CONFRONTING CONFEDERATE MONUMENTS

Preaching, Liturgy, and Leadership for Change

University of the South, Sewanee, Tennessee

May 2-4, 2023

About

A three-day, two-night workshop designed to equip clergy with tools for confronting Confederate monuments in their churches and communities. The workshop will focus on three main areas: preaching, liturgy, and dialogue based approaches to leadership. The workshop will include presentations from experts, small group reflections, worship, and structured dialogues. The conference fee is $150.

Schedule

The first presentation begins at 3:30PM on Tuesday, May 2 and the workshop ends with lunch at 1PM on Thursday, May 4.

Speakers

- The Rev. Dr. David Stark, Assistant Professor of Homiletics at the School of Theology, University of the South and Co-Director of the Truth, Racial Healing, and Transformation Center
- Dr. Tiffany Momon, Assistant Professor of History and Co-Director of the Truth, Racial Healing, and Transformation Center
- Dr. Woody Register, Francis S. Houghteling Professor of American History and the Director of the Roberson Project on Slavery, Race, and Reconciliation, University of the South
- Dr. Sibby Anderson-Thompkins, Vice Provost for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, University of the South
- The Rev. Kellan Day, T'19, Associate Rector, Incarnation, Highlands, North Carolina
- The Rev. Hannah Pommersheim, T'19, Associate Rector, Saint Luke's Darien, Connecticut

SEWANEE THE UNIVERSITY OF THE SOUTH THE SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

TRUTH, RACIAL HEALING & TRANSFORMATION

THE ROBERSON PROJECT ON SLAVERY, RACE, AND RECONCILIATION