Even God enjoyed a day of rest. God created sabbath, a time set apart to rest, after he created the world and everything in it. Summertime can be like a long Sabbath where we take time to enjoy God’s creation.

Watch This Video:
https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZvmslvcquzU

Wondering Questions After Hearing the Story:

• I wonder if you have a favorite day of creation?
• I wonder if there is a day that could be left out and we would have the same story?
• Does this story tell us which parts of creation are most important to God? To us? (all of it is essential)
• Is there something in creation that makes you think about or feel close to God?