What is debt, and how to handle different types, from NerdWallet: https://www.nerdwallet.com/article/finance/debt

More on interest rates, and how they change over time and depend on various credit scores: https://www.valuepenguin.com/loans/average-loan-interest-rates

A deeper dive on how interest rates work and how they relate to the broader economy: https://money.howstuffworks.com/interest-rate.htm

How to use your credit report to find out more about your debt, from Debt.com: https://www.debt.org/credit/report/

The official Vertex42 debt reduction calculator, including a demo video on how to use it and a link to the paid extended version with space for more than 10 debts: https://www.vertex42.com/Calculators/debt-reduction-calculator.html

More on the pros and cons of various debt payoff methods, from Money Under 30: https://www.moneyunder30.com/snowball-vs-avalanche

What is a balance transfer, and should I do one, from NerdWallet: https://www.nerdwallet.com/article/credit-cards/balance-transfer-3

A mortgage refinance calculator, from SmartAsset: https://smartasset.com/refinance/refinance-calculator

The official repayment calculator tool from StudentAid.gov, for analyzing your repayment options: https://studentaid.gov/loan-simulator/

Other creative tools for paying down debt more quickly, from The Penny Hoarder: https://www.thepennyhoarder.com/debt/creative-debt/