

Customary for Lay Reader

(Instructions & Processes, December, 2024)

“Open my lips, O Lord, and my mouth shall declare your praise.” Psalm 51:16)

As a Lay Reader, you will never be perfect, but nobody expects you to be perfect, but they love you and are pulling for you. Thank you for Serving as a Lay Reader!

LAY READER ASSIGNMENTS & PREPARATION

LAY READER ASSIGNMENTS & PREPARATION

- ☐ IMPORTANT: Substitutions: Scheduled Lay Readers are responsible for finding substitutes. DO NOT assume automatic coverage by others
- ☐ Assignments and Preparation: The assigned service and links to the reading are provided in advance to Lay Readers. Up to four readers are assigned per service for First Lesson (Old Testament), Psalm, Second Lesson (Epistle), and Intercessory Prayer.
 - Reading assignments are sent via an email and also posted on St Matthew Website ("About" tab, "Resources" tab; right side of screen)
 - The text of readings & Intercessory Prayer are included in the Order of Service on St Matthew's Website under the Worship tab at (<https://www.stmattsaustrin.org/Worship/newservices.html>) Click on the specific Date & Time entry to review Readings & Intercessory Prayer. Note: Readings & Prayers are posted on Thursday, prior to Sunday's service.
 - To review readings earlier than Thursday, access the Episcopal Lectionary Calendar (www.lectionarypage.net/). Readings are listed by month & date. Note: Intercessory Prayers are not included on this Website.
 - If reading changes occur then Schedulers will alert the assigned readers as soon as possible.
- ☐ Each Reader should note the identity of the other Readers for that particular Sunday, and the associated reading in case a Reader is absent. The readers present should be prepared to also read the absent reader assignment.

Speaking Tips:

Your reading is for God and the congregation, not about how well you read. To best prepare and overcome nerves, practice the reading. Consider having someone listen and comment on your practice or videotape yourself.

Recite the passage at a moderate rate (140-180 words per minute). To practice, set a timer for 1 minute and read aloud a selected passage. Count the words spoken aloud during this 1 minute. The faster the speech rate, the more likely the speaker trips over words and loses listeners' attention. The slower the speech rate, the more likely it is to lose listeners' attention.

For unfamiliar words and names ask clergy for pronunciation, or visit <https://biblespeak.org/b-words/>, which provides audio assistance.

Read with inflection, but without drama. Do not insert commentary about the reading.

During the reading, minimize body and arm movement.

LAY READER AT START OF SERVICE

15 minutes before start of Service, arrive at Church

Alert the Altar Coordinator (AC) to your presence, so the AC is not seeking substitutes, unnecessarily.

Reconfirm your assigned reading with the AC.

Check that your reading is on the Ambo (large-print version).

Ensure there are four chairs behind the choir for seating of 3 Readers & 1 Acolyte. Alert Ushers to add chairs if needed.

5 minutes before start of Service

Time permitting, join the Processional team at the Font in the Lobby for last minute changes and the Processional prayer.

Suggestion: Take a temporary seat in Section 1 (choir side, close to the west side alcove), near the front to reduce travel time. This seating also reduces congregation distraction when Readers take temporary seats behind the Choir.

Readings (First Lesson, Psalm, Second Lessons, and Intercessory Prayer

Readings in a large font have been placed on the Ambo (lectern) prior to the start of the service. Readers do NOT need to take an Order of Service or a Book of Common Prayer to the Ambo.

Rarely do large-print readings on the Ambo differ from the scheduled readings. If there is a difference then the Ambo readings take precedence.

Ambo Readings

The Ambo has the large-print readings, an Order of Service, Preacher notes, announcements. Take your time to ensure your reading is readily accessible.

Words of introduction for the reading (Example: "A reading from Paul the Apostle") are included in the large print version. If this introduction is missing then Page 8-9 in this Customary has the formal announcement, Ex: The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians)

It is preferred that Readers do NOT include chapter or verses in announcing the reading, just the book name.

LAY READER DURING SERVICE

Readers moving from congregational seating to Ambo and back:

1. During the KYRIE, before the Presider delivers the Collect of the Day, Readers for the 1st Lesson, Psalm, & 2nd Lesson walk to the left of the choir, behind the organ to chairs at the back wall, near the foot of the Chancel (red carpeted platform). Readers are encouraged to be seated to reduce congregational distraction.
2. Be aware of the other Readers and their readings, so there is no confusion on reading order in stepping onto the Chancel to the Ambo. If a Reader is absent, then one of the Readers present should be prepared to read that lesson as well.
3. To avoid interference between readers as they are concurrently ascend & descend to the Ambo, the reader ascending keeps on the side of the handrail nearer the back of the chancel, while the reader descending keeps on the side of this handrail nearer the congregation.
4. At the Sequence hymn, all these Readers return to their congregation seats..

First Lesson Reader:

1. As the Collect is read (not after), this Reader steps to the foot of the Chancel. When Collect is completed, the Reader steps onto the Chancel, proceeds to the Ambo, adjusts the microphone, so it points to their mouth, and announces the reading.
2. After announcing the reading the Reader commences to read. This Reader finishes the reading with "The Word of the Lord." Congregation responds, "Thanks be to God."
3. The Reader steps off the Chancel, staying to the handrail closer to the congregation, and returns to a seat behind the Choir.

Psalm Reader:

1. Before the First Lesson is completed, the Psalmist steps to the foot of the Chancel. When the First Lesson is completed, the Psalmist steps onto the Chancel, and ascends at the handrail nearest the back of the chancel, as the First Reader is descending on the opposite side of this rail..
2. This reader proceeds to the Ambo, adjusts the microphone to their mouth, and announces the "The Psalm appointed for today is Psalm and also announces how it is to be read (Ex: "Congregation reads responsively by half verse." x or whole verse)." The large print version and the Order of Service indicate these instructions.
3. This reader leads the reading. If reading order not printed in the order of service or on the Ambo copy then the following rules apply:
 - For 6 or fewer verses, Psalmist & Congregation read the complete psalm in unison
 - For an even number of verses exceeding 7, Psalmist & Congregation read by alternating whole verse.
 - For an odd number of verses exceeding 6, Psalmist & Congregation read by alternating half-verse.
4. There is no response from the congregation when finished.
5. The Reader steps off the Chancel, staying to the handrail closer to the congregation, and returns to a seat behind the Choir.

Second Lesson Reader:

1. Before the end of the Psalms, the Second Readers steps to the foot of the Chancel. When the Psalm is completed, the Second Reader steps onto the Chancel, and ascends at the handrail nearest the back of the chancel, as the Psalmist is descending.
2. This reader proceeds to the Ambo, adjusts the microphone to their mouth, and announces the reading with words such as "A reading from...." followed by its title included in the large printer version on the Ambo (if missing then see Pages 7-8 for proper announcement of the reading).
3. After announcing the reading the Reader commences to read. This LR finishes the reading by saying, "The Word of the Lord," and after the congregation responds, "Thanks be to God."
4. This Reader steps off the Chancel, staying to the handrail closer to the congregation, and returns to a seat behind the Choir.

Sequence Hymn preceding the Gospel Reading:

During the Sequence Hymn, preceding the Gospel, the readers depart from their temporary seats behind the choir and return to their seats in the congregation.

Intercessory Prayers Reader:

1. Given the Intercessory Prayer is in Large Print on the AMBO, this Reader does not need to bring an Order of Worship or BCP with them.
2. As the Presiding Priest begins the reading of the Nicene Creed, this Reader proceeds to the left of the choir, and behind the organ to chairs near the foot of the Chancel at the back wall and sits. The Reader is encouraged to be seated in one of the empty chairs to be less distracting to the congregation. If chairs are not available then the reader stands on the tile floor next to the wall at the foot of the Chancel.
3. During the final paragraph of the Nicene Creed, this Reader steps to the foot of the Chancel.
4. When the Creed is finished, immediately steps onto the Chancel; proceeds to the AMBO; adjusts the microphone to their mouth, and announces with these words "Prayers of the People are found in the The Order of Service (no page need be indicated) or in the Book of Common Prayer, Page No. & Form No."
5. When the Intercessory Prayer is read from the BCP allow a 3-5 second pause to enable congregants to locate the prayer form in the BCP.
6. When the Intercessory Prayer is completed, this Reader pauses at the AMBO, until the Presiding priest delivers the concluding Collect
7. After the Concluding Collect, this Reader descends from AMBO and off the Chancel and returns to their congregation seat.

Conclusion: You will never deliver a perfect reading, and nobody expects you to be perfect, but they love you and are pulling for you.

SCHEDULING: Lay Readers

1. A typical 10:30 Service has 1-4 Priests, 1-3 Acolytes, 1 Altar Coordinator, 4-7 LEMs, 1 LEMALT, and 3-4 Lay Readers, including Youth Readers (normally Epistle).
2. Availability requests are issued by Schedule Coordinators through email and a Google Shared document link. Requests are issued mid-month of the preceding month for the month to be scheduled.
3. Please ensure Coordinator EMAILS are accepted in incoming email, not routed to spam.
4. Typically, Readers are scheduled once or twice a month, but for a 5 Sunday month may be scheduled a 3rd time.
5. Availability requests for non-Sunday Services, such as Easter, Christmas, & funerals, will occur.
6. Please respond to these availability requests as quickly as possible. If you are not sure of your availability during the month, then at least provide specific dates that you know that you will NOT be available to serve. Not responding by the requested date will indicate you have no conflicts and you may be scheduled as needed.
7. Monthly schedules are distributed via email prior to the first Sunday of each month, and posted on bulletin boards in the Lobby, Office, & Sacristy, and to St Matthew's Web at <http://www.stmattsAustin.org/About/lem-lector-and-evening-prayer.html>
8. Updates are published as needed.
9. Weekly reminders are sent via email several days prior to the assigned service date to only those scheduled to serve on that date. This Reminder supersedes the Monthly posted schedule, reflecting real-time changes.
10. If you are unable to serve your assigned date, please seek your own substitute. Open the monthly LEM-LR schedule assignments email, and REPLY ALL to request a substitute. Then inform the Coordinator and scheduled Altar Coordinator for that service with the name of the substitute. Reminder: Do not assume other assigned Readers will cover your assignment.
