Bishop Smith introduced The Rev. Richard Aguilar to speak on Cathy Wagner’s behalf on the Arizona Episcopal Schools Foundation. There are five Episcopal Schools in Arizona. He invited the delegates to visit the Imago Dei Booth in the exhibit hall to hear about the power of attending an Episcopal School. They make a difference. It is a source of outreach, evangelism and serves children and families of all races and backgrounds. One of the benefits of living in Arizona is that a married couple can designate up to $2,000 a year to schools and a single person can designate $1,000 which is tax deductible.

Bishop Smith called for Jack Colaric, the Diocesan Treasurer, to present the Proposed 2016 Financial Statement of Mission. Jack referred the delegates the printed copy of the proposed 2016 financial Statement of Mission on page 31 of the AZEpiscopalian magazine. He noted that the total income and expenditures for the year are expected to be $2,803,000.00. Jack Colaric pointed out the following changes from 2015-2016: Campus Ministry down $20K, Gila Bend reduced, Strategic Mission $200K funded by Alleluia Fund. We will be trying to increase the Mission Share Rebate from 1% to 1.25%. Our General Church Program will go from 10% to 11.5%. Bishop Smith asked if there were any questions.
With no questions being raised, it was moved and second that the 2016 Financial Statement of Mission be accepted.  Bishop Smith called for the vote.  Approved unanimously.

Bishop Smith called upon Kelly Wood to give the Chapel Rock and Baseball Project report.  Kelly reported that Chapel Rock is a year round business.  This year the camp served 410 campers at summer camp.  $51K were covered by camperships (scholarships).  Kelly introduced a few of the participants from summer camp who spoke to their experiences and what camp means to them.  Kelly reported on the one disappointment at Chapel Rock is the baseball field.  We had received an initial gift of $100K for phase one to build a playing field and gazebo which have been done.  A large group of donors for phase 2 backed out and the neighbors of Chapel Rock were complaining about the baseball field.  Some of their complaints were “Not in my back yard...”.  Unfortunately, we will have to pull the plug on the baseball field project.  Bishop Smith is going up to Prescott in a couple of weeks to work on repairing the relationship between the camp and the neighbors.

Bishop Smith introduced Janet Kaiser of the Episcopal Federal Credit Union who did a drawing and the winner of a $25 Red Lobster Gift Card was Janet Beason, St. Andrew’s Glendale.

Leanne invited everyone to attend Christians in Concert at San Pablo which will help raise funds for the Program on Disabilities Program Group.

Bishop Smith introduced Donna Buckles to speak about Refugee Focus – Syrian Families Relocation.  Donna’s role is to connect churches with refugee families.  It is important to understand who qualifies as a refugee.  Someone who has a well-founded fear for their lives in their country and are running to save their live.  They are to be protected.  A certain number of refugees can come into the country.  The program helps provide financial resources for their support.  It will be about $70K in 2015 and expected to be about $85K in 2016 to accommodate the Syrian refugees. They need the funds and staff to be in place overseas to process them. Before admission to the US they have to go through an extensive screening process. It can take 3-4 years before they are able to come to the US. They will have refugee status for 1 year then they move into adjustment status and then become a permanent resident before they can become eligible to be a US citizen. When churches sponsor families they can acclimate to the culture much faster. Churches help supply them with furniture 1 week’s food supplies. Church volunteers help them with transportation, to get bank accounts, language and with their homework. Their website is: www.refugeefocus.org.

Each delegate to Convention was given 2 tickets to place in the drawing in the Exhibit hall. The drawing was held and a gift basket was won by Maria Reyes, a painting was won by ticket holder 792851, Candles were won by Leanne Bryan and the Golf Tournament by Erin Oney.

Bishop Smith called for the presentation of Canon changes and introduced Canon Clarke Greger, Chancellor and member of the Canons Committee.

Canon Changes:  Found on page 19 of the AZEpiscopalian magazine.
This is a constitutional amendment and must be approved at two conventions. This resolution is to do away with the Diocesan Council and transfer the authority of the Council to the Standing Committee. Article 7 would become Article 6. Recommended changes to Section 1 is to clean up some wording. In Section 6 change the language from Council to Standing Committee. In Section 6 change the language to include the language of Council to Standing Committee. By combining Article 6 and 7 would cause a trickle-down effect on proceeding articles so they would all need to be renumbered. Article 8 would become Article 7 and 9 would become 8. It was moved and seconded to approve the requested changes of Article 6-7 to combine the Diocesan Council and the Standing Committee and to renumber the subsequent Articles. It was then suggested that only the combination of Article 6 and 7 should be approved and the subsequent Article numbering be done on a separate vote. Motion was withdrawn. It was then moved and second to accept the requested changes of Article 6-7 to combine the Diocesan Council and Standing Committee. It was noted that a question came up before the Standing Committee regarding transfer of property in case of the loss of a Bishop and who would take over. It was suggested that we make the change and then work on structuring a consolidated committee in the future. The Rev. John Kitagawa recommended we pass it this year and give people time to talk about it between conventions. The Rev. Timothy Dombek noted that the Diocese of South Carolina did his and it worked very well. Judith Conley noted the concern that there is not enough knowledge about what the combined committee is going to look like. The General Convention did it 3 years ago and is still failed. Clarke Greger noted that Canon 5 has 6-7 pages which explains what the Council does. The question was raised asking how a combined committee of 20 would work. Wouldn’t this become unwieldy? Clarke Greger explained that the number of members would be worked out in the Canon. Question was raised that shouldn’t the Canon changes have to take form at the time of the Constitutional change. Bishop Smith went to the floor to reassure the delegates that the Canons Committee are doing this. Every year we have a terrible time to get people to run for these committees. Bishop Smith noted that we have a year to figure out all the details and you have next year to visit the canons. Bishop Smith called for the question by orders: Clerical – approved, Lay – approved. It was then requested that we have a standing count. It was agreed upon that a standing count was not necessary.

Canon Clarke Greger presented the proposed Canonical Amendment to Canon 1 section 4, item 3 to strike the wording “by the rector or vicar of the parish or mission in which they serve, or”. Bishop Smith called for the question and it was moved and second to accept the recommended change. Call for the vote by order: Clerical: approved, Lay: approved.

Canon Greger next presented the proposed Canonical Amendment to Canon 28. The proposed changes are mainly cleaning up of wording except in Section 2n which provides for the appointment of a Procedural Officer. It was moved and seconded to accept the proposed changes to Canon 28. The Rev. Richard Morrison noted that since this was approved by the General Convention that it wouldn’t transfer down to our Canon and that we would only need to clean up our Canon. The difference is that a church attorney handles a case and the procedural officer would handle the results. Bishop Smith called for the question by order: Clerical – approved, Lay – approved.

Bishop Smith introduced Bishop Samuel Azariah, Moderator of Pakistan. Bishop Azariah continued his talk from Friday and spoke that they have to understand “Love my neighbor” – not matter who they are or what they believe in. As a church they would like to move from dependency to confidence. Likes to have a church to church relationship and need support for women and girls development. They are a theologically bankrupt church with no seminary.
Bishop Smith introduced Archdeacon Sarah Getts. Archdeacon Getts thanked the Rev. Martha Seaman, Archdeacon Veronica Ritson, the Rev. Robin Hollis and the Deacon’s council for all the work they put into the new much awaited Deacon’s Handbook. The handbook has everything you need to know in it and explains the role of the Deacon and their responsibilities. It is a handbook and a good tool for all parishes, Sr. Warden’s, Vestries and Discernment Committees.

Bishop Smith introduced The Rev. Susan Snook, Chair of the Deputation for the General Convention to give a report on the General Convention held in Salt Lake City, Utah. The Rev. Susan Snook introduced the deputies to convention. Dan Packard, The Rev. John Kitagawa, Judith Conley, The Rev. Timothy Dombek, The Rev. Bruce Jackson, The Rev. Steve Keplinger, and The Rev. Martir Vasquez. Each of the Deputies to convention gave a brief overview of what they learned and all said that they were proud to represent the Diocese. Some of the notes from the deputies are: The election of the Presiding Bishop, Approval of the Canon for Marriage Equality, 350+ resolutions, at the last convention they addressed the inclusiveness of women and at this one the relationship to racial justice came to fruition. The General Convention also passed resolution about worship and the Book of Common Prayer – minor adjustments to the Common Lectionary.

Janet Kaiser of the Episcopal Federal Credit Union who did a drawing and the winner of a Gift Card was Patricia Poll.

Marilyn Hedges reported on the in-gatherings held throughout the year. Marilyn Hedges reported that 23 parishes donated $23,745 to support the United Thank Offering (UTO). The Daughters of the King met at St. Matthew’s in April. The Bishop’s Closet is an active ministry with many disbursements throughout the year. Bishop Smith thanked Marilyn Hedges for her three years of service to the ECW. Kerri Jo Hanstein reported that during the spring session they discussed such topics as Human Trafficking and HIV/Aids. In May they discussed the changing landscape of the church.

Bishop Smith called for the Rev. Scott Jones to continue with the call for presentation of Resolutions.

The Rev. Scott Jones called for the presentation of Resolution 2015-1 (Change in the Administration of Episcopal Community Services in Arizona (ECS). Frequently asked questions regarding this resolution are: Why is this resolution being put before convention when they have a separate 501C3? Is the Bishop behind this resolution – the answer is yes and it was not his first decision. What is the proposal? The proposal is to grant the sheparding of the ECS to the Standing Committee and the Office of the Bishop. The funds are to be used for children, families, and women living in poverty. What if the Bishop wants to use the funds for something? The Bishop cannot spend it for anything else. Why does the Board of Trustees plan to transfer control? Because the Board of Trustees hasn't been able to manage and has restricted funds. It was then proposed that the resolution be amended to read prior to any other use, the monies should be offered to the Lutheran Social Services of the Southwest. The amendment was moved and second. The question was then raised that there is a very large concern regarding the language about how we can move funds. The main concern raised was about the legality of moving legacy funds. The amendment was rejected. Bishop Smith called for the question on the original resolution 2015-1 and it was approved.

The Rev. Scott Jones called for the presentation of Resolution 2015-2 (Create Diocesan Task Force for Creation Care). After discussions it was moved and second to accept Resolution 2015-2. Bishop Smith called for the question and it was approved. There will be a sign-up sheet for those who wish to be part of the task force.

The Rev. Scott Jones called for the presentation of Resolution 2015-3 (Creation of an Ad-hoc Committee to Vision a Process of Starting New Churches in the Episcopal Diocese of Arizona. We have new church plants in Gilbert and Surprise and in the Spanish Congregations. Need a strategy and guidelines to form a committee to help structure future church plants. After discussions it was moved and second to accept Resolution 2015-3. Bishop Smith called for the question and it was approved.

The Rev. Scott Jones called for the presentation of Resolution 2015-4 (Diocese of Arizona Opposition to Capital Punishment). After discussions it was moved and second to accept Resolution 2015-4. Bishop Smith called for the question and it was approved.

The Rev. Scott Jones called for the presentation of Resolution 2015-5 (International Persecution of Christians). After much discussions both for and against the resolution a motion was made and second to table this resolution and have the group submitting it to go back and revisit it and change some of the language.

The Rev. Scott Jones called for the presentation of Resolution 2015-6 (Invest in Renewable Energy Sources). This resolution is a request for the Diocese to invest in renewable energy and divert from the use of fossil fuels. After much discussion regarding the wording of the Resolution it was moved and second to table this resolution and have the group submitting it to go back and revisit the language.

The Rev. Scott Jones called for the presentation of Resolution 2015-7 (Refugee Crisis Middle East/Europe). It was noted that this resolution is a sister to a resolution that was passed at General Convention. It was moved and second to approve Resolution 2015-7. An amendment was made to the motion to remove the duplicate WHEREAS clause. Bishop Smith called for the question and it was approved.

Bishop Smith called for reports by title which each congregation had access to online prior to convention. It was moved and seconded that the reports by title be accepted as presented. Approved unanimously.

Bishop Smith thanked all the volunteers who helped at this convention which included the Registrars and Tellers, all who helped with the Eucharist, music which was provided by St. Andrew’s, Glendale, Christ Church of the Ascension for their gift of 15 cases of communion wine which is being divvied up amongst congregations, the Children’s Program Helpers, The Diocesan Staff and above all to Cathy Black. A special thanks to Laura Smith for all her support.

Anti - Racism Committee Report

The Committee met several times from last October to the present to discuss and plan trainings, recruiting new members and making changes to accommodate our mission.

We held trainings in Tucson and in Tempe.

We will offer a workshop at the October 2015 Diocesan Convention.

The Committee is planning to make a formal request to add Reconciliation to its title. Reconciliation has been a goal of our work and we believe it should be incorporated in our title.

The Committee plans to offer a training conference for church leaders in Phoenix.

Finally, we are working with Province VIII and the Union of Black Episcopalians on the design of the upcoming Conference on Race and Reconciliation which will be held at Trinity Cathedral in February 2016.

Anyone who has an interest in the dismantling of racism and racial harmony is welcomed to join the Committee.
Archivist/Historiographer Annual Report to Convention - 2015

2015 has been an eventful year around the Diocesan Office. Beginning in 2014 during the Christmas break for the diocesan staff a most wonderful thing happened. For the first time in many years the diocesan office has been remodeled, upgraded and beautifully decorated.

Our project manager, Roberta Hancock, skillfully guided us and the construction crew through a project to make Diocesan House become a lovely, more efficient and welcoming place for the Bishop and his staff to do the necessary administrative work of the Diocese. During this process we had the opportunity, with her guidance and perseverance, to clean up and organize our basement; which brings me to why this is mentioned in this report. The basement is where we keep our archival materials and files.

I have spent fifteen years going up and down those stairs and going through hundreds of files to research information requested by our churches and parishioners. It has become a more efficient and pleasant place to do this work. Unfortunately, we couldn’t make the basement bigger but it is better.

During the year I have researched historical information for several of our churches so they can update their files or do portfolios for candidates applying for positions to replace rectors or vicars that have moved on or retired. I’ve also helped them research the basic history of their church when there are celebrations of bi-centennials or centennials.

We keep confirmation records at this location; however when people request baptismal, marriage or burial records they are referred to the church so it is extremely important that those records are constantly recorded and maintained.

Occasionally I’ve had requests for those records because a church has not recorded or maintained the information or it has been “misplaced”. Or, in the worst case scenario, destroyed by fire or flood. The only time we archive that information is when a church has closed and the records are brought here for storage.

Border, Immigration & Migration Program Group Annual Report

While the Border, Immigration & Migration Program Group did not meet this year, The Rev. Ernie Galaz, St Andrew’s, Nogales; The Rev. Richard Aguilar, St John’s, Bisbee & St Stephen’s, Douglas; The Rev. Sarah Birdsall Isakson, Vicar of St Raphael In the Valley, Benson; and Mateo Chavez, a Lutheran lay pastor, met several times over the year to plan a new visioning process. They and members of their congregations also began, continued, and expanded various projects to support people on both sides of the border.

For example, St Stephen’s hosted several meetings of Just Change, a local group affiliated with Southern Arizona Interfaith (SAI) & collaborated with Frontera de Cristo to organize and participate in Tuesday afternoon vigils to remember those who have died in the Sonoran desert. St John’s, St Stephen’s, and St Andrew’s have also hosted many pilgrimage and education groups coming to the border. Rev. Galaz & Rev. Isakson both serve on the SAI board.

St Andrew’s Children’s Clinic continued to offer specialized medical care at St. Andrew’s Church to children living in Mexico, as it has done for over 40 years.

St John’s and St Stephen’s continue to support the Naco Wellness Initiative (NWI), http://nacowellness.org, in providing curative and preventative medical and wellness services in Naco, Sonora. NWI now oversees two neighborhood clinics with health programs including physical therapy, pre-natal care, diabetes counseling, etc. They also have 30 community gardens growing organic fruit and vegetables. Both churches supported NWI’s Vacation Bible School-Naco 2015, with Iglesia Odres Neuvos, with over 75 attendees per day. On June 29, 2015, the city of Naco, Sonora, named a street in recognition of NWI’s executive director, Tom Carlson, Calle Tom Carlson.

The Rev. Aguilar was the key speaker at a Migrant Spirituality retreat at St Michael’s and All Angels, Tucson, in March 2015. He also facilitated a Bible and book study group at St John’s, which included a discussion of Bishops on the Border. He also was featured in an NBC news story about the church and getting ahead, where he is pictured in front of the border. This news story, including a short video interview of Rev. Aguilar, is available at http://www.nbcnews.com/feature/in-plain-sight/class-america-want-get-ahead-try-church-n325796.

Next year St Andrew’s will host a student group from Gonzaga University and the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America Conference of Bishops. There will also be a reflection and planning retreat on January 30, 2016, at St Andrew’s, Tucson.

Chapel Rock Report for the 2015 Convention Journal

Chapel Rock is currently in its 84th year of continuous ministry and service. 2015 has been highlighted by many noticeable, functional and aesthetic improvements to the grounds, an all time high number of elementary schools and groups attending the science camp and ropes course programs, and yet another successful summer camp experience. Chapel Rock has a fresh, inviting feel and we are still a destination for fun, rest, renewal and relaxation.

Through generous contributions from the Ecumenical Renewal Retreat the center of campus has been upgraded with a newly established path leading up to Pritzlaff and Taylor Lodges. Our guests can now enjoy connecting with one another in our shaded Sharing Garden. Many people have enjoyed the multipurpose grass field and pavilion that were added on the ropes course and everyone has responded positively to those improvements.

The 2015 summer camp saw a total of 410 campers in various programs. Jesse Villegas, Canon for Youth and Young Adult Ministries, and Jana Sundin, Canon for Children’s Ministries, delivered a wonderful experience for our campers and helped them learn about Jesus’ love and what it means to be a member of an intentional, spiritual community. We have seen the ABC, Ankle Biters Camp, and Mini Camp continue to grow and very much appreciate the support from the participating families that are bringing or sending their young campers. We hope to watch them grow in faith as well as physically over many years through the lens of our summer camp program.

Chapel Rock was again a recipient of the $25,000.00 Christian Vision Grant from the Canyon Institute. In addition, the support throughout the Diocese was critical in carrying out the summer camp mission. Over $17,000 was contributed directly to the camp through donations from parishes and individual members of the Episcopal congregation. All together, over $51,000.00 in scholarship assistance was awarded to our summer campers. Thank you for your support!

We are entering our third year of offering a locked in tuition for summer camp which is only $390.00 for seven days, six nights and 17 meals for regular camp. $390.00 is about half to one third of the cost of other camps in the area. Please keep in mind early bird discounts of $20.00 per camper will be offered until March 31st. We maintain a 1:7 summer camp counselor to summer camper ratio. Chapel Rock is an ACA accredited camp and some of the summer experiences include opportunities to grow personally, spiritually and to connect with friends in a way you never could have dreamed. Imagine standing on top of a 40 foot climbing tower and being able to look your best friend in the eyes and say ‘We did it!’ in the beautiful, sacred place that is Chapel Rock.

You are welcome at Chapel Rock. We look forward to serving you, your children and your parish on any level throughout the coming year! Please contact us to book a retreat, schedule a day on the challenge course or go online to register for next year’s summer camp.
ANNUAL REPORT FOR CHAPLAIN TO RETIRED CLERGY, SPOUSES AND SURVIVING SPOUSES. 2015

Last year Bishop Smith and I decided to try a different approach to try to reach out to more of the retired, spouses and surviving spouses by having a dinner in Phoenix last year and one in Tucson this year. The turnout was just as disappointing as the turnout for coffees and luncheons.

Around 290 Birth Anniversary cards and 91 Wedding Anniversary cards were produced in house and sent by a wonderful volunteer who has been sending them out for the last 14 years. Jean Barnhill.

I have submitted my resignation to Bp. Smith. He has not accepted it as of now. I have recommended that he appoint one or two more chaplains, at least one for the South and one for the North. In regard to this idea of having more coverage of our retired, etc., I have set up separate lists for the two parts of the Diocese. I have committed to help with the chaplaincy until after the Enriching Your Retirement event in January 2016.

The Provincial meeting of chaplains is scheduled for September 29 to October 2, 2015 in Seattle, Washington. This will take place at the same Hotel as last year. Church Pension Group provides inspirational speakers and programs to enable the chaplains in their work.

Every 3rd year, the Church Pension Group sets up a national meeting for the chaplains of all provinces.

Respectfully submitted,

The Rev. Canon David E. Pettengill, D.D.
The Commission on Ministry (COM) is made up of priests, deacons, and lay members of our diocese. Members of the COM are appointed by Bishop Kirk Smith and they serve on the commission to assist and advise the Bishop on decisions in discernment and formation for ministry.

The COM works with Parish Discernment Committees to train individual committees. COM members serve as shepherds to people in discernment and formation. COM hosts a yearly Holy Orders Day of Discernment and Information in May and interviews people in discernment throughout the year.

Spring 2015 area meetings were held at St. Christopher’s, Sun City; St. Michael and all Angels, Tucson; and St. Andrew’s, Sedona. The Rev. Gregory Wyes presented a very interesting and well-received program in Tucson, “The Liturgical Foundations of the Altar Guild Ministry.” In Sun City and Sedona, I presented the program, “The History of Altar Linens.”

There have been a number of disbursements this year from the Bishop’s Closet, the diocesan altar guild’s primary ministry. The Closet has served parishes and individual clergy in our diocese and also missions on Native American reservations, Mexico, Central America, and the Sudan. My thanks to the many diocesan parishes that contribute to the Closet and enable this ministry’s work.

Diocesan Altar Guild provides a red stole for each Deacon ordained in the diocese. Dolly Forbes creates each stole by hand, and we are most grateful for her long-time, dedicated service.

Other activities in which I participated during the year:
- Set up and “manned” the DAG exhibition at the 2015 diocesan convention;
- Organized and coordinated the altar guild service for the 2015 General Convention Eucharists in Salt Lake City as the National Altar Guild Association’s representative to the convention’s Worship Committee;
- Represented the Diocese of Arizona at the 2015 Province VIII altar guild meeting and also attended my final meeting as a member of the NAGA board, both meetings held in Salt Lake City during General Convention;
- Gave a presentation to candidates for the diaconate as part of the diocese’s deacon formation program;
- Conducted an Altar Guild 101 workshop at Sts. Philip & James, Morenci;
- Maintained an informational email network among the diocese’s altar guilds and clergy;
- Maintained and regularly distributed a current inventory of Bishop’s Closet contents;
- Attended diocesan Women’s Ministries board meetings and annual meeting as DAG representative;
- Contributed articles on AZDAG activities to both the diocese’s WM and NAGA newsletters.

It is a privilege to work with Bishop Smith, the Diocesan House Staff, and the clergy and altar guilds of the Diocese. I appreciate their interest, support, encouragement, and sense of humor that makes my DAG ministry a joy.

Respectfully submitted, Constance B. Castillo-Directress

A group consists of six to twelve participants and a trained mentor who meet weekly over the course of a nine-month academic year. They study, explore, worship and pray together.

There are 22 EfM groups with a total of 150 students meeting in various parishes in Arizona this year.

The following have finished their 4 years of study in the past year:

We thank and celebrate the outreach ministries of this Diocese for doing God’s work in the world. Outreach Ministries and vacation bible schools in the following locations received grants from ECS during the past year: Safford; Phoenix; Tucson; Naco, Sonora; Cave Creek; Benson; Wilcox; Scottsdale; Mesa; Bisbee; Douglas; Paradise Valley; and Tempe.

In 2010, the Board of Episcopal Community Services launched an effort to revitalize a struggling organization. The goal was to build ECS into a truly impactful and ongoing philanthropic entity. The board and executive directors were very aware that the revitalization effort was going to be a major challenge, but all felt it was worth the effort. Indeed, we distributed $130,150 in grants during those years.

After a sincere investment of time and resources and in spite of the best efforts of all involved, the results were not strong enough to warrant continuing on that path. As the table below demonstrates, while donations did increase, the growth barely matched the increase in administrative costs incurred to support the initiative. Grants were routinely funded by drawing down the unrestricted portion of the investment funds in the ECS accounts.

The ECS Board has concluded that to be true to the philanthropic intent of the donors who have supported ECS over the years, significant shepherding efficiencies would be necessary. A resolution to transfer the administration of the “ECS Legacy Fund” to the Bishop, his staff and the Standing Committee has been submitted to this convention. God willing, you will affirm the transition and continue to give to the ECS Legacy Fund.

ARIZONANS AT GENERAL CONVENTION

Exhausting, exhilarating, frustrating, bewildering, overwhelming – lots of adjectives describe the experience of being a deputy to General Convention. Days often begin at 7 a.m. and end at 10 p.m. or later. Committee meetings, legislative sessions, worship services, meetings with old friends, receptions, exhibits, and chance encounters that lead to unexpected results fill the days. General Convention 2015 was no exception.

Amidst the whirl of activity, some very exciting things happened. For me, this was my third Convention, and it was by far the most hopeful. Progress in marriage equality means that The Episcopal Church’s “All Are Welcome” signs are truer now than ever. The church seems to be emerging from a prolonged period of conflict and turning toward a focus on mission. There was palpable energy around evangelism, church planting, racial reconciliation, and development of congregations. My work with a group of friends across the church on the Episcopal Resurrection movement (EpiscopalResurrection.org) bore fruit, as many of our resolutions, including an ambitious resolution to support planting new churches, passed and received significant funding.

One of the most exciting moments of Convention was the election of Bishop Michael Curry as our new Presiding Bishop by an overwhelming majority. The announcement of his election in the House of Deputies brought sheer joy as we stood and cheered. I looked around to see tears in many eyes as the name of our first African-American Presiding Bishop was announced. Pandemonium broke loose as he arrived in the House of Deputies to a prolonged standing ovation. And Bishop Curry’s sermon on the last day of Convention set the place on fire – the fire of the Holy Spirit. Bishop Curry is one of the best preachers you will ever hear – be sure to seek out one of his sermons online! (Here’s one: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vj_N3OsHxxo.) I look forward to an inspiring nine years under Bishop Curry’s leadership.

Arizona’s clergy and lay deputies and alternates in attendance (in alphabetical order) were: Susan Brown Snook, Miguel Carmona, Judith Conley, Timothy Dombek, Jim Fitzsimmons, Ariana Gonzales-Bonillas, Clarke Greger, Jack Hanstein, Bruce Jackson, Steve Keplinger, John Kitagawa, Dan Packard, and Martir Vasquez. Of course, Bishop Smith was also present, serving in the House of Bishops. Several of us served on legislative committees, which do the hard work of sorting through resolutions and getting them in final form to propose on the floor of Convention. Bishop Smith served on Ecumenical & Interreligious Affairs; Judy Conley and I served on the Governance & Structure committee; Ariana Gonzales-Bonillas served on the Committee for the Confirmation of the Presiding Bishop; Clarke Greger served on the Resolutions Review Committee, John Kitagawa was the vice-chair of the Social Justice & International Policy Committee; and Dan Packard served on the Church Pension Group committee. We all worked hard and we were all happy to get home when it was done!
Since I was called, to work as part of the Hispanic Ministry in the diocese, it has been a great experience, to connect congregations and people among the diocese that are part of this ministry.

There are congregations that have developed Hispanic Ministry and have strong leadership, such as; San Pablo, San Andres, La Trinidad-Cathedral, Santa Maria, San Cristobal, San Lucas on the Mountain and San Marcos.

In the southern region of Arizona, there also are congregations very active in ministry among Hispanic families such as; Tucson, Nogales, Bisbee and Douglas.

Also, there are new initiatives among Anglo congregations, who are involved directly, or indirectly with Hispanic ministry. Some of them have started some actions to approach the Hispanic families and some are exploring expansion of that ministry.

As a Director of the Hispanic Ministry, I have been convening meetings every two months to revise, evaluate, plan and create new initiatives to strengthen the leadership and expand this ministry in the diocese.

As a network we held telephone conferences and sent emails for follow up on our action plans in those congregations that have been involved.

This year we participated in the Leadership Conference hosted by the diocese at Chapel Rock and we were able to provide translation.

Every year the Hispanic community participates in summer camps and retreats. The results of those activities helped our leaders and communities get to know each other, get closer and review our local needs and how we can engage with more Hispanic families under the leadership of the clergy and laity.

The clergy and leaders of this important ministry discussed the great need for creating a Deacon’s Formation Program for Hispanic/Latino aspirants to join the Deacon’s Academy of the Diocese for 2016-2018.

I am looking forward to working in partnership with you for the people of God.

The Reverend Sally Durand
The Diocese of Arizona established the Diocesan Millennium Development Goals (MDG) Committee in response to the 75th General Convention resolution that requested all dioceses establish a commission or similar body, which would be dedicated to mobilizing Episcopalians toward the achievement of the Millennium Development Goals (MDGs) by 2015.

The Diocesan MDG Committee comprised of lay and clergy from throughout the diocese, began meeting prior to the 2007 Arizona Diocesan Convention. The Committee proposed Resolution 2-2007, which encouraged all congregations to move toward designating 0.7% of their income to support the international outreach efforts of the MDGs.

The MDG Committee has accomplished the following this year:

- Reviewed MDG project requests and awarded 14,500 dollars in matching funds for a total of $29,000 funded for project:
  - Heart and Hands School Project, Central Plateau, Gascogne, Haiti
  - Maison de Naissance Maternal Birthing program, Haiti
  - Center of Hope, Santa Maria Magdalena, Barrio of La Laguna, Veracruz, Mexico
  - St. Michaels Guatemala Project, Guatemala, Central America

Funds remain for additional grant(s) for this fiscal year.

The MDG committee is working together as the Millennium Development Goals transition to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). The global community and faith groups are working through the United Nations to agree on the post 2015 program that has been so successful in raising awareness and beginning to reduce poverty.

Over the next several months, the Diocesan MDG Committee will post reviews and reflections from the diocese and other international groups about the successes and challenges of the last 15 years since the inception of the MDGs.

The Committee offers continued support for the efforts by churches throughout the Diocese to meet the goal of eliminating extreme poverty and advocate for participation by all churches and individuals in addressing the issues of poverty and the impact of poverty upon our communities and world.

Committee members consist of:
Judith Conley, Lucinda Mellott, Beth Carson, Martha Seaman, Barbara Stone

The Program Group for Native American Ministry hosted a Native Saints celebration Eucharist at St. Augustine’s in Tempe. Bishop Smith celebrated and The Rev. Richard Valantasis (the Institute for Contemplative Living) was the guest preacher. Following the service last fall, a Q&A session was hosted by The Rev. Deacons Vivian Winter Chaser, Lakota and Dorothy Saucedo, Navajo, then co-chairs of the Program Group.

In January 2015, Bishop Smith appointed The Rev. Debbie Royals, Pascua Yaqui, as the dioceses new Director of Native American Ministry. In 2014, the diocese was awarded a Mission Enterprise Zone grant in the amount of $20,000 which was matched by the diocese. As a result, several partnership relationships were formed between our Episcopal congregations and Native communities, children’s programs in the Old Pascua Village (Tucson) took shape and a new ministry for Native American women (First Women Gather Around the Fire) formed. These ministries continue to flourish with a thriving partnership between St. Matthew’s (Tucson) and the San Ignacio Yaqui Council. Other congregations in and around the diocese have also ventured into partnership relationships and are becoming more familiar with “our neighbors”.

Continuing ministries have congregations providing assistance to elders and families at risk in the Byllass Apache area. St. Luke’s Prescott recently committed to support American Indian Life Skills programs (a suicide prevention program) in two communities. Congregations continue to reach out with sewing, quilting and other projects in various areas.

This past summer Byron Sloan represented AZ’s Native American Ministries at General Convention and played a key leadership role in TEC’s Native Ministry activities. Byron is a senior at the University of Arizona and recently started a project (Blue Corn Project—BCP) as a way to create a sacred space on the land for Native students attending the U of A.

Native American ministry in the Diocese of Arizona is growing. We will be hosting the Province VIII Winter Talk in Tucson this January. We continue to encourage every congregation to reach out and meet “our neighbors” (there are 22 federally recognized tribes in AZ so it is likely that we all have Native American neighbors. The Rev. Debbie Royals continues to be available to meet with congregations and will facilitate other members of the Program Group to be available as well.
The goal of the Nature & Spirituality Program is to help reconnect people with God through nature by offering opportunities for worship that combine worship/meditation in an outdoor setting.

The Nature & Spirituality team decreased to just two persons with the relocation of one member and the departure of another due to increasing demands on their time. Though occasionally joined by a 3rd individual, it was evident that the expansion hopes of the Nature & Spirituality program would not be realized.

In late January, a full day retreat was held at the White Tank Regional Park in Waddell. This “Journey with the Son” was attended by 10 individuals who arrived at the park before sunrise and remained there until after sunset. A variety of worship/meditation practices were introduced including morning, noonday and evening prayer services, a hand blessing service, lectio divina, breath prayers and body prayers as well as an “inner journey” and an “outer journey” experience. Participants were encouraged to spend quiet time alone, actively listening for God’s voice and to journal about these experiences. Time was provided for those who wished to share their thoughts with the rest of the group. A brunch as well as a potluck lunch was provided.

Stations of the Cross services were held every Friday at noon at the White Tanks Regional Park and led by the Convener. These services were usually attended by at least 3 individuals and sometimes as many as 8.

With the conclusion of Lent, the Convener was asked by Bishop Kirk to take on the role of co-Convener of the Diocesan Prison Ministry Program and to join the Diocesan Council. In consideration of these additional requirements and the fact that the Convener was actively involved in the Deacon Formation Academy, it was recommended by Bishop Kirk that the Nature and Spirituality Program be placed on hiatus for a period of time.

The Convener did complete the website for the Nature & Spirituality program which includes resource materials (including educational materials, service booklets, recommended reading and viewing lists, etc.), contact information (including contacts for labyrinth and garden construction), schedule of events, and a listing of quiet spaces.

Those who have attended Nature & Spirituality events in the past expressed regret that the program was to be suspended. It is hoped that a renewed interest in respecting all of creation will arise in response to Pope Francis’ encyclical on ecology which was released in June, 2015. By popular demand, the Convener plans to continue offering an all day retreat at the White Tank Regional Park just prior to Lent.

Kim Crecca

Prison Ministry Program – Annual Report 2015

Statement of Purpose: “To charge the Diocese of Arizona to minister to prisoners and their families (during and post incarceration), advocate for changes to the current prison system, and to mutually share God’s forgiving love.”

In July of 2014, Bishop Kirk hosted a Summit on Prison Ministry. This Summit was attended by 40+ individuals that expressed interest in developing a prison ministry program within the diocese. At the Summit meeting, it was recommended that a Prison Awareness Day be designated within the Diocese. Bishop Kirk offered to send a pastoral letter regarding prison ministry in conjunction with Prison Awareness Day.

The Diocesan Prison Ministry Program was formed at a follow-up meeting held in September 2014, attended by 12 individuals as well as Bishop Kirk and Cathy Black. At that meeting, Wilma Swartz volunteered to be Convener for the program. The group felt introduction of the program should be delayed until the 2015 General Convention to allow the program an opportunity to identify existing opportunities for prison ministry, prepare materials specific to the Diocesan Prison Ministry program, and populate the Diocesan webpage for Prison Ministry.

Preliminary goals included gathering materials to help churches within the diocese start a prison ministry, establishing/identifying training programs for prison ministry opportunities, sponsoring support groups for families of prisoners, and communicating support for post incarceration (including housing, employment, transportation, etc.).

The team has met 6 times in 2015. Currently we’ve 7 individuals that participate on a regular basis. Members of the team have attended numerous meetings regarding prison advocacy sponsored by Valley Interfaith Project (VIP), visited organizations that have developed successful re-entry programs (Alongside Ministries and Old Pueblo Community Services), attended prison ministry workshops, met with the founder of AZ Guidance Organization (for families of prisoners), and have had a member of our team elected to the Arizona Department of Corrections Religious Advisory Council.

Based on our research to date, the team has organized prison outreach opportunities into two main categories: Behind the Bars and Beyond the Gates. A brochure is being developed for distribution at the Convention. It’s anticipated that the Diocesan Prison Ministry webpage will also be populated by that time. Areas of service identified for Behind the Bars include The Sunshine Club (birthday cards), Angel Tree, pen pals, Prison Visitation & Support, Prison Worship Services, Prison Retreats (i.e., Kairos), Mentoring, Book Clubs, AA and Al-Anon facilitators, and collecting donations (clothing, yarn, bibles, devotionals, etc.). Areas of service identified for Beyond the Gates include Mentoring, Re-entry, Rehabilitation and Recovery, Advocacy, and Family Support.

The team recognizes that this has been a building year for the Diocesan Prison Ministry Program and hopes to begin reaching out to churches within the Diocese regarding developing prison ministries starting with the 2015 Convention where the group will be staffing an exhibit booth.

Respectfully submitted by Wilma Swartz, Convener, Diocesan Prison Ministry Program

For 42 years, St. Andrew’s Children’s Clinic has provided free, specialized medical care to children living in Mexico who cannot get the care or afford the care they need in their home country. The Clinic is held at St. Andrew’s Episcopal Church in Nogales, Arizona.

St. Andrew’s Children’s Clinic is a non-denominational, non-profit organization, with a volunteer professional health care staff. The staff sees approximately 225-250 children the first Thursday of each month except July. Every October, in cooperation with Children’s Surgery International and CIMA Hospital, 40-45 children (on average) have cleft palate/cleft lip surgery in Hermosillo, Sonora, Mexico. This special mission involves volunteers on both sides of the US-Mexico border who work with the medical team to give patients smiles and a much better life.

In 2014, with the help of generous donors and volunteers, St. Andrew’s Children’s Clinic provided the following:

- 3,902 Clinic hours by volunteer health care professionals
- 6,385 Clinic hours by other volunteers
- 2,426 patient visits
- 162 first-time patients to The Clinic
- 513 office visits (US and Mexico)
- 134 lab tests (US and Mexico)
- 61 cleft palate/cleft lip surgeries
- 7,680 professional health volunteer hours for cleft palate/lip surgeries
- 20 eye doctor/surgeries
- 50 orthopedic surgeries
- 81 pairs of eye glasses dispensed
- 50 round-trip flights and transportation to hospitals for patients
- 56 prostheses
- 168 pairs of corrective shoes and orthotics
- 67 repaired hearing aids
- 34 customized wheel chairs, walkers, and strollers
- 23 prescriptions, either for cornea transplants or dermatology patients
- 3 iPads for augmentative/alternative communication patients
- also, medicated eye drops; Braille writers; strollers; speech and language equipment; nutritional supplements; physical, occupational, and speech therapy; dermatology and cardiology consultations; and many generous donations of blankets, diapers, and toys.

We are very proud to report to you that 98% of all donations goes to patient care.

Javier, age 4, lives in Nogales, Sonora. He is a patient in the Orthopedics Department. The femur in the left leg is really short. So that he will be able to walk normally, he will have surgery at Shriners Hospital, Spokane; the leg will be amputated and fitted with a prosthesis. It is better to have this done earlier in life so the child becomes used to it and the prosthesis becomes natural.

TREASURER’S REPORT

to

The 55th Convention

The Episcopal Diocese of Arizona

Well, our mission sharing system has graduated. After four years, it continues to improve our ability to manage the business affairs of the Diocese and allows us to give something back to the congregations. This new budget year will reflect an increase in the amounts to be returned to congregations if it is passed at convention.

More congregations are availing themselves of the services of Canon Timothy Dombek, our Canon for Stewardship, in planning and directing their stewardship plans with a focus on promoting stewardship throughout the year and not just as a once a year campaign. Canon Dombek continues to carry his message throughout the country. If you have not, you are encouraged to check into this valuable resource.

The Congregational Support Committee remains ready to assist congregations in dealing with whatever problems they may be facing. It is the Diocese's effort to bring whatever additional resources it can to assist our congregations. If you don’t know what you need or may want, we encourage you to look to the Diocese for additional resources that may be available to help.

An independent audit of our financial position as of December 31, 2014, and the related statement of activities, changes in net assets, cash flows and functional expenses for the year then ended has been completed. A copy, including the auditor’s report and opinion, will be included in the Journal for the convention and has been posted on the website.

My thanks to everyone throughout the Diocese who work toward realizing our goal of serving Christ and his Church. Our Financial Statement of Mission is a group effort in which you vote to support the ministries and programs of the Diocese.

Thanks to members of the Finance and Investment Committees and their continued efforts to manage and assist in the financial well-being of the Diocese.

As always, thank you to Bishop Smith, Canon Traquair, Canon Dombek and the Diocesan staff. Never have so few done so much for so many. Your efforts are appreciated! Keep them in your prayers.

Faithfully,

Jack A. Colaric, Treasurer
Women’s Ministries 2015 Annual Report

This past year has been a very interesting year as the Board continues looking at ways to better communicate with the women of the diocese. Sally Lockwood, Communications, continues to lead in this endeavor as she works on our website, Facebook page, and digital versions of our newsletter. I have also had the pleasure of visiting women’s groups around the diocese meeting groups of vibrant active women faithfully serving their communities and their parishes.

We’ve also tested the use of teleconferencing for our regularly scheduled board meetings. Our first attempt at meeting by conference call worked well and plan to make more use of this communication option for future meetings.

As usual, there were three spring gatherings held in the south, the central, and the north.

1) The Southern Area gathering was hosted by St. Michael and All Angels; Tucson. The speaker was Sarah Leech, representing Women of Purpose (World Concerns). Sarah spoke on Human Trafficking.

2) The Central Area gathering was hosted by St. Christopher’s in the West Valley. Carol Masters of St. Christopher’s spoke about St. Christopher’s partnership with Cheyenne Elementary School and Jessie Ramirez of the Valley View Food Bank spoke about Community Partnerships.

3) The Northern Area gathering was hosted by St. Andrew’s, Sedona, and St. Thomas, Clarkdale. Rev Deacon Deirdre Moulinier spoke on HIV/AIDS and led a very interesting group discussion on the topic.

The attendance was not as large as we had hoped; however, those who attended heard about some very timely topics. And, the hospitality of the hosting congregations was warm and friendly.

The May board meeting is of particular interest as it was facilitated by the Rev Canon Megan Traquair and lasted the better part of the day. The result was that the Annual Meeting planned for September 26 this year will be longer than usual (9:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.) and the agenda format will be rearranged. The focus will be Re-Visioning Women’s Ministries in the Diocese of Arizona. Canon Megan will facilitate this meeting as well.

Four representatives from Arizona attended the ECW Triennial Convention which was held in Salt Lake City at the same time as General Convention. They were: the: Marilyn Hedges (Immediate Past President Women’s Ministries Board, Sigrid Maitrejean (Diocese of Arizona Distinguished Woman), Winnie Follett (outgoing Provence VIII President), Kerry Jo Hanstein (President Women’s Ministries Board). Not only did we attend the regularly scheduled ECW meetings and workshops, but we also found the daily Eucharist to be extremely uplifting.

Respectfully,
Kerry Jo Hanstein
