pentecost and Confirmation. If you would like to volunteer your gift of taking pictures, please contact Betty Wenzel at bwenzel@trinitiesb.org or by calling the office at 805-965-7419.

Today in the Church School

Children at Trinity meet most Sundays for the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd program (CGS). Since each Level of the program covers a range of ages, often several lessons are offered each Sunday, with most children taking part in only one. Today Level I will continue their work with the Baptism materials. Level II will reflect on the priest’s paired gestures of Epiclesis and Offering in the Eucharist, work with materials depicting the Women at the Tomb, and work with Baptism materials. Level III will join the service for the morning.

No experience or planning is required—just sign up for a week or two of enjoying art with the children. It’s easy, it’s fun, and it’s intergenerational! What could be better? Sign up starts on Sunday, May 19 or email the Trinity office, office@trinitiesb.org.

Justice and Outreach Council Update
The recent parish survey showed that Trinity members spread their personal ministries over 80 local community organizations. For 2019, after discerning survey input, the Justice and Outreach Council (JOC) will extend Trinity outreach in three ways.

1. During the year, as the budget is determined, the JOC will use input from involved parishioners to help determine one or two significant community projects to support which demonstrate sustainable systemic improvement in our community.
2. JOC will support some low cost opportunities with small donations to increase Trinity’s involvement in the local community. For example, the JOC voted to support the Environmental Defense Center’s (EDC’s) Green & Blue event on June 2 by becoming a sponsor at the Anacapa level of $250. Parish members who attend will be encouraged to wear their Trinity nametags. In addition, a drawing will be held among Trinity members who indicated “EDC” on the parish survey. Two winners will receive the tickets provided with the Anacapa sponsorship.
3. Support no cost opportunities and events with announcements and information in the parish notes and on our bulletin board, relying on input from involved parishioners.

Your personal ministries and outreach to the community from Trinity will make a difference now and in the future.

JOC Co-chairs Jennifer Bergquist and Art Fisher
Members: Kathryn Dean, Mary Ann Evans, Anita Perez Ferguson, Betsy Kain, the Rev. Elizabeth Molitors, Aaron Panchal, and Joe Selzler.

MORNING PRAYER CONTINUES

Our meetings are open to everyone, and we welcome you to attend and share in the experience. Your presence and participation makes our group strong and has a positive impact on our community.
