

Fraternity Programs Funded by the Foundation

Alcohol Skills Training Program (ASTP)

ASTP is a program designed to provide our collegiate members with information regarding alcohol use and its associated negative consequences. Its aim is to provide realistic, safe alcohol practices to our collegiate members.

How chapters receive ASTP:

Chapters will receive the program on a three-year cycle. When a chapter is selected, the president and vp: member education will receive an email asking the chapter to submit date preferences.

Behind Happy Faces

Behind Happy Faces is a one-of-a-kind mental health curriculum. The program uses cutting-edge educational videos and lesson plans to enhance the emotional development of young people. The goal of the curriculum is to give students the tools they need to address mental health effectively by providing a more complete education of mental health, brain development, coping mechanisms and the important steps to help a friend in crisis. Delta Gamma developed two custom lesson plans, "Talk to a Sister" and "Understanding Mental Health."

How to utilize Behind Happy Faces:

The Behind Happy Faces mental health curriculum is a part of Delta Gamma's revised member education model, DG Dialogues, which has replaced Pursuits. Chapters will complete four programs over the academic year, one program tied to each value in Article II: friendship, educational & cultural interests, social responsibility, and character. Most DG Dialogues programs, including the Behind Happy Faces curriculum, will be completed in small groups of 10 to 15 members. The "Talk to a Sister" curriculum can be used as a friendship program and the "Understanding Mental Health" curriculum can be used as a character program.

Bronze, Pink & YOU

Bronze, Pink & YOU is a monthly awareness campaign on Delta Gamma's social media platforms (Facebook, Twitter and Instagram). Each month, the campaign targets a different health and wellness initiative. These initiatives can help our collegiate members start conversations within their chapters and on their campus, as well as our alumnae supporters, and our campus partners to educate and empower others to make positive and meaningful change. Each month's initiative empowers our members to "Do Good", in a unique way specific to each topic.

GreekLifeEdu

GreekLifeEDU is an online program that addresses the critical issues of alcohol awareness, sexual assault, and hazing for incoming fraternity and sorority members. By leveraging trends and incorporating multiple evidence-based learning theories, GreekLifeEDU achieves behavior change objectives and helps members practice safer decision making. Throughout the program, members are reminded of their values and strengths, and challenged to consider ways to leverage them throughout different interactive scenarios.

How members participate in GreekLifeEdu:

Delta Gamma new members are introduced to GreekLifeEDU in week two of the new member period. Each academic term Delta Gamma new members are required to complete the program that includes a survey about their attitudes and behaviors regarding common risky behaviors for college students.

Human Dignity Workshop

The newly redesigned Human Dignity Workshop is a half-day, interactive learning experience that guides participants through an exploration of the concept of dignity as it relates to new members, sisters, other students, and the world. Participants will learn how dignity is a verb and action that they can cultivate. They will examine healthy relationships, identify opportunities and positive examples, learn how to create emotionally-safe environments and hold small-group conversations about how to support each other in practicing dignity.

How chapters receive a Human Dignity Workshop:

Chapters will receive the program on a three-year cycle. When a chapter is selected, the president and vp: member education will receive an email asking the chapter to submit date preferences.

Lewis Institute

The Lewis Institute is an extraordinary leadership initiative and is our own Delta Gamma values-based leadership training experience. Sessions are held each summer at Ohio Wesleyan University for emerging chapter leaders.

How to attend the Lewis Institute:

Each chapter is required to send at least one rising junior each summer. Lewis Institute registration details will be sent to all chapter presidents in January/February.

Leveraging Leaders

This program provides scholarships to collegiate members to attend values-based leadership development programs, such as the Undergraduate Interfraternity Institute (UIFI) and LeaderShape. It also provides scholarships to alumnae members to attend leadership development programs.

How to apply for a Leveraging Leaders Scholarship:

Collegians: If eligible, an email will be sent to the chapter president in March outlining the application process.
Alumnae: Refer to the Alumnae Leveraging Leaders Registration Guide on the Delta Gamma Library.

Mock Trial

Mock Trial is a values-based approach to risk management and liability education. Participants will identify risky behaviors such as substance abuse, academic dishonesty, hazing, harassment, personal safety concerns and other issues that are specific to their chapter and campus environment. A Mock Trial FAQ sheet is available on the Delta Gamma Library to learn more about the program.

How to request Mock Trial:

Chapters can request a Mock Trial presentation by filling out the Mock Trial request form.

Mu Chapter Lamp of Knowledge Program

Dangles, which can be worn with a member's badge, are given to members who earn their first 4.0 G.P.A.

How to receive your Lamp of Knowledge:

The collegiate director of scholarship will complete the Submit Grades task on e-Ops+ each term. Based on this information, Executive Offices staff will send the appropriate number of lamps to each chapter.

One Student – Kelly & Becca

Kelly and Becca are experts on sexual assault awareness and prevention and sexual empowerment and have been nationally recognized for their achievements in sexual assault education and prevention. They are the founders of Unite for Change, a national campaign to promote sexual assault education and prevention, and creators of the popular educational tool Sexversations. In 2010 Kelly and Becca founded the non-profit organization One Student, because of their core belief that one sexual assault is too many and one student can make a difference. They have been featured on Dateline NBC, CNN, Fox and Friends, The Fox Morning Show, ABC, CBS, Marie Claire, Cosmopolitan and NPR.

Delta Gamma's partnership with One Student demonstrates our commitment to creating a Culture of Care – one that supports women and gives them the resources they need to confront sexual violence. One in five women will be sexually assaulted by the time they graduate college, per The Campus Sexual Assault (CSA) Study. It is our hope this partnership with one student will help lead the conversation on consent and sexual empowerment. Through this partnership, we are committed to providing resources to empower our collegiate and alumnae members.

How to request a One Student presentation:

Chapters can request financial assistance to help bring Kelly and Becca to speak to their campus/chapter by filling out a financial assistance form here.

PRO Program

A network of more than 20 professional Delta Gamma alumnae who share their time and talent by speaking to our collegiate chapters and alumnae groups.

How to request a PRO Speaker:

Refer to the PRO Information Sheet on the Delta Gamma Library.
