On examining the need for bail reform within the criminal justice system

Resolved, the 203rd Annual Convention of the Diocese of North Carolina supports actions to reform, and commits to examine, current judicial pretrial-release procedures within our own state. The consideration of current pretrial release practices will be conducted in partnership with organizations currently engaged in the study of the money-bail system and steps will be taken in support of needed reforms. Pretrial-release practices will be considered for consistency with the teachings of Jesus concerning the equitable treatment of all people. Further, this consideration of the money-bail system of pretrial release is in keeping with the mandate of our baptismal covenant to strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being.
In a moment of desperation, when I learned the Highway Business 40 was scheduled to be closed earlier this month, I announced to the staff at our meeting on October 30 that, as your Bishop, I would praying unapologetically that the closing of the highway would be delayed until after our convention. On Thursday, November 1, Daniel Robayo, our new missioner for Latino and Hispanic communities, tagged me in a Facebook post of an announcement that the closure of Business 40 would be delayed until 6 a.m. on Saturday, November 17. In the tag Daniel wrote, “Half a prayer OK?”

The good news is we all made it here. The challenge will be, will we make it home?

And in a sense this ties in with our theme for convention this year, as we move more deeply into the work of Becoming Beloved Community. We are all here, and we are all already a part of Jesus’ Beloved Community, but will we make it home? Will we be able to move into the full reality of what Becoming Beloved Community means. As we near the season of Advent, I would have to say that we will probably never fully realize the Beloved Community until Jesus returns, until that second Advent. But that does not mean we don’t expend every effort, here and now, to move forward toward that vision. And to do all in our power to ensure that this Beloved Community—this homecoming if you will—includes every single person, every beloved child of God.

There is a powerful story about explorer the Ernest Shackelton’s ill-fated journey to Antarctica in 1914, where the ship gets frozen in the ice. Shackelton, realizing they will not be rescued, leads a small party to go and get help, and in the months before they are able to return to rescue his crew, his greatest concern is for the safety for every member of his team. When he arrives months later with a ship to bring them to safety, he is greeted by the crew who line up along the shore, knowing how deeply he cares for them, and they greet him with the words: “All Well.” “All well” to reassure him that not one of the crew has been lost in the intervening months.

By now you probably know that I am all about team leadership, team relationships and the importance of team formation as a model for leadership in the 21st-century church. This story is a metaphor for the importance of team, the sacred value of each individual on the team, and a deep commitment to the well-being of every team member and of the whole team.

Today, as a team of the whole Diocese, if you will, we are here to understand in our own context the connection between Truth Telling and Practicing the Way of Love in Becoming Beloved Community.

And in doing this work we recognize our responsibility to care for one another, to include one another, to honor one another as we go about the delicate work of understanding the impact of racism and the construct of race on our church. Melanie has already shared with us in a powerful way something about the connection and the relationship between the Jesus Movement, Becoming Beloved Community and the Way of Love. And she shared with a story from her own history, from St. Paul’s, Richmond.

Of course all of this work has historical antecedents in the work of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. But even before that, the connection between Truth Telling and Practicing the Way of Love has biblical roots. From Paul’s letter to the Ephesians:1

“He who descended is the very one who ascended higher than all the heavens, in order to fill the whole universe. So Christ himself gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers, to equip his people for works of service, so that the body of Christ may be built up until we reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature, attaining to the whole measure of the fullness of Christ.

Speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of him who is the head, that is, Christ. From him the whole body, joined and knit together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work.”

This passage is part of the biblical roots of Becoming Beloved Community. And we can feel and hear the connection between truth telling and love in these verses.

And the work of Becoming Beloved Community means living into the vision of the Body of Christ that is captured here in this portion of Ephesians, part of the work we need to do is to find how to speak the truth to each other in a loving way. A loving way is a way that leads to hearing one another, honoring one another and healing one another. And when we hear one another’s stories with an ear to the sacred truth that is being conveyed through their experience, we are actually living into our vocation of becoming the mature Body of Christ. Through holy listening, these stories have power to transform us, as we join in the Way of Love to become Beloved Community.

This is hard work. Let’s be honest about that. When we speak the truth to each other, some of what we share may not always be easy to hear. This is especially true when we are in conversation where we bring different perspectives, different experiences, different expectations.

Last year we said we would do this work together with particular attention to race, learning more about the history of race, the systemic toxicity of racism and the challenge to face the truth of our own history, particularly our history within the church.

We said we would focus on this work as individuals and as congregations. We also said we would look at the ways systemic racism has impacted and affected all of us. And we would give particular attention to our own history within the church and within our Diocese.

Specifically we agreed to encourage all our congregations, convocations and all ministries of our Diocese to find ways to help sustain our Historically Black Episcopal Congregations through

1 Ephesians 4:10-16, New International Version prayer, bringing awareness of their existence, telling the stories of these congregations, supporting these congregations and working to implement programs such as the Office of Black Ministries’ New Visions Initiative for Congregational Vitality.”

We talked about this work, and here are some of the ways we have begun doing this work since our last Convention.

Diocesan Council decided that if we were asking the whole Diocese to engage in this work, we needed to commit to doing this work ourselves as leaders. Council participated in a two-day training on race and anti-racism following the Racial Equity Institute model. Council also created an outline of next steps for us to take as a Diocese in this work.

Here are some of the steps that we’ve begun to take.

Promoting curriculum and other resources to invite and encourage congregational engagement in the work of Becoming Beloved Community. These resources have included revising our own [Seeing the] Face of God curriculum; promoting the Advent series Becoming Beloved Community, which has now been adapted for other seasons. We’ve also continued to provide scholarships for Racial Equity Institute training across the Diocese.

We are also planning to provide funding for New Visions, and in this past year we offered four regional trainings and workshops on Invite Welcome Connect for our Historically Black Congregations and others. We’re partnering with the Racial Justice and Reconciliation Committee and Episcopalians United Against Racism.

We’re also trying to amplify the local efforts that are already bubbling up in the congregations. It’s probably not a surprise to all of you the things we decide at Convention don’t necessarily automatically get incorporated at the congregational level. But the other reality is that this isn’t just the work of Convention; it’s the work of the Holy Spirit. And so this work is already bubbling up across our Diocese, and when it does, we need to capture those moments and to share them with one another, not only to celebrate the way that the Spirit is moving us forward in the work, but also because sometimes we learn from each other. We see the example of what another congregation has done, and we recognize we could do that, too.

Council has also begun a conversation about our own history and the impact of systemic racism here in our own diocese. And our archivist, Lynn Hoke, and historiographer, Brooks Greabner, in partnership with Nita Byrd at Saint Augustine’s and Jemonde Taylor at St. Ambrose, organized a tour of historically African-American churches in the East.

Does this mean we have forgotten about our other priorities? No. Council is developing similar goals and objectives for Supporting Vulnerable Congregations, Collaboration, Formation and Care of Creation. These, too, are moving forward, but our focus in this year’s convention is to going deeper with that first priority.
In order to do the work of Becoming Beloved Community through all these priorities, we have to do our part to work toward dismantling the systemic racism in our church. If we don’t do that work first, the other work is poisoned.

We actually passed a resolution last year which stated the following: that one of the ways we would begin this work of facing our own history is that we would take the time to hear the stories of our historically African American congregations, to listen to their history and to listen for the impact of systemic racism. Our intention here is not to focus on shame and blame, but to recognize and understand what has happened and to begin to ask the harder questions: To what degree are there vestiges of these patterns that are still in our system, what I sometimes call the ghost in the machine? How will we work together to purge these historic patterns? How are we called to live differently into the future as a result of what we are hearing and learning now?

So Thursday the people of All Saints, Warrenton, shared a story of their experience of having their church closed. Not everyone was able to be there, but it was broadcast livestream, and Melanie shared some of their story yesterday. This morning we will hear shortly from Chapel of Christ the King in Charlotte, a church that is in a neighborhood that is going through a significant transition. We will hear some of the challenges that they are facing as they witness to the love of Jesus in the community that surrounds them.

Later this morning you will hear from St. Titus, a congregation in Durham that is growing and thriving but also facing challenges. Some of these challenges are not present challenges; they’re challenges that are driven by this history and by the impaired system.

Let me pause for a moment and say there are any number of reasons why people actually avoid doing this kind of work. It can be painful at times, painful to hear these stories, painful to tell these stories. For centuries we have buried parts of our history. Some might suggest we would be better off if it stayed buried. But that would leave the toxicity in the system. This is risky work because we are all in different places as we face this history, and it sometimes stretches and tests the bonds of love that hold us together.

But I love the point that Melanie made the other night about the labyrinth, that there are many points of entry to do this work. It’s the Holy Spirit’s way of reassuring us that God always meets us where we are and takes us to the next step. So there’s not one way of doing this work; there are many ways. But we can’t do the work without hearing the stories. And we can’t hear the stories without a way to support and strengthen us.

This is why the Way of Love is so essential to this work. This simple rule of life, this accessible discipline gives us the opportunity to immerse ourselves in prayer and spiritual practice as we go about our work. This is not only hard work; it’s heart work. So we need practices to build up our heart muscle. These disciplines also help anchor us and hold us close to God and close to one another as we peel back the layers of history, as we dig up the truth that we might have left buried, as we bring to light the part of our sacred journey that may have been hidden.
Turn, Learn, Worship, Pray, Go, Bless, Rest – these are all practices that strengthen our hearts, that open us up to one another. They help us to live into the vibrant promise, the dream of God, when we see each other as beloved children and as brother and sisters.

As we prepared for today, we have talked about the Way of Love as our touchstone, our mantra, the practice that strengthens our hearts to do the work that the Holy Spirit is calling us to do, the work of justice and truth-telling in love.

How do we know that this is the Holy Spirit calling us to do this work? Because the foundation of it has been laid from the very beginning; and from the Jesus Movement; and from that passage from Ephesians; in Becoming Beloved Community; in the invitation to Go Deep, Go Speak, Go Do. The call to become Beloved Community is our call to action.

And here is another piece of hearing these stories. Those of us who are white need to approach these stories with what I call a hermeneutic of contrition. What does that mean, exactly? It means we need to seek out and own our responsibility here, to recognize that any systemic problem means that we share in the responsibility, and we need to use every ounce of our power and privilege to chart a different course for our future. It means we bear a greater share of the responsibility for doing this work because the system gave us an advantage. And we need to ensure that what we hear and learn propels us in a new direction.

But the first step in this work is awakening. When we bury parts of our history, we bury a part of ourselves. Sharing these stories is an awakening, a resurrection. A couple of weeks ago we heard the story of Jesus raising Lazarus. His words at the door of the tomb were: “Lazarus, Come Out!” The literal translation of those words is a double imperative: “Lazarus, Here! Now!” In sharing these stories, here and now, we are living into Jesus’ resurrection promise. We are being awakened to the truth. And the truth will set us free to chart a different future.

The truth is that we are all here. But we are not all on level ground. The playing field has given certain advantages to some and disadvantages to others. The discriminatory factors, we know, include race, class, gender, access to education, to name a few, but race is the linchpin in our context in the United States. It is baked into our democratic DNA in ways we are only now beginning to face and to wrestle with. And it goes against everything that Jesus taught, preached, lived and died for.

One of the stories I tell about myself is that I have an odd capacity to untangle knots. It probably comes from years of working with acolytes whose cinctures and crosses were forever getting tangled. And there is a very simple principle I follow when trying to untangle a knotted mess. Go to the place of greatest tension first. Race in this country is the source of our greatest tension, and if we are ever to find a way to resolve our political differences and divisions, we are more likely to gain traction if we begin with racism and race. Jesus is asking us to help untie the knot of racism. Remember the final words he speaks to the people at Lazarus’ tomb: “Unbind him, and let him go!”

We are calling these stories of our Historically Black Congregations “Stories of Truth Telling and Resilience in a Time of Inequality and Injustice.” As you listen to the story of Chapel of Christ the King, and later to the story of St. Titus, listen to their experience. Pay attention to their words, listen to their hearts, and then pay attention to your own reactions and responses. Listen not only for the ways the system has failed; listen for their resilience, their faithfulness, their gifts for leadership that the Church is called to uphold and revere. Honor these stories, and honor the people telling them.

I believe this work will transform us, as a Diocese and as a church. I believe this work is essential to our biblical call to reconciliation. I believe this work in all about the biblical promise of liberation and new creation. “Unbind them, and let them go.” In Christ we are set free. In Christ we are a new creation. And in Christ we are becoming the dream of God, the Beloved Community. This is a homecoming that includes all of us. Amen.

Combined Financial Statements

December 31, 2018 and 2017

(With Independent Auditors' Report Thereon)
Independent Auditors' Report

The Bishop and Diocesan Council
Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina:

We have audited the accompanying combined financial statements of the Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina and the North Carolina Episcopal Church Foundation, Inc. (collectively the “Diocese” and each a nonprofit organization), which comprise the combined statements of financial position as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, and the related combined statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended, and the related notes to the combined financial statements.

Management’s Responsibility for the Combined Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these combined financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of combined financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors’ Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the combined financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the combined financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors’ judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the combined financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditors consider internal control relevant to the Diocese’s preparation and fair presentation of the combined financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity’s internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the combined financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.
Basis for Qualified Opinion

As explained in note 1(q) to the combined financial statements, the Diocese elected not to have an actuarial valuation of its postretirement benefit obligation as of December 31, 2018 and 2017. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require an entity that sponsors a defined benefit postretirement plan to report the current economic status of the plan in its statement of financial position and to include enhanced disclosures about the plan. The effects on the accompanying combined financial statements of the failure to properly record and disclose the postretirement benefit obligation have not been determined.

Qualified Opinion

In our opinion, except for the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph, the combined financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Diocese as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Report on Supplementary Information

Our audit was conducted for the purpose of forming an opinion on the combined financial statements as a whole. The accompanying schedules of combining statements of financial position and combining statements of activities are presented for purposes of additional analysis of the 2018 combined financial statements rather than to present the financial position and change in net assets of the individual entities, and is not a required part of the combined financial statements. Such information is the responsibility of management and was derived from and relates directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the combined financial statements. The information has been subjected to the auditing procedures applied in the audit of the combined financial statements and certain additional procedures, including comparing and reconciling such information directly to the underlying accounting and other records used to prepare the combined financial statements or to the combined financial statements themselves, and other additional procedures in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the combined financial statements as a whole, except for the matter described in the Basis for Qualified Opinion paragraph.

Effect of Adopting New Accounting Standard

As discussed in note 1, the Diocese adopted the Financial Accounting Standards Board’s Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2016-14, Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958) – Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities as of and for the year ended December 31, 2018. The requirements of the ASU have been applied retrospectively to all periods presented. Our opinion is not modified with respect to this matter.

(1) Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Organization

The Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina (the “Episcopal Diocese”) is a nonprofit organization that serves as an administrative division of the Episcopal Church. It is a geographical area under the jurisdiction of a Bishop and is made up of parishes, missions, chaplaincies and other entities. The Diocese collects share revenue from member churches based on an equal flat rate for each church based on previous year’s income. The staff offers support for local stewardship efforts, congregational development, outreach ministry, youth work, Christian education, and financial and business concerns. These combined financial statements do not include the individual activities of the parishes, missions, chaplaincies and other entities.

The North Carolina Episcopal Church Foundation, Inc. (the “Church Foundation”) makes loans and grants to churches within the Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina.

The Church Foundation is an organization of the Episcopal Diocese and is, therefore, combined with the Episcopal Diocese. The combined entities are collectively referred to as the “Diocese”.

(b) Basis of Accounting

The combined financial statements of the Diocese have been prepared on the accrual basis in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), except for the effects of the GAAP departure described in note 1(q).

(c) Basis of Combination

The combined financial statements include the accounts of the Episcopal Diocese and the Church Foundation. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in the combination.

(d) Basis of Presentation

The Diocese presents its net assets and its support and revenue based upon the absence or existence of donor-imposed restrictions as follows:

Net assets without donor restrictions – net assets that are not restricted by donors or for which donor-imposed restrictions have expired.

Net assets with donor restrictions – net assets that contain donor-imposed time or purpose restrictions that have not currently been met or net assets that contain donor-imposed restrictions stipulating that amounts be maintained in perpetuity. The Diocese may expend part, or all the income earned according to donor stipulations.
(1) Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, Continued

Expenses are reported as decreases in net assets without donor restrictions. Expirations of net assets with donor restrictions (i.e., the stipulated time period has elapsed, or purpose was satisfied) are reported as net assets released from restrictions.

(e) Grants and Contributions

Grants and contributions are generally recorded when received or when an unconditional promise to give to the Diocese is received. Contributions of assets other than cash are recorded at their estimated fair value.

(f) Cash and Cash Equivalents

The Diocese considers cash on hand, deposits in banks, and all highly liquid temporary cash instruments purchased with an initial maturity of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

The Diocese holds cash receipt and disbursement records open for approximately one week after the end of the year in order to record year-end transactions with member churches which are postmarked as of December 31.

(g) Grants and Other Receivables

The Diocese periodically evaluates the balances in the various aging categories as well as the status of any significant past due accounts to determine the need for an allowance for doubtful accounts. Changes in the allowance are charged to the period in which management determines the change to be necessary.

When management determines that a receivable is uncollectible, the balance is removed from the receivables balance and is charged against the allowance. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited directly to revenues. The allowance for uncollectible accounts was $5,000 as of December 31, 2018 and 2017.

Installment notes receivable represents funds advanced to churches within the Episcopal Diocese through the Church Foundation. Loans are stated at unpaid principal balances less an allowance for uncollectible amounts. Principal and interest on notes are due quarterly. These notes bear interest at rates ranging from 2% to 4%, with maturities through 2033. The loans are unsecured. The amount of the allowance for uncollectible amounts is based on management's evaluation of the collectability of specific loans. The allowance is increased by a provision for uncollectible accounts, which is charged to expense. No allowance for uncollectible accounts was deemed necessary as of December 31, 2018 and 2017.
(h) Property and Equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost at the date of acquisition, appraised value for assets for which original cost cannot be determined, or fair value at the date of donation in the case of gifts. Depreciation is computed over the estimated useful lives of the related assets using the straight-line method, generally as follows:

- Buildings and building improvements: 31.5 - 39 years
- Leasehold improvements: 15 years
- Furniture and equipment: 5 - 7 years
- Land: nondepreciable

In accordance with the Diocese’s policy, property and equipment are included in net assets without donor restrictions. The Diocese capitalizes expenditures for such items in excess of $1,000, and lesser amounts are expensed.

The Diocese also holds title to mission properties and vacant churches. This arrangement is for canonical purposes rather than for actual utilization; therefore, the properties are not included in the accompanying combined financial statements. The Diocese is required to execute deeds of trust securing mortgage notes entered into by the missions and, in the event of default, the Diocese is liable for the balance of the note.

(i) Investments

The Diocese carries investments in marketable securities with readily determinable fair values and all investments in debt securities at their fair market values in the combined statements of financial position. Realized and unrealized gains and losses are included in the change in net assets in the accompanying combined statements of activities. Net unrealized gains and losses on investments, whose income is without donor restrictions or with donor restriction as to use, is reported as without donor restriction or with donor restriction net assets as restricted by donor or by law.

The Diocese maintains investment accounts for its invested funds, which have been pooled with funds held for other Episcopal churches and institutions, under the direction of a professional investment manager. Realized and unrealized gains and losses from securities in the pooled investment fund account are allocated to the individual funds.

Expenses relating to investment income, including custodial fees and investment advisory fees, have been netted against investment income or custodian funds in the financial statements.
(1) Organization and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, Continued

(j) Fair Value Measurements

Financial assets and liabilities required to be measured on a recurring basis (at least annually) are classified under a three-tier hierarchy. Fair value is the amount that would be received to sell an asset, or paid to settle a liability, in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

The classification of assets and liabilities within the hierarchy is based on whether inputs to the valuation methodology used for measurement are observable or unobservable. Observable inputs reflect market-derived or market-based information obtained from independent sources while unobservable inputs reflect estimates about market data. See note 5 for assets of the Diocese measured at fair value on a recurring basis.

Valuation techniques used to measure fair value are prioritized in the following hierarchy:

Level 1: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unadjusted quoted prices for identical assets or liabilities in active markets that the Diocese can access.

Level 2: Inputs to the valuation methodology include:
- Quoted prices for similar assets or liabilities in active markets;
- Quoted prices for identical or similar assets or liabilities in inactive markets;
- Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability;
- Inputs that are derived principally from or corroborated by observable market data by correlation or other means.

If the asset or liability has a specified (contractual) term, the Level 2 input must be observable for substantially the full term of the asset or liability.

Level 3: Inputs to the valuation methodology are unobservable and significant to the fair value measurement.

The asset’s or liability’s fair value measurement level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. Valuation techniques used need to maximize the use of observable inputs and minimize the use of unobservable inputs.

The Diocese diversifies its investments both by asset class and within asset classes. As a general practice, all investments of the Diocese are managed by external investment management firms and observed by the Investment committee. The following is a description of the valuation methodologies used by the Diocese for assets measured at fair value:

- Common Stocks, certain Mutual Funds, and Money Market and Short-Term Reserve Funds: Valued at the closing price reported on the active markets on which the individual securities are traded (Level 1).

- Alternative Investments: Alternative funds are composed of real estate funds (investments in real estate related assets). These investments are recorded at fair value based on relevant information available to the investment advisor such as type and nature of the investment, cost of the investment at the acquisition date, size of the investment, information from analysts, brokers, agents and market participants, and changes in market indicators. These investments are reported at their net asset values (NAV) as calculated by the investment managers.

The methods described above may produce a fair value calculation that may not be indicative of net realizable value or reflective of future fair values. Furthermore, while the Diocese believes its valuation methods are appropriate and consistent with other market participants, the use of different methodologies or assumptions to determine the fair value of certain financial instruments could result in a different fair value measurement at the reporting date.

(k) Endowment Funds

The endowment funds of the Diocese consist of donor-restricted funds included in investments in the accompanying combined statements of financial position. The Diocese accounts for the endowment funds in accordance with the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) and GAAP.

The Diocese has interpreted UPMIFA as requiring the preservation of the fair value of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the Diocese retains in perpetuity (a) the original value of gifts donated to the endowment, (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the endowment, and (c) accumulations to the endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the funds. The remaining portion of the amounts not retained in perpetuity are appropriated for expenditure by the Diocese in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by UPMIFA. In accordance with UPMIFA, the Diocese considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds: (1) the duration and preservation of the various funds, (2) the purposes of the donor-restricted endowment funds, (3) general economic conditions, (4) the possible effect of inflation and deflation, (5) the expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments, (6) other resources of the Diocese, and (7) the investment policies of the Diocese.

Funds with Deficiencies. From time to time, the fair value of the assets associated with the donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or UPMIFA requires the Diocese to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. In accordance with GAAP, deficiencies of this nature are reported in net assets with donor restrictions. There were no endowment fund deficiencies as of December 31, 2018 and 2017.

Investment Return Objectives, Risk Parameters, and Strategies. The Diocese has adopted investment and spending policies, approved by the Diocesan Council, for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment funds while also maintaining the purchasing power of those endowment assets over the long-term. Accordingly, the investment process seeks to achieve a rate of return, including investment income as well as capital appreciation, which exceeds the annual distribution with acceptable levels of risk. Endowment assets are invested in a well-diversified asset mix that is intended to result in a consistent rate of return that has sufficient liquidity to make an annual distribution of 4%, while growing the fund, if possible. Investment risk is measured in terms of the total endowment funds; investment assets and allocation between asset classes, and strategies are managed to not expose the funds to unacceptable levels of risk.

Spending Policy. The Diocese has a policy of appropriating for distribution each year 4% of its endowment fund’s average fair value of the prior rolling three-year average through September 30th of the preceding fiscal year in which the distribution is planned. In establishing this policy, the Diocese considered the long-term expected return on its investment assets, the nature and duration of the endowment funds, a portion of which must be maintained in perpetuity because of donor restrictions, and the possible effect of inflation. The Diocese expects the current spending policy to allow its endowment funds to grow at a rate consistent with the Diocese’s objective to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets as well as to provide additional growth through investment return.

(l) Deferred Revenue

Deferred revenue consists of share amounts received related to a future period, which will be recognized as revenue in the following year.

(m) Custodian Funds

Custodian funds represent resources received on behalf of other organizations by the Diocese. These funds do not represent revenues and expenditures which are under Diocesan control. However, the Diocese is responsible for the custody of these funds until such funds have been used.
(1) Business Operations and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, Continued

Also, the Diocese acts as delegate agent for various groups receiving grants. As delegate agent, the Diocese can be held responsible for the grant if the recipient group does not comply with all grant requirements.

(n) Vacation Pay and Sick Leave

The Diocese’s policy provides for a maximum accumulation of unused vacation leave of 34 days, depending on an employee’s years of service, which can be carried forward at the end of each year, or for which an employee can be paid upon termination of employment with the Diocese.

The Diocese records the cost of sick leave when taken and paid rather than when the leave is earned. The maximum allowance accumulation of sick leave is 65 days. However, employees are not compensated for any unused sick leave upon termination of employment.

(o) Use of Estimates

The preparation of combined financial statements in conformity with GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect certain reported amounts and disclosures. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

(p) Income Tax Status

The Episcopal Diocese and the Church Foundation are exempt from income taxes under Section 501(a) as organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accordingly, income tax expense is limited to activities that are deemed by the Internal Revenue Service to be unrelated to their exempt purpose. Each entity’s primary tax positions relate to its status as a not-for-profit entity exempt from income taxes and classification of activities related to its exempt purpose. Each entity is not required to file a federal exempt organization tax return (Form 990) annually to retain its exempt status. However, the Diocese would be required to file an exempt organization business income tax return (Form 990-T) for any year unrelated business income exceeds $1,000.

(q) GAAP Departure

Postretirement Benefits Other Than Pension. At retirement, Diocesan clergy and other certain employees who were employed as of June 30, 2002 receive lifetime family health insurance coverage if they have served full time continuously for their last ten years of service and remain enrolled in the plan. For employees retiring after attaining age 65, the Diocese will pay the Medicare supplement that would be paid if a person were age 65 and covered by Medicare. In the event retirement is necessary before age 65 as a result of medical disability, the Diocese will pay the full amount of insurance premiums until age 65 at which time it will pay the Medicare supplement. All Spouses of deceased clergy who were already enrolled in the in the health coverage under Diocesan health and dental coverage can continue coverage at no cost to the spouse unless they remarry.

GAAP requires an employer that sponsors a defined benefit postretirement plan to report the current economic status (the overfunded or underfunded status) of the plan in its statement of financial position, to measure the plan assets and plan obligations as of the statement of financial position date, and to include enhanced disclosures about the plan. Management of the Diocese elected to not have an actuarial valuation of this plan performed for 2018 or 2017. As such, the postretirement benefit obligation as of December 31, 2018 and 2017 and the change in the postretirement plan obligation other than net periodic postretirement expense for 2018 and 2017 are estimated and/or adjusted based on the Diocese’s actuarial valuation performed as of December 31, 2013.

Furthermore, the enhanced disclosures required by GAAP are not available for disclosure for 2018 or 2017. Disclosure of this information is required to conform to GAAP. The effects of this departure from GAAP on the combined financial statements have not been determined.

The accrued post-retirement benefit obligation of the Diocese’s post-retirement welfare plan was estimated to be $4,878,462 and $4,904,699 of December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively, using actuarial assumptions from the December 31, 2013 actuarial valuation.

(r) Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of program and supporting services activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the schedule in note 10 to the combined financial statements. This schedule presents the natural classification detail of expenses by function. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited based upon estimates of time and effort.

(s) Reclassifications

Certain amounts in the 2017 financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the 2018 presentation. These reclassifications had no impact on net assets or the change in net assets as previously reported.
(1) Business Operations and Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, Continued

(t) Adoption of New Accounting Pronouncement

For 2018, the Diocese adopted the Financial Accounting Standards Board's Accounting Standards Update (ASU) No. 2016-14 - Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958): Presentation of Financial Statements of Not-for-Profit Entities. This update addresses the complexity and understandability of net asset classification, deficiencies in information about liquidity and availability of resources, and the lack of consistency in the type of information provided about expenses and investment return between not-for-profit entities. The changes required by the update have been applied retrospectively to all periods presented. A key change required by ASU 2016-14 is the description of the net asset classes used in these combined financial statements. Amounts previously reported as unrestricted net assets are now reported as net assets without donor restrictions and amounts previously reported as temporarily restricted net assets and permanently restricted net assets are now reported as net assets with donor restrictions. In addition, a schedule of functional expenses is presented in the notes to the combined financial statements. Also, information regarding liquidity and availability of resources is presented in the notes to the combined financial statements.

(2) Information Regarding Liquidity and Availability of Resources

The Diocese regularly monitors the availability of resources required to meet its operating needs and other contractual commitments. For purposes of analyzing resources available to meet general expenditures over a 12-month period, the Diocese considers all expenditures related to its ongoing activities, as well as the conduct of services undertaken to support those activities, to be general expenditures.

The Diocese’s financial assets as of December 31, 2018 consist of cash, investments, and accounts receivable, reduced by appropriated funds, board designated, custodian and donor-restricted funds, resulting in net financial assets, all of which are available to meet general expenditures within one year of the financial statement date, as follows:

(2) Information Regarding Liquidity and Availability of Resources, Continued

In addition to financial assets available to meet general expenditures over the next 12 months, the Diocese operates with a balanced budget and anticipates collecting sufficient revenue to cover general expenditures. See further discussion of donor-restricted funds at note 7.

(3) Grant Receivable

During 2018, the Diocese was awarded a grant in the amount of $996,550 of which $100,000 of the grant was received during 2018. The total grant receivable balance of $896,550 as of December 31, 2018 was collected in January of 2019.

(4) Concentrations of Credit and Market Risk

Financial instruments that potentially expose the Diocese to concentrations of credit and market risk consist primarily of cash, cash equivalents, receivables and investments.

The Diocese maintains its deposited cash balances in several financial institutions, and amounts held may at times exceed federally insured limits. The Diocese has not experienced any losses on these accounts. The Diocese’s investments are mostly maintained in a pooled investment fund held by various custodians. This pooled investment portfolio is diversified among issuers. Receivables are discussed in note 1(g).

(5) Investments

Investments, at fair value, consist of the following:

Other investments totaling $559,279 and $551,634 as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively, consist of time deposits that mature in 2019.

Custodian funds (which include custodial accounts and trust funds held for others) are included in total investments above. Custodian funds totaled $17,364,099 and $18,120,408 as of December 31, 2018 and 2017, respectively. See note 9 for detailed activity of these custodian funds.
(5) Investments, Continued

The following table sets forth by level, within the fair value hierarchy, the Diocese’s assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis as of December 31, 2018 and 2017. Individual securities exceeding 10% of net assets are separately identified in 2018. In 2017, no individual securities exceeded 10% of net assets.

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the Diocese relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The Diocese targets a diversified asset allocation for its entire investment portfolio that places an emphasis on equity-based and fixed income investments and cash equivalents to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk constraints. The Committee boards have elected to allow the capital growth and investment income of the Board designated net assets to continue to accumulate within these net assets.

(8) Pension Plans

The Diocese has a non-contributory pension plan which covers substantially all clergy and lay employees. Total costs to the Diocese amounted to $232,592 and $205,815 for 2018 and 2017, respectively. The plan is comprised of individual contracts with The Church Pension Fund.
(9) Custodian Funds

9. Revised guidance to the Board of Directors of the Good Samaritan Fund.
10. Approved the budget impact in 2019 & 2020 of hiring a Missioner for Latino/Hispanic.

The Rt. Rev. Sam Rodman, bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of NC, has named the Rev. Daniel Dario Roboyo Hidalgo as the Missioner for Latino/Hispanic Ministry for the Diocese of NC. Daniel started his Missioner work on September 1. We are delighted to have Daniel as a new member of our Diocesan staff.

This is a new position created by Diocesan Council and approved by Diocesan Convention to enhance and expand the already flourishing work of 13 worship communities and outreach ministries addressing the needs of North Carolina’s burgeoning Latino/Hispanic population. Given that over the next 20 years every county in North Carolina is projected to grow in the number of Spanish-speaking households. Daniel will play a major leadership role in helping the Diocese advance its vision for evangelism, racial reconciliation and congregational development, as well as the cultural competency necessary to be the Body of Christ in an increasingly multicultural state. Please give Daniel a warm NC welcome when you meet him.

In relation to vulnerable parishes (Bishop Rodman’s Priority #2), we have identified a variety of signals to indicate that a parish is or is moving toward vulnerability. It is important to recognize that one signal alone does not indicate vulnerability, but a cluster of several signals is of concern.

The signals are:

- Have had to reduce staff or programs due to shrinking parish size or budget
- Have an aging congregation with few young families
- Have an Average Sunday Attendance of less than 30
- Have few or any ministries aside from Sunday worship
- Do not have a priest in charge or prospect of finding one
- Are a predominantly black membership church that is suffering from a historic lack of Diocesan support

It is also important to note that a parish with several of these signals might also have “resilience factors” that offset their potential vulnerability. Some of these factors are:

- Strong lay leadership
- A willingness to reach out into their community to invite new members, particularly those of a demographic that is in some way different from their congregation
- A commitment to something that engages them in the community
- A willingness to prayerfully discern a vision for their parish—to identify what the Holy Spirit is calling them to be or do

Although there is no “recipe” for “fixing” these parishes, there are concepts that the Diocese needs to be mindful of in their approach to providing support to vulnerable parishes. We understand that support:

- Should not be top-down instructions from the Diocese
- Should recognize the strengths or interests of the parish
- Should allow a parish to determine its own needs
- Should respect that some parishes are at the end of their life as a parish, and need comforting support as they move toward closure
- Should recognize that this committee and the Council needs to hear from representatives from historically black churches to more thoroughly understand the special needs that they face.

12. Began consideration of a Safe Church Policy for the Diocese

This policy is in its final stages and will be distributed to all churches. Please take this policy very seriously and know it is an important safe guard for all staff and children of our parishes.

13. Authorized salary adjustments for certain employees of the Diocese.

14. Participated in a workshop Race: In-Depth Spiritual Examination.

15. Heard that no congregation in the Diocese was substantially damaged by Hurricane Florence.

16. Adopted a draft 2019 Mission and Ministry Budget to solicit comments from the Diocese.

17. Set the pre-Convention window for budget webinars and convocation meetings.
18. Confirmed clergy housing allowances for the Revs Daniel Robayo and David Sellery.
19. Concurred in the recommendations of the Fair Share Appeals Board.
20. Endorsed Resolution 203.8 at the upcoming Convention.

Departmental Initiatives
State of the Church (Bob Rinaldi, Rebecca Yarbrough)
The focus of this committee has been to continue studying, tweaking and utilizes the UNCC Demographic Study of our NC Diocese. The study includes current data on race/ethnicity, poverty, and age breakdowns for each county in the Diocese. Additional data from the parochial reports and ACS systems has enhanced the findings. Initiative: We have again asked the UNCC geography department for help in finding or building a “Dashboard”, so to assist Diocesan Council, the Bishops, Canons and allow total Diocese access in preparing for changes that will affect us in the next 25 years.

Christian Formation (Rev. Bobbie Armstrong, Duana Cisney)
In the past year, the Chartered Committee on Christian Formation was reconstituted and has been rebuilding in response to the Task Force on Christian Formation that identified a greater need for connection, communication, and curation of resources. A focus has been planning easy online access to resources for Christian Formation that are theologically sound and timely, with attention to the seasons of life and curricula for all ages.

Youth & Young Adults (Morris Friedman, Rev. Stephanie Yancy)
Our Campus and Young Adult ministries continue to grow, with active chapters led by missioners in Charlotte, Davidson, Elon, Durham, Chapel Hill, Raleigh, Greensboro and Winston-Salem. Young adult involvement continues to increase, with three of our campus missioners reporting over 1000 total participants in services and other offerings over the last year. These leaders are involved in developing new and creative approaches to ministry and outreach in the college setting. A few examples include:

- In March a team of students from UNCC responded to multiple blizzards affecting northwest Montana’s Blackfeet Native American Reservation.

- Efforts are being made to support hurricane recovery efforts in Eastern NC.
- “A Movable Feast” is an evangelism ministry to expand campus ministries to areas not currently served by the diocese as well as give worship communities a vehicle for being the church beyond our doors. Local chapters are active at several of our campuses. Food trucks as well as meals cooked by local parishes have been offered.
- Small groups and larger interdenominational gatherings have both seen success on campuses in involving students and getting them to examine their faith.

CCCYAM has begun a process of examining and reinvigorating support for young adults enrolled at and living in proximity to our state universities and colleges. Our ongoing areas of discernment include looking at how the diocese and CCCYAM board can best help support our young adult ministries both financially and otherwise, developing long term strategic plans, and examining new ways to try to reach young adults who may not be currently enrolled in school.

Congregational Support & Development (Sue Guptill, Rev. Jamie Pahl, Jim Branch, Fritz Falkson)

Bishop Rodman’s second Mission Priority is support for vulnerable congregations. The Department of Congregation Development and Support has spent the year hearing from the Bishop and Regional Canons and learning more about parishes that can be considered vulnerable. We have developed a list of characteristics which indicate vulnerability if several are present in the same parish. We have also developed a list of “resilience factors” that offset vulnerability. Our next steps are to work with the Canon for Congregational Development to develop a vision for how the Diocese can move forward to work in partnership with potentially vulnerable parishes to strengthen them.

In addition to our concern with vulnerable parishes, we are also very interested in parishes that are trying new initiatives or making new efforts toward being a part of the Jesus Movement. That might mean parishes that have taken on new evangelism work, tried new formation ideas, or developed new community relationships.

Last, we are thankful for newly emerging congregations. These congregations are reaching out into places where there might not have been an Episcopal Church presence in the past. They might be partnering with other denominations to find a way to spread the word of God’s Kingdom and the place of everyone in the Kingdom.

Business Affairs & Admin / Finance (Jim Fussell, Mary Long, Rev. Jemonde Taylor)

Worked with Diocesan Staff in preparation of Ministry & Mission 2019 Budget
Review and Monitoring of monthly financial statements compared to budget
2019 Fair Share Percentages approved for 10.75%
Approved Mission Endowment Grants as submitted by the Mission Endowment Board
Clergy housing allowances approved as requested
Approved Fair Share appeals for 2019
Outreach & Justice Department (Jim Fussell, Mary Long, Rev. Jemonde Taylor)

Diocesan Council’s Department of Outreach and Justice works with twelve committees or other organizations that engage in social justice, racial reconciliation, or other ministries that bring the love of Christ from the Church out into the world. These committee range from those working with global missions and our Companion Dioceses of Botswana and Costa Rica, to the Bishop’s Committee for Prison and Jail Ministry, to Galilee Ministries of East Charlotte. The Department advocates for them, assists them in the budget process when appropriate, and in other ways works to ensure that these important groups that engage in God’s work in the world have the support and leadership they need.

This past year has seen outstanding work by both Companion Diocese Committees, including the Botswana Pilgrimage and the development of a Leader’s Manual for Mission Trips to Costa Rica, as well as the funding of transformational projects in Africa by the Global Missions Committee. The Bishop’s Committee on Prison and Jail Ministry has re-formed, the Bishop’s Committee for Racial Justice and Reconciliation has funded scholarships for Racial Equity Institute Training and is undertaking an update of Seeing the Face of God in Each Other, the Diocesan introductory program on racial reconciliation. The Episcopal Farmworkers Ministry has brought on a new Executive Director, the Chartered Committee on Environmental Ministries is expanding its small- grant program. These are just a few examples of the exciting work being undertaken by all the groups and organizations, as they continue and expand their important work.

In short, the Diocese of North Carolina and its people—all its people, especially those on the margins-- continue to be blessed by the dedication and hard work of these twelve organizations.

The Standing Committee approved the request of The Rev. Timothy McLeod to be released and removed from the Ordained Ministry of the Episcopal Church.

September 24, 2018

The Standing Committee received the report from John Bennett regarding the review of Bishop Rodman and discussed this report with Bishop Rodman.

October 15, 2018

The Standing Committee offered its consent to Bishop Rodman to admit Christ’s Beloved Community, Winston Salem, into union with the Diocese of North Carolina. Per the requirements of Canon 20, section IV, first, Christ’s Beloved Community is a partnership with the Synod of North Carolina in the Evangelical Lutheran Church and has met the threshold of more than 20 members.

Compiled by the Rev. Bernard J. Owens, Secretary
The Trustees of the Diocese, comprised of the Bishop and six additional persons elected by the Convention upon nomination of the Bishop, carried out their duties as set forth in Cannon 10.

The Trustees hold four regularly scheduled meetings during the calendar year. In March, 2018, two new trustees, Rev. Milton Williams and Paula McClain, attended their first Trustees meeting. At the end of 2018, two currently serving trustees, Rev. Lorraine Ljunggren and Rich Leonard, will have served six years and are not eligible for re-election.

At its December, 2017 meeting, which was attended by Wade Gresham, Treasurer, and representatives of the Investment Committee and Sterling Capital, the investment manager of the Common Trust Fund, the Trustees reviewed the investment performance of the Fund and approved distributions from the Common Trust Fund to be made at a 4% rate for 2018.

In 2018, the Trustees received reports and acted on various real estate related matters, including consummation of a one-year lease renewal with The John Locke Foundation for two floors of Diocesan House, the sale of undeveloped property in Caldwell County, the treatment of unmaintained cemeteries in Chatham and Halifax Counties, and the potential transfer of the All Saints Church property in Warrenton to a non-profit entity.

Respectfully submitted, C. Steven Mason

SECRETARY OF CONVENTION

The Secretary of Convention, a constitutional officer whose duties are prescribed by Canon 5, is elected each year by the Annual Convention upon nomination of the Bishop. The Secretary has two principal duties: (1) to organize and to publicize the annual and special conventions of the Diocese and to publish a journal of their proceedings, and (2) to serve as secretary of Diocesan Council.

Other duties include receiving and processing applications for admission of congregations, soliciting and receiving reports of diocesan institutions, and receiving and evaluating the annual parochial reports of all parishes and missions (a duty largely delegated to the Canon for Administration). In addition, the Secretary is responsible under the constitution and canons of The Episcopal Church for giving formal notice to the Convention of the Diocese when amendments are proposed to the Constitution of the Episcopal Church or to the Book of Common Prayer, for reporting on the actions of the Diocese in response to acts of General Convention, and for certifying elections by the Diocese of bishops and deputies to General Convention.

But notwithstanding anything herein above contained, the General Convention may at any one meeting, by a majority of the whole number of the Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, and by a majority of the Clerical and Lay Deputies of all the Dioceses entitled to representation in the House of Deputies, voting by orders as previously set forth in this Article:

(a) Amend the Table of Lessons and all Tables and Rubrics relating to the Psalms.

(b) Authorize for trial use throughout this Church, as an alternative at any time or times to the established Book of Common Prayer or to any section or Office thereof, a proposed revision of the whole Book or of any portion thereof, duly undertaken by the General Convention.

(c) Authorize for use throughout this Church, as provided by Canon, alternative and additional liturgies to supplement those provided in the Book of Common Prayer.

And Provided that nothing in this Article shall be construed as restricting the authority of the Bishops of this Church to take such order as may be permitted by the Rubrics of the Book of Common Prayer or by the Canons of the General Convention for the use of special forms of worship.

A089: Amend Articles VI and VIII Regarding Full Communion

Resolved, That the 79th General Convention amend Articles VI and VIII to read as follows:

ARTICLE VI

Sec. 1. The House of Bishops may establish a Mission in any area not included within the boundaries of any Diocese of this Church or of any Church in full communion with this Church, and elect or appoint a Bishop therefor.

ARTICLE VIII

No person shall be ordered Priest or Deacon to minister in this Church until the person shall have been examined by the Bishop and two (2) Priests and shall have exhibited such testimonials and other requisites as the Canons in that case provided may direct.

No person shall be ordained and consecrated Bishop, or ordered Priest or Deacon to minister in this Church, unless at the time, in the presence of the ordaining Bishop or Bishops, the person shall subscribe and make the following declaration:

I do believe the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments to be the Word of God, and to contain all things necessary to salvation; and I do solemnly engage to conform to the Doctrine, Discipline, and Worship of the Episcopal Church.

Provided, however, that any person consecrated a Bishop to minister in any Diocese of an autonomous Church or Province of a Church in full communion with this Church may, instead of the foregoing declaration, make the promises of Conformity required by the Church in which the Bishop is to minister.

If any Bishop ordains a Priest or Deacon to minister elsewhere than in this Church, or confers ordination as Priest or Deacon upon a Christian minister who has not received Episcopal Ordination, the Bishop shall do so only in accordance with such provisions as shall be set forth in the Canons of this Church.
No person ordained by a foreign Bishop, or by a Bishop not in full communion with this Church, shall be permitted to officiate as a Minister of this Church until the person shall have complied with the Canon or Canons in that case provided and also shall have subscribed the aforesaid declaration.

A Bishop may permit an ordained minister in good standing in a church with which this Church is in full communion as specified by the Canons who has made the foregoing declaration, or a minister ordained in the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America or its predecessor bodies who has made the promise of conformity required by that Church in place of the foregoing declaration to officiate on a temporary basis as an ordained minister of this church. No minister of such a Church ordained by other than a Bishop, apart from any such ministers designated as part of the Covenant or Instrument by which full communion was established, shall be eligible to officiate under this Article.

A122: Amend Article IX to Change Removal to Admonition

Resolved, That the Article IX of the Constitution be amended as follows:

ARTICLE IX

The General Convention may, by Canon, establish one or more Courts for the Trial of Bishops.

Presbyters and Deacons canonically resident in a Diocese shall be tried by a Court instituted by the Convention thereof; Presbyters and Deacons canonically resident in a Missionary Diocese shall be tried according to Canons adopted by the Bishop and Convocation thereof, with the approval of the House of Bishops; provided that the General Convention in each case may prescribe by Canon for a change of venue.

The General Convention, in like manner, may establish or may provide for the establishment of Courts of Review of the determination of diocesan or other trial Courts.

The Court for the review of the determination of the trial Court, on the trial of a Bishop, shall be composed of Bishops only.

The General Convention, in like manner, may establish an ultimate Court of Appeal, solely for the review of the determination of any Court of Review on questions of Doctrine, Faith, or Worship.

None but a Bishop shall pronounce sentence of admonition, or suspension, or removal or deposition from the Ministry, on any Bishop, Presbyter, or Deacon; and none but a Bishop shall admonish any Bishop, Presbyter, or Deacon.

A sentence of suspension shall specify on what terms or conditions and at what time the suspension shall cease. A sentence of suspension may be remitted in such manner as may be provided by Canon.

A150: Amend Article 1.2 of the Constitution

Resolved, That Article I, Section 2 of the Constitution is hereby amended to read as follows:

Article I

Sec. 2. Each Bishop of this Church having jurisdiction, every Bishop Coadjutor, every Bishop Suffragan Bishop, every Assistant Bishop, and every Bishop who by reason of advanced age or bodily infirmity, or who, under an election to an office created by the General Convention, or for reasons of mission strategy determined by action of the General Convention or the House of Bishops, has resigned a jurisdiction, shall have a seat and a vote in the House of Bishops. A majority of all Bishops entitled to vote, exclusive of Bishops who have resigned their jurisdiction or positions, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Bishops who exercise or have jurisdiction are those who exercise ecclesiastical authority in a diocese or other jurisdiction of this Church.

A151: Amend Article I.4-8 of the Constitution

Resolved, That Article II.4-8 of the Constitution is hereby amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE II

Sec. 4. It shall be lawful for a Diocese, at the request of the Bishop of that Diocese, to elect not more than two Suffragan Bishops without right of succession, and with seat and vote in the House of Bishops. A Suffragan Bishop shall be consecrated and hold office under such conditions and limitations other than those provided in this Article as may be provided by Canons of the General Convention. A Suffragan Bishop shall be eligible for election as Bishop Diocesan or Bishop Coadjutor of a Diocese, or as a Bishop Suffragan in another Diocese.

Sec. 5. It shall be lawful for a Diocese to prescribe by the Constitution and Canons of such Diocese that upon the death, removal or deposition of the Bishop or if the Bishop resigns, or is removed from office pursuant to Canon III.12.12(7), a Suffragan Bishop Suffragan of that Diocese may be placed in charge of such Diocese and become temporarily the Ecclesiastical Authority thereof serving as the Bishop Diocesan Pro Tempore until such time as a new Bishop shall be chosen and consecrated; or that during the disability or absence of the Bishop, a Bishop Suffragan of that Diocese may be placed in charge of such diocese and become temporarily the Ecclesiastical Authority thereof serving as the Bishop Diocesan Pro Tempore of the Diocese.

Sec. 6. A Bishop may not resign jurisdiction without the consent of the House of Bishops.

Sec. 7. It shall be lawful for the House of Bishops to elect a Suffragan Bishop Suffragan who, under the direction of the Presiding Bishop, shall be in charge of the work of those chaplains in the Armed Forces of the United States, Veterans’ Administration Medical Centers, and Federal Correctional Institutions who are ordained Ministers of this Church. The Suffragan Bishop Suffragan so elected shall be consecrated and hold office under such conditions and limitations other than those provided in this Article as may be provided by Canons of the General Convention. The Suffragan Bishop Suffragan shall be eligible for election as Bishop Diocesan, or Bishop Coadjutor or Suffragan Bishop Suffragan of a Diocese.

Sec. 8. A Bishop Diocesan or Coadjutor who has for at least five years next preceding exercised jurisdiction as the Ordinary, served as the Bishop Diocesan nor as the Bishop Coadjutor, of a Diocese for any period of time, may be elected as Bishop Diocesan, Bishop Coadjutor, or Suffragan Bishop Suffragan of another Diocese only if five or more years have passed since the Bishop first served as Bishop Diocesan or Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese in which the Bishop is currently or last served as Bishop Diocesan or Bishop Coadjutor. Before acceptance of such election a resignation of jurisdiction in the Diocese in which the Bishop is then serving, conditioned on the required consents of the Bishops and Standing Committees of the Church to such election, shall be submitted to the House of Bishops, and also, if the Bishop be a Bishop Coadjutor, a renunciation of the right of succession. Such resignation, and renunciation of the right of succession in the case of a Bishop Coadjutor, shall require the consent of the House of Bishops.

A152: Amend Article III of the Constitution

Resolved, That Article III of the Constitution is hereby amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE III

Bishops may be consecrated for foreign lands upon due application therefrom, with the approbation of a majority of the Bishops of this Church entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, certified to the Presiding Bishop, under such conditions as may be prescribed by Canons of the General Convention. Bishops so consecrated shall not be eligible to the office of Diocesan or Bishop Coadjutor of any Diocese in the United States or be entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, nor shall they perform any act of the episcopal office in any Diocese or Missionary Diocese of this Church, unless requested so to do by the Ecclesiastical Authority thereof. If a Bishop so consecrated shall be subsequently duly elected as a Bishop of a Missionary Diocese of this Church, such election shall then confer all the rights and privileges given in the Canon Canons to such Bishops.

A153: Amend Article IV of the Constitution

Resolved, That Article IV of the Constitution is hereby amended to read as follows:

ARTICLE IV

In every Diocese a Standing Committee shall be elected by the Convention thereof, except that provision for filling vacancies between meetings of the Convention may be prescribed by the Canons of the respective Dioceses. When there is a Bishop in charge of the Diocese, the Standing Committee shall be the Bishop’s Council of Advice. If there be no Bishop or Bishop Coadjutor or Bishop Suffragan Bishop canonically authorized to act, the Standing Committee shall be the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese for all purposes declared by the General Convention. The rights and duties of the Standing Committee, except as provided in the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention, may be prescribed by the Canons of the respective Dioceses.

A176: Amend Article V – Second Reading (Note: this is actually a first reading, because there was a floor amendment in 2018 and therefore must be read again in 2021)

Resolved, That Article V, Section 1 is amended as follows:
Sec. 1 A new Diocese may be formed, with the consent of the General Convention and under such conditions as the General Convention shall prescribe by General Canon or Canons, (1) by the division of an existing Diocese; (2) by the junction of two or more Dioceses or of parts of two or more Dioceses; or (3) by the erection into a Diocese of an unorganized area evangelized as provided in Article VI. The proceedings shall originate in a Convocation of the Clergy and Laity of the unorganized area called by the Ecclesiastical Authority Bishop for that purpose; or, with the approval of the Ecclesiastical Authority, in the Convention of the Diocese to be divided; or (when it is proposed to form a new Diocese by the junction of two or more existing Dioceses or of parts of two or more Dioceses) by mutual agreement of the Conventions of the Dioceses concerned, with the approval of the Ecclesiastical Authority of each Diocese. After consent of the General Convention, when a certified copy of the duly adopted Constitution of the new Diocese, including an unqualified accession to the Constitution and Canons of this Church, shall have been filed with the Secretary of the General Convention and approved by the Executive Council of this Church, such new Diocese shall thereupon be in union with the General Convention.

A183: Amend Article IX – First Reading

Resolved, That the Constitution Article IX be amended to read as follows:

Article IX

The General Convention may, by Canon, establish one or more Courts for the Trial of Bishops.

Presbyters and Deacons canonically resident in a Diocese shall be tried by a Court instituted by the General Convention by Canon. Presbyters and Deacons canonically resident in a Missionary Diocese shall be tried according to Canons adopted by the Bishop and Convocation thereof, with the approval of the House of Bishops; provided that the General Convention in each case may prescribe by Canon for a change of venue.

The General Convention, in like manner, may establish or may provide for the establishment of Courts of Review of the determination of diocesan or other trial Courts.

The General Convention, in like manner, may establish an ultimate Court of Appeal, solely for the review of the determination of any Court of Review on questions of Doctrine, Faith, or Worship.

None but a Bishop shall pronounce sentence of suspension, or removal, or deposition from the Ministry, on any Bishop, Presbyter, or Deacon; and none but a Bishop shall admonish any Bishop, Presbyter, or Deacon.

A sentence of suspension shall specify on what terms or conditions and at what time the suspension shall cease. A sentence of suspension may be remitted in such manner as may be provided by Canon.
CHANCELLOR

According to Diocesan Canon 7, the duty of the Chancellor shall be “to advise regarding any questions of law which may arise in the administration of diocesan affairs.” Those questions can involve either secular or canonical law. Despite that focus, many missions and parishes will contact me for help with matters which do not, necessarily, relate to the administration of diocesan affairs. I’ll try to help when I can but urge parish and mission vestries to identify attorneys within their congregations who might regularly perform as the chancellors for those congregations.

Highlights (so far) of my work for the Diocese in 2018 are:

1. 2018 Convention Election Issue. An issue arose during the leadup to the 2018 Convention as to the eligibility of a nominee to the Standing Committee. The issue was due to the provision of Article VIII, Section 1 of the Diocesan Constitution which states that: “no elected member shall be eligible for re-election until one year shall have elapsed following the expiration of the term of office (for the last term served by the member).” Since the proposed nominee’s previous term on the Standing Committee terminated on 12/31/17 and the proposed election would occur in November of 2018, I opined that the cited constitutional provision would bar the nominee’s election. I have recommended that the Commission on Constitution and Canons consider a revision to the cited provision.

2. Margaret Shulte Charitable Trust. Questions have arisen concerning the implementation of provisions of this trust in so far as they are for the benefit of Church of the Ascension. This is a work in progress. Fortunately, I am working with the Senior Warden of Ascension who is a lawyer that I worked with when I was a “working lawyer.”

3. Best Practices. I reviewed and commented on a draft and then redraft of Diocesan Best Practices Guidelines for working with children and other vulnerable individuals. The Guidelines were being developed by the Diocesan Youth Missioner.

4. St. Mary’s School. I worked through issues involving the application of TEC Canon II. 6.2 to some refinancing completed by St. Mary’s School in Raleigh.

5. Kreb’s Trust. This a trust which was established by a parishioner at Emmanuel, Southern Pines. The trust provides that all distributions from the trust go to the Diocese for use in seminarian education. The Diocese is cooperating with the trustees of the trust to make some changes in the management of the trust assets.

6. Mediation. In January I participated in the mediation of a dispute between the Diocese and Saint Michaels and All Angels. The mediation ended with an agreement between the parties.

7. Episcopal Chancellors’ Network Convention Dinner. The Episcopal Chancellors’ Network is a national organization to which all Chancellors and Vice-Chancellors can join. The ECN will have a dinner for all member chancellors sometime during the General Convention every three years. I attended the dinner this past summer in Austin.

8. Historic Properties Commission. We had three properties that required some attention in 2018: (a) St. Clements, Ringwood trying to obtain access to an historic cemetery of this now closed church; (b) All Saints, Warrenton arranging for the disposition of the property occupied by this now closed church; (c) St. James Cemetery, Pittsboro working with St. Barnabas, Pittsboro to secure access to the landlocked cemetery property so that it can be properly maintained.

9. Christ’s Beloved Community. Worked through canonical issues arising from the application of CBC for admission in union with the Diocesan Convention.

10. Good Shepherd, Asheboro. Worked with a representative of the Vestry in the application of Diocesan Canons to Vestry actions relating to governance provisions of a parish endowment fund.

11. St. Martin’s, Charlotte. Responded to a query from the rector concerning Vestry Executive Sessions.

12. Susie Orr Trust. This is a trust established years ago. St. Andrews, Charlotte is a beneficiary of the trust but closed several years ago. The Diocese currently owns the property which was used by St Andrews and operates the Galilee Ministry out of the property. The Trustee of the trust has recently filed a Special Proceeding seeking interpretation of the trust as it relates to the Diocese and St. Andrews. That proceeding has just started.

13. Chip Howes. Chip is a Raleigh attorney. I brought him in as a Vice-Chancellor early in the year to concentrate on real estate matters. He has worked closely with the Standing Committee assisting it in its review of real estate transactions involving real estate owned by parishes or the Diocese.

14. Commission on Constitution and Canons. The Chancellor is an ex officio member of the CCC. I, therefore, participated in meetings of the CCC and worked with the Chair of the CCC in the review of proposed amendments to the Diocesan Canons or Constitution.

15. Bylaws. Both Canons 20 and 22 require the Bishop to review any bylaws adopted by parishes or missions to assure that they are not inconsistent with the constitution and canons of both TEC and the Diocese. The Bishop refers bylaw matters to me for an initial review and my comment as to whether they are inconsistent or not. In 2018, I reviewed proposed bylaws or amendments to bylaws submitted or being developed by Chapel of Christ the King, Charlotte; St. Luke’s, Durham; St. Titus, Durham; St. Stephens, Durham; and the Mission Endowment Board of the Diocese.

16. Real Estate Matters. In 2018 I advised regarding the following real estate transactions: (a) St. Anne’s, Winston-Salem concerning the sale of some inherited property; (b) sale by the Diocese of 35 acres of vacant land in Caswell County; (c) a tax foreclosure sale in Charlotte involving some property formally used by Chapel of Christ the King; (d) St. Anne’s, Littleton concerning a title issue; (e) Epiphany, Rocky Mount involving rent; (f) Church of the Advocate, Chapel Hill and the lease of a portion of the property used by the Advocate for the building of Pee Wee homes as affordable housing.

17. Standing Committee. Although the Chancellor is not an ex officio member of the SC, I do try to meet with the committee briefly during its first meeting with new members. I am also available to attend any meetings of the committee as requested by the President and confer frequently with the President about matters which might be coming before the committee.

18. Trustees. The Chancellor is an ex officio member of the Trustees and I meet with them at each of their meetings during the year.

As I was being recruited to do this in 2005 or 2006, both Bishop Curry and my predecessor misled me as to the amount of time it would take. That said, I have enjoyed immensely my work on behalf of the Diocese. Diocesan staff is professional and great to work with and makes my job easier; particularly after my retirement from the active practice of law on May 1, 2014. Thanks also to Martin Brinkley and Chip Howes for their help and support as Vice-Chancellors.

Introduction
The report of the Treasurer will be in the order of a statement of references, general comments, specific topics, statements of our financial position through third quarter September 30, 2018, and conclusion.

Statement of References

Duties of the Treasure
For reference, the duties of the Treasurer are stated every year. The responsibilities were established by the Task Force on Structure in 1997, the most significant of which are stated in Canon 6, 10, 36 and in the By-Laws of the Diocesan Council.

Financial Reports
The financial records of the Diocese are based on a calendar year. Therefore, given that the Annual Convention occurs in November, this report is an interim report and is not a representation of an annual report. The final reports for the Twelve-Month Period Ending December 31, 2018 will be made available in the latter part of January 2019 and the independent audited report for 2018 is scheduled to be received no later than August 2019.

Comments
I say this every year, but I thank all the staff and volunteers who are responsible for the financial, administrative and legal tasks of the Diocese that are completed at a high level of excellence. Marlene Weigert, with support from staff, always provides thorough, timely and accurate information from which tasks can be completed and decisions can be made. Of course, given this is a financial report, Maria Gillespie must be thanked for the accuracy of our accounting records and her guidance in the reporting of those records.

Last year my general comments were about the many unusual events occurring in the financial world and the impact these events have on projections and operations. This year is not any different. The markets have been at an all-time high and government policy is very much in transition. Compared to last year, there are more extreme swings in the economy, more major international events and a political climate that makes a very difficult financial environment.

This results in a budget that is very hard to project and manage. We therefore need to continue to be vigilant and conservative in our financial responsibilities and the decisions we make.

I am pleased to report that this year we are positive in our 2018 Budget and are meeting projections. I am proud to be associated with so many of you that live and work with an awareness of how fortunate we are and take what is provided to make a difference to so many in need. On a technical comment, you may have noticed that in the budget for 2019 several line items and categories in the Chart of Accounts have been revised. Many of the line item names have changed or the line item has been moved to a different category. This was done to better reflect the source and use of funds by associating the accounting transactions with the common name used when referring to or discussing the programs and the work the Diocese is doing.
Specific Topics

Diocesan House
This year we finished most of the needed maintenance and repairs to the property. We have finished replacing and repairing the parking lot and stairs. Also, the interior repair and maintenance of the building has been completed. However, the shared retaining wall with the Campbell Law School has not been completed as scheduled. The source of revenue to make the repairs and maintenance on the building is from the rental of the first and second floor. The building is fully occupied and continues to have a positive cash flow.

Investment Committee and the Common Trust Fund (CTF)
My remarks regarding the Investment Committee and the Common Trust Fund are in general and limited. Bob Newell, Chairman of the Investment Committee, will submit a more in-depth report that will be published for your review.

The CTF information currently available in complete form is as of August 31, 2018. An abbreviated and preliminary report as of September 30, 2018 is available and provides most of the information to measure performance. The next meeting of the Investment Committee is November 7, 2018. Sterling Capital (Common Trust Fund Manager) compiles and submits a report monthly for review and the Investment Committee meets with Sterling quarterly. Sun Trust Bank manages the Custodial and Fund Operations of the CTF and submits monthly statements and meets with the Investment Committee when requested. As of September 30, 2018, the fund value was $37.254 million which includes withdrawals and added deposits. The fund performance for the last twelve months (10-01-17 to 09-30-18) had a return net of all fees of 6.39%. The fund performance from 01-01-17 to 09-30-18 had a return net of all fees of 12.13%. The Investment Committee at its last meeting continued to recommend a 4.0% annual distribution be made to all investors of the CTF for the year 2019.

The Combined Audited Report for year ending December 31, 2017 and 2016 was submitted by Batchelor, Tillery & Roberts, LLP on August 29, 2018. The Audit stated that “the combined financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Diocese as of December 31, 2017 and 2016 and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. In our opinion, the information is fairly stated in all material respects in relation to the combined financial statements as a whole”.

I do need to mention, that in this current audit and in several previous audits, there was a statement of a Qualified Opinion related to the omission of an actuarial valuation of our postretirement benefit obligation. Given the cost to have an actuarial valuation and the limited change in the value of the account year to year an actuarial valuation is not done yearly but every several years. This Qualified Opinion is not material. It will be included in an audit until we engage an independent actuarial valuation and then the Qualified Opinion will not be included. The Qualified Opinion will appear again in years when a valuation is not obtained by the Diocese.

Statement of Activities Mission & Ministry Operating Fund Revenue
The 2018 annual Fair Share Revenue was budgeted for an expected collection of $4.554 million and the amount received through nine months ending September 30, 2018 was $3.351 million excluding any allowance for uncollected or surplus shares. In 2018 the Total Revenue was budgeted as $4.849 million and we have received $3.445 million. Stated as a percentage, we have recognized 71% of Budgeted Total Revenue. Last year, we recognized 68% of Budgeted Total Revenue. The Revenue is as a percentage greater than last year, and we are comfortable with the results as of this report and expect to meet our budget. Again, thank you for your continued commitment to honor the fair share.

Expenses
Through September 30, 2018, we have incurred expenses of $3.124 million. This is 64.43% of the budgeted expenses. Last year we were 63.0% of budgeted expenses. All the expense line items are within acceptable variances and we are comfortable with the expenses as of this report date.

Balance Sheet
The Balance Sheet has total assets of $52.199 million, which includes trust funds that are restricted, temporarily restricted, and designated. The available cash and near cash to cover expense obligations is positive and that position should continue.

Closing
At the last Convention and the time following, there are new directions and priorities defining the future of the Diocese. Being good stewards of your assets has created the financial stability that has made it possible to accomplish the work and ministry of this Diocese. Thank you for your support of the Fair Share and the budget.

Celebrations
- We welcome the Rev. Daniel Robayo as our diocese’s new Missioner for Latino/Hispanic Ministries! The Rev. Robayo began work September 1, 2018 and is focusing on getting to know the diocese while bringing particular development support to 2 congregations in the East Region – San José, Smithfield and La Guadalupana, Wilson.

- Giving thanks to God, we celebrate the launch of Christ’s Beloved Community / Comunidad Amada de Cristo, Winston-Salem, our diocese’s newest congregation and a bilingual church plant that is a collaboration of The Episcopal Church and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. The community launched public worship on November 4, 2018.

Leadership and Formation Gatherings
- Collaborative Christian formation: Lay leaders of several Hispanic congregations joined members of the Chartered Committee and the Racial Justice and Reconciliation and New Visions teams for a day of shared formation, visioning work, and worship. The formation theme was practicing deep and holy listening skills with our families, congregations, at work, and across lines of difference. We finished the day with a bilingual Eucharist service. (April 28, 2018)

- Lay leaders and clergy from 7 different congregations and ministries participated in the biennial national conference for Latinx/Hispanic ministries called Nuevo Amanecer, held at Kanuga Conference Center in the last week of August. Along with joyful worship and recreation with friends from around the diocese and the country, participants attended workshops on a variety of ministry topics including digital evangelism, mental health issues, starting new ministries, inter-generational dynamics, and immigration advocacy.

This Chartered Committee shares with the Bishop Suffragan in the oversight of campus and young adult ministries in the Diocese and advocates for the strengthening all Diocesan campus and young adult ministries. The Chartered Committee is composed of lay members, and campus and young adult missioners (ex officio members) who represent the ministries at 16 campuses and a variety of other young adult ministries in the Diocese. Our ministries are to young adults enrolled at universities and community colleges in the Diocese, young adults living in these areas who are out of school, and young adults who are not seeking higher education but are seeking Christian community. This ministry to young adults is led by our Campus and Young Adult Missioners, who are offering a radically expansive invitation to a Christian Community of love and reconciliation in a wide variety of places and innovative formats. This ministry to young adults is continuing to develop new opportunities for all young adults to experience God’s love in our new and challenging 21st Century.

Below are brief summaries of our efforts in providing innovative opportunities for young adults to experience God’s love through our Campus and Young Adult Ministries.

St. Augustine University - St. Augustine’s Chapel is highlighting and implementing the “Practices for a Jesus Centered Life” which increased student religious participation. The “Compass” Wellness program provides holistic transition to college life for largely first-generation students. Diocesan funding increased worship participation by providing a musician for Sunday Eucharist. Student-led community outreach and evangelism efforts developed a “campus prayer line” allowing Students to pray with their peers over phone or email. The Gospel Explosion at Homecoming highlighted “The Way of Jesus,” getting back to the school’s Episcopal roots.

Episcopal Center at Duke University - Students at the Episcopal Center (EC) at Duke repeatedly choose the word “home” to describe their experience of the EC. The ministry offers community rejoicing in love, recharging the spirit, and reflecting on faith together around a Eucharistic feast in an intense academic environment. Through worship, study, pastoral care, and community outreach, the EC creates a Christian community each week. The EC is supported by Durham churches, and by the faithful, Oreo-loving Duke students, whose deep spirituality, joyful lightheartedness, and innate wisdom is a gift to the church.

UNC- Chapel Hill Campus Ministry - ECM@UNC Chapel Hill continues the implantation of the Theological Exploration of Vocation Initiative granted by the Lilly Foundation. The three major initiatives of “My Spiritual Awakening” monthly Autobiography and Vocation speaker series, Transformative Intensive Experiences, and weekly meetings for Reflection, Worship and Fellowship. We are practicing deep listening on matters of Confederate monuments, sexual violence and racial justice. Whether we are meeting the Archbishop of Canterbury, imposing Ashes on campus, breaking bread on Franklin Street, in rocking chairs studying, imagining our place in this world, God is among us. The Rev. Tambria Lee will be leaving to become the Rector of St Paul’s Beaufort, NC.

Raleigh Episcopal Campus and Young Adult Ministry - RECM extended its reach beyond the campus ministry and into the city. ECM joined the Wake County Sponsors for community development and expanded the Advisory Board to include lay-persons from every Raleigh Episcopal Church. With this community-based foundation, the Rev. Koch shaped a diocesan Young Episcopal Adult Hub (YEAH) to incite collegiate and non-collegiate young adults throughout the city to invest in their spiritual lives and engage in social action through small groups (Hub Groups) and a forthcoming diocesan-wide “YEAH NC” smartphone app.

Greensboro Campus and Young Adult Ministry - Greensboro is rethinking its ministry to the community surrounding St. Mary’s house. By rearranging space and opening the facilities, they’ve established a new partnership with the Music & Theater program to provide much needed practice space for students. They’re thinking through what evangelism looks like in their mostly unchurched context. This is in addition to continued programing including Tuesday night dinners, program for young adults disaffected with the church, food pantry, serving the homeless, participating in ecumenical Take Back the Night, Suicide Prevent Rally, Ashes to Go, and a strong Sunday worship with increased young adults participation.

Winston-Salem Campus and Young Adult Ministry - Episcopal Student Fellowship is a community seeking to claim our own belovedness through Jesus at Wake Forest University, Winston Salem State University, School of the Arts, and Salem College. Our Wake Divinity interns developed beloved community at Winston Salem State University and Salem College with one-on-one and in small groups. ESF confirmed four people, began two bible studies, met for bi-weekly morning prayer, participated in a contemplative prayer group, began a system of peer pastoral care through a student chaplain, and grown our weekly gatherings. Annually, we participate in interfaith events and we serve the community through university sponsored events and through collaborative projects with area parishes like Laundry Love.

Campus Ministry in Charlotte - Cooperative Christian Ministry is an ecumenical ministry primarily at The University of North Carolina at Charlotte. Following the campaign Reach 3000, we have successfully connected with 4,500 students this fall. We connect with students through two weekly services (Wednesday Holy Eucharist and Thursday Noonday), hospitality events, a multitude of small groups, and opportunities for mission and outreach. Our outreach opportunities include responding to blizzards affecting northwest Montana Blackfeet Native American Reservation, partnering with UNC Pembroke for Florence survivors, and planning a trip to Puerto Rico for 2019.
Lutherans, Episcopalians, and Friends - LEAF (Lutherans, Episcopalians, and Friends) is a welcoming and inclusive Christian community at Elon University. LEAF offers regular worship, dinners, Coffee House, community service, fellowship, and Interfaith gatherings throughout the school year. In 2018, LEAF had a student-directed dinner discussion series called “Toxic Faith: When Religion Hurts,” and a Fall Retreat titled “Mindfully Christian: Caring for Others, Caring for Self.” LEAF members presented “Engaging Christians in Interfaith work.” The board is hoping to develop a sustainable, full-time LEAF Campus Minister position.

Davidson Campus Ministry - In 2018 the Rev. Kevin Lloyd was called to serve as Associate Rector at St Alban’s and Episcopal Campus Missioner at Davidson College. Canterbury at Davidson follows its campus Eucharist services with “A Movable Feast,” This extremely successful student-led evangelism ministry hosted in the Student Union has more than quintupled the attendance of Sunday dinners over three years, averaging 30 attendees. An ecumenical, campus minister-led bible study meets every Tuesday. Students are reconsidering their mission trip to Costa Rica in order to provide hands-on support for hurricane recovery in Eastern NC.

A Movable Feast - A Movable Feast has seen a growth across it’s programs in both numbers and strength of partnerships in 2018. From AMF Davidson’s 52 participant dinner to AMF Durham hosting 10 events in 30 days, this year has been marked by an increase in participants, partnerships, and presence. The loss of our dedicated volunteer, Miss Carrie Burnette, highlighted the strength of our relationship with NCCU. Students and staff alike came to St. Titus for her funeral. Pastor Gloria, the director of Student Life at NCCU, spoke of how AMF Durham’s presence was so strong that “students won’t let me get started until St. Titus shows up.” On the other side of the diocese, Galilee Center of East Charlotte plans on using the trailer to create a multi-agency partnership to serve food in low-income and immigrant residents, as well as, with local schools and city partners. We continue to be blessed by the 3237 encounters we’ve had in 2017-2018.

Diocesan Young Adult Missioner - From a welcoming H.S. Seniors into adulthood at Bishop’s Ball, hosting a Campus Missioners retreat to “think inside the box,” and coaching churches in mission at a Young Adult Workshop, new partnerships and programs have sprung up this year. The most exciting development is the Digital Network Evangelism project which will generate enthusiasm for the new YEAH NC app, develop a blog series around God’s place in our relationships, and highlight parish and diocesan programs for young adults in a monthly newsletter. We hope that clergy will help us identify events and potential subscribers for our newsletter. Finally, Brittany Love is ending her time as Diocesan Young Adult Missioner on October 31st.

Since our 2017 convention, the Botswana Companion Link Committee – together with our Botswana partners – (1) hosted Fr. James Amanze as a Lenten Visitor to our Diocese; (2) engaged in a second Botswana Pilgrimage; (3) planned for a 2019 pilgrimage of Botswana partners to the Diocese of North Carolina (4) helped to secure the signing of a memorandum of understanding between Saint Augustine’s University in Raleigh and the St. Augustine Theological School in Gaborone; and (5) completed the technology project so that we may build “face-to-face” relationships through the internet. We also (6) provided financial support and books for the Theological School’s library and for the therapeutic work of the Holy Cross Hospice and (7) helped to facilitate a proposal from Busiwa McBrian-Mpungose, from Lift Every Voice, to our Chartered Committee on Global Mission. We (8) arranged for the choir at St. Simon of Cyrene Church in Tlokweng to record Setswana service music, which we are making available in our Diocese as a fund-raiser for the Botswana ministry. And finally, (9) our chairperson led lay ministry workshops for some 70 lay leaders in Gaborone and Francistown in September, a key mandate for the St. Augustine Theological School. All of these activities are consistent with the companion link agreement signed in 2014. The Committee met quarterly.

(1) Especially noteworthy was the visit of Fr. James Amanze, who chairs Botswana’s companion link committee, heads the Theological School, and is canon theologian for the Diocese of Botswana. With special thanks to the Church of the Holy Family in Chapel Hill for hosting him, the Committee arranged for various occasions at which he spoke and met with our Bishops, our Link Committee, and parishes and ministries. During his time here he signed the memorandum of understanding between the St. Augustine Theological School in Gaborone and Saint Augustine’s University, an important step forward in the School’s efforts at securing accreditation.

(2) Perhaps the key event since last convention was the second Botswana Pilgrimage, in which 14 pilgrims, including Bishop Sam and Deb Rodman, spent 10 days in the Diocese of Botswana in September. Pilgrims worshiped in Botswana congregations, experienced ministries of the Diocese of Botswana, travelled to Francistown and environs, and engaged in group reflection.

(3) Notable for 2019 are plans for the Diocese of North Carolina to host a Pilgrimage from Botswana. This will require a wide range of commitments from parishes and ministries, and the Committee welcomes involvement from throughout our Diocese. The Pilgrimage to North Carolina is currently scheduled for June 7-17.

On a personal note as chairperson, I have decided it is time for me to step down from my leadership role in our Botswana companion link ministry, effective at this convention. It has been a great gift to me to have been engaged in this partnership in a variety of ways from the outset, and I give thanks for this rich opportunity. I look forward to continued and new initiatives under the fine leadership of others.

2018 was a big year for travel grants. With the Diocese sponsoring two pilgrimages, the committee awarded several grants to both clergy and laity for The Holy Land and Botswana. Grants were also awarded for Sewanee tuition and seminars on liturgical/sacred music, interim ministry, and Catechesis training.

In the last year, the Chartered Committee on Christian Formation was reconstituted and has been rebuilding in response to the Task Force Report on Christian Formation that identified a greater need for connection, communication, and curation of resources. In 2018, this Committee:

- Evaluated current diocesan communication regarding formation, with particular attention to how curated resources (for example materials on confirmation, racial reconciliation, or end of life) are accessed and delivered. We met with Christine McTaggart to discuss possible formats and delivery systems. We have developed a document that summarizes who to contact about specific formation needs (for example, retreats, EFM, Happening) that can be utilized in a variety of ways and easily updated.

- Created a plan for curating timely resources that features theologically sound books, curriculum, and videos pertinent to particular liturgical seasons and wider diocesan commitments. For example, in October, we recommended resources on creation care and in November, we offered resources on citizenship and voting.

- Partnered with local and national formation efforts in the diocese. Specifically, we provided funding and support to a convocational Altar Guild conference that sought to breathe new life into a traditional ministry by exploring the spirituality of liturgical service. We also provided scholarships to the national Discipleship Matters Conference held in Charlotte in October and provided funds for hospitality.

- Actively encouraged and participated in bringing Becoming Beloved Community to diocesan congregations and communities.

- Supported the diocesan formation staff and served as a sounding board, especially in the creation of a new Family and Children’s Missioner – a position that will continue to evolve.

- Began the development of a curriculum with Dr. Susan Campbell for youth and families that explores the role of shame resilience in walking and living The Way of Love, a way that models the compassion of Jesus. This unique and significant curriculum will include written and video materials and be accessible to all of our communicates and congregations.

We give thanks for the hard work and insight of Ayliffe Mumford who helps make our efforts possible. In the coming year, we hope to strengthen our communication efforts by making the website more accessible and relevant, to partner with local and organic formation efforts throughout the diocese that need support, to collaborate with other committees, and to continue to offer scholarships for clergy and lay leaders to attend formation events and conferences and subscribe to formation resources.

Rev. Ginny Bain Inman (chair)
COMMISSION ON CONSTITUTION AND CANONS

Canon 12 sets out the two-fold purpose of the commission: to review and report on any proposed changes to the diocesan canons and constitution, and to conduct an on-going review of our constitution and canons to ensure their continued relevance to, and compliance with, those of The Episcopal Church’s General Convention. The Commission includes members appointed by the Bishop as well as the Chancellor, and Secretary of Convention, who are members ex officio.

At the behest of the Chancellor and Secretary of Convention, commissioners undertook a review of our canons with an eye toward the second part of our mandate (continued relevance and compliance). This review noted one area in which we do not comply with national canons and six instances where greater limpidity would bring our canons in line with current practice. To that end, we have submitted seven resolutions to the 203rd Convention that cover the following:

_A Constitutional Amendment:_

Article III.3 of the Constitution currently permits certain non-canonically resident clergy serving cures in the Diocese of North Carolina to vote in our conventions, a violation of Canon I.13.1 of the canons of General Convention. Our amendment proposes changing the Constitution to reflect the long-standing principle that a member of the clergy should not have voting privileges in more than one jurisdiction and that only the diocese in which the member of the clergy is canonically resident may extend voting privileges.

Four Canonical Amendments:

The proposed amendment to Canon 1.1 conforms the canon to current practice and reflects privacy concerns.

Canon 5.1 deals with the publication of the Journal of Convention and assumes this journal is published in written form. The amendment recognizes that web publication is now the norm.

Canon 15.4 describes an organization of Diocesan Council that does not actually exist. Our amendment conforms the canons to current practice and is supported by Diocesan Council.

Since the change in date of Diocesan Convention from January to November, Canon 34 does not allow us sufficient time to elect our General Convention deputies according to General Convention Canon I.1.4(a). Furthermore, the revision to Section 2 codifies the practice Convention has followed in the last two elections of deputies.

Two Changes to the Rules of Order of Convention:

Rule III of the Rules of Order, as currently formatted and if strictly enforced, jeopardizes the ability of Convention to convene with quorum were the lay delegates of parishes not in compliance with Canons 30 and 17 (timely filing of audits and parochial reports) excluded from the count of eligible delegates used to establish quorum. Furthermore, the provisions of Article IX.7 of the Constitution and Canon 18 are self-executing. Thus, the unconstitutional portions of Rule III are proposed for deletion.

Rule XXII(c) of the Rules of Order assumes that Convention will always conduct its votes by paper ballot. Our amendment gives Convention the opportunity to explore other options.

Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Commission, The Rev. Clarke French, Chair
Commission on Constitution and Canons
Ever since the 2012 changes to Canon 32, the Commission on Ministry works in two groups, the Committee on the Diaconate (COM-D) and the Committee on the Priesthood (COM-P). These groups serve as committees of advice to the bishop with regard to the ordination process. The COM for the Diaconate works exclusively with those who are diocesan nominees, interns, postulants, candidates, and ordinands to be vocational deacons. The COM-D works directly under the leadership and guidance of Bishop Anne Hodges-Copple.

COM – Committee on the Diaconate (COM-D):

There are five people starting an internship in January 2019 and two Postulants who will begin their formation year in the Clinical Pastoral Education (CPE) program. There is one Candidate for Ordination to the Diaconate, and we hope that on January 5th this Candidate will be ordained.

Those in discernment for the ordained life of a Deacon have been well guided by the dedicated members of the COM-D: the Rev. Joshua Case, the Rev. Bonnie Duckworth, Gail Fennimore, the Rev. James Franklin, Pam Harvey, the Rev. Harrel Johnson, the Rev. Jan Lamb, David Lockett, Dr. Yoshi Nagaishi, and the Rev. Marty Stebbins. We are grateful to Ayliffe Mumford, the diocesan officer for Adult Christian Formation and Lifelong Learning, for her continued guidance of the educational component of the Deacon formation process. In addition we are grateful to the Rev. Dr. Brooks Graebner, Dr. David Jamieson-Drake, and Dr. David Liu for teaching the required classes, and to the Rev. Marion Thullbery as she continues to lead the CPE portion of the formation, which operates out of the Pastoral Services Department of the VA Hospital in Durham.

Special thanks are due to Shelley Kappauf, Executive Assistant to Bishop Hodges-Copple, as well as to the Board of Examining Chaplains for their guidance about educational requirements and certifications of those in the deacon ordination process. And we also extend our gratitude to all the rectors, vicars and vestries who support this important work of the church by guiding nominees in their discernment, by welcoming and supervising interns, and by prayerfully guiding those in the ordination process.

Respectfully submitted,
The Rev. Miriam Saxon and the Rev. Stephanie Yancy

COMMISSION ON MINISTRY (PRIEST)

The Commissions on Ministry (Priest) serve as committees of advice to the bishop with regard to the ordination process for those seeking ordination to the priesthood. The COM (Priest) works with those who are diocesan nominees, interns, postulants, candidates, and transitional deacons.

As of October 1, 2018 there are individuals in discernment and formation for the priesthood. This includes 5 interns, 10 postulants, 4 candidates, 1 transitional deacon, and 2 people with special circumstances.

I wish to thank the members of this commission: Yolanda Anderson, the Rev. Sara Ardrey-Graves, the Rev. Nita Byrd, the Rev. Nancy Cox, the Rev. Clarke French, the Rev. Carr Holland, Isrrael Jaimes, Dr. Dora Mbuwayesango, the Rev. Steve Rice, Robert Rubin, and Lea Thullbery.

Special thanks are due to the diocesan staff who so ably support our work: Canon Catherine Massey and Elizabeth Dawkins. We also extend our gratitude to all the rectors, vicars and vestries who support this important work of the church by discerning nominees, accepting interns, supervising field work student and prayerfully guiding those in the ordination process.

It is an honor and privilege to serve on the Commission on Ministry. I am grateful for the opportunity to serve God and the church in this way.

Respectfully submitted,
The Rev. Stephanie L. Allen

The Committee on Liturgy, working with the bishops, plans, coordinates, and oversees all diocesan worship. The primary responsibilities of the committee are the ordinations to the transitional and vocational diaconate in June and January, respectively, priestly ordinations in December, the liturgies during diocesan convention in November, the liturgies during the annual clergy conference in October, and the reaffirmation of ordination vows and blessing of chrism during Lent. The committee expresses its gratitude for the continuing support of our hosts for these events: The Chapel of the Cross, Chapel Hill; Saint Paul’s, Winston-Salem; and the Canterbury School, Greensboro.

The Liturgical Officer and members of the committee are also available to assist in planning for particular liturgies within the life of individual parishes, as well as to provide liturgical resources.

This has been a productive year for the Costa Rica Global Missions Subcommittee. The group has met monthly, even through the summer. We maintained our commitment to pray, study, discern and articulate the ethos of the two dioceses in the context of their cultures, and to both celebrate and challenge these realities as appropriate in Christian love. Six of our committee members traveled to Costa Rica this year, fostering relationships and working towards mutual ministry goals. Furthermore, we met with Bishop Rodman in the spring, to better understand his vision and goals for the companion relationship. We are grateful for Bishop Rodman’s support and participation.

Also this year, the Committee developed a nearly forty-page guide for those attempting to organize and lead work pilgrimages to Costa Rica. This document contains best practices in areas such as making travel plans, fundraising, organizational logistics, managing group dynamics, our companion relationship ethos, safety concerns, and budgeting. We administered an extensive survey of all parishes that have participated in the companion diocese relationship since 2014 in order to better coordinate relational activities and investments within our diocese. We also updated our online communications and promotional materials, and are planning a Diocesan Pilgrimage to Costa Rica April 22-29 of 2019, to provide opportunities for parishes who have not been involved in the relationship, to send representatives to visit and get involved. And, we have undertaken a new strategic planning innovative to chart the course of the committee, and define measurable objectives, for the next three years. We also continue to support the Companion Diocese Officer (CDO), an important liaison between Costa Rica and its companion dioceses and “point” on organizing all work pilgrimages.

Several members of the Committee have met with the leadership of the companion diocese committee in the Diocese of Texas, Costa Rica’s other Companion Diocese. We now have a better understanding of how we can partner in ministry with Texas, and share resources and ideas.

This has also been a year of episcopal transition in the Diocese of Costa Rica. The Rev. Orlando Gómez Segura was elected as their bishop, on first ballot, in July of this year. His consecration was held on October 13, 2018, and ten persons from our Diocese were part of a delegation led by retired Assistant Bishop Gregg and including Committee members, were in attendance. This joyful event provided many opportunities to celebrate and get to know our Costa Rican friends even better, as well as to get to know the Texas delegation better. We look forward to a ZOOM call between Bishop Rodman and Bishop Gómez in the near future.

We are excited at the prospect of forming new and deeper relationships with Iglesia Episcopal Costaricencse, and with those they serve. We look forward to an exciting year in 2019, and encourage anyone interested in the Diocesan Pilgrimage to visit the Costa Rica booth at Diocesan Convention!

Pura vida,
The Rev. Greg McIntyre, Chair
Costa Rica Companion Diocese Subcommittee DISCIPLINARY BOARD

Title IV of the Episcopal Church Canons details the grounds and process for ecclesiastical discipline. It is a church-wide structure to address claims that Bishops, Priests, or Deacons may have engaged in conduct constituting an offense under the Canons. It encourages accountability, justice, reconciliation, restoration and pastoral responses. For anyone suspecting clergy misconduct, helpful information is found at www.titleiv.org. The Disciplinary Board which is responsible for the implementation of the process is pleased to report that there are no new cases in 2018 and two still in process. The board meets annually to reflection best practices for the process including work with members of the pastoral response team, regional canons and the bishops. New clerics were trained this year as part of their preparation prior to ordination to priesthood. It is sacred work and we are privileged to serve in this unique way.

Respectfully submitted,

The Reverend Tambria E Lee President
ECUMENICAL & INTERFAITH RELATIONS OFFICER

This past year I accepted Bishop Rodman’s invitation to serve as the Diocese’s Ecumenical Interfaith Relations Officer. My focus in 2018 has been split between helping identify resources on the proposed full communion agreement between The Episcopal Church and The United Methodist Church as well as helping create some resources for intertextual reading in dialogue with our Jewish sisters and brothers.

In February I attended, along with Bishop Rodman and Canon Graham, a portion of the Lutheran-sponsored Bold Like Jesus Conference in Salisbury, NC. The event is an ecumenical evangelism and outreach conference with participation by Lutherans, AME Zion, Moravians, and Episcopalians in NC, now in its 4th year. Bishop Rodman participated in a panel of bishops from the four traditions, giving us a chance to find some common denominators in our work of evangelism and outreach as well as explore the possibilities of ministry partnerships.

In April I attended the National Workshop on Christian Unity in Silver Springs, MD. This annual event was attended by Ecumenical and Interfaith Officers from almost every diocese in The Episcopal Church as well as Ecumenical Officers representing churches from across the spectrum. Officers from TEC and the UMC met to discuss full communion.

I invite you to visit the website sponsored by Episcopal Diocesan Ecumenical and Interfaith Officers (EDEIO) for more information (http://www.umc-tec.org/).

The website includes the following resources:

- A link to the latest text of A Gift to the World: Co-Laborers in the Healing of Brokenness. This is a ten-page document outlining the proposal for full communion between TEC and UMC.
- A link to a One-page summary of why and what about the proposed full communion agreement.
- Links to previous work, including:
  - A Theological Foundation for full-communion (2010)
  - The Make Us One With Christ Study Guide designed to be used by two congregations (one Episcopal and one Methodist)
  - A Time Line of the dialogue showing the history of talks as well as the up-coming General Conventions of the Episcopal Church in 2018 and 2021 as well as the United Methodist General Conference in 2020
  - UMC/TEC Common Guidelines for joint worship.

During the remaining months of 2018 I will be working with Rabbi Raachel Jurovics to develop resources that might be used to encourage joint intertextual study and dialogue between Episcopalians and Jews around the diocese. Rabbi Jurovics leads Yavneh, a Jewish Renewal Community nesting at St. Mark’s Episcopal Church in Raleigh, NC. Our goal is to have materials to share with the clergy of our diocese by early Lent 2019.

The Rev. Jim Melnyk, Rector: St. Paul’s Episcopal Church, Smithfield
Currently our committee has 12 official members with several, “non-official” members participating regularly. Our attendance at meetings is usually between 6 and 10 with guests. We usually meet quarterly at different parishes throughout the Diocese.

Areas of concentration for the committee over the last several years include but are not limited to energy efficiency in parish facilities, advocacy for local food, carbon farming, composting, theological justifications for Environmental Ministry, climate change, and conservation of water. A new initiative for 2018 has been circulation via social media of weekly Diocesan "Green Tips". The tips are simple ways that individuals and congregations can "green" their daily lives. Our committee also supports initiatives through our connection with North Carolina Interfaith Power and Light, an affiliate of the North Carolina Council of Churches, as well as parish initiatives such as Becoming the Good Soil Project, which is a part of the ministry at Church of the Nativity in Raleigh.

We have continued to support a vibrant Green Grant Program particularly aimed at small congregations looking to begin the work of Environmental Ministry. This work has been closely connected with our energy efficiency program headed by Bruce Hunn as we have used many of these funds to assist congregations in energy retrofits after Bruce conducts a free of charge energy assessment of a particular parish. Green Grants have also been prioritized toward programs to green parishes through parish vegetable and prayer gardens. We have allotted $1000 of our $1400 2018 budget to these grants, and we hope to expand on this program in 2019.

Over the past year, we actively advocated for the use of the environmental curriculum, A Life of Grace for the Whole World, co-authored by the Rev. Jerry Cappel, Director of Province IV Environmental Ministries. Several of our members have also promoted the work of Environmental Ministry through talks at adult education forums throughout the Diocese.

Additionally, we plan to continue presenting our annual Green Congregation Award, which has now been named in honor of the late Rev. Tom Droppers.

Chair, North Carolina Diocesan Committee on Environmental Ministry
The first 8 months of 2018 were months of interim and maintenance at the Ministry. As a search committee worked to identify a new Executive Director following the resignation of Silvia Cendejas, members of the Board and the staff of the Diocese of North Carolina and the Diocese of East Carolina stepped up to ensure a smooth transition. Special thanks to Marlene Weigert and Maria Gillespie for support of the financials and accounting, and to Jerry Hartzell for his work with the Ministry’s Program Coordinator, Juan Carbana. Juan kept the Ministry going strong, with the Water in the Fields Campaign and the continued provision of clothing and gloves to protect against pesticides and nicotine exposure, and importantly, with regular visits to the camps, morale support and more.

Realizing a need to get our development and fundraising house in order, the Board used funds raised in the Harvest 4 Hospitality Campaign to hire an interim Development Coordinator from the firm Moss and Ross. Funds from the H4H Campaign were raised in 2016 to stabilize and strengthen the Episcopal Farmworker Ministry. Lisa D’Amico’s work with us as our interim Development Coordinator, will hopefully do just that! Other H4H Funds have been used to provide long overdue building maintenance, upgrade the phone system, and provide new computers for the staff.

The latter four months of the year were marked by hurricane response and the arrival of a new Executive Director, Lariza Garcón. The care and response of so many friends of the EFwM after hurricanes Florence and Miachael was simply amazing. Staff and volunteers worked day and night to deliver donations and to offer solidarity.

As our new Executive Director, Lariza Garcón, posted in the days following:

We could have not delivered thousands of pounds of food, water, hygiene items, clothes, cleaning supplies, etc. to farmworkers without your support. Thank you for your donations! Thank you for volunteering! Thank you for helping us coordinate! Thank you for working at the EFWM for long hours! Thank you for collecting donations in your communities! Thank you for doing last minute food deliveries! Thank you for driving to Dunn and Raleigh with donations! Thank you for spending your time and resources joining this effort!

Farmworkers feel the support and solidarity. We hope that this disaster will help us create a bridge between our communities that will be sustained through time!!!

Since Lariza became our Executive Director in September, the Ministry is expanding and becoming more effective. With more than fourteen years of advocacy and work among farmworkers, Lariza brings a network of colleagues and ideas. Partnerships with the people of La Sagrada Familia and the Dioceses of North Carolina and East Carolina are strengthening, and new partnerships are developing. Our presence on social media is expanding, too, with regular posts on Facebook providing information about farmworkers and updates on the Ministry.

The Episcopal Farmworker Ministry remains committed to our mission of responding to the physical, emotional, social, and spiritual needs of farmworkers and their families. With new leadership and vision, this is an exciting time to be involved in the Ministry. Please let us know if you would like to join in our effort to strengthen and carry our mission forward.

With gratitude,
The Rev. Lisa G. Fischbeck
Chair of the Board
In addition to its well-known relief work, Episcopal Relief & Development has begun addressing the needs of communities around the world by focusing on three life-changing development program priorities: 1) women, 2) children and 3) climate.

The work with women focuses on helping communities promote the rights of women and children and move toward the vision that everyone deserves a life free from violence in a society where they are treated with dignity and respect. Only then can communities truly heal and thrive. The work with children supports and protects children under six so they reach appropriate health and developmental milestones. This focus on early development is foundational and critical to helping children achieve their full potential. The work on issues related to climate focuses on how families and communities can work together to adapt to the effects of rapidly changing weather patterns. This work includes preparing for and recovering from climate-caused traumas such as floods and hurricanes. These three areas were chosen because Episcopal Relief & Development and its partners can do things that other organizations cannot do as effectively or sustainably.

One measure of commitment to Episcopal Relief & Development is the cash donations received from dioceses across the country. In 2017, donations from individuals and parishes in the Diocese of North Carolina exceeded those from every other diocese in Province IV. Our diocese continues to be a significant contributor of ideas, dollars and leaders to Episcopal Relief & Development.

In April, our diocese hosted Episcopal Relief & Development Emergency Response Training for emergency response coordinators in six dioceses: Southern Virginia, Southwestern Virginia, Upper South Carolina, the Episcopal Church in South Carolina, East Carolina and North Carolina.

A leadership change in our diocese took place August when the Rev. Louise Anderson succeeded Mr. Reid Joyner as the Diocese’s Network Coordinator for Episcopal Relief & Development.

Since our leadership change in August we have had a major storm, Florence, to impact parts of North Carolina. The Communications department of our Diocese has worked closely with the Episcopal Relief and Development Disaster Response Team, working to make sure all the churches in our area are registered on the Asset Map and able to be reached in case of an emergency or disaster. They have provided us with tools and knowledge to face any disaster that may impact our Diocese. Episcopal Relief and Development has been essential in helping us to gather information on how our Diocese can be helpful to our neighbors that were devastated by Hurricane Florence.

Respectfully submitted, The Rev. Louise Anderson, Network Coordinator
The Fair Share Appeals Board (“FSAB”) is tasked with the responsibility of reviewing applications from parishes or missions that, due to extraordinary circumstances, feel unable to fulfill their expected annual financial contributions to the diocese. The FSAB is comprised of members from both the lay and clergy orders, with members serving for a three-year term. To provide continuity, the members serve in three year staggered terms, thus assuring new insights as well as historical precedence.

This year, the FSAB was charged with reviewing and making a recommendation to Diocesan Council for just one completed application submitted by a parish for its 2019 asking. The FSAB prayerfully and dutifully handled its responsibilities and communicated its recommendation to Diocesan Council for its final determination.

I thank the members of the FSAB for their willingness to serve.

Statement of Purpose: The Francis J. Murdoch Memorial Society administers a trust fund governed by Canon 37 of the Diocese of North Carolina which exists to aid “fit persons who desire to prepare for the ministry of the Church” (Canon 37, Sec.3). Under all ordinary circumstances, this aid is given in the form of a loan to a person enrolled in a seminary and which becomes cancelable upon ordination. Otherwise it shall be in full legal force and effect until paid.

Report: in 2017 the Society awarded six grants, totaling $5,400 to seminarians who are preparing for ordination to the priesthood through the Diocese of North Carolina: Andrew Ancona, Will Berry, Paul Daniels, Marion Sprott-Goldson, Eric Grubb, and Rebecca Ogus.

The market value of the Society’s trust fund as of September 30, 2018 (notably after our 6 disbursements for 2017) is $152,939.59.

Applications and disbursements for 2018 will begin this November.

Currently, there are three clergy and three lay appointees serving in the Society. The Society is composed of the Rev. Josh Bowron, the Rev. Jacob Pierce (chair), the Rev. Joyce Cunningham, Lea Thullbery, Kaye Webb, and Alec Motten.

Dear Clergy and Delegates to the Convention,

Galilee Ministries of East Charlotte (GMEC) was approved by the Bishop as a “special ministry” under Canon 20, Section 2 of the Canons in 2017.

Since its opening in the spring of 2015, GMEC has grown from a facility offering two programs, English as a Second Language taught by Central Piedmont Community College (CPCC) and a Food Pantry operated by Loaves & Fishes of Charlotte, to a busy center that houses multiple programs that feed, educate, counsel, and provide community and spiritual support that touch over 700 people each week. What amazing work of the Holy Spirit!

Galilee’s current offerings include ongoing partnerships with CPCC for ESL for refugees; expansion of the Loaves & Fishes pantry operation from 2 days a week to 4; Refugee Support Services’ expanded Help Center, child care program, distribution of vegetables, Ladies’ Craft Circle and special events; Catholic Charities’ programming for elementary, middle, and high-school students who are refugees; and Cross-Cultural Counseling’s expansion to serve over 20 clients, offer a weekly support group for young Nepali women, and a workshop for people with eating disorders. Charlotte Community Kitchen now serves a weekly lunch to over 100 neighbors—homeless, seniors, working poor, refugees, and the occasional City Council member or Episcopal rector! The Bhutanese Community Association offers karate to youth, and teaches Nepali so that ethnic Nepali Bhutanese young people don’t lose their language and culture. Galilee Gardens grows a riot of vegetables in over 30 plots rented to refugees and neighbors, and a partnership among St. Andrew’s Homes (a low-income senior housing project), Christ Central Church and Galilee Ministries runs a Birthdays and Bingo monthly celebration for seniors in the Homes. Two Montagnard Christian congregations offer Sunday services at Galilee, and each month, Galilee volunteers walk the neighborhood gathering prayer requests from neighbors. The Hospitality program is booming, with volunteers from Episcopal and other congregations, as well as St. Andrew’s Homes! In short, Galilee is becoming known as a place for all that is safe and loving, that welcomes all, regardless of income level, faith tradition (or lack thereof), race or ethnicity, language or culture. It is “Beloved Community” operationalized!

Galilee’s Council includes representation from most of the Episcopal congregations in Mecklenburg County and St. Margaret’s in Union County; the Council is in the process of developing by-laws that will invite current and new congregations to name a representative, but that also leaves space for non-Episcopalian members. The new by-laws also expand community participation in governance, particularly in the programming area. This will enable Galilee to be yet more responsive to the needs of the very diverse, fragile but ever-changing neighborhood in which it is located. Galilee also is in the middle of a major fund-raising campaign to expand its financial support beyond Episcopal and other congregations into the broader community. What is being done now with a part-time Executive Director, a very part-time Business Manager, and a 10-hour-per-week sexton is pretty amazing, but we know we need to build capacity for growth.

Our dream is to expand our services to include the many Latinos who live in the area, and to work to discern the spiritual needs of the many neighbors we encounter and how we might better meet them. We also hope to engage even more Episcopalians in Galilee’s work, because it is transformational for all concerned, breaking down stereotypes and preconceptions about those who are not just like us, and opening the door for the kind of wide, sweeping love that Jesus showed us is needed to heal a hurting world.

YOU can come to Galilee! Visit our display at Convention, come have lunch with us one Wednesday at Galilee Center at 11:30, get involved…and find yourself part of a huge, diverse, and beloved community!

The Rev. Rebecca Yarbrough, Deacon

THE GOOD SAMARITAN FUND

The Good Samaritan Fund is a committee of the Diocese which was organized in the 1960s to distribute the income earned on the proceeds of the sale of The Good Samaritan Hospital in Charlotte to what is now Atrium (formerly Carolinas Medical System). The current balance of the fund is approximately $1,000,000.00. The committee meets annually to distribute the income to a variety of Charlotte based organizations. The enabling language of the Fund requires that the proceeds be spent for purposes related to the charitable and spiritual needs of African Americans.

HISTORIC PROPERTIES COMMISSION

The current Chairman is the 3rd Chairman following Mrs. Jane House, St Paul’s Louisburg as the original Chairman and 2nd by The Rev ET Malone, Jr., Trinity, Scotland Neck who served many years until 2016. Most of the growth of the Commission has been under the guidance and direction of Rev Malone and the Commission recognized him with thankfulness with a special presentation for his dedication and outstanding leadership.

The Historic Properties Commission, authorized since 1997 under Canon 45, is charged with administering the officially-designated “Preserved” historic churches of the diocese, promoting historic and architectural preservation, monitoring old Episcopal cemeteries, and other matters related to historic properties owned by the diocese.

It regularly awards the “Living Historic Church” designation to active congregations that continue to worship in and care for historic church buildings. We have currently 22 churches that have applied for the designation with the latest being, St. Matthew’s, Salisbury which was presented by Commission member, John Elliot on April 23, 2017.

The ten designated “Preserved” historic churches do not have congregations but have committee’s that maintain the property, have at least one service a year with several having multiple services. The current historic churches with committee’s are Church of the Advent (1880), Enfield; St John’s (1773), Williamsboro; Grace Church (1894), Lawrence; St Mary’s Chapel (1859), Orange County; St Andrew’s (1840), Woodleaf; St George’s (1893), Woodleaf; St Luke’s (1859), Northampton County; Holy Trinity (1914), Townsville; St Anna’s (1892), Littleton (Chairman is Rev Brooks Graebner and the committee is being formed) and St James, Kittrell (Chairman is Rev Ted Malone and the committee is being formed). All these churches are still a consecrated church, owned by the diocese and cared for by a committee.

The membership of the Commission consist of one person from the local committee’s of each of the historic churches, five at large members, and ex-officio members: the Historiographer, Archivist, Canon of Properties and Diocesan Council liaison. The Commission meets twice a year, the first Monday in May and the first Monday in October at the Diocesan Office in Raleigh. During the year the Commission has had dialogue and conversation on the election of the Chairman for the Commission whether it should be by appointment by the Bishop or election by the Commission. We have continued investigation on the Anglican cemetery in Halifax County named Conoconnara and the responsibility and the ownership of the burial site. The ownership of the 31 acres at St Anna’s, Littleton needs to be clarified along with the ownership of the church at Ringwood, St Clement’s in Halifax Co. The cemetery is owned by the diocese but the ownership of the church is not title clear since they are not following the legal requirement of keeping up the cemetery. The long problem of lack of access to the cemetery belonging at one time to St James, Pittsboro needs legal attention.

The Commission continues to solicit information from any and all sources in completing an inventory of diocesan “orphan” Episcopal cemeteries not associated with an active church.

The Chairman attended services at several of the churches including Holy Trinity, Townsville; St Mary’s, Orange County and visited St Luke’s, Smithfield, VA, St John’s, Williamsboro and Grace Church, Irvington, VA. He visited All Saint’s, Warrenton; St Anna’s, Littleton and St Clement’s, Ringwood with the Archivist, Lynn Hoke and with Architect and Commission member, Terry Byrd Eason. The Chairman had several meetings with Bishop Anne Hodges-Copple and other meetings with the Canon of Properties, Marlene Weigert and the Diocesan Treasurer, Wade Gresham.

Information about and applications for the “Living Historic Church” designation may be obtained from the Historic Properties Commission, Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina, PO Box 7440, Wilson NC 27895
HISTORIOGRAPHER

This year, work in History and Archives continued to document our racial history, concentrating on telling the story of the historically black congregations and institutions of the diocese. On April 7, we hosted a day-long bus pilgrimage from St. Augustine’s historic Chapel to sites of black mission and ministry in Louisburg, Littleton, Warrenton, and Oxford. At every stop, in addition to historical commentary, we prayed a litany prepared by Fr. Jemonde Taylor and received a reflection/benediction from Bishop Rodman. For the upcoming diocesan convention, we are preparing an overview of black congregational development in this diocese from 1865 to 1959.

In addition to providing invaluable support to these efforts at historical programming, our Diocesan Archivist, Lynn Hoke, has organized a workshop for parish “history keepers” on November 3 in Tarboro. At this workshop, Lynn and others will talk about how to organize a parish archives and institute a records management program. We will also highlight ways that archival material can support the ongoing mission of the parish. Lynn is at work processing the files of Bishop Curry and creating a finding aid. She continues to handle numerous wide-ranging research requests, and provides a history focus at each ECW Annual Meeting. Upon request, Lynn has consulted onsite with various parishes about archival matters.

Other activities in the past year included attending the annual gathering of the National Episcopal Historians and Archivists (NEHA), which met this past August in New Haven, CT. Both Lynn and I were present, and we both profited from the presentations on archival and historical topics. During the NEHA conference, I delivered a paper on the Rev. Dr. J. Brinton Smith, who served as head of the Church’s Freedman’s Commission in 1866 and 1867, before becoming a founder and first Principal of St. Augustine’s School. I have also made presentations for various organizations on the Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray, the Colonial Anglican Church, and the Episcopal Church in North Carolina. This October saw publication of Religious Traditions of North Carolina, an imprint of the North Caroliniana Society, to which I contributed the chapter on the Episcopal Church.

In the year ahead, I hope to commence work on updating our published diocesan history to incorporate the period from 1960 to 2015. I am grateful for the encouragement of Bishop Rodman to undertake this project.

Throughout the year, the History and Archives Chartered Committee has continued to meet regularly. Their guidance and support have proved invaluable. We have also been blessed to have the enthusiastic support of our Bishops and the Diocesan staff, who have been generous in helping to promote our programs and our ongoing archival work.

Respectfully submitted,

When people turn onto Kanuga Chapel Road, something magical happens. Whether it’s their first visit or one of their innumerable pilgrimages to this sanctuary, the person and soul both know that indeed this is holy ground. Founded on Bishop Kirkman Finlay’s dream in 1928 and situated on 1,400 peaceful acres, Kanuga is blessed to welcome 25,000 guests annually to our multiple camps and retreat facilities.

This year is shaping up to be a great one. Guided by the principles, established last year, within our core values of Service, Respect, Sustainability and Stewardship, we are better equipped to determine if we are on the right path and fulfilling our goals. This year, one of the major tasks we have undertaken is getting clarity as to what is Kanuga’s Mission. With the help of a consultant, the board and leadership team, we are making progress in gaining this clarity and expect to be complete with our work before year’s end. Clarity of mission, with accurate information and data, is essential to our strategic planning and decision-making, it gives motivation and focus to our staff, and informs others of what we do.

Here’s a summary of steps we’ve already taken to strengthen our mission for the future.

- A reorganization of board and management to align with what we believe to be our Mission, which assists us in being more nimble and strategic as we approach our centennial in 2028.
- Expanding Kanuga’s footprint in all areas of programming and seeking innovative partnerships.
- Focusing development and marketing efforts on creating new relationships and reaching new audiences.
- Around campus, the most notable difference is in the dining rooms where our new buffet lines have increased efficiency as well as quality. Guests are thrilled, and the new lines are beautiful and work extremely well.
- In 2018, we completed a total renovation of one of our Guest Houses and upgraded a 4 bedroom, 2 bath cottage into a 4 bedroom, 4 bath cottage. Plans for 2019 already include the renovation of two additional historic cottages.
- The Fitness Center has a second room now with aerobic equipment thanks to several donations.
- Grounds look exceptional with the removal of many dead or dying trees, a cleaned-up entrance, and brand-new gas lit lamps in two pivotal locations. Flowerbeds are weeded regularly and are spectacular.
- Initial stages of investigation and conceptual design on preserving the Chapel of the Transfiguration are complete. A timeline for capital improvements and fundraising is being planned.
- Finalizing budgets to become a living wage employer in 2019.

These steps are just the beginning. So much more is being done to make Kanuga stronger and bolder in its mission. We have a bright future if we work together, embracing the fullness of who we are and supporting our purpose like never before.
All of us at Kanuga continue to be grateful to friends, supporters and partners in ministry from the Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina. We thank you for all you do to strengthen this special place for the future of a world of good.

MISSION ENDOWMENT

The Mission Endowment Fund was established under Canon 18 as a permanent endowment for implementing the missionary strategy of the Diocese. The funds were the proceeds from the sale of the Summit. The historic dollar value of the fund is $2.9 million.

It is the goal of the Mission Endowment Board to be stewards of the Mission Strategy Fund for the purpose of supporting initiatives which witness to Christ’s presence in our communities. All financial support is seen as a venture mission fund and not supplementing the Diocesan budget. Membership of the Board is comprised of representatives from Diocesan Council, the Standing Committee, the Trustees, the Bishops, and at-large members.

Mission Endowment grants were awarded in two cycles since the last Diocesan Convention. Up to twelve grants may be made in each year. Grants are typically awarded between $5,000 and $25,000. Grants may be requested for either one or two years.

MISSIONARY RESOURCE SUPPORT TEAM (MRST)

The Missionary Resource Support Team (MRST) offers two grants to congregations in the Diocese of North Carolina. Our primary resource is the Clergy Salary Support Grant for congregations that are intentionally carrying out the mission of the church in their unique ministry context. This typically applies to small churches and mission congregations but also includes new ministry initiatives created in collaboration with existing congregations. MRST also offers one-time seed grants of up to $7500 that can be allocated during the current calendar year for new ministries getting off the ground.

MRST will offer 6 clergy salary grants for calendar year 2019. Recipients are the Chapel of Christ the King, Charlotte ($15,000), Holy Spirit, Greensboro ($15,000), Grace, Clayton ($25,000), St. Cyprian’s, Oxford, ($35,934), Christ’s Beloved Community, Winston Salem ($33,334) and El Buen Pastor, Durham ($50,000). Pending the approval of the 2019 diocesan budget by Convention, MRST will have a budget of $22,500 for Seed Grants in 2019.

MRST was pleased to offer four seed grants this year. In the spring, we awarded $3,000 to Laundry Love, a joint ministry of St. Anne’s, Winston-Salem and Wake Forest Episcopal Campus Ministry. This fall we awarded three grants: San Jose, Smithfield, a re-boot of a Spanish-speaking congregation based at St. Paul’s, Smithfield ($7,500), $8,000 for St. Ambrose, Raleigh for the adaptation of a historic Rite I sung Eucharistic setting in Rite II language, and $8,208 to Episcopal Campus Ministry Raleigh for the development and maintenance of an App to connect young adults throughout the city.

We look forward to supporting other ministries such as these in 2019 through the seed grant process and will announce application dates for the seed grants soon. This will likely be in late winter/early spring 2019.

Applications for the MRST 2020 Salary Grants will be made available in February and will be due mid-April 2019. The spring cycle of Seed Grant applications will most likely be at the same time.

On behalf of the Missionary Resource Support Team, I give thanks for the opportunity to serve the Diocese of North Carolina through the supportive work of this committee.

One of the very first things that newly ordained Bishop Sam Rodman did was join a group for lunch at Irregardless Cafe to welcome guests from Botswana, hosted by Leon Spencer, and to meet Jennifer Copeland, Executive Director, and other NCCC leaders, including Aleta Payne. The North Carolina Council of Churches works in the areas of Environmental Stewardship (NC Interfaith Power & Light), Public Health and Wellness (Partners in Health and Wholeness) and Immigrant Rights, one of the defining civil rights struggles of our time.

The North Carolina Episcopal Foundation, Inc. was established in 1955 by the Rt. Rev. Edwin Penick to aid in the expansion of the Church in the Diocese of North Carolina. The initial funds were derived from the Capital Improvement Fund and later increased by the ACTS Campaign. The interest from the combined funds is used for grants to missions and loans to parishes and other institutions of the Diocese. Loans are available to parishes. As of September 30, 2012 the combined assets, which include stocks, bonds, and church notes, were valued at over $3 million.

The Board of Directors governs the Foundation and meets quarterly to consider all business including investments, management and applications for grants and loans. The Board consists of up to 12 members (there are currently 10) who serve for 3 year terms, unless extended by the Bishop, and 2 ex-officio members, The Diocesan Bishop and Canon Marlene Weigert, Treasurer. All members are appointed by the Bishop.

Each year the Board establishes the percent of the corpus to be used for grants. The current amount is a combined average of the past 3 years of the total assets. Grants are available to mission churches in amounts up to $10,000 for new construction, restorations and improvements to existing buildings. Loans are available to all churches that are current in their financial obligation to the Diocesan budget. Loan interest rates continue at 4%.

Since the 2017 Convention the NCECF made nine mission grants to assist churches in their efforts to improve or repair their existing buildings. These grants totaled $82,425. The foundation awarded six green grants totaling $32,000 to parishes making energy-conserving improvements to their facilities. And, one loan was made to St. Ambrose, Raleigh.

The North Carolina Episcopal Foundation now uses the common application for grants in coordination with other funding groups in the Diocese.

All applications for grants and loans are available on the Diocesan web site. Each application must be approved for consideration by the Bishop and submitted 45 days prior to the next scheduled meeting to allow for an on-site visit by a Board member. The Foundation meets on the second Thursday in March, June and September and on the first Thursday in December.

Brad Mullis+, President
PASTORAL RESPONSE TEAM

The Diocese’s Pastoral Response Team is a group of lay and ordained women and men annually appointed by the Bishop for their collective professional experience in the fields of pastoral care, spirituality, psychology, congregational life, law, and conflict mediation.

Members of the Team are available to provide valuable insight, resources, and planning for clergy, employees, vestries and congregations who are dealing with sensitive pastoral situations that require pastoral, psychological, legal, and/or professional counsel. These situations could include church employees, lay or ordained, or church members.

The Team’s canonical agendum is to facilitate the Pastoral Response mandated in matters of Ecclesiastical Discipline by the provisions of the Canons of the General Convention of The Episcopal Church (Title IV. Canon 8). The work of the team extends beyond this mandate, however, as members of the Team have been called upon to bring wisdom and guidance to congregations in situations where the normal pastoral resources of the congregation are at their limits, such as:

- after the sudden death, or disabling injury or illness of a clergy person, or a member of the clergy person’s family; or a significant lay staff person or parishioner within a congregation;
- advising a congregation when a parishioner is a convicted or accused sex offender;
- assisting clergy, or wardens of a congregation without clergy, with referrals to professionals such as clinical therapists, family or marriage counselors;
- helping clergy and lay leaders understand and respond appropriately to unusual behavior in the congregation.

In this work the Team is complemented by a “deep bench” of clergy and laity from around the diocese who have been recruited from time to time to serve in certain cases and situations to facilitate congregational meetings, and/or to provide longer-term pastoral support, if needed. The Team also works hand-in-hand with the Canons for Regional Ministry in these matters.

Once a year the Team meets with the Bishops, the Canons, the Disciplinary Board members and the church attorneys for mutual support, appropriate review of cases and situations, and ongoing education.

The Pastoral Response Team has also advised the Bishop about Safe Church Training and provides advice and guidance to congregations as they have questions about Safe Church issues for children and adults and maintaining appropriate boundaries.

Canon Catherine Massey is responsible for the coordination and training of the Team. To contact the Pastoral Response Team, a 24-hour toll-free telephone number is maintained. Congregations are encouraged to have information about the Pastoral Response Team and the confidential telephone number (1.877.332 3394) readily available to their membership. Anyone is invited to call and leave a voicemail with their questions or concerns. The call will be returned within 48 hours. The call is kept confidential to the fullest extent of the law.

Both Penick Village’s mission and vision statement begin with “We”. And that is purposeful and important. Creating a loving community takes all of us. Those who live here, those who work here, and all of those who love and cheer on these two groups. Why? Because “we before me” makes transformational and significant differences.

Here is a quick update on how “We” the Penick Village family is working together love one another and the greater community:

- Similar to 2018, we will provide approximately $1.6 million of financial assistance to elders in need. This ministry is strong and without a doubt, needed. It takes a lot of “we” to bring this part of the ministry to life – thank you to all who uplift and cheer this on!

- A portion of the $1.2 million renovation project in Penick Village’s healthcare services area have been state approved and are in the works for implementation. All of these steps will provide a better opportunity for quality of life, services, and improved support for people experiencing dementia – all benefitting our frailest “we.”

- Penick Village will be growing its “we” with the next expansion project, the Wharton apartment building. This building, named after Penick Village’s first African American residents, Annie and Fletcher Wharton, will have 20 apartments that range from 600 to 1600 square feet. The groundbreaking and consecration ceremony was held in September with three generations of the Wharton family present. The Wharton’s grandson, Dr. Marc Wharton delivered a beautiful keynote address that emphasized the need for grace, embracing grace, and creating a loving legacy. The Right Reverend Anne Hodges-Copple consecrated the ground and a letter from The Most Reverend Bishop Curry was read by granddaughter Mrs. Annita Bridges. Along with many members of the Penick Village family in attendance, we were thrilled to have many of the St. Titus Church family join us for this special day that created a better “we.”

- “We” like to have fun for a great cause! Please mark your calendars and join us at our 13th Annual Art Show and Auction on February 21-24, 2019!

The Penick Village’s family’s prayer for 2019 and the 203rd Convention is strength and wisdom in creating “we” that are full of love for each of you, your parish families, and your ministries. Thanks be to God!

The Bishop’s Committee on Racial Justice and Reconciliation (RJRC) is tasked with helping members of the Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina understand the systemic social, economic, and spiritual effects of race and racism. As such, the mandate of the RJRC is as wide-ranging as it is multi-layered. In our efforts to provide a starting point for conversation and action, we have chosen to focus on a few opportunities for members of our Diocese to engage with these issues with theological depth and intellectual acuity.

As in previous years, we have continued to receive a steady stream of subsidy assistance requests for the Racial Equity Institute (REI) training. The REI training is not a faith-based offering, but so many people of faith participate in it that theological issues are often raised and addressed. When parishes couple the REI training with explicitly faith-based resources, the relevance and relationship is clear.

We provided roughly 30 scholarships this year and exhausted our REI subsidy budget by the end of October. Chuck Collier—a member of the RJRC from All Saints’, Concord—applied for grant monies that have enabled REI trainings to be offered more frequently in the Charlotte area.

Some sectors of The Episcopal Church have used an anti-racism seminar, Seeing the Face of God in Each Other (SFG), for many years. In this Diocese, we have used a one-day version of this training. Over the years, the SFG Seminar has become dated. Following the bishops’ guidance in 2017, we developed a provisional program for the current year, with the hopes of engaging a more comprehensive process in 2019. Sue Guptill (the former chair of the RJRC), Ayliffe Mumford, and current SFG trainers and RJRC members recruited four new trainers and oversaw the provisional revision process with satisfactory results. We also began compensating trainers with a modest honorarium.

It is our hope to undertake a comprehensive revision process in the coming year, with funding for a train-the-trainer retreat, clearer structure and guidelines for faith-based, anti-racism training, and proper compensation for trainers. We plan to begin work on the SFG Revision in 2019.

In conversation with the chairs of the Latinx/Hispanic Chartered Committee and the New Visions Initiative, the co-chairs of this committee helped bring all three committees together for a Beloved Community Retreat Day on April 28, 2018 at St. Luke’s, Durham. We had about 30 people present, and Canon Rhonda Lee facilitated sessions on nonviolent communication. We prayed together, broke bread together, and nurtured relationships among people committed to doing similar work in diverse contexts across our diocese. It was the first gathering of its kind among committees engaging with similar issues across the diocese. The bishops generously provided funding for this gathering, which had not been part of this Committee’s budget. It is our hope to host another gathering like it in 2019.

Lastly, the co-chairs of the RJRC would like to express our gratitude for the commitment and work of the entire committee in 2018. Their contributions are invaluable as we continue to work toward a world that more closely resembles God’s Kingdom.

Grace and peace,
The Rev. Javier Almendárez-Bautista
The Rev. Monnie Riggin

The Swindell Speakers Fund was originally conceived as a resource to sponsor spiritual thinkers and religious scholars of note to lecture at the diocese’s Brown Summit Conference Center but since 2011, the committee has had a different charge: use the funds in innovative ways to promote a missional attitude within the diocese.

With this charge the Swindell Committee has sponsored the $100.00 challenge for mission beyond church doors, an on-line Lenten book study addressing America’s changing church landscape, and a convention round table breakfast with the theme, what does mission looks like in your church context. In 2016, the Swindell Committee supported the Transition Committee for Calling a Bishop by reminding long time Episcopalians and instructing people new to the denomination on the history, ministry and import of the Episcopacy.

In 2018, recognizing the importance of actively participating in racial reconciliation work, the committee chose the theme of Becoming Beloved Community. As a piece of that work, the Swindell Speakers Fund commissioned a graphic bible study, “More and More: A Bible Study to Expand the Tent so we can say, “We will!” with God’s help.”

The "comic" focuses on examples in scripture when God urged his people to expand the tent, inviting those who had previously been excluded into full acceptance. This message is presented in art with scripture passages and reflection questions. It ends with promises made in our baptismal covenant and then asks, “what will you do with what you've considered in this study in light of the promises you've made?” We are giving copies of the graphic bible study to all clergy and delegates at the 203rd Diocesan Convention and providing a link for extra in-house printing or ordering from the company direct at low prices. This same opportunity to order and/or print will be offered to the wider church through networks like FORMA.

The Swindell Committee has proven that a designated speakers’ fund can be transformed into innovative, creative, and spirit-led resources that “speak” to the people of God in the Diocese of North Carolina—and beyond—of our call to grow more deeply with Jesus Christ at the center of our lives, so we can bear witness to his way of love in and for the world. We continue to be grateful to the Swindell family for their lasting gift to the diocese through this fund.

This August, Thompson Child & Family Focus (Thompson) celebrated its 132\textsuperscript{nd} birthday. August also marked my 16\textsuperscript{th} month with the organization. Now equipped with over a century worth of data, it became clear that the last year at Thompson has seen more growth than ever before. In the last year, Thompson has…

- Gone from 185 positions in our organization to 225 due to growth & transformation.
- Collaborated with Mecklenburg County to open two new residential programs for Mecklenburg County adolescents called Thompson Connect (boys & girls).
- Opened our doors to Turning Point Academy, a CMS partnered alternative middle school that includes a complete overlap of clinical services provided by Thompson staff.
- Added four new national, evidence-based practices to support our programs (Friends of The Children, Quality Parenting Initiative, CARE, & Strengthening Families Initiative).
- Been awarded a $600K Social Innovation Fund Grant to bring Friends of the Children to Charlotte to provide an evidence-based “Life Navigation” to those children at the greatest risk. For every $1 invested in this program, there is a $6 savings to social services.
- Opened three new NC Pre-K classrooms furthering the goal of providing 100\% public Pre-K to Mecklenburg County.
- Increased the number of foster homes and youth served in our foster care program by 100\%, expanding our foster care program into Asheville, Wilmington, and several other counties in North Carolina.
- Increased utilization of our PRTF by 80\%. Cottages have now been operating at capacity consistently for the first time in years. We are also serving 40\% more children and families served in our mental health services continuum.
- Expanded our evidence-based Parent Education services to Cabarrus, Union, and Yorke Counties.
- Secured four New Community Based Juvenile Justice Contracts.

In addition, our existing service continuum has continued to shine, producing strong outcomes across the board.

- 93\% of children enrolled in our early childhood programs achieved development gains.
- 71\% of clients achieved mental health gains.
- 84\% of families improved family functioning.
- 92\% parent/client satisfaction rate.

We look forward to pressing forward, with your support, to new heights!

Will Jones, President/CEO
Well, here we are. All my years out on this island, and as many storms as Trinity Center has survived, we have finally taken a big hit. Hurricane Florence brought plenty of devastation wherever it went, and eastern North Carolina bore the brunt of the storm. Honestly, I bristle every time I hear a newscaster talk about it coming ashore in Wilmington as a Category 1 storm. That storm slowed to a crawl and sat off our coastline for almost seventy-two hours, lashing this island with 100 mph winds off and on the whole time. Trinity Center was right in the northeast quadrant, where the storm was fiercest, and our property definitely looks the worse for wear.

My family and I evacuated inland, and it was several days before I was able to get back to Trinity Center, even with an Essential Personnel Disaster Pass. When I arrived, I crawled around property, took loads of pictures, saw plenty of visible damage, and thought that overall maybe it was not as bad as I had feared in my worst imaginings.

Then we filed our claim with our commercial property insurer. The claims adjuster has now come and gone, spending over two days here documenting damage. He and his team brought drones, infrared detectors, and moisture indicators. They meticulously documented damage all over our sixty-two acres. What they found was that the damage was far worse than I initially thought. Water had seeped into many of our buildings, through roofs, windows, and gables. There was water damage everywhere. Damage was extensive enough that our property insurer called in the “Large Loss” team. Construction specialists from Large Loss have arrived and have been working steadily to complete our claim. They have made clear the scale and scope of our loss. We are currently waiting to find out how much we will receive from three separate claims: commercial property, wind/hail, and flood.

And then the trucks rolled in. Our commercial property insurer called in a catastrophe team to manage the drying out process. It was surreal. On the one hand, I was relieved to know that experienced and professional help had arrived. On the other hand, I still had trouble accepting that we needed such help. The catastrophe team has stayed, tarping holes in roofs, deploying industrial strength dehumidifiers, and water-mapping our property. They will be in charge of the demolition/mold mitigation necessary around property, and they are already hard at work.

This entire time my staff has been cleaning, raking, piling, sawing, stacking, uncovering, and piling some more. They have worked so very hard, without complaint, doing everything they could to get us back in shape. Now we wait. We need our Large Loss adjuster to give us the go-ahead to begin demolition and construction. Main Dining, Pelican House, the Centrum, our dorms, and our Beach House all need some serious TLC. Other parts of property need work too. We are hoping to start very soon. We are hoping it will all be covered by insurance; in fact, we are hoping to emerge on the other side of this storm in better shape than ever.

What we need, honestly, are prayers and donations. All prayers always appreciated. Donations are so important right now. They will help pay my staff until the insurance money trickles in, until groups can return to property. It will literally keep the lights on at Trinity Center.
It’s so easy to donate now. Just go to our secure website (www.trinityctr.com) and head to the “Giving” page. Donate to the Annual Fund, and in the comments section note that it is for “Hurricane Florence Relief.” You can make one-time or recurring donations. And hey, now that the mail is running again on the island, you can even mail us a check.

I know in my head that we were fortunate. I know in my head that so many have suffered worse losses from the hurricane, some of them my own staff. In my heart, however, I feel the losses that Florence inflicted keenly and deeply. My beloved Trinity Center, our beloved Trinity Center, needs help from all of us.

About the University of the South
The University of the South is home to an outstanding liberal arts College of Arts and Sciences, a School of Letters, and a School of Theology. Located atop the Cumberland Plateau between Nashville and Chattanooga, Tennessee, Sewanee's 13,000-acre campus, the second largest campus in the United States, provides students with vast opportunities for research, recreation, and reflection. Within the traditionally strong curriculum of humanities, sciences, and graduate theological studies, Sewanee faculty members promote intellectual growth, critical thinking, and hands-on research.

The University's Board of Trustees is composed of the bishops of the 28 owning dioceses, together with clergy and lay representatives elected by each diocese and representatives of other University constituencies. The Board of Regents, to which the Board of Trustees delegates some of its responsibilities for governance, is composed of Episcopal bishops, priests, and lay people, and may include a limited number of members of other Christian bodies. The chancellor of the University, elected by the Board of Trustees, is a bishop from one of the 28 owning dioceses.

An Episcopal Center of Learning
The University of the South is an institution of The Episcopal Church dedicated to the pursuit of knowledge, understanding, and wisdom in close community and in full freedom of inquiry, and enlightened by Christian faith in the Anglican tradition, welcoming individuals from all backgrounds, to the end that students be prepared to search for truth, seek justice, preserve liberty under law, and serve God and humanity.

The University was founded by church leaders from the southeastern United States in 1857 and is the only university in the nation that is owned and governed by dioceses of The Episcopal Church, specifically the 28 dioceses that are successors to the original founding dioceses. The historic ownership and governance of the University by these Episcopal dioceses has produced a living synergy of leadership, resource, and mutual support, enriching the Church and advancing the University’s role in American higher education.

Staff Title Changes
In June of 2018, Amy Campbell’s job title changed from Youth Missioner to Children’s and Family Missioner. This change states more clearly the work that Amy has and will continue to do, as well as allow her to give more focused attention to the needs of congregations around ministry with children and their families.

Parish Support and Visitations
The Diocesan Youth Missioners continue to meet with parish youth ministers throughout the diocese, providing space for networking, as well as support and fellowship. Each has also assisted churches in the areas of Godly Play, working with children and youth with disabilities and racial reconciliation. During the program year 2018-2019 we have scheduled workshops in each of the Regions. Regional workshops include curriculum choices, mental health first aid and inclusion.

Safe Church
The youth department continues to manage and coordinate all efforts for Safe Church training within our Diocese. This includes the scheduling of all Safe Church Trainings, coordinating trainers and the training components, as well as facilitating the use of the online training system. These items are done in conjunction with Canon Catherine Massey. In 2018, we have worked to update the Best Practices to include not only ministry with children and youth, but also to provide best practices when working with vulnerable adults. Diocesan Council has approved a new and revised version of the Best Practices and the department will roll these out with the aid of the Safe Church trainers in early 2019.

Youth at Convention
Our youth continue to be represented at our own Diocesan Convention, with not just voice, but also vote. In addition to representation at our own Annual Convention, we had one of our youth, Justice Mullis from Saint John’s, Charlotte, selected from Province IV to serve as part of the Official Youth Presence during General Convention in Austin. We are so proud of Justin!

Bishops’ Ball
The theme for last February’s Bishops’ Ball was, “One Body, Many Hearts.” The coordinators of Bishops’ Ball decided they wanted to help raise money for those who were impacted by Hurricane Harvey in the fall of 2017. They organized a Dance A Thon to raise money for Episcopal Relief and Development; Hurricane Relief. During Saturday night’s dance, youth watched the pledges come in to just over $6,000.

Genesis
Genesis is scheduled for April 5-7, 2019. The theme for Genesis 2018 was Prayer and the Environment. The youth leadership of Genesis lead the middle school participants through exercises that focused on how we can make a difference in preserving God’s creation, and draw closer to God.
HUGS Camp
2018 was the celebration of the 30th year of HUGS Camp. HUGS continues to be a place of joy and Christ’s love. Helpers, counselors and campers alike find that HUGS is a space where we can just be ourselves and be in the presence of God. HUGS Camp 2019 is scheduled for June 8-13.

Happening #65
Over 70 participants and team enjoyed a powerful, youth-led weekend this past October. Happening is a unique ministry that builds on the teachings from Confirmation and provides space for personal renewal of one's relationship to Jesus Christ. Each year more and more youth step up to the call to be leaders of this deeply impactful ministry. This continues to be an impactful ministry not only to those who are Happening for the first time, but also for those who are returning to serve on team.

PYE Atlanta Summer 2018.
Youth and adults from our diocese joined nearly 50 others in Atlanta for Province IV’s Youth Experience. This time together included mission work at numerous service organizations, followed by participation in Posts for Peace and Justice, an organization aimed to support and build individual and community resilience, engagement, compassion, and cohesiveness, through collaborative creativity in designing 6-8 foot vinyl posts on various topics to help raise consciousness and stimulate action to resolve injustices.

CONSTITUTION, CANONS, AND RULES OF ORDER OF THE DIOCESE OF NORTH CAROLINA
As of Adjournment of the 203rd Annual Convention, November 16, 2018

CONSTITUTION OF THE DIOCESE OF NORTH CAROLINA

Article I
The Church in the Diocese of North Carolina accedes to and adopts the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, as set forth in General Convention thereof, and acknowledges its authority accordingly.

Article II
Section 1. There shall be an annual Convention of the Church in this Diocese at such time and place as may be determined by the next preceding Convention, or in the event of no such determination, then at such time and place as may be fixed by the Ecclesiastical Authority and the Standing Committee.

Section 2. The time and place of the annual Convention may be changed, or Special Conventions called, by the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese, subject to such canonical provisions as may hereafter be made.

Section 3. Written notice of a Special Convention shall be given by the Secretary to every member of the clergy who is eligible for a seat and vote in the Convention and to the senior warden of every parish and every mission therein at least 60 days before the date thereof. This notice shall specify the purpose for which the Special Convention is called, and no other business shall be in order except by unanimous consent of the delegates.

Article III
Section 1. The Convention shall be composed of the two orders, clerical and lay.

Section 2. The Bishop of the Diocese, or in the Bishop’s absence, the Bishop Coadjutor, or any bishop in charge, as representing the Ecclesiastical Authority, shall, in the order named above, if present, preside at all meetings of the Convention and shall appoint all committees unless it be otherwise ordered.

Section 3. The members of the Clergy Order of the Convention include (i) every active and resigned bishop of this Diocese whose principal residence is located therein, (ii) every member of the clergy of the Church who is canonically resident in the Diocese and whose principal residence is located therein, and (iii) every other member of the clergy of the Church, or member of the clergy of a church in full communion with The Episcopal Church, who is regularly serving a parish or mission in union with the Convention, or another ministry within the diocese recognized by the Ecclesiastical Authority. All members of the Clergy Order are entitled to seat and voice in the Convention. The restriction of residence as above required shall not apply to professors, tutors, or students in any recognized theological seminary of this Church, or college maintained and governed in part by the Diocese, or to any officers or members of the staff of the Executive Council, or to chaplains in the Armed Forces of the United States, or to members of the clergy in charge of congregations of this Diocese.

Except as otherwise provided in Article IX, Section 7, every member of the Clergy Order who is regularly serving the diocese, a parish or mission in union with the Convention, or another ministry within the diocese recognized by the Ecclesiastical Authority is entitled to vote.
[Amended by Act 2007-2; Amended by Act 2010-1; Amended by Act 2018-1]

Section 4. Except as otherwise provided in Article IX, Section 7, each parish and mission in union with the Convention shall be entitled to be represented at its sessions by lay delegates whose number shall be determined in proportion to the number of enrolled adults who are communicants in good standing of the parish or mission as specified by canon.

These delegates shall be elected by the vestry from among the enrolled confirmed adults who are communicants in good standing of the parish or mission.

The delegates shall be chosen in a manner provided by canon to assure that approximately one-third of the entire lay membership of the Convention is subject to election each year. The initial terms of delegates elected by virtue of this article shall be determined by the Secretary of the Convention in accordance with canon. Subject to changes in representation required by changes in the numbers of enrolled adults who are communicants in good standing of parishes and missions, and upon the expiration of each term thereafter, each vestry shall elect for a term of three years a successor for each lay delegate whose term has expired.

Each vestry shall be entitled to elect, for one-year terms, a number of alternate delegates, subject to the same qualifications, equal to the delegates elected, who shall be authorized, in the order of their election, to fill any vacancy that may occur in the delegation originally chosen.
[Amended by Act 2007-3; Amended by Act 2010-1]

Section 5. When a mission desires to be admitted into union with the Convention, it shall follow the same procedure, so far as applicable, as that prescribed for the admission of a parish.

Section 6. No person, clerical or lay, under ecclesiastical censure publicly declared by a competent tribunal, shall be admissible to a seat in the Convention. No person shall be allowed to represent more than one parish or mission in the same Convention.

Section 7. If any parish or mission shall neglect or decline to appoint delegates, or if any of those appointed shall neglect or be prevented from attending, such parish or mission shall nevertheless be bound by the acts of the Convention.

Section 8. The Convention may admit into Union with the Convention a worshipping community associated with a campus ministry established by the Diocesan Council and recognized by the Ecclesiastical Authority. Each such community shall be entitled to elect one lay delegate to be chosen for a term of one year in a manner prescribed by Canon. The lay delegate shall be elected from among the members of the community who are enrolled, confirmed, adult communicants in good standing of a parish or mission of The Episcopal Church. A lay delegate so chosen is not eligible for election as a delegate from any parish or mission in Union with the Convention. [Added by Act 2011-3]

Section 9. The Convention may by canon make provision for the selection of not more than seven lay delegates to represent the youth of the Diocese. Such delegates shall be enrolled confirmed communicants in good standing of a parish or mission of this Diocese who are between the ages of sixteen and eighteen as of the convening of the Annual Convention for which chosen and who have not matriculated at an institution of higher learning. [Added by Act 2016-1]

Article IV

Amended on Second Reading in 2000

Section 1. The Convention shall be the sole judge of the election of its own members. It shall have power to adopt rules of order for its own government, elect officers and raise funds, and shall also have such other legislative powers as may be necessary and proper for the well-being of the Diocese.

Section 2. The Convention shall have no power to pass any canon infringing the Episcopal Authority, or affecting the spiritual condition of the Diocese, against the express dissent of the Bishop stated at that or the ensuing annual Convention. This shall not prevent the Convention from offering independently of the Bishop resolutions of advice or inquiry.

Article V

Amended on second reading in 2009

To constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, the presence of a majority of all the clergy entitled to vote, and of a majority of all the lay delegates authorized to be chosen as provided by canon, shall be necessary. Any lesser number shall be competent to receive reports and to recess or adjourn.

Article VI

Section 1. Upon any question before the Convention, on the request of any clerical or lay delegate sustained by ten other delegates present and voting, the two orders shall vote separately. In all cases of a vote by orders each clerical member shall be entitled to one vote, and each lay delegate shall be entitled to one vote, and a concurrence of majorities of both orders shall be necessary to a decision. When no such division is called for, each member shall be entitled to one vote.

Section 2. All elections shall be by ballot, unless otherwise unanimously ordered.

Article VII

Section 1. Upon nomination by the Ecclesiastical Authority, the Convention shall annually elect a Secretary, who shall hold office until the next annual Convention, or until a successor is elected and qualified.

Section 2. Should a vacancy occur in the office of Secretary, by death or otherwise, the unexpired term shall be filled by appointment by the Ecclesiastical Authority.

Section 3. The Secretary shall perform the duties prescribed by canon, and such other services as may be required by the Ecclesiastical Authority.
Section 4. Upon nomination by the Ecclesiastical Authority, the Convention shall annually elect a Treasurer of the Diocese, who shall have such powers and perform such duties as may be prescribed by canon or required by the Ecclesiastical Authority.

Section 5. The Secretary and the Treasurer shall be eligible to hold other offices in the Diocese either by election or appointment.

Article VIII
[Amended on Second Reading in 2000 and 2008]

Section 1. The Standing Committee or Council of Advice to the Bishop, shall consist of five clergy of the Diocese and four members of the laity who are enrolled confirmed adult communicants in good standing. The term of office shall be for three years, with three members being elected at each annual Convention. Any member of the Committee whose immediately prior service has been for less than three continuous years shall be eligible for re-election to a full three-year term; otherwise, no elected member shall be eligible for re-election until one year shall have elapsed following the expiration of the term of office. [Amended by Act 2008-1]

Section 2. The Committee shall have power to fill any vacancy that may occur in its own body between the annual meetings of the Convention in accordance with the applicable canon. [Amended by Act 2008-1]

Section 3. When there is no Bishop, the Standing Committee shall be the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese, and as such may invite the temporary services of other bishops, and, for due cause, may change the time or place of the annual meetings of the Convention. It may also summon Special Conventions when there is no Bishop, and shall do so upon the call of one-third of the clergy of the Diocese, or of one-third of the parishes in union with the Convention, as appearing upon the lists of the Journal last before published. And although there be a Bishop, the Standing Committee shall have power to call Special Conventions for the purpose of considering and dealing properly with threatened or existing disciplinary proceedings against a Bishop, and shall do so upon a similar requisition by the clergy or laity.

Article IX
[Amended on Second Reading in 2006]

Section 1. Any 100 or more confirmed adult communicants in good standing of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States may organize themselves into a parish, and be received into union with the Convention, by taking such steps as may be provided for by canon. And the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese may organize a mission in such manner as shall be provided by canon, in any part of the Diocese not included within the neighborhood of a parish in union with the Convention.

Section 2. It shall always be competent for the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese, with the written consent of the rector of any parish, a copy of which shall be filed with the Secretary of the Convention, to organize a mission within the neighborhood of said parish. The ministers of such a mission shall be independent of the rector and responsible only to the Ecclesiastical Authority. If the consent of the rector be denied, an appeal may be taken to the Bishop, whose decision, if with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall be final.
Section 3. In all parochial and mission elections only those shall be entitled to vote who are enrolled confirmed adult communicants in good standing, and who thereby consent to be governed by the Constitution and Canons of this Church as are or may be adopted by the General Convention, and the Convention of the Diocese pursuant thereto.

Section 4. Any parish or mission ceasing to be represented in the Convention for two successive years, or any parish or mission resisting the authority of the Convention or the Ecclesiastical Authority, may be suspended from the right of representation, or its connection with the Convention be dissolved, by a vote of a majority of all the clergy present and entitled to vote, and a majority of lay delegates present and entitled to vote. For purposes of this section, the authority of both the Convention and the Ecclesiastical Authority is as defined by the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Church in the United States of America and by the Constitution and Canons of the Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina. No such suspension or dissolution shall take place without previous inquiry by the Standing Committee or a committee appointed by the Standing Committee for the purpose, and a report to the Convention upon the facts of the case; nor until 30 days’ notice to the rector or vestry of the parish or the vicar or vestry of the mission, or in the case there be none then to a member of the parish or mission in default. [Amended by Act 2007-4.]

Section 5. Any parish which receives aid from the mission funds of the Diocese and does not, for two consecutive years, pay its proportion of the salary of the minister serving it, shall be deprived of the right to vote in the Convention until such arrears be paid or remitted by the Convention.

Section 6. Any parish or mission which shall fail to observe and comply with the conditions and requirements of Title I, Canon 8, of the General Convention relative to the Church Pension Fund, shall be deprived of the right to vote in the Convention until its obligation is fully discharged.

Section 7. Each parish and mission shall give in support of the Mission and Ministry Budget of the Diocese an amount equal to a tithe (10%) of its total operating income for the preceding year, or such greater percentage, not to exceed fourteen percent (14%), as may have been established by the Convention. The Diocesan Council may reduce the amount required of any parish or mission for good cause shown. The clergy and lay delegates of any parish or mission which fails to comply with this obligation shall be deprived of the right to vote in the Convention and the parish or mission shall be subject to such other sanctions as may be imposed by canon until the obligation has been fully discharged. [Amended by Act 2010-1]

Section 8. All real and personal property held by or for the benefit of any parish, mission, or congregation is held in trust for the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America and the Diocese of North Carolina. The existence of this trust, however, in no way limits the power and authority of the parish, mission, or congregation otherwise existing over such property so long as the particular parish, mission, or congregation remains part of, and subject to, the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America and its Constitution and Canons.
Article X

Section 1. Any presbyter regularly called to the charge of a parish and entering thereupon, shall during the time of such charge, be held to be the rector of said parish.

Section 2. Rectors are recognized as having, by virtue of their office, the exclusive regulation, under their canonical superiors, of all the spiritual concerns of the parishes they serve; as being entitled at all times to have access to the church building, and to open the same for the services or instruction of this Church, as they may deem proper; to call meetings of the vestry or congregation; when present, to preside in the same, and, in case of a tie, to cast the deciding vote.

Article XI

The Convention shall pass canons for the trial of members of the clergy.

Article XII

[Amended on second reading in 2009]

When a Bishop is to be elected the Convention shall vote by written ballot and separately by orders; and a concurrence on the same ballot of a majority of all the clergy entitled to vote in the Convention, whether present or not, and of a majority of all lay delegates authorized to be chosen as provided by canon, whether present or not, shall be necessary to an election.

Article XIII

No new canon, or change in an existing canon, shall be considered or adopted, without first having been submitted to and reported on to the Convention by its Commission on Constitution and Canons. Nor shall the same be adopted on the day on which proposed, except by a two-thirds vote of those entitled to vote at that Convention.

Article XIV

This constitution may be altered or amended only upon:

(a) The concurrence of a majority of both orders who are present and entitled to vote at the annual Convention at which the alteration or amendment is proposed, voting separately by orders; and

(b) The adoption of the proposed alteration or amendment at the next ensuing annual Convention by the concurrence of a majority of both orders who are present and entitled to vote, voting separately by orders. At this Convention the consideration of a proposed amendment may be postponed to the next annual Convention by a vote of two-thirds of both orders present and entitled to vote, not voting by orders unless required under the provision of Article VI.

Article XV

[Amended on Second Reading in 1991]

All constitutional and canonical enactments shall take effect from and after the adjournment of the Convention at which they shall have been ratified or adopted.

Certified by Charles L. Till, Secretary of the Convention
November 27, 2018
CANONS OF THE DIOCESE OF NORTH CAROLINA

Canon 1
Members of Convention

Section 1. Clergy. Before the opening of the annual Convention or of a Special Convention, the Secretary shall apply to the Ecclesiastical Authority for a list of clergy entitled to seats, and shall receive such list at least 120 days before the opening of an annual Convention, or 60 days before a Special Convention. From this list the Secretary shall prepare, at least 90 days prior to the annual Convention and 30 days prior to a Special Convention, and publish from this list the official clergy roll of the Convention, which roll shall be prima facie evidence of the right to seats therein. After the Secretary’s publication of the roll, the Ecclesiastical Authority may certify to the Secretary additional clergy entitled by the Constitution to seat in the Convention until one hour prior to the opening session of the Convention. [Amended by Act 2007-5; Amended by Act 2018-3]

Section 2. Laity. The clerks of the several parish and mission vestries electing lay delegates to the Convention shall furnish two certificates showing the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the lay persons elected. One shall be provided to the delegates-elect, and one shall be forwarded to the Secretary of the Convention. The latter shall be mailed at least 110 days before the opening session. From these certificates the Secretary shall prepare and publish at least 90 days before the opening of the Convention a roster of lay delegates to that Convention. The Secretary shall not insert any name upon the roll without the evidence of one of these certificates or an amended certificate signed by the rector or clerk of the parish or by the vicar or clerk of the mission, submitted to the Secretary not later than one hour prior to the opening session of the Convention, unless specifically directed to do so by the Convention upon recommendation of its Committee on Credentials. Defective or doubtful certificates shall be laid aside, to be acted on after the Convention shall have organized.

Each congregation (parish or mission) shall be represented in the Convention in accordance with the average number of its enrolled adult communicants in good standing, as contained in the last three annual statistical reports printed in the Journal as follows:

[Amended by Act 2006-5 and Act 2007-6.]

Section 3.
(a) Lay persons who meet the constitutionally required qualifications shall be elected delegates and alternate delegates to the Convention in accordance with the terms of this section. The length of initial terms under this system shall be prescribed by rule of order; upon the expiration of initial terms each lay delegate shall be elected for a term of three years except as may be required under the provisions of Subsection (b) below. At the time delegates are chosen the vestries shall elect for one-year terms alternate delegates equal in number to the number of delegates authorized by Section 2, above.

(b) Should the average number of enrolled adult communicants in good standing of a congregation at any time require that it elect a greater or smaller number of lay delegates than initially prescribed, the Secretary of the Convention, not later than 200 days prior to the Convention at which the new representation is first to take effect, shall notify the parish or mission of that fact, specifying in the notice which delegates, if any, are to be elected for terms of less than three years in order to maintain so far as possible the division among the Convention’s lay membership prescribed by the Constitution. Upon the expiration of the initial terms required under this subsection, each lay delegate from the affected parish or mission shall be elected for a term of three years. [Amended by Act 2007-6.]

Section 4. Campus Ministry Delegates. Each campus ministry worshipping community that has been admitted into Union with Convention may elect one lay delegate to the Convention in a manner prescribed by its by-laws. Such by-laws shall provide that members of the community who are enrolled, confirmed, adult members in good standing of a congregation of The Episcopal Church are eligible for election, and that only those members who are eligible for election are eligible to vote. The by-laws shall be submitted to the Ecclesiastical Authority for approval. The Secretary of the Convention may promulgate rules governing the timing delegate elections and the manner of certifying the results. [Added by Act 2012-1.]

Canon 2

Worship at the Convention

The Holy Eucharist shall be celebrated at each annual or special Convention. Other devotional services may be held at the discretion of the Ecclesiastical Authority.

Canon 3

Rules of Order

The Convention shall adopt rules of order, which shall continue in force until altered.

Canon 4

Presiding Officer of the Convention

In the absence of the Bishop of the Diocese and of any other bishop qualified by the provisions of the Constitution to preside, the President of the Standing Committee, as representing the Ecclesiastical Authority, shall act as presiding officer of the Convention, unless the Convention itself shall otherwise provide.

Canon 5

Secretary of the Convention

[Amended in 1997; Amended by Act 2018-7]

Section 1. The Secretary shall:
(a) Take all necessary steps to inform the Convention delegates not only of the time and place of annual and special Conventions, but also of the particular business of each Convention.
(b) Notify vestries of the number of lay Convention delegates their parishes and missions are entitled to elect and the length of terms for which such delegates are to be elected.
(c) Prepare the canonical lists of the clerical and lay delegates entitled to membership in the Convention.
(d) From the roster of the preceding annual Convention ascertain the names of clerical and lay delegates whose membership in the next annual Convention can be presumed and, not later than August 15, inform those persons that Convention Committees are to be appointed by the Bishop and request that, not later than September 10, they inform the Bishop in writing of the committees to which they have an interest in being named.
(e) Call the Convention to order for the purpose of organization in the absence of the Bishop, Bishop Coadjutor or Suffragan Bishop (if there be such), and the President of the Standing Committee.
(f) Keep a record of all Convention proceedings, prepare and issue its journals, and publish the journals in an easily accessible format.
(g) Preserve and have ready for reference all Convention papers not specially given into other hands.

Section 2. The Secretary shall mail notices of all Conventions to each member of the clergy who is entitled to a seat and vote therein, and to the senior warden of each parish and mission. These notices shall include the forms for certifying lay delegates and alternates and, in the case of the annual Convention, shall be sent at least 140 days prior to the date thereof, and not later than 60 days prior to the date of a Special Convention.

Section 3. The Secretary, who shall be a member of the clergy canonically resident in this Diocese, or an enrolled confirmed adult communicant in good standing resident in this Diocese, shall, ex officio, always have a seat and voice in the Convention, and shall serve as Secretary of the Diocesan Council.

Section 4. The Secretary shall be accountable to the Diocesan Council for the due performance of the duties of the office, including publication of the Journal of the Convention.

Section 5. The Secretary shall receive all applications for admission or re-admission of parishes and missions into union with the Convention of the Diocese at least 30 days before the opening session of the Annual Convention. Such applications shall be referred to the Bishop for endorsement, verified by the Secretary, and reported to the Convention for appropriate action. Upon the report of the Secretary that the appropriate constitutional and canonical requirements have been met, the parish or mission applying may be received in its appropriate status by vote of the Convention, and its delegates admitted to seats and votes therein.

Section 6. The Secretary shall solicit and receive reports from each of the institutions related to the Diocese.

Section 7. The Secretary shall receive, review, and evaluate the annual statistical reports on the strength and condition of the Diocese and the parishes and missions therein.
Canon 6
Treasurer of the Diocese
[Amended in 1997]

Section 1. The Treasurer shall be a person knowledgeable in finance and investing and shall:
   (a) Have custody of and be responsible for all money, stocks, bonds and other intangible personal property belonging to the Diocese, both current and permanent; cause current funds to be deposited in a bank designated by the Diocesan Council; and cause trust and permanent funds to be invested as directed by the Trustees of the Diocese;
   (b) Hold, use, and dispose of current funds and the income of trust and permanent funds as directed by representatives of the Diocese empowered by canonical authority to do so;
   (c) At least quarterly, or such other interval as may be specified by the trust instrument, disburse the accumulated income of trusts held for the benefit of beneficiaries other than the Diocese to those beneficiaries entitled thereto;
   (d) Keep a complete record and account of all transactions of the office, reporting them in summary form to the annual Convention;
   (e) Give to the annual Convention a summary report of all assets of the Diocese then held by the Treasurer; and
   (f) Give bond for the faithful performance of the Treasurer’s duties in such amount as the Diocesan Council may prescribe. (This bond shall be deposited with the Trustees of the Diocese.)

Section 2. The Treasurer shall, ex officio, always have a seat and voice in the Convention.

Canon 7
Chancellor of the Diocese

It is the duty of each member to attend all regular and special meetings. The Bishop may require a member who has failed to attend two successive meetings to show good cause why he or she should not be removed from office. If the Council finds that the member has failed to show good cause for non-attendance, the Bishop may declare the seat vacant and the Council may proceed to fill the vacancy.

Section 2. The Role and Function of the Council. Between sessions of the annual Convention, the Diocesan Council shall, within the limitations established herein, perform all duties specifically committed to it by the Convention and function as and for the Convention in conducting the affairs of the Diocese. (e) Directly or through agents under its direction and control, fix all compensation except that fixed by the Convention.
(f) Supervise and coordinate all departments, agencies, and diocesan officers charged with record-keeping, maintenance of archives, and preserving and writing the history of the Diocese, its departments, agencies, and congregations.
(g) As deemed desirable, adopt by-laws, rules, and regulations for its government and for the government of its officials, agents, employees, departments, and agencies.
(h) Make and preserve a full record of its acts and of the work of each of its departments and furnish to each annual Convention a full report of all its actions and all moneys expended under its direction during the preceding year, including a report from each department of the Council with respect to the work done by such department.

Section 3. Officers and Staff. The Bishop of the Diocese shall serve as presiding officer of the Council; in the absence of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor or any bishop in charge, as representing the Ecclesiastical Authority, shall, in the order named, serve as presiding officer. The Secretary of the Convention shall, by virtue of that office, serve as Secretary of the Council. Upon nomination of the Bishop, the Council shall annually employ an Administrator and such principal administrative staff members as it shall deem necessary. The duties and compensation of persons named to these positions shall be fixed by the Council. In addition to the positions named, the Council shall also have authority to provide for the employment, compensation, and termination of other persons named to staff diocesan offices, departments, and agencies not otherwise provided for by canon.

Section 4. Departments. The Diocesan Council shall organize from its membership, supplemented as herein provided, a Department of Outreach and Justice Ministries, a Department of Christian Formation, Department of Youth and Young Adults, a Department of Congregational Support and Development, a Department of Finance and Administration, and such other departments as in its judgment may be necessary; and it shall provide the manner and means by which its departments shall be staffed and financed. From the Council membership the Bishop Diocesan shall appoint the members of each department and designate its chair. The chair of each chartered committee within a department shall be a member of the department. Subject to confirmation by the Council, the Bishop may appoint additional members to departments of the Council. Each department shall meet at least three times each year and report its activities to meetings of the Council. It shall receive and review budget requests from its chartered committees and submit its departmental budget to the Diocesan Council. The Bishop Diocesan, the Bishop Suffragan, and the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, shall be members of each department. The chairs of the several Departments, the Bishops, and a minimum of two other members of the Diocesan Council appointed by the Bishop, shall constitute the Council Committee on the State of the Church.

Subject to Council review and approval:

(a) The Department of Outreach and Justice Ministries shall be responsible for the work of the Diocese with respect to those programs and activities that embody our ministry locally, nationally, and overseas;

Section 5. Investment Income. The Ecclesiastical Authority shall recommend to the Diocesan Council each year a plan for the expenditure of all trust fund income and expendable principal except that designated for the Bishop’s discretionary use. The Council shall have power and authority to prescribe and designate the purposes, and to make allocations and apportionments among such purposes, for which any investment income not otherwise designated for specific purposes shall be expended. To the extent feasible, the Council shall use Diocesan trust funds to supplement and not to supplant support from the Diocesan budget.

Section 6. Planning Function. The Bishop and the Diocesan Council working through the Council Committee on the State of the Church shall have responsibility for a continuing study of the long-range objectives of the Church’s work in the Diocese. The Council Committee on the State of the Church shall present to the Council and the Convention an annual report which shall, within the context of these long-range objectives, evaluate the present work and program of the Diocese and make specific recommendations for the program and the budget of the Diocese of the fiscal year next following that for which a budget is being adopted. The Convention may by resolution express its opinion on this report for the guidance of the Diocesan Council in preparing and submitting a program and a budget for the Diocese for such fiscal year.

Section 7. Structure and Organization of the Diocese. The Council Committee on the State of the Church shall keep the structure and organization of the Diocese under continuing study, shall review all chartered committees at least every five years to determine if they are viable, and shall, from time to time, make such recommendations to the Convention as it may find appropriate to enable the Diocese to fulfill its ministry.

The Board shall consider any relevant evidence offered by the vestry or requested by the Board, including, but not limited to, current financial statements, the level of stewardship training and education, the nature of the annual stewardship campaign, and any extraordinary circumstances. On the basis of its review, the Board may either affirm or reduce the amount required for that parish or mission for the upcoming year. The Board’s decision, and the reasons therefor, shall be reported promptly in writing to the rector, vestry, and Diocesan Council. If the Board recommends a reduction, it shall refer the parish or mission to appropriate sources of assistance for stewardship and congregational growth and development.

(b) The vestry of any parish or mission that finds that it will be unable to give the required amount to the Mission and Ministry Budget in the upcoming or current year due to financial exigencies arising after July 15th may apply for relief by stating its case in writing to the Fair Share Appeals Board. The Board shall consider the case and report its recommendation promptly in writing to the rector, vestry, and Diocesan Council. The Council may then grant such relief as it deems appropriate under the circumstances.

Section 4. If a parish or mission has failed by the tenth day preceding the Annual Convention to pay the full amount required of it for the preceding twelve calendar months ending at least 30 days before the Convention, the Secretary of the Convention shall strike from the roll of voting delegates all members of the clergy assigned to and serving that parish or mission and its lay delegates. Such members of the clergy and lay delegates shall retain their seats in the Convention and shall have voice on all matters except those related to revenues and expenditures of the diocese and establishment of the required percentage of giving for the following year. In addition, the vestry of a parish shall not elect a rector, nor shall the rector call an assistant minister or other member of the clergy, as long as the parish remains in arrears. If a parish fails for two consecutive years to contribute the amount required of it, the Secretary of the Convention shall so certify to the Ecclesiastical Authority, the Standing Committee, and the Trustees of the Diocese and that parish shall be deemed by operation of this canon to be changed in status from parish to mission.

Section 5. The Fair Share Appeal Board shall consist of five lay persons and four members of the clergy elected by the Diocesan Council for overlapping three-year terms on nomination of the Ecclesiastical Authority. The chair shall be designated by the Ecclesiastical Authority.

Section 6. On or after September 1 of each year the Council shall prepare and adopt a Mission and Ministry Budget of the Diocese for the ensuing calendar year to be recommended to the Convention. In preparing the budget, the Council shall take into consideration its recommendations to the last preceding Convention concerning proposed new programs for the ensuing calendar year, the action of the Convention with respect to such recommendations, the proposed budgets submitted by each department and agency of the Diocese, and any other information believed pertinent. The contributions required by this Canon shall be set out in a schedule to become a part of the annual budget.

Section 7. The Convention shall have the power to act on the budget recommended by the Council and to make any modification which, in its discretion, deems wise. The Convention may adjust the amount required of each parish and mission by a uniform percentage of reduction if the budget adopted by the Convention can be funded by less than the contribution percentage set by the previous Convention.

Section 8. It shall be the duty of each parish and mission to remit its contribution to the Treasurer of the Diocese in twelve equal monthly installments on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month for which it is payable. This obligation may be prepaid in whole or in part at any time.

Section 9. The Council shall have power to expend all moneys provided in the budget for the purposes therein specified, to expend any surplus received in any year over and above diocesan and national obligations, and to amend the budget when in its judgment a change is necessary and prudent.

Section 1. There is hereby established a permanent endowment for implementing the missionary strategy of the diocese. The initial principal of the endowment shall comprise the balance remaining as of December 31, 2011, in the Mission Strategy Fund and the Diocesan Missions Trust (ACTS Campaign). On recommendation of the Diocesan Council, and with the advice and consent of the Bishop and Standing Committee, the Trustees of the Diocese may transfer to the endowment such other trust and custodial funds of the Diocese as may be available and appropriate. The Trustees of the Diocese may also accept donations and bequests designated for the endowment.

Section 2. The Trustees of the Diocese shall provide for the administration of the endowment as provided by Canon 10, Section 5, except that the income shall be disbursed as directed by the Mission Endowment Board. The principal of the endowment is restricted and may not be appropriated except as may be necessary to maintain a prudent spending rate established by the Trustees. In no event shall the principal be reduced below the historic dollar value of the endowment except as may be authorized by act or resolution of the Convention.

Section 3. The Mission Endowment Board shall consist of the Bishop, a member of the Standing Committee designated by the committee, a Trustee of the Diocese designated by the trustees, the chair of the Department of Finance of the Diocesan Council, the chair of the Department of Congregational Development of the Diocesan Council, and three persons nominated by the Bishop and confirmed by the Convention for overlapping three year terms.

Section 4. The Mission Endowment Board shall develop and recommend to the Council plans for developing the long-range mission strategy of the Diocese, and may make funds available to the Diocese Council in furtherance of that strategy. Distributions from the endowment shall not be used to fund the annual operating budget of the Diocese.”

A mission in the form of a special ministry may be established by the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese, acting with the advice of the Standing Committee, for such period of time and in such places as may be designated by that authority.

Missions may also be established within the neighborhood of an already existing parish by the rector of the parish with the consent of the Ecclesiastical Authority. Missions so established shall be accounted an integral part of the parish to which they belong until such time as they may be received by the annual Convention as missions in union with the Convention. (6) Officers. A senior and a junior warden shall be elected annually by the vestry from among its members. The senior warden shall be elected on the Vicar’s nomination. If there be no Vicar the election of the senior warden shall proceed as in the case of the other vestry officers. Section 3. Organization of a Mission. Any parish which may wish to locate or establish a mission in the neighborhood of another parish or mission, or any parish or mission which shall deem its rights encroached upon, or its prosperity or usefulness endangered by the proposed location in its neighborhood of a parish or mission by whatever authority, may ask for a determination of the matter under the good offices of the Bishop. In such case the Bishop shall call for, and appoint the time and place of, a conference of the rectors, vicars, and vestries of the parishes and missions in interest. But if such conference with the advice of the Bishop shall not result in an amicable adjustment of the differences between the parties thereto, the Bishop or either of the parties in interest may lay the matter at issue before the Standing Committee of the Diocese. Canon 22

Meetings, Vestries and Wardens of Parishes

[Amended in 1991; Amended by Act 2009-3; Amended by Act 2014-2]

Section 1. Parish Meetings.

(a) Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of the members qualified to vote in a parish shall be held on the first Monday in Advent unless the vestry of the parish designates some other date for the required annual meeting.

(b) Other Parish Meetings. Upon the call of the vestry, a meeting of the members qualified to vote in a parish may be held at any time, provided that notice of at least one week has been given.

(c) Persons Qualified to Vote in Parish Meetings. An enrolled confirmed adult communicant in good standing in this Church may vote when present at any meeting of that parish, in accordance with the provisions of Article IX, Section 3, of the Constitution of this Diocese.

(d) By-Laws. For the orderly conduct of parish meetings, for the adoption of a rotating vestry system as authorized by Section 2 of this canon, and for the election of members of the vestry, by-laws not inconsistent with the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese may be adopted by any parish meeting. A copy of the by-laws and each amendment thereto adopted by each parish, certified by the secretary, shall be filed within 30 days thereafter with the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese for approval. The Ecclesiastical Authority may, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, disapprove any by-law which is inconsistent with the Constitution or Canons of the Diocese or of the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

[Amended by Act 2007-9.]

(e) Voting. Motions, resolutions, elections, and all other matters presented to a parish meeting for vote shall be decided by a majority of the qualified members present and voting.

Section 2. Vestries.

(a) Size and Composition. A vestry shall be composed of not fewer than three nor more than 15 members of the parish who are enrolled confirmed adult communicants in good standing of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

(b) Vestry Plan One. At each annual parish meeting a vestry shall be elected who shall hold office until the next annual parish meeting or until their successors are duly elected.

(c) Vestry Plan Two. As an alternative to Vestry Plan One, a parish may adopt a rotating vestry system. At the first election following the adoption of a rotating system, which shall be held at the annual parish meeting, one-third of the members of the vestry are elected to serve for one year, one-third for two years, and one-third for three years. Thereafter, at the annual parish meeting, one-third of the vestry shall be elected from among those who have not served on the vestry during the past year, except that those appointed during the past year to fill unexpired terms of one year or less may, under provisions of parish by-laws, be made eligible for election to a full term, and the terms of those so elected shall be for three years. A parish may include in its rotating system a provision that no retiring member of the vestry shall be eligible for re-election until a specified period of time, not to exceed five years, has elapsed following the expiration of that person’s term on the vestry.

(d) Vestry Plan Three. As an alternate to Vestry Plans One and Two, a parish may adopt a two-year rotating system, as follows: At the first election after such a system is adopted, one-half of the members of the vestry shall be elected for one year and one-half for two years. Thereafter, at the annual meeting, one-half of the vestry shall be elected from among those who have not served on the vestry during the past year, and the terms of those so elected shall be for two years. Persons appointed during the past year to fill unexpired terms of one year or less under provisions of parish by-laws, may be made eligible for election for a full term, and the terms of those so elected shall be for two years. Should a parish vote to change the Vestry Plan Two to Vestry Plan Three, the change shall be effected by electing for two-year terms those who are to take the place of persons whose terms of office had been three years. A parish may include in its rotating vestry system a provision that no retiring member of the vestry shall be eligible for re-election until a specified period of time, not to exceed five years, has elapsed following the expiration of that person’s term on the vestry.

(e) Filling Vestry Vacancies.

(1) In case of a vacancy on a vestry by reason of death, resignation, or other cause, the remaining members of the vestry may fill the vacancy from among those eligible to serve under the provisions of this canon.

(2) A person elected to fill a vacancy on a vestry shall hold office until the expiration of the term of the person whose office is to be filled.

(f) By-Laws. For the orderly conduct of its meetings and other business, a vestry may adopt by-laws not inconsistent with the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese. A copy of the by-laws and each amendment thereto adopted by each parish, certified by the secretary, shall be filed within 30 days thereafter with the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese for approval. The Ecclesiastical Authority may, with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, disapprove any by-law which is inconsistent with the Constitution or Canons of the Diocese or of the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

(g) Nomination and Election Procedures.

(1) Nominations of persons to be elected to a vestry may be received at an annual parish meeting in accordance with by-laws adopted by the parish. By-laws governing the nomination of persons for election to the vestry may provide for taking preferential ballots prior to the time of the annual parish meeting, but if this is done, the by-laws shall provide that the number of nominees presented for election at the annual parish meeting shall be at least twice the number of positions to be filled on the vestry at that meeting.

(2) A majority of those present and voting in an annual parish meeting shall be necessary to elect a member of the vestry. Nominees receiving a majority shall be declared elected. If additional ballots are required, the nominees to be voted on shall be limited to twice the number of positions remaining to be filled and, within that number, shall be those not elected on the previous ballot who received the highest number of votes. However, should there be a tie vote for the last position on any subsequent ballot, the number of nominees to be placed on that ballot shall be increased to include the two or more nominees whose votes were tied.

(3) Nominations and elections for members of the vestry may be by paper ballot or by voice vote in accordance with the by-laws adopted by a parish meeting as provided in Section 1 of this canon.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Canon 22, a parish may provide in its by-laws, subject to approval by the Ecclesiastical Authority acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, provisions for conducting vestry elections by paper absentee ballots, electronic survey technology, or other reliable and secure means that allow participation in the election by qualified voters who are not physically present at the annual meeting; provided that proxy voting shall not be permitted. Parishes may define circumstances in which absentee ballots are made available.

(h) Removal of Vestry Persons for Cause.

(1) A person may be removed as a member of the vestry for cause by vestry only in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph (h).

(2) A person may be removed as a member of the vestry by the vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the vestry then in office if the person has missed three or more meetings of the vestry in a twelve month period without excuse, if before any meeting of the vestry at which a vote on the removal of such person will be made, such person is given notice of the date and time of the meeting and the cause for removal and such person is given an opportunity to be heard at the meeting.

(3) A person may be removed as a member of the vestry by the vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members of the vestry then in office for cause other than the failure to attend vestry meetings as described in subparagraph (h)(2), above, if before any meeting of the vestry at which a vote on the removal of such person will be made, such person is given notice of the date and time of the meeting and the cause for removal and such person is given an opportunity to be heard at the meeting. [Added by Act 2016-5.]

Section 3. Wardens.

(a) Election. Each vestry shall annually elect from among its own number a Senior and a Junior Warden. The vestry shall elect the Senior Warden upon nomination by the rector unless there is no rector, in which case the election shall proceed without the rector’s nomination. If a vacancy occurs in the office of Senior Warden or Junior Warden, a successor shall be nominated and elected in the same manner.

(b) Duties. In the absence of the rector, the wardens shall preside in all meetings of the vestry or congregation, in order of their official seniority. As representatives of the vestry, they shall (subject to the vestry’s directions and consistent with the rights of the rector) have charge of the church building and they shall see that it is kept from all uses inconsistent with the doctrine or discipline of the Protestant Episcopal Church and, so far as possible, in good repair, as becomes the house of God. The wardens shall see that the church is prepared for public worship and that order is preserved during that worship; that suitable books are provided for the services, vestments for the clergy, and, when necessary, the elements for the Holy Communion.

Section 4. Treasurer. In the absence of any other appointment, the Junior Warden shall act as treasurer of the parish.

Section 5. Vestry Meetings in Certain Cases.
(a) Should the rector refuse to call a meeting of the vestry and, in the opinion of the wardens or a majority of the vestry, such a meeting would be of importance, the wardens or any three members of the vestry may call a vestry meeting. In such a case, however, the rector shall be notified of the time and place of the called meeting of the Vestry.

(b) Except by unanimous consent, all vestry members shall receive at least three days advance notice of the time and place of each vestry meeting other than regular meetings that have been scheduled by the vestry at the beginning of each year.

(c) At each vestry meeting, the presence of a majority of the membership shall be necessary to constitute a quorum. Motions, resolutions, elections, and all other matters presented to the vestry for vote shall be decided by a majority of the members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

(d) Accurate minutes of each vestry meeting shall be kept, signed by the secretary or clerk, presented at the next meeting for approval, revised if necessary, thereafter approved, and preserved with the records of the parish.

Section 6. This Canon 22 shall continue to govern the structure and organization of the vestry of a former parish whose status has been changed to that of a mission pursuant to Canon 18.

Canon 23

Legal Powers of a Parish Vestry

[Amended in 1997; Amended in 2000; Amended 2002]

Section 1. The vestry of a parish shall be the trustees, shall have charge of all the secular concerns thereof, shall hold the property belonging thereto, and shall be authorized to collect, invest, and disburse its funds and enter into contracts on its behalf.

Section 2. Before the vestry of any parish shall be authorized to sell, mortgage, or otherwise convey or encumber any real property held by it or by a corporation or other entity formed or controlled by or affiliated with such parish, including encumbrances arising from purchase money obligations or engage in any borrowings or other similar financing transactions, the aggregate amount of which exceeds 50% of the normal operating income of the parish for the previous calendar year or the repayment of which may extend beyond a term of 12 months, it shall obtain the written consent of the Ecclesiastical Authority, acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee of the Diocese. Upon obtaining this consent, the vestry may, by appropriate resolution, authorize the wardens of the parish to execute such instruments as may be necessary or convenient for the purpose, and instruments so executed shall have the same force and effect as if executed individually by the members of the vestry. In such instruments, a recital by the wardens of their authority to act on behalf of the vestry, and of the fact that the written consent of the Ecclesiastical Authority, acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, has been obtained, shall be prima facie true, and in the absence of notice or knowledge to the contrary, may be relied upon by the grantee or grantees in such instruments.

Section 3. Notwithstanding any other provision of this canon, no consent of the Ecclesiastical Authority or the Standing Committee shall be required for any of the following transactions involving real property that is not consecrated for the use as a church or chapel: (1) leases that can be canceled without penalty upon notice of 30 days or less to the lessee, (2) temporary easements of less than 12 months duration, and (3) cemetery lots or other interment rights.

Canon 24

Junior or Associate Vestry

Section 1. The Congregation of each parish and mission in the Diocese shall have the authority at any regular annual meeting, notice of which shall include a copy of such proposed action, to create and elect a junior or associate vestry, composed of no more than six enrolled confirmed adult communicants in good standing, and prescribing the number, term of office, and defining the scope of authority delegated to such junior or associate vestry. If a junior or associate vestry is established, all matters which have been or may be placed specifically within the power and authority of the regular vestry of parishes and missions by the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States or by the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of North Carolina, shall remain in the sole and exclusive jurisdiction of the vestry.

Section 2. Any regular vestry of a parish or mission may, in its discretion, invite the junior or associate vestry to meet jointly with it, participate in discussion of all matters and vote on all matters coming before the vestry, except matters of contract, real property, trusts committed to the vestry, or other matters concerning which minors are not authorized to act under the laws of North Carolina.

Section 3. The congregation at any annual meeting shall have the authority to change, modify, amend or rescind any action theretofore authorized under the provisions of this canon.

Canon 25

Status of Parishes and Missions

[Amended in 1997; Amended in 2000; Amended by Act 2009-3]
Section 1.
(a) By December 15 of each year, the Bishop and Standing Committee shall have made an annual survey of the parishes and missions of the Diocese. If, after any survey, they shall find that a parish does not meet the standards set in Canon 21, Section 4, they shall notify the parish that its status has changed to that of a mission pursuant to Canon 18 or unless, within one year from said notice, it meets all of the other required standards, the Bishop, with the advice of the Standing Committee, will change its status to that of mission, effective at the end of the following December.
(b) If, after any survey, the Bishop and the Standing Committee shall find that a mission does not meet the standards set in Canons 17 and 20, they shall notify the mission that unless the mission meets the aforesaid standards within one year from said notice, the Bishop, with the advice of the Standing Committee, will request the Convention next following the end of that year to dissolve the mission’s union with the Convention.
(c) Should any parish fail to meet the numerical membership requirements set forth in Canon 21, Section 4(a), it may yet maintain parish status if it demonstrates to the Bishop and the Standing Committee that
(1) It has the financial and other resources to meet and is meeting the requirements in Canon 21, Sections 4(b-j);
(2) It, in fact, accepts and pays its full share of the Budget for the Mission and Ministry of the Diocese according to the canons;
(3) It maintains the normal church programs, particularly outreach and Christian Education programs, appropriate to the character and needs of its membership.
(d) Any parish or mission affected by this canon is entitled, upon its request, to a hearing before the Standing Committee within the year’s time granted in this canon.

Section 2. If a parish is dissolved or if its status is changed from parish to mission, the property belonging to it shall vest in the Trustees of the Diocese, in trust for the interests of the Church in the late parish. If the change in status occurred pursuant to Canon 18, the property shall revert to the parish when all arrears have been paid in full and the parish has remained in compliance with Canon 18 for two successive years. If the change in status occurred for any other reason, the property shall revert to the parish upon its bona fide reorganization and admission into union with the Convention as a parish.

Section 3. Upon the dissolution of a parish or mission, the Trustees of the Diocese, upon failure of the congregation of the parish or mission to reorganize within a reasonable time, and upon the adoption of a resolution by the Trustees that it will be for the best interest of the Church in the Diocese, shall have the power and the authority to sell and convey such property and to execute and deliver a good and sufficient deed upon the payment of such sale price as may be determined or to manage, rent, lease or otherwise dispose of said property by instrument sufficient for that purpose, first having obtained the written consent of the Bishop, acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee. The net proceeds and income from such a sale shall then be held by the Trustees of the Diocese to be used for such purposes as the Bishop and Diocesan Council may direct upon recommendation of the Department of Congregational Support and Development.

Filling Vacant Cures

[Amended in 2002; Amended by Act 2009-3]

Section 2. No rector, interim rector or other clergy shall be elected by any vestry during such time as the parish is not in compliance with Canon 18, nor until the member of the clergy who is proposed by the vestry shall have been approved in writing by the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese.

Section 3. Written notice of the election signed by the wardens shall be sent to the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese. If the Ecclesiastical Authority be satisfied that the parish is in compliance with Canon 18, and the person so chosen is a duly qualified minister and has accepted the office, it shall send notice thereof to the Secretary of the Convention, who shall so record it. Such record shall be sufficient evidence of the relation between the minister and the parish.

Section 4. No assistant minister or other clergy shall be called by the rector of a parish during such time as the parish is not in compliance with Canon 18, nor without the consent of the vestry, nor until the proposed assistant or other clergy shall have been approved in writing by the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese.

No memorial shall hereafter be placed in any church without the consent both of the rector or vicar and of the vestry. No memorial heretofore placed in any church, and none hereafter placed in accordance with this canon, shall be altered or removed without the consent both of the rector or vicar, and of the vestry. When there is no rector or vicar, the consent of the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese, with that of the vestry, shall suffice, and if there be no vestry, the consent of the Ecclesiastical Authority, with that of the vicar, must be obtained.

Each congregation of this Diocese shall, by and under the supervision of its rector or vicar and vestry, keep and maintain in a permanent book known as its Parish or Mission Register, an up-to-date record of all baptisms, confirmations, marriages, and burials solemnized within that congregation. This record shall specify the names of the persons in each instance; the parentage and date of birth of those baptized, with the names of their sponsors or witnesses; the date when each rite was performed; and the name or names of the officiating minister or ministers. In the case of each individual baptism, the officiating minister shall sign the Register. Section 2. Other Required Reports. Every minister canonically resident in this Diocese shall keep a record of all baptisms, marriages, and burials solemnized by him or her that are not otherwise reported in the Register of a congregation of this Diocese as required by Section 1, as well as any other otherwise unreported official acts done or performed or services held by him or her during the preceding calendar year, and shall annually before February 1 report them to the Ecclesiastical Authority. If he or she has not performed any such official acts or held any such services in that period, he or she shall report that fact and the causes or reasons which have prevented him or her from performing them.

The provisions of this Section 2 shall apply equally to otherwise unreported rites solemnized or services held in this Diocese by clergy who are not canonically resident in but are licensed to serve in this Diocese.

Section 4. It shall be the duty of every member of the clergy canonically resident in or serving in this Diocese to inform The Church Pension Fund promptly of such facts as dates of birth, of ordination or reception, of marriage, birth of children, deaths, and changes in cures or salaries, as may be necessary for its proper administration and to cooperate with the Fund in such other ways as may be necessary in order that said Fund may discharge its obligations in accordance with the intention of the General Convention in respect thereto.

Section 5. Any parish or mission failing for two calendar years to pay the pension assessments in full shall be deprived of its rights to the floor of, and to vote in, Convention until all such arrears are paid in full, when its restoration to rights shall be declared.

Section 6. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Diocese, upon notification of arrears of four months or more to the Pension Fund, to deduct from the amount payable to any member of the clergy officiating in, or in charge of, any aided parish; or the missionary in charge of any mission; or a member of the clergy connected with any institution or agency of the Diocese, the unpaid assessments due from such congregation or agency on any stipend payable by such congregation, institution or agency, including any prior year’s arrears, and to pay the same to the Church Pension Fund.

Section 3. It shall be diligent in aiding fit persons who desire to prepare for the ministry of the Church.

Section 4. Aid from the Society shall, under all ordinary circumstances, be in the form of a loan, adequately protected by good and legal security, and with or without interest, as the Society may decide. Such a loan may, at the discretion of the Society, be canceled upon the ordination of the beneficiary, and shall be canceled in the event of death before ordination. Otherwise it shall be in full legal force and effect until paid.

Section 5. Necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of their duty by members of the Society may be paid from the funds at the disposal of the Society.
Canon 38

Permanent Episcopal and Missionary Funds

Section 1. There shall be established, to aid in the support of the Episcopate, a fund to be called the Permanent Episcopal Fund, to include all sums hitherto contributed specifically to that object or which may hereafter be contributed, whereof the principal shall remain untouched, and only the interest be applied to the support of the Episcopate.

Section 2. When any funds shall be contributed or collected for a Permanent Missionary Fund, the amount shall be invested and only the interest thereof shall be applied to current missionary expenses.

Canon 39

Consecration of Churches, Chapels or Other Buildings

Section 1. In this Diocese, no church, chapel or other building, or part of a building used in whole or in part for church purposes shall be dedicated or consecrated except according to the rubrics pertaining thereto as set forth in the Book of Common Prayer, and in accordance with the canons of the Episcopal Church not inconsistent with those rubrics.

Section 2. No previously consecrated church, chapel, building, or part of a building that is owned or controlled by this Diocese or by any congregation or institution of this Diocese shall be removed, taken down, or otherwise disposed of for any worldly or common use, without the previous written consent of the Bishop, acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee of the Diocese, nor until the Sentence of Consecration previously placed thereupon has been properly removed there from.

Suffragan Bishop May Act as Ecclesiastical Authority

In the event of the Bishop’s death, disability, or extended absence from the Diocese, and if there be no Bishop Coadjutor, the Suffragan Bishop may be placed in charge of the Diocese by the Standing Committee and become temporarily the Ecclesiastical Authority thereof in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention.

Canon 41

Pastoral Mediation

Section 1. Except as provided in the Canons of the General Convention, a rector may not resign a parish without the consent of the vestry thereof, nor may a rector canonically chosen and in charge of a parish be removed there from by its vestry against the rector’s will, except as provided by canon. [Amended by Act 2007-10.]

Section 2. If a rector and the vestry of the parish served are unable to agree in a matter or matters that might lead to a request by either party for dissolution of the pastoral relation, either or both parties shall promptly deliver to the Ecclesiastical Authority a written notice describing their differences and requesting mediation thereof by the Ecclesiastical Authority.

Upon receiving such a request, the Bishop shall mediate the disagreement and seek a solution. As part of the mediation process, the Bishop may appoint a committee composed of one presbyter and one lay person, neither of whom is affiliated with the parish in which the disagreement exists, to investigate and make a written report thereof, stating the nature of the dispute and the position of each party. This report shall be delivered to the Bishop, the rector, and the vestry within 21 days after the committee’s appointment.

In the absence of the Bishop, the Standing Committee shall exercise the role assigned the Bishop in this canon.

Canon 42
Dissolution of the Pastoral Relation

Section 1. If the pastoral mediation called for by Canon 41 has been exhausted without success and a rector or the vestry of the parish served wishes to have the pastoral relation dissolved, each party, within 60 days of the conclusion of the pastoral mediation process, may request final disposition of the dispute by giving notice thereof to the Ecclesiastical Authority and to the other party concerned.

Section 2. Within 30 days after receiving the written notice provided for in Section 1, the Bishop shall conduct a hearing on the issue. The Bishop shall fix the date, time, and place for the hearing, notify the parties affected, and conduct the hearing as ultimate arbiter and judge. In all cases, the Bishop shall consult and seek the advice of the Standing Committee before reaching a decision.

Section 3. At the Bishop’s request, the Standing Committee shall be present at the hearing provided for in Section 2 and shall be permitted to question persons present for the hearing. The Chancellor shall be available to the Bishop for consultation at the hearing.

Section 4. Each party, his, her, or their representative may present a statement of position and the reasons supporting it. No testimony or other evidence shall be presented at the hearing unless, exercising discretion, the Bishop shall allow it for compelling reasons in the interests of justice. Oral statements and testimony shall be subject to cross-examination.

Section 5. The Bishop shall render a decision not later than 15 days following the close of the hearing and that decision shall be final and binding.

Section 6. If the pastoral relation is to be dissolved:
(a) The Bishop shall set forth in writing the reasons and conditions for the dissolution. A copy shall be provided each of the parties to the matter at issue, and a copy of the decision shall be available for public inspection.
(b) The Bishop shall require just and compassionate compensation or indemnity (if any) and shall undertake to offer such supportive services as may be suitable.
Section 7. In the event of the failure or refusal of either party to comply with the terms of the decision, the Bishop may impose such penalties as may be provided by the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese; and in default of any provisions for such penalties therein, the Bishop may act as follows:

(a) In the case of a rector, inhibit such rector from officiating in the parish until the decision is complied with.

(b) In the case of a vestry, recommend to the Diocesan Convention that the union of the parish with Convention cease until the parish complies with the decision.

Section 8. Statements made during the course of the proceedings under this Canon are not admissible in any proceeding under Title IV of the Canons of the General Convention or Canon 31 of this Diocese. However, this rule does not require the exclusion of evidence in proceedings under the above Canons of the General Convention or of this Diocese, which evidence is otherwise discoverable and admissible.

Canon 43

Trustees of the University of the South

The Annual Convention elects three Trustees of the University of the South for three-year terms. Two are members of the Lay Order and one is a member of the Clergy Order. Terms are staggered so that one Trustee is elected each year. Interim vacancies are filled by appointment of the Ecclesiastical Authority from candidates in the two most recent elections for the position in question, in the order of the number of votes received. If there are no such candidates, the vacancy is filled by election at the next Annual Convention. [Added by Act 2016-4.]

Canon 44

Youth Delegates in Convention

[Adopted in 1997; Amended by Act 2015-2]

Section 1. For purposes of this Canon, the term “the youth of the Diocese” shall mean the enrolled confirmed communicants in good standing of the parishes and missions of the Diocese between the ages of sixteen and eighteen who have not matriculated at an institution of higher learning.

Section 2. The youth of the Diocese shall be entitled to be represented at the sessions of the Convention by one lay delegate from each Convocation of the Diocese elected for a one-year term by the clergy and lay delegates of each such Convocation. Each Convocation shall elect, for a one-year term, one alternate delegate, subject to the same qualifications to fill any vacancy that may occur.

Section 3. Nothing in this Canon shall be deemed to restrict or otherwise limit the election of an enrolled confirmed adult communicant in good standing of a parish or mission who is also a member of the youth of the Diocese as a delegate from such parish or mission.

Historic Properties
Section 1. Historic Properties Commission. There shall be a Historic Properties Commission responsible for oversight of historic churches, cemeteries, and other historic diocesan properties other than those facilities which are occupied, used and/or maintained by parishes and missions in union with the Convention. The Commission shall promote and encourage historic preservation. The membership of the Commission shall be named by the Bishop, with one being the diocesan Historiographer, one being a member of the Diocesan Council, one being chosen from each active support group for historic churches (as defined in Section 2, category 1), and five being chosen at large. The members who do not serve ex officio shall serve staggered three-year terms. The Commission shall report annually to the Diocesan Convention. [Amended by Act 2011-4.]

Section 2. Historic Churches. There shall be two categories of Historic Churches: (1) Preserved Historic Churches—churches not in union with the Convention and for which the Historic Properties Commission shall have responsibility for oversight; and (2) Living Historic Churches—churches in union with the Convention and having active congregations, whose historic status may be acknowledged by Diocesan Council upon recommendation by the Historic Properties Commission but over whose facilities the Commission would have no jurisdiction. The Commission shall recommend to the Diocesan Council the appropriate Historic Church designation for qualified church buildings after establishing criteria and examining each potentially qualified church for such designation. The Commission, in developing the criteria to be applied in determining whether a given site meets the Historic designation, shall observe the following minimum standards:

(a) The church building must be at least 75 years old.
(b) The church building must have architectural or historic significance.
(c) The structure must be physically sound or restorable.
(d) In the case of “Living Historic Churches,” there must be an active congregation able and willing to maintain the structure.
(e) In the case of “Preserved Historic Churches,” there must be an organized group, committee, or other body from the community in which the structure is located or elsewhere that is able and willing to maintain and (if necessary) restore the building.
(f) The Commission will establish guidelines for operation of the local committees of Preserved Historic Churches.
(g) There must be at least one service of the Church regularly scheduled at any Preserved Historic Church building in each calendar year.

The Bishop shall assign a member of the clergy who resides in a place convenient to the site to have general clerical oversight of each Preserved Historic Church that is not occupied and used by a congregation in union with the Convention. [Amended by Act 2012-2.]

Section 3. Historic Cemeteries. The Commission shall have the following responsibilities with respect to Historic Cemeteries, that is, those identifiable burial places that are owned by the Diocese but are no longer associated with or maintained by parishes or missions in union with the Convention:

a) It shall establish and maintain a list of Historic Cemeteries. The list shall include the location, size, and general condition of each Historic Cemetery;
b) It shall provide for the maintenance and supervision of each Historic Cemetery and ensure that records with respect to such property are maintained on a current basis.

c) It shall, from time to time at its discretion, erect, cause to be erected, or assist in erecting appropriate historical signs or markers at such cemetery sites.

d) It shall establish a procedure for responding to requests for new burials in Historic Cemeteries not associated with congregations in union with the Convention.

Section 4. Other Historic Properties. The Historic Properties Commission shall have oversight of all historic properties other than churches and cemeteries owned by the Diocese. In exercise of this oversight, the Commission shall advise the Bishop regarding the status of such properties and make recommendations about actions to be taken with respect to such properties.

Canon 46
Clusters
[Adopted in 2005]

Section 1. Definition. A cluster consists of three or more parishes, missions, or special ministries organized under the Constitution and canons of this Diocese, hereinafter referred to as participating congregations, which have entered into a covenant to work together in a regional ministry for a period of at least three years. Each participating congregation retains its own identity, vestry or other governing body, budget, property, and representation in the Convention of the Diocese.

Section 2. Formation of a Cluster. A cluster may be formed, with the consent of the Bishop, upon an affirmative vote of three-fourths of the vestry or other governing body of each participating congregation. Thereafter, a congregation may join the cluster, with the consent of the Bishop, upon an affirmative vote of three-fourths of its vestry or other governing body and an affirmative vote of a majority of the cluster council.

Section 3. Cluster Governance and Leadership.
(a) Cluster Council. There shall be a cluster council, which shall consist of not less than two enrolled confirmed adult communicants in good standing from each participating congregation. The clergy serving participating congregations shall be members of the cluster council with seat and voice but no vote.
(b) Cluster By-laws. The cluster council may adopt by-laws which include provision for the election of a president, a secretary, and a treasurer from among those lay persons eligible to serve on the cluster council and the establishment of an annual cluster budget. A copy of the by-laws and each amendment thereto adopted by the cluster council, certified by the secretary, shall be filed within 30 days thereafter with the Ecclesiastical Authority of the Diocese for approval.
(c) Cluster Ministry Team. There shall be a cluster ministry team, which shall include the clergy serving participating congregations and lay missioners designated by the cluster council.
(d) Cluster Missioner. The Bishop shall appoint a cluster missioner, who shall coordinate the cluster ministry team.

Section 4. Withdrawal from a Cluster. A participating congregation may withdraw from a cluster at the end of a calendar year, with the consent of the Bishop, upon six months’ notice, an affirmative vote of three-fourths of its vestry or other governing body, and an affirmative vote of a majority of the cluster council.

RULES OF ORDER OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF NORTH CAROLINA

I. The Order of Business at the Annual Convention or any Special Convention shall be proposed by the Bishop or the presiding officer for adoption by the Convention. Upon adoption, only the Convention may make any change in the Order of Business prescribed under the authority thereof.

II. Any of the rules of order may be suspended by simple majority vote of the Convention, except those rules which specify a larger majority for a specific action. Any such rule may be suspended upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the delegates present and voting.

III. The lay delegates of a parish or mission shall be denied the right to vote, except by majority vote of the Convention upon a showing of good cause by the rector, vicar, or vestry, if it has failed to achieve timely compliance with (1) the provisions of Canon 30 concerning parochial reports, or (2) the provisions of Canon 17(i) concerning filing a copy of its annual audit. Failure to comply with these requirements shall be determined as of the tenth day preceding the convening of any Annual or Special Convention and shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary as the first order of business. [Added by Act 2007-12; succeeding Rules renumbered accordingly; Amended by Act 2010-4; Amended by Act 2018-8.]

IV. (a) Resolutions for Convention action may be submitted by members and officers of the Convention, canonical commissions, committees and other bodies chartered or recognized by the Ecclesiastical Authority or the Diocesan Council, or Convention committees. The presiding officer of the Convention shall refer to an appropriate Convention Committee for consideration and report all such resolutions except those which accompany the report of the Committee on Dispatch of Business. To assure timely reports, it is appropriate for Convention Committees to meet for consideration of resolutions referred to them at any time after they have been appointed.

(b) While preambles or any recital of reasons, explanatory comments, or argument regarding any resolution may separately accompany its introduction or its report from a Convention Committee, they shall not constitute a part of the resolution for purposes of legislative action. Only the text of the adopted resolution shall be printed in the Journal of the Convention.

(c) Reports from institutions (and portions of such reports) which propose no resolutions shall be deemed filed and received by title and need not be referred to committee. [Amended by Act 2006-9; Amended by Act 2011-1.]

V. After the President has taken the chair no member shall continue standing except to address the Chair.

VI. No member shall address the Convention or make any motion except from the microphones provided for that purpose and after recognition by the Presiding Officer.

VII. Speakers shall address the Presiding Officer and shall confine themselves to the point in debate.

VIII. No motion shall be considered unless seconded and, if required by the Presiding Officer, reduced to writing.
IX. When the Presiding Officer is putting any question, the members shall continue in their seats and shall not hold any private discourse.

X. Except by leave of the Convention, no member shall speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than two minutes at one time. The total time of debate on any question or resolution shall be a maximum of twenty minutes.

XI No applause shall be permitted during any debate or voting of the Convention or of the Committee of the Whole.

XII When a question is under consideration, no motion shall be received except to lay upon the table, to call for the previous question, to postpone to a certain time, to postpone indefinitely, to commit, to amend, or to divide; and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. The motions to lay on the table, to call for the previous question, and to adjourn shall always be in order and shall be decided without debate; and of these the motion to adjourn shall take precedence.

XIII If the question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately, except that a motion to strike out and insert shall be indivisible.

XIV All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made. No amendment to a second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from the one under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XV. In a vote by orders the individual votes of the clergy and laity shall be taken separately. A majority of affirmative votes in both orders shall be necessary to any decision on any vote by orders.

In any vote by orders, upon the request of any two members of the clergy who do not serve the same congregation (parish or mission), or any two lay delegates representing different congregations, the vote shall be by roll call of the clergy and lay delegates. The votes of the lay delegates shall be announced by a member designated by the delegation when the name of that church is called. The delegation shall be polled upon request of any member thereof.

XVI A question once decided shall stand as the action of the Convention and shall not be drawn again into debate. A member of the Convention who voted on the prevailing side may move to reconsider any vote so long as the motion is made on the same or succeeding day to that on which the vote was taken, except that such a motion may be voted on at any time with the consent of two-thirds of the Convention.

XVII (a) Reports to the Convention from all commissions, committees, temporary bodies, and institutions of the Diocese shall be in writing. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention shall be accompanied by corresponding resolutions to be introduced in accordance with Rule of Order IV(a).

(b) Reports to the Convention by commissions, committees, or temporary bodies that require no action or expression of opinion by that body and which have been distributed in advance shall be received as presented.

(c) A Convention Committee report on resolutions referred to it may include statements of reasons for the committee’s recommendations, may be accompanied by a minority report (if signed by one-fourth of the committee’s membership), and, with respect to each resolution or group of related resolutions requiring separate action, shall take one of the following forms:

1. Recommend adoption.
2. Recommend adoption of a substitute resolution.
3. Recommend rejection. In this event the resolution shall lie upon the table unless (a) a majority of the delegates present and voting call for placing the resolution on the agenda for immediate consideration, or (b) the report is accompanied by a minority report recommending adoption, in which case the question shall be consideration of the minority report.
4. Report without recommendation. In this case the presiding officer shall put the original resolution, stating that the committee makes no recommendation.

XVIII All questions of order shall be decided by the presiding officer without debate. Any member may appeal from such decision, when, on motion by the member, duly seconded, the question shall be decided by majority vote of the Convention. On such an appeal no member shall speak more than once without leave.

XIX. No member shall be absent from the sessions of the Convention without leave or unless unable to attend.

XX. When the Convention is about to rise, every member shall remain seated until the President leaves the chair.

XXI On motion duly put and carried, the Convention may resolve itself into a Committee of the Whole, with or without closed doors, for the purpose of discussing such subjects as may be approved by the Convention.

The Bishop may select and announce subjects for discussion: Provided, that if the motion to go into a Committee of the Whole has specified the subject to be discussed, that subject shall first be disposed of.

XXII (a) No nomination shall be received unless the person to be nominated has indicated assent thereto. Nominations for election by the annual Convention may be submitted electronically or in writing to the Secretary of the Convention at least 40 days before the opening session thereof. Any nomination received by the Secretary after the specified date shall be returned to the nominator and may be submitted from the floor of the Convention in accordance with the provisions of this rule of order. All nominators and nominees must be communicants in good standing in this Diocese. At the first business session of the Convention the presiding officer shall call for nominations from the floor, at which time the Secretary shall read the names of all persons whose nominations have been received at least 40 days before the opening of the Convention, after which additional nominations may be received from the floor, provided that any such nomination is submitted jointly by three voting members of the Convention, each being from a different parish or mission. Each nomination shall be accompanied by a brief biography of the nominee on a form prepared by the Secretary of the Convention. The information to be included on the biographical form (to be signed by the nominator) shall include at least the following: nominee’s name, address and home congregation, and prior as well as present parochial and diocesan offices. [Amended by Act 2007-11; Amended by Act 2016-2.]

(b) The names and biographies of all persons nominated in writing to the Secretary at least 40 days before the opening session of the Convention shall be given to the deans of the convocations and shall be included in the advance materials distributed by the Secretary to members of the Convention prior to the meetings of each convocation which are to be held not later than 10 days prior to the Convention. The Secretary shall also post the biographical forms in a conspicuous place in or adjacent to the room in which the Convention meets so that they may be seen throughout the Convention session by all delegates.

c) All nominations shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary together with appropriate instructions as to how to cast a valid ballot. Delegates may vote for fewer candidates than the number of positions to be filled, but ballots containing votes for more than the number of positions to be filled shall be rejected.

d) All elections shall be conducted by secret ballot. The results shall be determined by a majority of votes cast on the ballot or by such larger majority as may be required by the Constitution or by canon. If candidates are to be chosen for different terms to the same office, the Secretary shall assign terms to those elected in the order of the number of votes received.

e) Nominees receiving a majority vote (as herein defined) on any ballot shall be declared elected. If subsequent ballots be required, the nominees to be voted on shall be limited to the number remaining which is equal to twice the number of offices to be filled and who received on the preceding ballot the highest number of votes exclusive of those declared elected.

(f) After the election of Deputies to the General Convention, alternates for these deputies are designated from the remaining candidates in the order of the number of votes received on the preceding ballot. [Amended by Act 2016-3 and Act 2018-6.]

XXIII (a) Resolutions to be acted on at the annual Convention shall be submitted to the Secretary of the Convention on or before the 40th day preceding the opening date of the Convention. Upon submission, resolutions shall be referred to the appropriate Convention Committee as prescribed by Rule of Order IV(a), and the texts thereof shall be included in the advance materials distributed by the Secretary of the Convention to the members of the Convention prior to the Convention. Resolutions submitted to the Secretary later than specified shall be returned to the introducer without action.

Resolutions not proposing or requiring amendment of the Constitution or Canons may be introduced during the Convention but may be acted upon only as follows: If introduced in the first business session of the Convention, the question before the Convention shall be whether the resolution shall be considered. Upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the delegates, the resolution shall be referred to an appropriate Convention Committee for study and report to that Convention. Such resolutions that fail to receive the required vote, as well as resolutions introduced after the close of the first business session of the Convention, shall not be considered.

This rule shall not apply to resolutions of courtesy.

(b) Any portions of the Bishop’s address meriting the Convention’s response shall be referred by the Diocesan Bishop to an appropriate Convention Committee.
(c) The Secretary of the Convention, with the assistance of the Chancellor of the Diocese, shall review each resolution submitted within the time prescribed in section (a), above, to determine whether favorable action on the resolution would require adoption or amendment of a constitutional provision, canon, or rule of order. All such resolutions shall be simultaneously reported to the Commission on Constitution and Canons and referred to the appropriate Convention Committee. The Commission shall report its recommendations with respect to such measures to the Convention at the first business session either as part of its annual report or separately, as may be most convenient. No resolution amending the Constitution or Canons shall be considered on the day on which proposed, except by a two-thirds vote of those entitled to vote. \textit{Amended by Act 2006-9.}

XXIV If a resolution submitted for Convention action would substantially affect diocesan finances, the presiding officer of the Convention shall, at the time the resolution is referred to an appropriate Convention Committee under Rule of Order IV(a), also request the Convention Committee on Administration of the Diocese to consider the measure. The Convention shall not take up the resolution until its Committee on the Administration of the Diocese has, without recommendation, furnished the Convention with an analysis of the effect adoption of the resolution would have on the fiscal affairs of the Diocese.

XXV. Subject to the provisions of the Constitution and Canons of the General Convention of The Episcopal Church, the Constitution, Canons, and Rules of Order of the Diocese of North Carolina, and any Special Rule proposed by the Committee on Dispatch of Business for the election of a bishop or the consideration of any other specific items of business, the Parliamentary Authority governing the transaction of business by the Annual Convention or any Special Convention shall be the current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised. [\textit{Added by Act 2008-6}]

GUIDELINES FOR THE FAIR SHARE APPEALS BOARD

We, the clergy and people of the Diocese of North Carolina, confess our need to give of our time, talent, and treasure to carry out the work Christ has given us to do through his Church.
We embrace our heritage of supporting one another and joining together to accomplish that work. We acknowledge our responsibility to support the episcopacy and to provide for the mission and ministry of the diocese. We recognize the tithe as the minimum standard of giving enjoined by Holy Scripture, and we acknowledge the importance of practicing the tithe in word and deed, both as individuals and as Christians joined together in faith communities, the Diocese of North Carolina, and The Episcopal Church. Finally, we feel strongly the bonds that draw us together as members of the Body of Christ. We therefore desire that funding of the mission and ministry of the Diocese be accomplished fairly and equitably through means that promote both compassion and accountability. We affirm that no local faith community will be required to contribute more than its fair share, and that none will be allowed to contribute less than its fair share. To accomplish these ends we have enacted as follows: [Preamble to Act 2009-3 of the 193rd Annual Convention, On Amending the Constitution and Canons to Assure Funding of the Mission and Ministry Budget of the Diocese.]

1. The deadline for filing complete appeals will be August 15 of the preceding year for which the appeal is sought. No appeal will be considered after that date except for unforeseen circumstances that might arise after the deadline.

2. All appeals must include the following as attachments:

Canons of the Diocese of North Carolina.

3. The Fair Share Appeals Board will consider all appeals on a case by case basis subject to the following guidelines and those contained in Canon 18:

a. A call for the highest level of pastoral sensitivity with respect to such appeals will be taken, considering both the circumstances of the congregation and the needs of all the other parishes and missions that make up the Diocese. We know that paper cannot tell your story completely. Our desire is to come to know you and your church better and to see how we, the Diocesan Council and the other 128 congregations of the Diocese of North Carolina, may best be of help. Therefore, it may be appropriate for the Fair Share Appeals Board to meet with you personally.

b. The principle governing all appeals is that any reduction in fair share giving is in effect a subsidy of the congregation by the other parishes and missions that make up the Diocese. Program and staff expenses will be carefully scrutinized using this principle. Budgets that contain discretionary spending will be carefully scrutinized. Pastoral concerns may also be addressed including the congregation’s stewardship program and process of Christian formation.

c. The Fair Share Appeals Board will notify all parties, stipulated in Canon 18, Section 3, of its decision on whether or not an appeal is granted by October 15th of the year in which the appeal is filed.

d. If the Board recommends a reduction, it shall refer the parish or mission to appropriate sources of assistance for stewardship and congregational growth and development.

Missionary Resource Support Team: A Chartered Committee

The Missionary Resource Support Team (MRST), a chartered committee of the Diocese of North Carolina, provides financial support to mission congregations, small parishes and newly established worshipping communities in the Diocese who are intentionally carrying out the mission of the Church, and that of the Diocese of North Carolina, in their unique ministry context.

MRST offers two grants to congregations in the Diocese of North Carolina. Our primary resource is the Salary Support Grant. Though typically offered for clergy salaries, this grant can also be used for lay salaries as well. This typically applies to small churches and mission congregations but also includes new ministry initiatives created in collaboration with existing congregations. MRST also offers one-time Seed Grants of up to $7500 that can be allocated during the current calendar year for new ministries getting off the ground.

The Team is accountable to the Department of Congregational Support and Development.
The Team should number approximately twelve lay and clergy, appointed by the Bishop on recommendation from the Chair. The Chair is elected within the Team. Terms are three years with a maximum of two consecutive.
