Dear Sirs;

Working as the Assistant Trainer with the Montreal Expos Baseball Club poses some problems on the road. One of the biggest problems is what to do with the spare time we have on the road. Your game, gentlemen, has helped myself and some of the other members of the ball club to pass the long hours away enjoying the reality of your game. We have found that your game is the most realistic of the baseball games.

Unfortunately, I have only the 1977 and 78 baseball teams. I would appreciate you sending to my off-season Nova Scotia address, the 1979 teams and, as soon as they are available, the 1980 teams. I am not sure of the price of these teams anymore, but they used to be $11.25 in 1977, so I have enclosed a U.S. money order for $26.00 for the two teams. If the current price is higher than this, please bill me.

Please send the 1979 season teams as soon as possible, and the 1980 teams when they are available to my Nova Scotia address.

Thank you for the hours of enjoyment you have given me and my team members.

Yours in baseball,

Paul Gauvreau
Assistant Trainer
Montreal Expos Baseball Club
