Contemplation: "There are a lot of people who love the autumn. I am one of them. Among the reasons I do is a beautiful visual reminder this season gives me each year: it tells me to let go. I see all of those falling leaves as a metaphor for shedding what I no longer need to stay spiritually healthy. I let go of built up assumptions, dried out opinions, withered attitudes. I drop my pretenses and my prejudices. The cool wind of renewal can take the pride piled at my feet so that I can be ready to grow once more. Autumn is the season of purification, when the old makes way for the new." – Bishop Steven Charleston

Almighty God, we pray that You will bless our work in mission and ministry in the world. We give thanks for the gifts of joy and wonder to be found in Your works. Make us so thankful for the power of Your love, given through Your Son, Jesus, that we may pray, labor and give liberally to make known that love throughout the world. We are women and girls of all ages and ethnic backgrounds, who offer You our ministries at home, in the workplace, community, and school. Bless us that our lives may shine forth the joy and wonder we share in Your Name, Amen. Pray together
