Leader: Standing or kneeling, let us pray to the Lord.

We pray for the churches of the world, that God will rouse the careless, recover the fallen, and strengthen the faithful. King of Kings, guide us.

We pray for the bishops and others who lead Christian communities around the world, especially [church leaders by name], that God will bless and keep them. King of Kings, hear us.

We pray for the leaders of the nations, especially [political leaders by name], that God will enlighten them and guide them in paths of justice and peace. King of Kings, lead us.

We pray for our neighbors, that they may see in our words and actions the Kingdom of God coming near. King of Kings, strengthen us.

We pray for all bishops, priests, and deacons, monks, nuns, religious sisters and brothers, and all those who have consecrated their lives to God, that they may have courage and joy in their vocations. King of Kings, bless us.

We pray for all who suffer in body, mind, or spirit, especially:
that they may find comfort and wholeness. King of Kings, heal us.

We pray for our partners in mission, especially [churches in the diocesan and Anglican Communion cycles of prayer], that together with them, we may build the Kingdom of God. King of Kings, unite us.

We pray for all who have died, especially:

that they may have rest in heaven. King of Kings, save us.

King of Glory,
reign in our hearts,
reign in our lives,
and accept the prayers of your people.
Amen.
