From: Immanuel on the Green <rector-immanuel@comcast.net>
To: jmea55 <jmea55@aol.com>
Subject: The Weekly: An Organ Recital TONIGHT, Attic Treasures Sale, and more!
Date: Fri, Oct 18, 2019 5:00 pm
Join us for Immanuel on the Green
St. Anne's Guild’s annual
ATTIC TREASURES SALE
SATURDAY
OCTOBER 19
9am – 3pm
SUNDAY
OCTOBER 20
9am – 12pm
IMMANUEL PARISH HALL
100 Harmony Street, New Castle, DE 19720

HOUSEWARES, JEWELLERY, BOOKS, BAKED GOODS, DECORATIONS
All proceeds will be donated to local charities

For more information, or to contribute to the bake sale, please contact the office
(302)328-2413 | immanuelonthegreen@comcast.net | www.immanuelonthegreen.org

The Weekly:
October 18th 2019

LITURGY AND MUSIC NOTES

Here's an invitation you'll want to accept: come hear Mark Laubach play Immanuel’s small but splendid pipe organ tonight, Friday, October 18, at 7:45 pm. Admission is free, and following the program you are invited to greet Mark at a reception in the Academy.

Mark is well-known at Immanuel for his collaboration in the choir’s English Cathedral residencies. He is also widely recognized as one of today’s most versatile and convincing performers on the King of Instruments. In his 35-year career since winning the 1984 AGO National Young Artists’ Competition, Mark has been acclaimed for his virtuosity, artistic insight, and ability to connect with audiences, in performances throughout the US, Great Britain, and Germany. He is Canon Precentor and Organist/Choirmaster of St. Stephen’s Episcopal Church in Wilkes-Barre and teaches at Marywood University in Scranton.

Mark has planned a fascinating and varied program, with something for everyone to enjoy. Don’t miss it!

Mark Laubach Organ Recital
Immanuel Church on the Green, New Castle, Delaware
Friday, October 18, 2019 at 7:45 pm

Praeludium in C Major
Variations on Unter der Linden grüné
(“Under the Green Linden Tree”)  Georg Böhm (1661 – 1733)
Johann Sebastian Bach (1685 – 1750)

Prelude and Fugue in D Major, BWV 532
Preludes on Great Hymns of the Church
Hymn 339, Schmücke dich
Hymn 587, Rhosymedre (“Lovely”)  Ralph Vaughan Williams (1872 – 1958)
Hymn 433, Kremser  Craig Phillips (b. 1961)
Hymn 397, Nun danket alle Gott  Egil Hovland (1924 – 2013)
Scherzo  Eugene Gigout (1844 – 1925)
Psalm-Prelude, Set One, No. 2  Herbert Howells (1892 – 1983)

“But the meek shall inherit the earth; *  and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace. [Psalm 37, v. 12]
Finale (from Organ Sonata No. 1 in D Minor, Op. 42) Alexandre Guilmant (1837 – 1911)

The Nicene Creed: We continue to sing this declaration of our faith today, and for the next several weeks, to the ancient melody found at S 103 in the front portion of The Hymnal 1982. As early as the sixth century the Nicene Creed was sung to this very tune, whose patterns are similar to the familiar chant that begins the Great Thanksgiving. If singing the Creed is a new experience for you, feel free to follow along and recite the Creed quietly (or silently) as it is sung; then please do join us in singing it as soon as you feel ready to give it a try. Chanting the Creed can bring us a fresh revelation of the power and meaning of these familiar words.

The hymns we sing this Sunday exemplify the variety of style and expression to be found in
The Hymnal 1982, the official hymnal of the Episcopal Church.
The words of the first hymn, "New every morning," were intended by the author, 19th c. Anglican priest John Keble, for private meditation rather than public singing. But Keble’s poems soon found favor with hymnal editors, and their popularity has endured. In our hymnal Keble’s morning meditation is set to a sturdy American folk hymn.
The moving words of the sequence hymn sung before the Gospel, "By gracious powers," were written by the German pastor and activist Dietrich Bonhoeffer, imprisoned by the Nazi regime and awaiting execution. We sing them to a stirring tune (composed much later) by the French priest and musician Joseph Gelineau.
At the end of Communion we sing one of Charles Wesley’s most imaginative and striking hymn texts, "Come, O thou Traveler unknown," also known as "Wrestling Jacob." It is Wesley’s re-imagining of the account in today’s Old Testament reading of Jacob’s struggle with the angel of God, which Wesley interprets as a “type,” a foreshadowing, of the Christian’s spiritual encounter with Jesus. It is also set to a rugged, angular American folk hymntune that catches perfectly the rapt mystical feel of Wesley’s poem.
The final hymn, also by Charles Wesley, is an extended and joyous doxology that takes much of its imagery from the triumphant visions of God’s throne that appear in the Book of Revelation.

Hymns:
10 "New every morning is the love"
696 "By gracious powers"
638 "Come, O thou Traveler unknown"
535 “Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim”
Offertory Anthem: "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills" - Leo Sowerby
Communion Motet: "My Jesus makes my heart rejoice" - Dieterich Buxtehude, arr. Roberta Bitgood
Organ Voluntaries: Voluntary in C - Orlando Gibbons, and A Short Verse - Thomas Tomkins
You can RSVP to all our events on our Facebook page here, or you can check out the Immanuel Parish calendar and receive email reminders by subscribing to events. Remember, every like and share means more people can see what is happening at Immanuel; one click really does make a difference!

We Want Your Photos and Ideas!

We're always looking for photos to put in the Curate and the weekly emails. These photos can be of recent events, Immanuelsrians gathering outside of church, or older events. Whatever you have, we’ll take them! Send the photos to the office at immanuelonthegreen@comcast.net. We keep them on file for future use.

We are also looking for story ideas. Send in an article about an event you attended. Or, if you don't want to write an article, send in your ideas for a story for someone else to write. We want to hear from you!

ATTIC TREASURES - THIS WEEKEND

St. Anne's Guild Attic Treasures Sale

St. Anne's Guild will hold its annual rummage and bake sale, affectionately called Attic Treasures, on Saturday, October 19, 9 am till 3 pm, and Sunday, October 20, 9 am till noon. All money raised during the sale is donated to local charities.

You can support the sale by donating items, baking for the bake table, and coming to the sale to see what treasures and baked goods you want to buy.

With the money raised at the 2018 sale, St. Anne's was able to help support the Food Bank of Delaware, Ministry of Caring, Sunday Breakfast Mission, and Episcopal Relief and Development.
Calling all bakers!

There's still time to contribute! All baked goods can be dropped off at the Parish Hall on Friday, October 18, between 5pm-8pm, and on Saturday, October 19, 9am-11am. Please label if there are any allergens in your items such as nuts or soy.

Thank you all for everything you do for this fantastic fundraiser!

Printable and Shareable Posters and Flyers
You can help advertise the Attic Treasures sale with a click of a button! All Facebook shares, likes, comments, and posts naturally boost the event. You can RSVP and share from the event page quicker than you can exclaim "What a bargain!"

Copies of the poster below will be available in the church for you to advertise the event on notice boards, with flyers available to pass out to interested friends. You can also click on the image at the top of this newsletter for a download that you can print yourself at home.

STEWARSHIP - A SERIES

Week 3

Talents

Our talents are part of the abundance that God has provided to each of us. We are called to use these talents to empower, uplift, and reach out to people who are on the margins—those who feel that they have been forgotten. How do we use our talents to serve God and do this work in the world? Have you considered what your talents are and discerned how they may be put to use to serve God? Working on the margins, there is a need for creativity, compassion, offering an ear to listen, offering a hand to hold, sharing a smile, or just sitting quietly and being present with those who believe they are forgotten and do not matter. These talents—our talents—is what allows us to do God’s work in the world and in the margins of our society. This stewardship season, we ask that you discern and consider where your individual and God given talents can be used in “The Way of Love”.

Lectio Divina Series

All are invited to enjoy good food, good company, and good conversation every Tuesday evening from October 1st to October 22nd. We will meet at Porto Fino’s at 6 pm.

What is Lectio Divina?

From Contemplative Outreach: "Lectio Divina, literally meaning "divine reading," is an ancient practice of praying the Scriptures. During Lectio Divina, the practitioner listens to the text of the Bible with the "ear of the heart," as if he or she is in conversation with God, and God is suggesting the topics for discussion. The method of Lectio Divina includes moments of reading (lectio), reflecting on (meditatio), responding to (oratio) and resting in (contemplatio) the Word of God with the aim of nourishing and deepening one’s relationship with the Divine."
We hope that you will join us! However, if these days or times do not work with your schedule, the passages and instructions will be made available on the website and mailed cards. The guides from the Lectio Divina series are available here.

Stewardship & Pledge Celebration - Sunday, October 27th - please join us at the 8 am and 10 am services to celebrate stewardship and make our pledge for the coming year!

- Mary Nash Wilson

---

PARISH HAPPENINGS

Fall Fun for All

The Fellowship Committee is sponsoring a hayride and bonfire at White Clay Creek State Park on Sunday, November 3 at 4 p.m. Join us for a 45-minute ride and then s'mores and cider around the campfire. Registration is limited and will happen on a first-come, first-served basis.

To sign up, please email maragorman@gmail.com, call or text 302-690-7520, or see Mara at coffee hour after church.

---

SAVE THE DATES!

- October 18, Friday — Mark Laubach Organ Recital, 7:45pm
- October 19, Saturday — Attic Treasures, 9am-3pm
- October 20, Sunday — Attic Treasures, 9am-12pm
- October 26, Saturday — Movie Night
- November 4, Monday — All Souls’ Day Mass

---

Call to Convention

Our 235th Annual Convention, January 24-25, is a special time when everyone in the Episcopal Church in Delaware is invited to gather in community with fellow Episcopalians across the diocese. While enjoying new and old friendships, we are also tasked with doing a little bit of business and learning more about each other and our future together. It is the great annual assembly of the Episcopal Church in Delaware! I invite everyone to join me as we convene at the Hyatt Place in Dewey Beach, Delaware. Several of our convention committees are already hard at work. It takes many hands to make this convention work and it is well worth our time, our energy, and our prayer. Important work is happening, my sisters and brothers, in the common life of our diocese and of our church. I am grateful for everyone who contributes so many hours of their time in this crazy and wonderful adventure we call the Episcopal Church.

- the Rt. Rev. Kevin S. Brown

---

https://mail.aol.com/webmail-std/en-us/PrintMessage
As members of the Episcopal Church, we all share in its leadership and oversight, often by serving on parish and diocesan teams and committees. Our church and our witness to the world are stronger when we are led by diverse and energetic folks from across our community. To elect diverse leadership teams we must first nominate diverse slates of candidates! Therefore, it is important that we nominate faithful women and men from across all Delaware counties, of varying ages, colors, orientations, and economic circumstances and from parishes small and large, to represent us on these committees.

The positions open at the next annual convention are listed on page 5 and onwards of the document linked below. Terms of office begin on the first day of the second month following convention.

Any active Episcopalian in the Episcopal Church in Delaware may nominate someone to serve on a diocesan-wide body. You may nominate yourself as well. Please prayerfully consider a person you know who might be ready to serve at the diocesan level.

The deadline for nominating someone else — or yourself — is TODAY, Friday, October 18. The Nominations Committee is asked to review all nominees to confirm they are eligible and, for positions where insufficient numbers of nominees are received, to nominate diverse candidates for these roles.

Next Movie Discussion Night on Saturday, Oct 26

We will gather together for our next Movie Discussion Night at 6 PM on Oct 26. Our host is Nancy Coning-McDowell at 54 E 4th St in New Castle.

The film to watch before you come is "On the Basis of Sex". We all know Ruth Bader Ginsburg became a Justice of the Supreme Court. Watch this movie based on her early life and legal career to found out how she overcame barriers based on gender. Then bring a dish or refreshment to share and come ready to talk about the social and religious questions raised by the story and the values it highlights.

We look forward to seeing you.

Available Flower Memorial Dates

2019
- October 27
- December 29

2020
- January 12
- February 9
- March 1
Services at Immanuel

Schedule of Services
Immanuel's sense of community is firmly grounded in our weekly gathering for corporate worship. You are an essential member of that Community! Do plan to join us every week for one (or more) of these services:

Sunday
- 8am - Said Mass
- 10am - Sung Mass
- 7pm - Compline

Thursday
- 6pm - Said Mass

Compline continues every Sunday at 7 p.m.

The sign-up register for Sunday evening Compline has been extended to include the fall months. Please consider signing up to lead one or more weeks of this beautiful candlelit service. Training is provided. Click here to view the sign-up and to volunteer: Immanuel Compline

Sign up here

Large print bulletins are available.

October Birthdays
- Week 2 - Caroline Godden, Emma Barczak, Michael Westman
- Week 3 - Cynthia Waibel, Patricia Moy
- Week 4 - Mary Nash Wilson
- Week 5 - Magnus Frieberg, Nancy Turner, Christian Waibel

October Anniversaries
- Week 1 - Matthew and Emily Walker
- Week 4 - Paul and Valerie Long
- Week 5 - Fred and Gina Tarburton

STAY CONNECTED
The FOMO (Fear Of Missing Out) struggle is real. If you haven't already, be sure to follow us on Twitter and Instagram, for memes like this one (thanks Patsy):

Stay up to date on all the latest happenings by visiting our website.
Immanuel on the Green | 100 Harmony Street, New Castle, DE 19720

Unsubscribe jmea55@aol.com
Update Profile | About Constant Contact
Sent by rector-immanuel@comcast.net in collaboration with

Constant Contact
Try email marketing for free today!