

Carl Nafzger

Hall of Fame Thoroughbred Trainer comes to St. Francis

Join us

Sunday, April 19th at 10 a.m. ...

...as Carl talks to us about “Faith in the Midst of Adversity.” Carl Nafzger was a bull rider in the 1960's before turning to thoroughbred training. He won the Kentucky Derby and the Breeder's Cup Classic with Unbridled in 1990 and he won his second Derby with Street Sense in 2007. Street Sense went on to win the Breeders Cup Juvenile making him the only horse in history to win the Derby and the Breeder's Cup Juvenile. He also trained Banshee Breeze, the champion filly of 1998. He was inducted into the National Museum of Racing Hall of Fame and the Rodeo Hall of Fame, both in 2008. He will be discussing Faith in the face of adversity. "If you don't believe in God, study my life!" (Quote from the Courier Journal) He says his stable's goal “is to do the best you can do, and God will do the rest.” Come join us for worship at 9 a.m. and afterword, we'll gather in Graves Hall at 10 a.m. to hear what else Carl has to say!
