

Dear sirs:

This just a little bio for your marketing department about our Strat baseball group operating since 1988, and playing Stratomatic baseball board game starting in the latter 60's!!

ParadiseCanyonLeague.com is a Strato league for baseball only, created in 1988 by a bunch of friends who've been playing the game in their pre-teen years as huge fans of baseball. The friends consist of 2 brothers, 2 cousins, and 4 friends from high school/college years, now in their early 50's. All professions include 2 psychologists, 2 regional managers for a title company and bond company, 1 teacher, 1 lawyer, 1 banker, and 1 television cameraman. The living areas that we are from are Los Angeles, Seattle, San Diego, New Jersey, and Connecticut.

We have gone from a dice and card league with the advances of the computer, to a computer only mail league with at the most 15 teams playing 90 games (45 home and 45 away) and now down to 12 teams / 3 divisions. Our playoffs consist of 3 division winners and 2 wildcard teams. A best of 7 game format for each series and the finals, decides the overall champion.

We each keep a minimum of 15 players each year on every team out of a 25 player roster, with a minor league of 5 players for a total of 30 on each team.

Our annual draft (which use to be a draft only league) consists of the prior years' team with last place to 1st place the order of drafting new players. Within the last 5 years, we have gone to an auction league so each team can bid in auction format on any particular available player. $275 is our per team salary cap. We also assign seniority years to each player with a graduating system of 1 to 4 years. If a team holds onto a player for 4 years, he retains RFA (restricted free agent) rights to that player, and can match in the auction, the highest bid and retain that player for that matching bid.

We write up each teams instructions on batting orders, manager tendencies, pitching rotations and send those to each manager via email attachments. Each game and series results are sent to one stats comptroller via email by each home team.

We award an annual trophy for the World Series champion.

Sincerely,
MICHAEL J. DENTON
PCL MARKETING REP.
