THE SACRED GROUND SERIES
Immanuel to Engage in Conversations on Race and Racism through the Episcopal Church’s Sacred Ground Series

Sacred Ground is a film- and readings-based dialogue series on race, grounded in faith. Small groups are invited to walk through chapters of America’s history of race and racism, while weaving in threads of family story, economic class, and political and regional identity. The 10-part series is built around a powerful online curriculum of documentary films and readings that focus on Indigenous, Black, Latino, and Asian/Paciic American histories as they intersect with European American histories.

Sacred Ground is part of Becoming Beloved Community, The Episcopal Church’s long-term commitment to racial healing, reconciliation, and justice in our personal lives, our ministries, and our society. This series is open to all, and is specifically designed to help white people recognize and reckon with the fact of white privilege in our society, both past and present. Participants are invited to peel away the layers that have contributed to the challenges and divides of the present day – all while grounded in our call to faith, hope and love. Every member of Immanuel is urged to participate in these conversations, which is a serious commitment to self-examination and which challenges our ways of thinking, speaking, and acting about race and racism. This is not a 45 minute adult formation class like those held after our 10 am Eucharist on Sundays. We will spend substantial time together in dialogue, story-telling, and discussion of the readings and videos. Please give serious thought and prayer to your commitment to this important work.

Because we are not yet meeting together in shared space, this program will begin as a series of Zoom meetings. (Anyone not familiar with Zoom will be coached through the process of joining a Zoom meeting.) Participants will be asked to complete the readings and videos individually before each session, then join with others in their small group (a dialogue circle) to delve into conversation about what we’ve discovered or what questions have arisen. When possible, groups may begin to meet together in shared space, either at Immanuel or in a member’s home.

Meetings will typically be 1.5 to 2 hours long, depending on the size of each group and the preparation done in advance. Links to the videos and readings will be provided. The entire program will consist of 10 meetings, and groups will meet every 2-3 weeks. In order to accommodate all parishioners who wish to participate, we will form groups which meet at different times of day, as well as days of the week. The following Doodle Poll will give you an opportunity to let us know what time commitment will work for you. Please click on the link and provide your feedback as soon as possible so that planning may begin for each group. It is our hope to begin walking on Sacred Ground together in early September.

Our first Movie Discussion Night on Zoom was a great success, and we hope you will join us for the next one.

Date & Time: Saturday, August 1 at 7pm
Movie: The Good Liar (2019)
Zoom leaders: Glenn Rill and Suzanne Souder

RSVP to glennrill@hotmail.com if you plan to participate so he can send you the link to join the Zoom meeting.

The Good Liar is about a con man (Ian McKellan) who attempts to woo and fleece a very rich widow (Helen Mirren). Is he successful? He is, after all, a very good liar.
Watch the movie ahead of time and come ready to talk about the social and religious questions raised by the story and the values it highlights.

If you want help getting started with Zoom before Movie Discussion Night, please email or call Glenn (302-322-1692). He will set up a time to talk you through it. Rest assured, it’s very easy. Glenn and Suzanne have used it many times with groups from Osher Lifelong Learning and know from experience that you don’t have to be a young techie to use Zoom successfully.

Virtual Compline - Zoom Details

Sunday Evening Compline continues online using Zoom. Please log on as early as 6:45 to say hello to everyone, then mute yourself at 7 p.m. in order to say the responses and prayers. Trust that you are still praying with others at this time; it's just a problem with audio lag that prevents us from saying them with everyone's audio enabled. Here is the link to join Compline:
