Pentecost Sermon
The above videos are from Bishop Brown in relation to the current unrest across the country. We encourage you to meditate on his message, and hold the country and those affected in your prayers. You can find transcripts for each video by clicking the video title.

Trinity Sunday Worship with Bishop Brown

This Sunday, Trinity Sunday, June 7th, the Bishop invites all Episcopalians (Delaware and beyond!) to join together in a special diocesan-wide virtual service over Facebook Live.

To join, click here: The Episcopal Church in Delaware and scroll until you find the video image that indicates LIVE (in red) in the top left of the video image frame. The video will go live at 10:55am, to allow you time to find our feed. We will also share the video on Immanuel's Facebook page.

The accompanying bulletin can be accessed here. It is also on the Diocesan website (under Worship with Us), and will be provided in the description of the live feed on Sunday.

You do not have to join Facebook to watch a Facebook Live video, if you're already a Facebook user you do not have to log in to watch. All you need to do is click the above link, scroll down, and the video will be accessible to you.

Immanuel will still hold our own Sunday service, available on the website and Facebook from 11:30am. We encourage you to like, follow, and turn on notifications from Immanuel on Facebook during this time, so as not to miss any news or posts (we promise we won’t inundate you).

Services are posted:
Virtual Eucharist - Sunday, 11:30am
Midweek Meditation - Wednesday, 6pm
Evening Prayer - Thursday, 6pm

Please join us, and share with family and friends!

In this time of Pandemic, Beware Cyber Criminals!

The FBI is aware that cyber criminals look to take advantage of generous religious groups by masquerading as someone ‘in need’ and tricking members into sending them money. Please contact the FBI (410-265-8080) if you know of anyone who recently has fallen victim to fraud schemes such as this. Additional details about these scams, how we can protect ourselves, and how to report suspicious activity can be found in FBI Public Service Announcement Alert Number I-032020-PSA here.

We are aware that scammers are using Fr. Keene’s (and other clergy) email address - or one similar to it - to request iTunes gift cards, or money to be sent through the internet or mail. Fr. Keene and Immanuel will never contact you requesting gift cards, or money for personal use. The only official routes for pledges and contributions to the church are through the Immanuel website, and the Parish office. We advise you to report any emails like this to the FBI using the link above, and to contact the office. If you have sent money, please call the FBI on the above number for assistance. Scammers can be very convincing, and prey on the good nature of their victims.

If you are unsure as to whether an email from Immanuel is legitimate, please contact the office by email directly and we be able to assist you.
Trinity Sunday is the only major Feast of the Christian Year to focus on a doctrine instead of an event or person(s). The word "Trinity" occurs nowhere in the Bible; but as the Scripture readings for Trinity Sunday illustrate, the New Testament writers in referring to God easily pass from one Person of the Trinity to another, speaking in a way that assumes their equality of nature while preserving their distinct personhood. In the words of Oxford professor Alister McGrath, “The doctrine of the Trinity wasn’t invented—it was uncovered. It is something implicit within all Christian thinking about God, and all that theologians have done is to make it explicit.”

Famously difficult to explain or understand, the concept of the Trinity—One God in Three Persons—has often been most effectively portrayed through art and music as the multi-dimensional way in which humanity has experienced God.

This Sunday’s anthem at the Offertory is “Come, my Way, my Truth, my Life,” the musical setting by Ralph Vaughan Williams of a poem by 17th century English priest and metaphysical poet George Herbert. Although Fr. Herbert’s poem is not explicitly about the Trinity, he expresses his relationship to God through images and metaphors closely tied together to illuminate each other in a manner suggestive of the Trinity. As one commentator expresses it: ‘All three are intertwined and inextricably combined, so that...the Truth can only be experienced as we walk with Christ in the Way, and the Way can only be discerned as we understand Christ the Truth, and the Way and the Truth are all fulfilled in the Life we lead in Christ and through Christ.” The full text will appear in the service leaflet for Sunday, and it is well worth reading and meditating.

The concluding organ voluntary Tryptique, by the early 20th century Parisian organist and Catholic mystic Charles Tournemire, is an improvisation based on Gregorian Chant melodies for Trinity Sunday from the Latin Rite. As the title suggests, it is in three parts, representing the Three Persons of the Godhead: a stately toccata, out of which an almost conversational dialogue emerges, followed by a meditative chant paraphrase that becomes gradually quieter, slower, and more inward-facing, concluding with an excerpt from the chant Te Deum laudamus sounding on a single flute stop.

- Jack Burnam

A recordings by our organist Jack Burnam and the Immanuel Choir have been added to our Soundcloud Channel.

There is a new ‘Sounds of Immanuel’ tab under the Music menu on the website, where music from Immanuel can be played directly. This page is in the process of being updated, but check back each week for more organ and choir music that you can share with your friends and family. Have any requests? Send us an email!

Immanuel will continue with Virtual Eucharist services each Sunday at 11:30am, and we hope you will continue to join us! Services will be online on our website and Facebook page, with links to a downloadable bulletin.

Compline will be held over Zoom on Sunday at 7pm.
Virtual Compline

Sunday Evening Compline continues online using Zoom. Please log on as early as 6:45 to say hello to everyone, then mute yourself at 7 p.m. in order to say the responses and prayers. Trust that you are still praying with others at this time; it's just a problem with audio lag that prevents us from saying them with everyone's audio enabled. Here is the link to join Compline:

PARISH HAPPENINGS

Seersucker Sunday

We need YOUR pictures! This year, we won't be able to get together and celebrate like normal, so let's show our Immanuel spirit virtually - don your Seersucker best in the sunshine, take a picture, and email it to the office to be part of a sea of smiling faces in the Curate, and remember we will all be back together soon.

Have some pictures from years gone by? We want those too!

The deadline for submissions is June 22nd, then keep your eyes peeled for how they'll be displayed!

The office will be functioning remotely during the week, please email immanuelonthegreen@comcast.net with any needs.

Available Flower Memorial Dates

Memorials can be a Sunday closest to a set date (such as a birthday, anniversary, or passing), or a specific Sunday in the month (such as the 1st Sunday in October), and can be recurring or one time happenings. Please contact the office on (302)328-2413, or Mark on (302)654-2562 or at mbac56@aol.com, if you would like to talk about an offering.

These Sundays are available for dedicated flower offerings:
