RECTOR’S MESSAGE

As our Bishop shared in her address, we are called as faithful disciples “to the observance of a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance: by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God’s holy Word.” (BCP 265)

But, if we don’t make space for these, it won’t happen. So, every three years or so, I like to have us jot down a few Lenten goals: (take a moment to do this as you are reading this!)

Something to Give up: (or to take a break from)

Something to Take on: (maybe from the many individual and communal opportunities in this Chimes)

Something to Reshape: (a relationship to repair, rebuild, or enhance/rescheduling of life/Body, Mind, Soul)

I offer this humble prayer as we do this:

Gracious and ever forgiving God, guide us into what you are calling us. Help our prayers be import petitions, but more than just laundry lists of selfishness. Fill them with concern for our wholeness and those around us, leading us to adoration and praise for just being in your presence. Being prayerfully thankful for what we have and examining ourselves by offering penitence and confessional prayer leading to restitution and amending of our lives. To finally be a true oblation, that is, offering ourselves, our lives and labors to you. Amen.

Time to answer questions... (If you didn’t already)

Prayer after beginning to answer the questions above:

God, you are always with us. Help us to be closer to you in these 40 days, as Jesus came to be with us. Father and Son, you are always journeying with us in the grace and power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

LENT MADNESS, inspired by college basketball tournaments, pits 32 saints against each other in a bracket, as each saint seeks to win the coveted Golden Halo. Throughout Lent, fans vote for their favorite saints at www.lentmadness.org.

Each pairing remains open for a set period of time for voting. 16 saints make it to the Round of the Saintly Sixteen; 8 advance to the Round of the Elate Eight; 4 make it to the Faithful Four; 2 to the Championship; and the winner is awarded the coveted Golden Halo.

The first round consists of basic information on all 32 saints. And things get a bit more interesting in subsequent rounds.

Lent Madness is a fun, engaging way for people to learn about the men and women comprising the Church’s Calendar of Saints.

Saintly booklets and scorecards are available to pick up outside the Chapel and in the Library area. The official bracket is posted on the main bulletin board. Follow along, vote online, and learn more about the saints.

Lent (from an Old English word meaning "spring," the time of lengthening days) has a long history. Originally, in places where Pascha was celebrated on a Sunday, the Paschal feast followed a fast of up to two days. In the third century this fast was lengthened to six days. Eventually this fast became attached to, or overlapped, another fast of forty days, in imitation of Christ's fasting in the wilderness. The forty-day fast was especially important for converts to the faith who were preparing for baptism, and for those guilty of notorious sins who were being restored to the Christian assembly.

In the western church the forty days of Lent extend from Ash Wednesday through Holy Saturday, omitting Sundays. The last three days of Lent are the sacred Triduum of Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday. Today Lent has reacquired its significance as the final preparation of adult candidates for baptism. Joining with them, all Christians are invited "to the observance of a holy Lent, by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word" (BCP, p. 265).

Trinity’s Columbarium is located in the balcony of the Chapel of the Resurrection. It was dedicated by Bishop Benoni Ogwal - Abwang on November 18, 1991.

The Columbarium offers Trinity members the opportunity to have their entire life’s spiritual journey, from birth and baptism through death and interment, in the embrace of their faith community.

An addition was added in 2013 with 42 more niches. The cost of each niche is $500. We presently have 20 niches that are available for purchase. For more information, contact the church office.

Oxford House Update
We currently have 5 women living in the rectory and they hope to apply for a provisional charter as an Oxford House and open a checking account sometime in March.
We are looking for a double bed/mattress. Please contact Greg Smith or Fr. Ken if you have one to donate.

Rejoice in hope.
Be patient in tribulation.
Be constant in prayer.

We are still looking for a volunteer to purchase items and ask for donations from stores.
Vestry Minutes Summary—February 18, 2020

Rector’s Report

a. Shaped by Faith and Who is our Neighbor

1. Congregational Values Exercise: Data is still being collected and the trend continues to be Integrity, Music, Friendship/Hospitality, and Worship.

2. Trial weekly non-Sunday service: There was a discussion about having a non-Sunday worship service with other churches in our convocation. Would this be weekly or monthly, who are we targeting, location, what day and time of day? Further discussion will follow with the Shaped by Faith committee.

3. 4-week summer rotation: We talked about the possibility of combining services in July with the GLEAM churches (All Saints, Church of Our Savior and Church of the Good Shepherd), on a rotation. This would let parishioners get to know fellow Episcopalians in our community and help with staff vacations. Christ Church would not participate this year as Kyle is just beginning his ministry. Some vestry members liked the idea and others felt they may not attend. During Coffee Hour each parish will share highlights of their history and outreach.

4. Three goals for 2020: The new Bible study group continues to meet twice monthly at Backhouse Café. Habitat for Humanity is planning to build a home on the corner of Diamond Street and Federal Ave in Newberry. Volunteers will be able to schedule for shifts beginning in April. Pro-Cathedral First Friday is planning an event for April 3. The committee see the events as creating spaces that nurture, promote art and music, small performance groups, lectures and prayer. Advertising could take place on social media and arts brochures (Community Arts Center, etc.)

b. Hosting Diocesan Convention: Trinity Pro-Cathedral is hosting a simplified diocesan convention on October 17, 2020. Logistics are still in the works. It would be one day only. Boxed lunches would be served. Delegates could eat in the parish hall or gymnasium. We also discussed maybe having a tent outside for mealtime.

c. Convocation picnic/worship: Fr. Ken asked if there was interest in having a convocation picnic and/or worship service together like past years at Indian Park in Montoursville, Veronica Chappell’s home, or at the Hiawatha. Yes, there was interest.

Senior Warden’s Report: A discussion was held about Trinity joining the Chamber of Commerce for networking possibilities and for Trinity to have a presence in the community. A Vestry member offered to pay the $275/year membership fee for 2020.

Oxford House: The group of women is in flux with 3-6 women living there. They have named the house Trinity Manor, have received a tax identification number, and are in the process of getting the charter to become an Oxford House.

Grants update: An application was made for a state grant for nonprofits for security upgrades. Items include video monitors for exterior doors and an electronic lock system tracking access to the building. We are still waiting to hear from the Diocese about the grants we applied for at the end of the year.

Stewardship update: Charlie Plankenhorn’s Fireside Chat and the Soup & Stew Luncheon were well received. A letter will be mailed to the congregation after Easter for the $2 million by 2025 campaign.

Blessing Box: No coordinator has been found for the Blessing Box. A suggestion was made to provide shopping bags to fill and bring to church to stock the box.

The next vestry meeting will be Tuesday, March 17, 2020 at 6:30 p.m. Father Ken will be available at 6 p.m. to give tours of the church to new vestry members.
