The 69th Biennial Convention Rules Outlining Appropriate Conduct

1. All sessions are required for delegates.

2. All persons participating must be properly registered.

3. All sessions will begin on time and will be listed in the Convention program book in eastern daylight time.

4. Requests for announcements must be submitted in writing to the Fraternity Executive Director by June 13, 2020. Tracey Doebling Williams is the Fraternity Executive Director.

5. The parliamentary authority for the Convention is the parliamentary writings of General Henry M. Robert (Robert’s Rules of Order), as required by the Fraternity Constitution in Article XXIV. Tina Syring is the Fraternity Parliamentarian.

6. Delegates at a General Session or the Election Forum should make every effort to ensure their space is distraction free, so they are able to conduct the business of the Fraternity.

7. All motions shall be emailed to dgevents@deltagamma.org. The mover will be acknowledged by the chair and shall give their name and chapter/role for which they are a delegate. It is not necessary for the seconder of the motion to do so.

8. Requests to discuss a motion must be made through the chat feature in the online Convention meeting platform. The chair will then recognize the delegate. They may not speak more than twice to the same question nor longer than three minutes at a time without the permission of the assembly.

9. It is permissible for non-delegates to speak from the floor on questions under consideration, but they may not originate a motion or vote. The non-delegate may speak just once on the subject and for no longer than two minutes.

10. Only voting delegates in good standing may vote on any matter, including votes in General Sessions, Election Forum and Regional Meetings.
