

Press Release Monday January 31, 2011 for immediate release.

Trinity Episcopal Church, Williamsport will host a School of Healing (Level 1) on April 1 through 3, 2011. Registration deadline is February 28, 2011. A registration form is included as page 2.

WHAT is it?

The School of Healing is a program of Christ the King Spiritual Life Center's Healing Ministry, directed by The Rev. Nigel Mumford, an Episcopal priest and the speaker at last October's well-attended Diocesan Conference on Prayer & Healing. The C-t-K Center is located in Greenwich NY and offers the School of Healing as a resident or as a commuter course, as well as making it available to churches, like Trinity, who wish to have the School come to them. You can read more about the School of Healing and Fr. Mumford at www.CtKCenter.org. The School offers four (4) levels of teaching each with a different curriculum. It is the organizers' intent to host Levels 2, 3, and 4 at some time in the future, providing there is sufficient interest.

WHO should attend?

- Any Christian healing minister or ministry team
- Any Christian health care professional interested in prayer as a complement to modern medical treatment
- Any Christian who wonders what happened to the healing works performed by Jesus and by laypeople and leaders of the early church
- Any Christian who wonders why these "miracles" no longer seem to be happening
- Any Christian who feels a call to pray for healing
- Any Christian who wants to discover whether they have a gift for healing
- Clergy as well as laity

WHERE, WHEN & HOW MUCH?

The April 1-3 School of Healing will meet at Trinity, Williamsport for three full days. Although a final schedule has not yet been approved, organizers anticipate that the morning session will begin at 8 or 9 a.m. There will be a break for lunch (included), and the afternoon session will take us up to dinner time. After a communal dinner (also included), the School will continue into the evening hours.

A special effort has been made to make this teaching available at a reasonable cost. At $100 per person for all three days, compared to the $400 per person for the resident course, it is a real bargain. Enrollment is limited, so do not delay!

We recognize that this schedule will require participants to take Friday off work, and that out-of-town participants will also need to reserve a hotel room for two nights. However, the importance of the high quality information that participants will take home makes the prior planning required well worth the price. Each day's teaching builds a foundation for the next, so we cannot accept applicants for less than the three full days. We encourage health care professionals to arrange to be out of the office on Friday, April 1st, and clergy to plan now for a supply priest for Sunday, April 3rd.
