Deepen your understanding of Godly Play® from the inside out!

Danville has had the gift of hosting multiple teacher accreditation events. There is a group of Godly Players who just keep coming back and building a circle to continue their own journey of learning and growing. In respect for the hunger and dedication of this group, the Godly Play Foundation is offering a two day enrichment event. We will take all the core components of Godly Play® and go deeper and play harder with each other, with the stories, with the wondering, with the response time, with the spiral curriculum and in it all inviting and welcoming God's presence and co-participation.

Some of the components will include:

- Enriching the core stories with volume 6 lessons, side by sides and synthesis lessons.
- Deepening our understanding of the spiral curriculum
- Revisiting our understanding of children showing us the way to mature spirituality
- Spending the weekend as a spiritual retreat, worshipping and learning as a Christian community

Come, bringing your own experience, your own wonder, your own questions and desire to continue this spiritual practice we call Godly Play.

Upon registration you will be sent a preview copy of "How do You Know Godly Play® When You See It" by Jerome W. Berryman. This will become part of the revised edition of Teaching Godly Play, A Sunday Morning Handbook which is schedule to go to print by the end of the year.

This enrichment experience will be led by Caryl Menkhuis and Lois Howard. Caryl is a Quaker Pastor and the Godly Play Foundation's Associate Director of Training. Lois is a vocational Deacon in the Episcopal Diocese of Lexington.

Registration Fee: $250 paid by April 3, 2009
 $325 paid after April 3, 2009
