MORNING PRAYER CONTINUES
Fridays at 8:15am
A small group of parishioners met during Lent for morning prayer on Fridays at 8:15am in the chapel. This new chapel service will continue, and we welcome everyone to the ancient Christian tradition of the Daily Office. The thirty minute service is usually lay led and consists of reciting psalms and prayers together. Come join us!

OPEN POSITIONS UPDATE
Trinity is in the process of searching for two new people to join our church’s staff. The Director of Children and Youth Ministries is a part-time position which oversees Trinity’s education and formation programs for our youngest members. The job has been posted on Trinity’s website, the diocesan website, various social media platforms and has been circulated to the other Episcopal parishes in our deanery as well as to the other Santa Barbara churches.

The second position is a newly created clergy role, called a Curate. The Curate is an apprenticeship-type position designed to offer a newly ordained priest / transitional deacon the opportunity to have hands-on experience in every part of church operations, and at the end of a 3-year term, be ready to take on a rector position at another church. After consultation with the deployment person at the Diocese of Los Angeles, we identified six candidates who fit the basic criteria for the position; of those six, four withdrew from consideration (various reasons: not interested in parish ministry, unable to relocate, accepted other jobs), leaving us with two strong candidates. An interview team, working in partnership with the rector, will be meeting in person with the candidates later this month. The team includes: Carol Carpenter, Faye Cox, Sarah Fenstermaker, Dane Goodman, Geoff Hornby, and Julia Laraway. For reasons of confidentiality, we’re not able to share the candidate names with you, but we’ll let you know when we’ve extended an offer.

Questions? Please contact the rector, Elizabeth Molitors, at emolitors@trinitysb.org.

Results from the Justice and Outreach Parish Participation Survey

Earlier this year, the Justice and Outreach Council distributed a survey to understand the issues that parishioners are passionate about. Seventy-seven people responded to the survey and made 405 selections across the organizations in each issue category. (A selection means that the person participates either by volunteering or by financial support.) The results are ranked in order of participation:

Because our expenses are largely predictable and our income varies from month to month, staying as current as possible is a great help to us. If at any time your circumstances change, please notify Cami Segna, our parish Business Manager.

For a full statement of our income and expenses, and vestry notes, see the bulletin board in the Parish Hall building for monthly updates.
