The Prayers of the People
Trinity Sunday

Leader: Standing or kneeling, let us pray.

For all the people of the household of God, that we may be one as God is one, we pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

For the leaders of the Church, especially [church leaders by name], that they may be guided by Holy Wisdom, we pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

For the leaders of the nations, especially [political leaders by name], that they may use the power entrusted to them to bring justice and peace, we pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

For all in our community who are in any need or trouble, that we may know them to be our brothers and sisters, and that we may know ourselves to be the hands of God, we pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

For policemen, firemen, emergency medical personnel, and all who protect and serve us, that they may have strength and skill, wisdom and grace, and that they may perform their duties surrounded by the Holy Angels, we pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

For the sick, the lonely, the lost, and all for whom our prayers are asked, especially:

_____________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________

_____________________________________________________

that they will find comfort and hope, we pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

For our partners in mission, especially [churches in the diocesan and Anglican Communion cycles of prayer], that they may be bold witnesses of the Gospel, we pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.

For all who have died, especially:
that their spirits may have peace and light in the presence of God, we pray to the Lord. Lord hear our prayer.