Trustees & Council:

Trustees and Council manages the temporal affairs of the Diocese subject to the Canons of the Church and the budgets and resolutions adopted by the Diocesan Convention. A nominee for the council should be a person who has at least some familiarity with the organization, structure and resources of the Diocese and an interest in business affairs. Nominees should be willing to take responsibility for the work of the council in implementing decisions of the Convention, formulating long-range plans and making immediate decisions about the life and work of the Diocese. Each nominee, if elected, should be prepared to vote upon matters which will support the mission and ministry of the Diocese. Each lay nominee must be an active, adult, confirmed communicant of a congregation in good standing, and should be a faithful, committed believer in the Lord, who is committed to the well-being of the Diocese and the larger Church. Each clerical nominee must be canonically resident in the Diocese of Kentucky, either parochial or non-parochial. Trustees and Council meets five to six times a year, including one overnight retreat at All Saints’ Center; members should expect to pay for travel, lodging and meals for these meetings. A trustee may be elected for two (2) successive terms of three (3) years each, after which at least one (1) year shall elapse before a trustee may be re-elected. Partial terms shall not be considered in determining whether a trustee has served two (2) consecutive terms.

Continuing members are the Rev. Candyce Loescher (2020), the Rev. Dr. Steve Pankey (2020), Sarah Emery (2020), Christine Thorowgood (2020), the Very Rev. Katherine Doyle (2021), the Rev. Kelly Kirby (2021), Kathy Eigelbach (2021), and Joseph John (2021). Two presbyters and two laypersons will be elected for three-year terms to replace

In the community he is a board member of Continuum of Care, which serves the homeless population in Louisville and is a mentor for foster youth at Centerstone. He is a compliance manager with the Louisville Metro Housing Authority.

Standing Committee:

The Standing Committee serves as a council of advice to the Bishop and, when there is no Bishop authorized to act, serves as the ecclesiastical authority of the diocese. The committee consists of three (3) presbyters, three (3) lay persons and one (1) deacon who serve for terms of three (3) years each. The routine work of the committee consists of deciding whether or not to approve candidates for the ministry and proposed ordinations in the diocese, and whether or not to consent, on behalf of the diocese, to the ordination of bishops elected in other dioceses. Upon resignation of the Bishop, the Standing Committee is responsible for the process leading to the nomination and consecration of a new bishop. Nominees for the Standing Committee should be persons who are interested in the ordination process and the life of ordained ministry and can respond to questions relating to approvals sought by other dioceses and concerning our own diocesan structure. Nominees, if elected, must be willing to understand and work within the canons of both the diocese and the Episcopal Church. Each lay nominee must be an active, adult, confirmed communicant in good standing in his/her own congregation and should be a faithful believer who is committed to the Lord and has been in the Diocese long enough to know the workings of the Diocese and its individuals, conditions and situations, and has been supportive of the work of the church even though the nominee may disagree with some decisions. Each clerical nominee must be canonically resident in the diocese, either parochial or non-parochial and should have been in the Diocese long enough to know the workings of the Diocese and its individuals, conditions and situations, and should be one who has been supportive of the work of the church and who does so in his/her present position, even though the nominee may disagree with some decisions. The Standing Committee meets about ten times a year for two to three hours each. No member of the Standing Committee who has served any part of the term for which such member was elected by the Convention shall be eligible for re-election to the Standing Committee until an interval of one (1) year has elapsed.

Continuing members are the Rev. Michael Delk (2020), Dr. John H. Shelby (2020), the Rev. Benjamin Hart (2021), and Susan Sauls (2021). One presbyter, one deacon, and one layperson will be elected for three-year terms to replace the Rev. Karl Lusk, the Rev. Dcn. Becky Brooks, and Susie Watkins.

Trustees, the Bishop Dudley Memorial Trust:
The Board of Trustees of the Bishop Dudley Memorial Trusts is a semi-independent, non-profit corporation which has charge of all money, funds and property of every kind and description, now held or which may hereafter be contributed, for the support of the Episcopate in the Diocese, including when entrusted to its care the Episcopal residence or residences. The board of directors of the corporation consists of nine (9) Trustees who are elected for terms of three (3) years each. The Trustees are responsible for the investment of endowment and other funds and for the expenditure of income thereof for the support of the Episcopate according to the requirements of the Canons of the Diocese and the charter of the corporation as amended. Each nominee should have substantial understanding of and experience with financial and investment matters and be willing to attend quarterly meetings with the other Trustees and with representatives of the Louisville-based financial institution which the Trustees select to manage the funds of the Trust. No member who has served for any part of an elected term shall be eligible for re-election until an interval of one (1) year has elapsed.

The following laypersons have been nominated for three three-year terms:

Ralph Barany
Ralph Barany has been a communicant of Trinity Church, Owensboro and a part of the diocese for eighteen years. He is treasurer at Trinity Church and has been a vestry member. He is retired.

Alex Campbell
Alex Campbell has been a communicant of the Church of the Advent, Louisville for four years and has been part of the diocese for thirty-six years. In the diocese he is director and president of the Woodcock Foundation, Inc. and a committee member for the Kohler Family Memorial Scholarship Fund. He previously served St. Mark’s Church on vestry and as senior warden, and he was previously director and president of the Bishop Dudley Memorial...
Fund. He is a retired partner of Wyatt, Tarrant & Combs, LLP Law Firm in their Louisville office.

Linda Wardell
Linda Wardell has been a communicant of St. Matthew’s, Louisville and a part of the diocese for sixteen years. At St. Matthew’s she is currently on the Finance Committee, Music Committee, and Planned Giving Committee and is a member of the choir, bell ensemble, and Care Team. She previously chaired the parish Rector Search Committee. In the community she serves as chair of the City of Prospect Parks & Recreation Advisory Committee, and has previously served on the board of the Louisville Orchestra and L. O. Finance Committee. She is retired from work as a commercial loan officer, corporate accountant, and non-profit accountant.

Dave Willis
Dave Willis has been a communicant of St. Andrew’s, Louisville and a part of the diocese for twenty-five years. He serves St. Andrew’s on the vestry and in the community on the Water Quality Team for the Little Traverse Lake Association. He is a retired professor, dentist, and certified financial planner.

Trustees, the University of the South:
Pursuant to the Charter of the University of the South, the Diocese is entitled to one (1) clerical and two (2) lay positions on the Board of the University. The persons elected to this position will be part of the ultimate policy-making body of the University of the South, which includes the college, St. Luke’s Seminary and St. Andrew’s-Sewanee. Each person nominated as a Trustee should be willing to learn about the university, to represent it faithfully to the church in Kentucky and be willing to support its programs. Trustees are expected to attend one midweek meeting at the University in the fall of the year; they are not reimbursed for travel or lodging expenses. Additionally, each Trustee is expected to make an annual, personal financial contribution to the University.

Continuing members are Stephanie R. Miller (2020) and Leslie Newman (2021). One clerical person is to be elected for a three-year term to replace the Rev. Dcn. Dr. Michael Vollman.

The following clergypersons have been nominated for one three-year term:

The Rev. Allison Mackenzie Caudill
The Rev. Allison Mackenzie Caudill is the associate rector at St. Luke’s, Anchorage where she has served since July of this year. She has been a part of the diocese since birth. She served as a ministry intern at Christ Church Cathedral and at St. Mark’s in Louisville. She has been interim camp director at All Saints Camp.
The Rev. Dcn. Michael Vollman

The Rev. Dcn. Michael Vollman serves as deacon at Trinity Church, Russellville and has been part of that congregation and the diocese for seven years. At Trinity he is the adult education coordinator and parish administrator, and on the diocesan level is an ecumenical officer, a trustee for the University of the South, member of the Disciplinary Board, and member of the Mental Health & Substance Abuse Task Force. He is a retired professor of nursing.

Disciplinary Board for Ecclesiastical Discipline:

The process and procedure for ecclesiastical discipline in the Diocese is prescribed in Title IV of the Canons of the General Convention and Diocesan Canon 29. Title IV as revised by General Convention 2009 creates a hybrid mediation and hearing model whose stated purposes include efforts to “resolve conflicts by promoting healing, repentance, forgiveness, restitution, amendment of life and reconciliation among all involved or affected by” alleged Clergy misconduct. Diocesan Canon 29 creates a Disciplinary Board of seven members, four Clergy and three lay, which functions through panels to mediate, and if necessary, try alleged violations of clerical standards of conduct which are prescribed in the Canons of the General Convention. All members elected to serve on the Disciplinary Board should be emotionally mature and intelligent individuals who are capable of understanding and evaluating evidence and can be expected to be fair-minded and objective when considering alleged violations and can appreciate the needs of the Church, the vulnerabilities of the victim or complainant and the defenses presented by respondent Clergy. Because our Diocese and the Diocese of Lexington have elected to share resources if needed, members of the Disciplinary Board in our Diocese may be called upon to serve in a similar capacity during a Title IV proceeding in the Diocese of Lexington. Existing members of the Disciplinary Board may be reelected for up to three successive terms of three years each after which such a member shall not be eligible for further election for at least one year after the end of his or her third consecutive term; members of the Standing Committee are not canonically disqualified from serving on the Board.

Continuing members are the Rev. Dcn. Michael Vollman (2020), Judy Fischer (2020), the Rev. Ben Sanders (2021), Barbara Mather Cobb (2021), and Martha Blair “Marti” Harrison(2021). At Christ Church she coordinates the Eucharistic Visitors and is a member of the Outreach Parish Ministry Group. In the diocese she serves on the Disciplinary Board and is the chair of the Nominating Committee. In the community she is a board member and treasurer for HOTEL INC, a local non-profit serving the homeless and housing insecure population of Bowling Green/Warren County. She is a corporate accountant for Lee Masonry Products.

Cathedral Chapter Representative:

The articles of incorporation of Christ Church Cathedral authorize the Convention to elect three (3) Diocesan Representatives to serve as voting members of the Cathedral’s Chapter (vestry) for terms of three (3) years of each. Nominees must be either a presbyter or deacon canonically resident in the Diocese, or an adult, confirmed communicant in good standing of a congregation other than the congregation of Christ Church Cathedral, in union with the Convention of the Diocese of Kentucky. Nominees who are elected are expected to attend meetings and functions of the Chapter and offer perspectives of the Diocese at large during the Chapter’s deliberations. Elected representatives are not eligible to serve as Senior Warden, Junior Warden, Treasurer or Secretary of the Chapter.

Continuing members are Sara Ceresa (2020) and Bill Bond (2021). One person (lay or clergy) will be elected for a three-year term to replace James Moody.

The following person has been nominated for one three-year term:

Jan Pauline Scholtz

Jan Pauline Scholtz has been a communicant of St. Matthew’s, Louisville for forty-six years and a part of the diocese for fifty-six years. At St. Matthew’s she is a member and president of the Daughters of the King and serves the diocese as a member of the Task Force on Racial Reconciliation. She has previously been a chalice bearer and a member of the Chapter of Christ Church Cathedral, Louisville. She graduated from the School of Ministry this year. She serves the community as chair of The Louisville Committee on Foreign Relations. She is a broker/realtor at Jan Scholtz Realtors.

Secretary of the Diocese:

A Secretary of the Diocese is elected immediately upon the opening of a Convention for a term that begins at the end of that meeting and ends with the next “stated meeting of Convention.” Canon 9 describes numerous responsibilities for the Secretary, starting with attending the Convention and all meetings of Trustees and Council and its Executive Committee and verifying the minutes of these meetings. The secretary is expected to verify official documents, publish the annual Journal of the Diocese, perform a number of additional duties throughout the year of service, and gather advance reports from congregations in preparation for the next Diocesan Convention. The Canon authorizes the Secretary to request the appointment of an assistant. One person will be elected for a one-year term.

The current secretary is Kay Shields Wilkinson.

The following person has been nominated for one one-year position:

Kay Shields Wilkinson has been a communicant of Christ Church Cathedral, Louisville, and a part of the diocese for fifty-four years.
