SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20, 2007

Following Eucharist, the business meeting was reconvened at 10:45 am. Bishop Smith reminded the clergy spouses and partners of the meeting with Laura Smith upstairs in Crescent 3.

Bishop Smith recognized Bishop Lino Rodrigues, Bishop of Western Mexico, and invited him to the podium to speak.

Bishop Smith called upon Clarke Greger, Diocesan Chancellor to explain the voting options for the election. Mr. Greger explained that the elections to fill the Standing Committee and the Diocesan Council can be done by majority or by plurality meaning the person with the most votes, wins. The Canonical changes must be voted by order. Convention unanimously voted to elect by plurality.

Bishop Smith called upon The Rev. Gae Chalker, Chair of the Nominations Committee to introduce the nominees for election.

Ballot was taken and results will be announced when counted.

Bishop Smith called The Rev Susan Snook to the podium in celebration and recognition of Church of the Nativity Mission. Rev Snook, new vicar of Church of the Nativity, in turn invited members of Church of the Nativity to the stage.

Bishop Smith announced the results from the election.
  Jan Feltz – Convention Secretary
  The Rev Franklyn – Standing Committee, Clerical Order
Bishop Smith called upon The Rev. Tom Leyba, Necrologist to read the names of our deceased clergy. Bishop asked for a resolution of appreciation as Rev Leyba is retiring as Necrologist after 42 years of service. Passed unanimously.

Prayer was offered remembering:
- Doyle Bladon
- Henry Getz
- Roy Kephart
- Kenneth Roush
- Jose Vega

Noontime prayer was read by The Rev. Canon Timothy Dombek, Canon to the Ordinary Convention recessed for lunch and will reconvene at 1:00 p.m.

Bishop Smith reconvened the Convention at 1:03 p.m.

Bishop Smith called upon Jack Colaric, Treasurer, to present the 2008 Statement of Mission. Mr. Colaric explained how the staff and Finance Committee worked on the Mission Statement to arrive at its figures. Diocesan Council reviews the draft in May for publication in the September Convention paper. A workshop was offered yesterday to discuss the Mission Statement.

Mr. Colaric opened the floor for questions. There were no questions from the floor. Bishop Smith called for a motion to approve the 2008 Statement of Mission. A motion was made and seconded. All approved. The 2008 Statement of Mission was adopted.
Bishop Smith called upon Matt Chew who spoke to the openings for Nominations for National Church positions.

Bishop Smith called upon Winifred Follett, ECW President for her Report to Convention. (See Annual Reports)

Annual Reports to Convention

The 47th Annual Diocesan Convention

October 19-20, 2007
Phoenix, Arizona
DIOCESAN ANTI-RACISM COMMITTEE

VISION

In keeping with our Baptismal Covenant, we pledge to educate and raise consciousness with compassion, and to dismantle racism in our Diocese and the world. We are the identified group to exercise this vision. We begin our task with the assumption that everyone is born good.

The Anti Racism Committee was formed in compliance with the 2000 General Convention Resolution #A047. It Committee meets four times a year. Our earlier meetings pertained to formulating our vision for our ministry in the Diocese, a plan of action and developing a list of groups within the Diocese to begin Anti Racism Training. At each of our meetings the committee participated in the different elements of training to be offered.

We have done three trainings since the last Diocesan convention; two with Deacons in training and the Diocesan and some members of the Cathedral staff. We are looking forward to setting dates with the Standing Committee and the Commission on Ministry before the year ends.

Our plans for 2008 will include two regional gatherings for training in which we will open the training to all who are interested. We will continue to pursue other committees, commissions, vestries, and youth, to be trained.

We still have space for members of the Committee. If you are interested please contact me: judyjudithconley@cox.net.

Respectfully submitted,

Judith Conley, Chair

Architectural Committee
The Episcopal Diocese of Arizona

This committee took no action over the last twelve months.

Respectfully submitted,
Kenneth S. Allison
As the newly appointed Archivist/Historiographer it is my pleasure to report that due to the exceptional help from the staff our basement archive area is now in much better condition for keeping records and files. This has given me the opportunity to re-organize and update many of the older files leaving more space for archiving.

It is quite an honor to be in this position and as a history buff I delight in researching and learning about this wonderful diocese. There is an incredible amount of Arizona history in our basement. It just shows how important the church has been in the development of so many communities in our state.

My most recent project has been organizing records and getting them ready for binding. This includes, but is not limited to, the minutes from 1991 – 2003 for the Diocesan Council and the Standing Committee and the confirmation records for the same time period. Since they are a permanent record the confirmation records should be as legible and accurate as possible. My goal is to have them ready by the first of the year.

We do not keep the baptismal records at the Diocese so it is very important that each congregation retains that information. If we are asked for that information the person is referred to the church where they were baptized.

Since this is a secondary portion of my duties, please be patient if you have requests for information and let me know as soon as possible if something is needed. I have to set aside time for research.

2007 was a year in which Chapel Rock moved confidently in the direction of our shared dream of a world class camp and conference center. With new leadership, the beginnings of a new strategic plan, and a renewed focus on the camp and conference center’s mission, it was a pivotal year in our development.

In May of 2007, Dave White joined the Chapel Rock staff as executive director. Dave brings nearly 30 years of camp, nature center, and outdoor education center experience. Dave plans to use his skills in administration, fund development, and organizational development to help strengthen Chapel Rock’s financial and organizational base to secure its future for years to come. He also hopes to use his experience in environmental education to add new program offerings for schools, youth groups, and parishes interested in learning more about our role in and responsibility for Creation.

In the fall, work began on the development of a new strategic plan that will guide Chapel Rock’s growth and development over the next few years. Camp and conference center staff, and representatives from various user groups and parishes around the Diocese met to lay the groundwork for new initiatives in fund development, program emphases, and facility improvements. It is an exciting time to be a part of Chapel Rock!

Throughout the year, there was a renewed emphasis on Chapel Rock’s core mission:

...to provide hospitality that offers opportunities for spiritual and life transformation through diverse programs where rest, renewal, and spiritual growth can take place.

Staffing changes were made to allow conference center staff to focus on meeting the needs of our guests, and to give each visiting group a staff host to respond to needs that arise during their stay. Facility and food service quality have been raised to even higher levels, thanks to the commitment of an excellent staff team.

And along the way, the great things that have made Chapel Rock a Diocesan institution for over 75 years continued. Over 500 campers took part in the summer camp program, including nearly 50 kids who attended on need-based scholarships. The ropes and challenge course program served thousands of students, youth, and adults. The conference center hosted numerous Episcopal family, choir, and vestry retreats, as well as groups as diverse as the Phoenix Boys Choir and the Huntington’s Disease Society of America.

If you haven’t been to Chapel Rock lately, we invite you and your parish groups to come spend time with us in the coming year. We look forward to helping you “move confidently in the direction of your dreams,” by providing a sacred space where spiritual growth and true fellowship can take place.
CHILDREN’S MINISTRIES DIOCESAN REPORT
October 19, 2007

It is hard to believe that a year and a half has gone by since my last report. I can truthfully say that this work is a real blessing to me and one that I enjoy more and more every day. The list and comments below are for permanent records. This doesn’t however reveal the excellent quality of care and teaching of children that is occurring in the majority of our parishes.

Positions Presently Serving:
- Canon for Children’s Ministries of the Diocese of Arizona.
- Chairperson for Diocesan Children’s Ministries Program Group
- Diocesan Christian Educators National Network – Group commissioned by the PEALL (Providing Education for All) at the General Convention 2003 to work together to design standards of operations and mission statement for national Christian Formation intentions and goals. The group will periodically evaluate and offer events to assist in follow through of the goals and mission statement.

Special Projects/Training/Consultations/Workshops
- St. Andrews – Nogales
- St. Andrews Children’s Clinic - Nogales
- St. Michael’s and All Angels - Tucson
- St. Luke’s – Prescott
- Trinity Cathedral – Phoenix
- Children’s Program for Hispanic Families
- Chapel Rock Summer Camp Children’s Morning Program

Charge for the next five years.
- To have established an active Children’s Program in every parish & mission.
- Personal Visitations to all of the smaller churches with the intention of doing on site training and organizing of children’s program.
- Provide area meetings to offer support and resource updates and networking opportunities to persons responsible for the children’s program in the individual parishes.
Activities and programs in 2007

- Developed, designed, trained, wrote and programmed the “Journey to the Holy Land” for all children’s summer sessions at Chapel Rock. This program was well received and executed with the full support of the Chapel Rock Staff. Plans and organization of next summer’s program begin on Monday, October 12, 2007 in Chapel Rock. The program for the summer of 2008 will be based on the Episcopal Leaders Resources program of “Wizards and Wonders”. This remarkable and spiritual program uses the very popular “Harry Potter” setting at Hogwarts School. The theme of the program however uses our baptismal covenant as the basis of our transformation from a life of doubt and insecurity to a life of purpose and dedication to Jesus Christ and his love.

- Sharing God’s Gifts a Diocesan wide DCE and Children’s Teacher Training and support Conference was held on Friday and Saturday, August 17 and 18 at St. Barnabas on the Desert in Scottsdale. There were 38 conference participants, 18 persons on staff and 4 children in attendance totaling 60 persons involved over the two day period. Eight Workshops were offered on Saturday incorporating all aspects of Sunday School Management and teacher and DCE training. All workshop leaders were professionals. The conference was well received. Reorganization and new formatting are in the planning stages for next year’s event.

- Ministry Fair - Workshops offered - Preparing Young Parents for their Infant’s Baptism, Effectively Involving Children In Sunday Morning Worship Services and Preparing Young Families for Spiritual Formation in the Home.
Children’s Ministries Diocesan Report

- Parish Visitations included St. Barnabas on the Desert, Scottsdale, Grace St. Paul’s Tucson, Church of the Good Shepherd, Cave Creek, St. Luke’s Prescott, Prince of Peace, Peoria, Church of the Nativity-Desert Ridge Plant, Scottsdale, St. Peter’s Litchfield Park, St. Stephen’s, Phoenix, St. Anthony on the Desert, Scottsdale, Christ the King, Tucson, All Saints, Phoenix, St. Philip’s, Tucson, St. Andrew’s, Nogales, Trinity Cathedral, Phoenix.

- A Spiritual Retreat for DCE’s, Teachers and Youth Ministers is to be held on January 11, 12, 13, 2008 beginning Friday after dinner and ending on Sunday after the morning Eucharist. The Rev. Dr. Charles W. Brockwell, Jr. author, Member of World Council of Churches, international speaker, teacher of church history at the University of Louisville and head of the Louisville Lutheran Seminary is the facilitator for this weekend Bible Study, meditation, quiet time and worship. Registration for this event will begin in mid-November.

Please keep the children of our diocese in your daily prayers, welcome them in your parish and remember that Christ continues to say to us, “Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.”

Please feel free to call me at Diocesan Office (602) 254-0976 Ext. 2224 or e-mail me at nancys@azdiocese.org with any questions, set up appointments for assistance in programming for children, on site teacher training, support of CE staff, consultations or evaluation of programs, curriculum overviews or to schedule a parish visit.

Canon for Children’s Ministries
Episcopal Diocese of Arizona
Report of the Commission on Ministry
To the 2007 Diocesan Convention of the Episcopal Diocese of Arizona

The Commission on Ministry (COM) is composed of Priests, Deacons, and Lay Persons appointed by Bishop Kirk Smith. As defined by church law (Title III, Canons 2-3), the work of the COM is to assist and advise the Bishop and the discernment community with particular regard to:

- To recognize and facilitate ‘present and future opportunities and needs for the ministry of all baptized persons…”
- To design and oversee “the ongoing process for recruitment, discernment, formation for ministry, and assessment of readiness” for ministry.
- To assist those “engaged in a process of ministry discernment to determine appropriate avenues for the expression and support of their ministries, either lay or ordained. “

The COM was privileged to work with seventeen women and men who are exploring a possible call to ordination. Nine Nominees to the Vocational Diaconate and eight Nominees to the Priesthood made application for Postulancy and were interviewed by the Commission. As in previous years, the COM was blessed to support and encourage the formation of many gifted Christians called by God and the Church to seek ordination.

- Bishop Smith ordained two priests in December 2006. The Rev. Ann R. Johnson, sponsored by Epiphany, Flagstaff is now Priest-in-charge at St. John’s, Williams. Sponsored by Grace St. Paul’s, Tucson, the Rev James Strader serves as Chaplain for Episcopal Campus Ministries at the University of Arizona.
- In June, 2007 Bishop Smith ordained Philip A. Shaw to the Transitional Diaconate. Now serving Trinity Church, Kingman, Deacon Phil was sponsored by St. John’s, Williams.
- Six women and men were named Postulants to the Vocational Diaconate in January, 2007. All six were made Candidates for Ordination in June, 2007. The Deacon Candidates are: Susan Cihak of St. Anthony’s, Scottsdale, Grant Gilfeather of St. Anthony’s, Scottsdale, Michael Halle of St. Alban’s, Tucson, Myra Kingsley of Trinity Cathedral, Charles Milhoan of St. John the Baptist, Glendale, and James Yang-Hellewell of St. John the Baptist, Glendale.
- Three Aspirants were made Postulants to the Priesthood in January, 2007: Debra Asis of St. Barnabas, Scottsdale will attend Church Divinity School of the Pacific. Dr. Kate Baird of Grace-St. Paul’s, Tucson, has also enrolled at CDSP. Deborah Noonan of Grace-St. Paul’s will travel to Berkeley Divinity School at Yale University for seminary.
- Also in January, 2007 three Priest Postulants were named Candidates for Ordination: Licia B. Affer of St. Anthony’s, Scottsdale is beginning her final year at General Theological Seminary. Philip Shaw, who studied at Episcopal Theological Seminary of the Southwest, was ordained in June, 2007. Susan E. Wilmot of St. Matthew’s, Chandler is also at ETSS, in her third year.
- Other Priest Postulants continuing in Formation are Peter Fabre of St. Andrew’s, Glendale who is studying locally and Julie O’Brien of St. John the Baptist, Glendale, a ‘middler’ at ETSS

The Rev. Mary Piotrowski coordinated the COM’s participation in the Diocesan Lay Ministry Fair. COM Members taught workshops on all categories of Licensed Ministries. Mary+ taught classes for Lay Eucharistic Ministers and Lay Eucharistic Visitors. Catechists were instructed by Dr. Jeanette Renouf. The Rev. Daniel Richards lead a workshop for Evangelists. The Very Rev. Nicholas Knisely+ addressed Lay Preachers. The Rev. Elizabeth Simmons offered a presentation for Worship Leaders.

For the first time in 2007, the COM’s Guidelines for Licensed Lay Ministry was made available online through the Diocesan Website. The COM continually solicits feedback from the community to identify opportunities to clarify our Application Process. Updated information is communicated in the August 2007 Revised Editions of A Guide for Discernment: the Ordination to the Vocational Diaconate and a Guide for Discernment: The Ordination to the Priesthood. Both guides are available online via the Diocesan Website along with all Application Forms.

The Day of Information was held on September 30, 2006. This is an annual event which Bishop Smith and the COM sponsor for those exploring a call to Holy Orders. Members of the ‘larger community of discernment’ were invited to accompany the Aspirants to the Day of Information. Special workshops were offered for (1) aspirants to the Diaconate and the Priesthood, (2) Spouses and Partners of Aspirants, (3) Sponsoring Clergy, (4) Sponsoring Vestry Members, and (5) Lay Members of Parish Discernment Support Groups. Many members of the COM participated in planning the Day of Information. “We’re one of the only dioceses I know that has such a comprehensive day devoted to this process,” said Bishop Smith. “The Commission on Ministry has worked hard to provide information so that people can be well-informed when they begin the process.”

Personal relationships between the COM and those whom we serve continue to be fostered by assigning each nominee a ‘COM Shepherd’ or ‘Mentor Deacon’. Canon Carmen Guerrero and Rev. Jorge Sotelo lead the COM’s ongoing efforts to provide appropriate discernment support to aspirants from diverse cultural backgrounds.

The Local Board of Examining Chaplains consists of Rev. Ron Poston and Rev. Bill Rhodes along with COM Chairperson Richard Morrison+. A General Ordination Examination for Candidate Philip Shaw was prepared by the Rev. Dr. Thomas Lindell with the assistance of other members of the COM. The results were evaluated by the Local Board of Examining Chaplains.

Dr. Ke Chiang (John) Hsieh, Rev. Dr. Thomas Lindell, Rev. Daniel Richards, and Rev. Dr. Gill Stafford connect the COM to campus ministries, and other young adults exploring church-related vocations. Through their engagement, the COM is aware of the questions and concerns of adults under age 30 who are engaged in various stages of discernment.

The Canons encourage Continuing Education for the COM. To this end, COM members read and discussed Multiple Paths to Ministry: New Models for Theological Education by Barker, Martin, et. al.

We are joyfully aware of the movement of the Holy Spirit and in the coming year we recommit ourselves to help develop and nurture Christ’s ministry in our midst. May God be praised!

Faithfully Submitted,

DIOCESAN ALTAR GUILD

The Diocesan Directress' primary responsibilities are to administer the Bishop's Loan Closet and coordinate the Altar Guild's Annual Meeting.

This year the Bishop's Closet was moved from All Saints Church, Phoenix, to what I hope will be its permanent location at Diocesan House. The move necessitated a thorough inventory and redistribution of the Closet's contents. The procedures for donations and disbursements of items were revised and made available to all parishes, and a perpetual inventory of the contents is being maintained and distributed at regular intervals. I thank Bishop Smith and Diocesan house staff for allocating the space and for their continuing cooperation. Thanks are also due the clergy and staff at All Saints for having housed the Closet for so many years.

The 2007 Annual Meeting was beautifully hosted by the Guild of St. Francis-in-the-Valley, Green Valley. Bishop Smith was celebrant and preacher at the Holy Eucharist, and programs were presented by artist Andy Rush and musician Carl Perry. The 2008 meeting will be held on February 23 at All Saints of the Desert, Sun City.

In March the Diocesan Altar Guild participated in the Diocesan Ministry Fair. I presented a workshop and Deborah Beresford, Trinity Cathedral, another.

The Diocesan Altar Guild also provides stoles for Deacons' ordinations. Dolly Forbes, Trinity Cathedral's Directress, assumes responsibility for this function, and I thank her for her willingness to do so.

I continue to serve as an adjunct member of the Diocesan ECW Board and appreciate the ECW's support of my work and that of the Diocese's altar guilds.

It is a privilege to work with Bishop Smith, the clergy and members of the various parish altar guilds.

Respectfully submitted,

Constance B. Castillo, Diocesan Directress
EAST CENTRAL MISSION GROUP

The primary responsibility of the East Central Mission Group at present is to support church planting within the East Valley. During the past year, the Church of the Nativity has been planted in the Desert Ridge area.

Church of the Nativity launched regular Sunday services in January 2007, and is now averaging about 105 in Sunday worship each week. The congregation offers a full range of programs, including Sunday school for nursery, young children, older children, youth and adults. We also have several adult Bible study small groups actively meeting. Our adult choir includes about 15 people, and we are also starting a children’s choir program this fall. We engage in outreach programs including financial and volunteer work with Habitat for Humanity (the Episcopal Coalition), the Vista del Camino social services agency, the Phoenix Rescue Mission, Homeward Bound transitional living facility, and many others. We are hoping to have a combined youth-adult mission trip to the Gulf Coast this winter.

We reach out to potential new members who do not have a church through advertising, prominent signage, and other public relations activities. We hold special events open to the public, such as a special movie screening, Blessing of the Animals, Spiritual Wellness seminar, Freedom Celebration and others. We also have plans for a number of activities to invite new members when we move into our new worship space this fall, such as inquirers’ groups, coffeehouse, Celtic services, and more.

Church of the Nativity is presently meeting in Grayhawk Elementary School, Scottsdale. However, late this fall we will be moving into a new office building located in northeast Phoenix, just southwest of Scottsdale Road and the 101 Freeway. The office space is owned by one of our members, who will let us use 5,000 square feet to set up a sanctuary, four classrooms, offices and a reception/hospitality area. We believe that moving into a full-time location will greatly enhance our ability to reach out to others in Jesus’ name.

Faithfully submitted,

The Rev. Susan B. Snook
ECS met several times during the past year. We accomplished several of the goals that were set by the Board during the previous year. The following are the goals that were met.

Revision of Bylaws
After three years of inactivity and the recent changes in diocesan organization, ECS’ Bylaws were in need of revision. Approved by the Board in January, Bylaws now provide for 12 Trustees to be elected by the Board for staggered three year terms.

Establishment of a mission statement
The mission of ECS is
- to serve the less fortunate of all faiths and bring light to their struggles
- to empower local parishes and agencies to touch the lives of people through meaningful outreach ministry
- to provide assistance in the form of advocacy, education, and financial awards
- to connect these communities with compassion and resources, while actively striving for justice in society

Advent Fundraising Mailing and Grants Awarded
The first Advent fundraising mailing in several years was sent to 11,000 Episcopal households in the Diocese and resulted in donations of over $12,000.00. This facilitated the awarding of the following Grants:

1. St. Paul’s Episcopal Church
   Tombstone High School Media Education Program
   Tombstone, Arizona
   $2,500.00
2. Imago Dei Middle School
   Tucson, Arizona
   $2,500.00
3. Empowerment Through Education Program for Sudanese Students
   Phoenix, Arizona
   $4,000.00
4. St. Raphael in the Valley Episcopal Church – Food Bank
   Benson, Arizona
   $1,200.00
5. Food for Life at St. Andrew’s
   Tucson, Arizona
   $2,500.00
6. St. Paul’s Episcopal Church – Youth Substance Recovery Center
   Winslow, Arizona
   $4,000.00

Congregational Outreach Ministries Survey
We conducted a written survey to inquire about the various outreach ministries that are currently occurring in the Diocese and had a response of about 30%. We are still in the process of attempting to complete this project. The goal is to be able to produce a booklet with this information as well as other social outreach information for all the congregations.

Executive Director: The Rev. Canon Carmen B. Guerrero
REPORT OF THE ECUMENICAL OFFICER

The ecumenical efforts of our diocese are centered on two things: local relationships and work among clergy and people of varied denominations, and the work and efforts of the Arizona Ecumenical Council led by The Rev. Jan Flaaten. Bishop Smith is the current convening chair, and the committees of the agency work toward immigration justice, environmental issues, inter-denominational understanding, and a common voice on the pressing issues of the day.

At the local level interest is gathering around the ecumenical efforts between United Methodists and Episcopalians. Initial and ongoing work is being done in Sun City at All Saints of the Desert parish, and by The Revs. Sam and Carol Hosler in Kearney, Arizona, where they are working to establish a worship center that is respectful and receptive to various mainline traditions including Methodists and Episcopalians.

Looking toward the future, in 2009 the City of Phoenix will be the site of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity and the National Workshop on Christian Unity which is held annually at host cities around the country. Bishop Smith has asked that I be a member of the planning team for this significant event which will occur on April 27-30 at the Sheraton Hotel.

If you have local ecumenical activities you would like publicized or that have worked well, please contact me. If you have never hosted or been a part of an ecumenical initiative, next year is a good opportunity as it is the 100th anniversary of the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, held in the octave between the Feasts of St. Peter and St. Paul and begun by the Graymoor Friars in 1908.

Respectfully,

The Rev. Ron Poston

Elder Ministry Program Group

We are, perhaps, the smallest of all program groups. Ironic, in a way, since a large percentage of our parishioners fall into this age bracket. Ministry by and for the elderly has a special relevance for all of us.

So where are we headed? We are in the process of constructing a PB Wiki site – a web site that requires no knowledge of HTML or special web site software. Where all of us can contribute our thoughts, ideas, and projects. (PB, by the way, stands for Peanut Butter. See http://pbwiki.com/).

As part of the PB Wiki site we plan to teach elders how to construct a family PB Wiki. For their families to share vacation ideas, photos, recipes, movie recommendations, and so on. A related feature is to show how elders can videoconference with their families, with only a $50 investment in computer hardware. We have done this ourselves, and we have first hand experience of the glitches that arise. But it works!

We plan to share things that are fun, like “life writing,” social events, and entertainment. And things that we need to think about, like long term care insurance and estate planning. We want to share “best practices” of elder ministry by surveying the diocese.

We have many other ideas, too. And we would love for you to join us. We will be getting together for a face-to-face meeting soon, which we plan to do annually. But our meetings are generally held via conference call. Our part to reduce expenses and spare the environment.

If you are interested in joining our group, or have some ideas to contribute, please contact Fr. Bill Krieger at wmfkrieger@cox.net, or call at (623) 974-8404.

Thanks.
St. Luke’s Home

Caring for Tucson’s Low-Income Elderly Citizens

Promoting Independence – Preserving Dignity

The mission of St. Luke’s Home is to provide for the care and well-being of elderly men, women and couples of limited financial means in a caring environment respectful of the resident's rights and the regulatory guidelines.

At St. Luke’s Home, residents live with dignity and independence in a modern, home-like setting. Ours is a non-denominational assisted living facility licensed at the supervisory care level that provides a caring home for Tucson’s older citizens who might otherwise be homeless.

Our residents worked hard all their lives, only to find they are unable to support themselves in their later years. Many of our residents’ incomes are at poverty level or below. The difference in the modest amount they can pay for room and board and the actual operating expenses is made up through private donations, corporate support, foundations and fundraising events.

In 2006, the St. Luke’s Board of Visitors, the auxiliary of St. Luke’s in the Desert, Inc., presented the 87th annual Baile de las Flores, the oldest event in Tucson. The 11th annual Sensational Settings event was another great success, with over 600 attendees and 40 exquisite table displays. Deeds and Deals, a special discount card program, celebrated its 2nd year as a new, unique strategy to raise additional resources. All these committees, comprised of volunteers with a long-history of dedication and those new to St. Luke’s Home, contributed hundreds of volunteer hours and resources.

Due to the efforts of the Board of Trustees, we regained our exempt property tax status and have begun to pay down the mortgage on our building. The volunteer center at St. Luke’s Home initiated new programs, activities, and classes, which offered considerable life enrichment for our residents. It is because of the generosity of time, effort and money by our volunteers and the community that our residents are able to experience a dignified, independent life at St. Luke’s.

For example, Alice our oldest resident, not only celebrated her 104th birthday in February, but also celebrated her 18th year at St Luke’s. Because of the commitment of our team at St. Luke's Home, she is able to remain active. Our loving, caring staff and volunteers help residents like Alice enjoy an independence they might not otherwise experience.

The Hispanic Ministry Program Group consists of a dedicated core of clergy and laypersons that serve to foster and encourage the development and growth of Hispanic Ministry in the Episcopal Diocese of Arizona. Our current focus is on supporting and assisting currently existing Hispanic ministry programs, encouraging one another in the development of new Hispanic congregations and Hispanic groups within congregations, providing liturgical resources to strengthen existing programs and build new ones, and learning from one another’s experiences in our common purpose. We share what works and what doesn’t in the various models for establishing Hispanic/Latino ministry programs, and seek to better understand the challenges faced by predominantly Anglo congregations that seek to serve the Hispanic community. We can be thought of as the “tactical” arm of the Hispanic Ministry Strategic Planning group that was formed early this year to plan growth over the next five to ten years.

Our long-term objectives include:

- Establishing continuing education programs for clergy carrying out Hispanic ministry
- Developing a Lay Leadership Institute for those involved in Hispanic Ministry
- Providing resource locations for Spanish Language Courses
- Connecting with the National Hispanic Ministry Office to identify and secure resources for ministry and for partnerships for congregational development in Arizona
- Organizing the Hispanic community for outreach and social justice within their communities

Highlights of the past year include:

- Development of a stable core of parishioners in established Hispanic congregations, such as those at San Pablo, Phoenix; St. Andrew’s, Glendale; Epiphany, Tempe; St. Andrew’s, Tucson; and St. Luke’s at the Mountain, Phoenix as programs and intra-congregation dynamics have matured. While growth has been experienced in some congregations, attendance has declined in others as changes in community demographics reflect anticipation of the impact of upcoming employer sanctions against the hiring of undocumented workers.
- Participation by a number of program group members in the Border Issues Program group activities, one of the ways in which we interact with other program groups to address issues of common interest.
- A retreat for Hispanic families at Chapel Rock in September, with workshops and activities to support spiritual formation for all age groups.

If you are interested in exploring the possibilities for Hispanic ministry in your own congregation, we invite you to become part of our program group. Fluency in Spanish is not essential – some of our members do not speak any Spanish, but have an abiding desire to reach out to one of the largest segments of our community – one which continued to be under-represented in the Episcopal Church.

Respectfully submitted,

Peter Fabre, Convener
I am so thankful to God and our bishop for leading me here to St. Andrew's, Tucson. First of all some of you many not know that I am half time with the English speaking congregation. Many things have to be seen to with this congregation as pertains to church records, office administration, stewardship, and general maintenance of property, Christian education and leadership training.

I am blessed with a good working vestry that is making decisions and taking responsibility. I have a good working relationship with clergy and lay volunteers and things are going well.

I was originally called here to work in Hispanic ministry and this is still my passion and dream. We have all that is needed to do Hispanic ministry. We have altar books, gospel book, prayer books and hymn books, all in Spanish. I have been blessed with two professional Latino guitarists both graduates of the music program at the university. I have two faithful disciples that have helped me from the beginning. We fluctuate in attendance from 7 to 25 on a given Sunday. In all I love the work and know it can take root here in Tucson. Of late we have been attracting a middle class bilingual crowd and our services have been bilingual English and Spanish.

There are many challenges to the Hispanic work in Tucson. First, St. Andrew's is within blocks of the Catholic cathedral which offers an 8:30 a.m. Spanish, mariachi mass to which about 1,000 people come. Second, most Latinos live south of 22 street, we are at 16th street. Third, I need to do a lot of education to the Hispanic community about what the Episcopal Church is and is not. I am working on these challenges and know that with God's help and a little patience this can be done. I have not lost my passion and desire to do this work and as long as the good people of the diocese and our bishop are willing to stand with me, I will continue the work here.

The Rev. Jorge Sotelo+
The mission of Jubilee Ministries is to make a direct and dynamic link between our theology and our ethics by calling the church to live out its prophetic of empowering local people to “do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with their god” (Micah 6:8) and by responding to the Gospel’s call to “feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty, welcome the stranger, clothe the naked, care for the sick and visit the imprisoned” (Matthew 25:35).

Jubilee ministries are involved in ministries among and with the poor and oppressed people wherever they are located and must include one or more of the following: a human rights advocacy component; a human service (outreach) component; a lay leadership/empowerment component; an evangelism in action evangelism. Parishes with ministries focused on the mission of Jubilee Ministries are encouraged to see Jubilee Ministry designation.

Food for Life at St. Andrew’s, Tucson, is the newest Jubilee ministry in the Diocese. Three meals a day are cooked in the St. Andrew’s kitchen through volunteer efforts and are delivered to persons with HIV/AIDS who are no longer mobile.

Leaders and representatives from Food for Life at St. Andrew’s; Bridging Arizona Furniture Bank, and Empowerment Through Education Program for Sudanese (ETEPS) attended Jubilee training.

Evelyn Smith, All Saints’, Phoenix, was named the new Jubilee Officer of the diocese. She has received training and continues to have the guidance of Canon Carmen Guerrero, Canon for Peace and Justice Ministries.

Other Jubilee ministries in Arizona are Holbrook, St. George’s: Bread of Life; Safford, All Saints: All Saints Jubilee Center; Scottsdale, St. Anthony on the Desert: Center for Health and Reconciliation; Diocese: Empowerment Through Education for Sudanese; Tucson, St. Andrews: Food for Life; Cave Creek, Good Shepherd of the Hills: Good Shepherd of the Hills Episcopal Church; Naco, Diocese and four parishes: Naco Wellness Center; Tucson, St. Phillip’s in the Hills: Primavera Foundation, Inc.; Sedona, St. Andrew: St. Andrew Episcopal Church; Nogales, St. Andrew’s: St. Andrew’s Episcopal Church; Winslow, St. Paul’s: St. Paul’s Jubilee Center; and Phoenix, Trinity Cathedral: Trinity Community Health Services

The Nature & Spirituality Program (NAS) has as its mission “spiritual wholeness through Nature.”

We aim to raise awareness of the harmony that exists between God, Nature, and all people, and how we can embrace and respect that harmony in our parishes and personal lives.

NAS milestones in 2007:
- Developed contacts with over 50% of the parishes in the Diocese.
- Sponsored two programs at the Ministry Fair, attended by 54 lay leaders.
- Introduced “The Celtic Connection” program, received interest from over 12 parishes for fall programs.
- Elected a chair and held three NAS leadership meetings (including a leadership retreat).
- Organized a database of contacts for information and communication purposes.
- Added four new individuals to our leadership team.
- Developed a play entitled “The Plastic Touch” about environmental values for youth groups.
- Participated in conference calls and reorganization of the Episcopal Ecological Network.

We plan to send several representatives to this exciting new interfaith initiative:

Healing Our Planet Earth:
Singing a New Song of Hope
April 10-12, 2008, Seattle, Washington

Presenters:
Presiding Bishop Katharine Jefferts Schori, Keynote Presenter
Bonnie Anderson, Chair of the House of Deputies
The Rt. Rev. Steven Charlston, Dean Episcopal Divinity School
And others to be announced

Seeking the Next Level of Religious Environmental Engagement, a national conference on faith and the environment will be hosted by the Diocese of Olympia, Seattle and The Episcopal Divinity School, Cambridge.

Contact Teresa Hare at Tracytess@cox.net to be added to our email list for NAS updates.

NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRY PROGRAM GROUP

including Window on the First Peoples

More than 20 people from around Arizona are part of the Native American Ministry Program Group, and the number of Native Americans on the group is increasing. The mission of the group is to create and encourage avenues of reconciliation and ministry with the First Peoples of Arizona. Close connections are being forged with the United Methodist Church, the Presbyterian Church, and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America.

The Rev. Phil Allen, now Ministry Developer for the Diocese of South Dakota, worked hard to help us receive a partial grant of $3,500 from the Native American desk of the Episcopal Church to establish a ministry to Alaskan Natives in the federal prison in Florence. We have one year to establish this ministry.

All Saints’ Church, Safford, was awarded a $500 Congregational Incentive Grant from the program group to continue expanding its Thanksgiving and Christmas food drives on the San Carlos Apache Reservation at Bylas. All Saints’ is developing a domestic violence ministry which is a 6-month program serving about 90 people. The Native American Ministry Group hopes that other congregations in Arizona will take advantage of these incentive grants in 2008.

Thirteen Native American children were given camperships enabling them to take part in the summer program at Chapel Rock in Prescott. Four of the children were from Fort Defiance.

Two persons from Navajoland received scholarships from the group to take part in the new summer term program at Cook School for Christian Leadership in Tempe and two persons from the Navajo Reservation were assisted in attending the Jamestown Conference. Several more persons will be given scholarships for winter term at Cook School.

The twelfth annual Window on the First Peoples tour (51 people this year) visited the Hopi Mesas and the Navajo Reservation this past September. It was booked months before the tour. Participants came from as far away as Georgia. Another tour with a different focus will take place in September of 2008.

A survey in Arizona’s congregations last year revealed minuscule efforts to include Native Americans in the Episcopal Church with the significant exception of the Episcopal Church in Navajoland. There are congregations (viz. St. Stephen’s Church in Phoenix) which have made strides, and we know that Native Americans are strong in the urban centers in Arizona, yet significant outreach has yet to occur. We hope to encourage a change in this.

Respectfully submitted,

Chloe Goings, Convener

The Program Group is in the process of establishing a network of parish members who are already in recovery.

Networking has begun in the Tucson Area and will proceed diocesan wide thru the Internet with a Diocesan Program Group Website.

In past years several persons in recovery who are active in the diocese have been identified by their attendance at the diocesan convention. Hopefully this will continue this year.
The Renewal Ministries group has had a year full of challenges. The most important challenge has been becoming a true group. At the time I am writing this, I still have only myself in the ministry program.

At last the 2006 Diocesan Convention the program group was announced and my contact information was passed around but no contacts came of it. I have also received great support and contact referrals from diocesan staff members, unfortunately, these contacts have not produced interest in the ministry.

I am currently working on an advertisement campaign with Mark Towsley. Mark has put the advertisement on the diocesan web site and I will be working with him to get it in other diocesan wide publications. I am especially interested in getting this campaign running strong as the 2007 convention approaches. My hope is that some interest will be generated with individuals I can make personal contact with during convention.

Another major challenge over the past year has been getting from Sierra Vista to Phoenix for budget meetings. Thanks to the help of Cathy Black, the 2008 budget will include $400.00 to publish a resource guide for the parishes of the diocese. Research for this guide is going along well. I will publish some kind of guide even if I must do the work myself.

If individuals do come forward and join the ministry I expect we can quickly begin offering events such as Spiritual/Faith Enrichment Days and Contemplative Prayer Days. If group membership does not improve, I will host events at St. Stephen’s, Sierra Vista, and promote them around the diocese.

Please keep this ministry in your prayers.
REPORT OF THE CHAPLAINS TO RETIREES

At the present time there are approximately two hundred retired clergy, spouses, and surviving spouses in the Diocese of Arizona. Most of these retirees are canonically resident in this diocese, while there are many others who have moved here from other jurisdictions, or spend time here during the winter months as “snowbirds”.

These are the people that Deacon Joe King and I are privileged to serve. Deacon King resides in Tucson and serves as Chaplain to Retirees in the southern region of the diocese, while I live in Phoenix and serve the northern sector.

In addition to being available to retirees to listen to them during difficult times in their lives, answering questions regarding retirement issues, and helping to refer them to the proper source for information, we also schedule gatherings where they can meet with Bishop Smith, reconnect with old friends in ministry as well as make new ones. During the past year we also held two “Coffees with the Bishop”, and two luncheon meetings in Tucson and Phoenix.

The Church Pension Group that takes such good care of us in retirement held a gathering in Chicago this past May for all Chaplains to Retirees from across the country. Deacon King and I were in attendance and found the various workshops to be most helpful in providing us with in-depth information regarding the Pension Group and all of the services it provides to retirees.

I want to thank Bishop Smith for his continued support of this ministry. Also, I want to express my gratitude to the ‘active’ parish clergy for the support they give to our retirees in the Diocese of Arizona.

Faithfully submitted,

Richard M. George,
Chaplain to Retirees
TREASURER’S REPORT
TO
THE 47TH Convention
Of
The Episcopal Diocese of Arizona

It has now been two years since I took over the reins from Matt Chew. It never ceases to amaze me as to the number and variety of issues that confront the Diocese on a daily basis. Without our dedicated staff, the task could become overwhelming. I also realize that each and every one of you confronts the same or similar issues in the everyday management of your individual congregations, sometimes without the resources to help you get through. As always, remember the Diocesan office is here to help you deal with the issues that you must confront. More importantly, never forget that you can contact me directly for whatever assistance you might require.

The year of 2006 saw the Diocese continue to struggle with assessments, as have a number of our congregations. All of the congregations are to be commended for their efforts to keep the assessments current. Despite these efforts, our pledge receivables have grown by $42,000 from 2005. The Diocese continues to work with those congregations experiencing difficulties and looks forward to their continued cooperation and best efforts to resolve their problems. An encouraging sign is that we have been able to reduce our allowance for unpaid pledges from $125,000 to $62,000.

An independent audit of our financial position as of December 31, 2006, and the related statement of activities, changes in net assets, cash flows and functional expenses for the year then ended has been completed. A copy, including the auditor’s report and opinion will be included in the Journal for the convention.

We continue to be blessed by a dedicated and very professional group of volunteers who serve tirelessly on the finance committee and the investment committee. The finance committee acts as an advisory arm of the Diocesan Council. The investment committee, an ad-hoc committee of the finance committee, monitors the results of the investment firm that manages Diocesan funds. They are currently working on a plan to allow individual congregations to pool their resources with the Diocese to obtain the benefits of a large investment firm. My thanks to all of them.

We continue to pursue the lofty goals that have been set by Bishop Kirk. We ask that you remain faithful to the goals set by Bishop Smith at our last convention and as good stewards use the “tools” that we have been provided.

My sincere thanks to Cathy, Vicki, Theresa, Sharon and Kris who never fail to deliver the support and dedication that makes the Diocese a benefit and a blessing to all of us. Hold them up in your prayers.

Faithfully,

Jack A. Colaric, Treasurer
The West Central Mission Group was active in several very significant ways this past year in the life of Prince of Peace Episcopal Mission:

1. February 11, 2007 Celebration of the New Ministry of Prince of peace in the community.
   a. Representatives from several Mission Group parishes were in attendance.
   b. Symbols of ministry were presented from the Mission Group: Chalice and Paten, altar linens.

2. Ongoing Support
   a. Use of office space at Church of the Advent, Sun City West
   b. Use of AV equipment and office machines in various parishes

3. Continued prayer, referrals, and visits from members of the Mission Group parishes.

Marnie Layne completed a year and a half as the convener of the Mission Group. She has stepped down from that position after leading the group in a strong start to supporting the work of Prince of Peace.

Respectfully submitted,

The Rev. John F. Maher, Jr.
Vicar, Prince of Peace Episcopal Mission
WORLD MISSION/COMPANION DIOCESE
MISSION GROUP REPORT

WORLD MISSION:

We have focused our efforts on becoming a part of the ministry to rescue African orphans whose parents have died of the AIDS pandemic. We have established a partnership with one of the most successful efforts in this ministry, the Watoto Children’s Ministry in Kampala, Uganda. This remarkable ministry has been successfully rescuing, raising, and educating thousands of these children since 1992. The goal of this ministry is: Rescue a Child, Raise a Leader, Rebuild a Nation.

The World Mission Ministry has been exploring ways to carry this very successful ministry to other countries in Africa. This last year the Rev. Frank Clark, Rector of All Saints, Sun City, together with two parishioners from Good Shepherd, Cave Creek, attended a conference in Kampala of over 500 church leaders from across Africa and over 500 church leaders from the U.S., U.K., Canada and Australia to further this effort. Congregations within our diocese are encouraged to learn more about this ministry by contacting either Fr. Clark, or Fr. Glenn Jenks, Rector of Good Shepherd, Cave Creek.

COMPANION DIOCESE

At the 2006 Diocesan Convention a resolution was passed establishing a Companion Diocese relation with the Diocese of Dar es Salaam, Tanzania. Since that time the relationship has been suspended due to an order from the Archbishop of Tanzania prohibiting any diocese in Tanzania from having any relationship with any part of the Episcopal Church, USA due to disagreements over the actions of the Episcopal Church as regards gay clergy, and same sex relationships. Nevertheless, individuals from our diocese have gone to Dar es Salaam and assisted in their medical and other programs.

We have also begun to explore a Companion Diocese relation with our neighboring diocese to the south, the Diocese of Western Mexico. This diocese seems to be a natural for such a relationship given our geographic and historical links.
