Description

OVERVIEW

If sitting on the couch isn't exactly your cup of tea, Keystone Carbon fifth wheel toy haulers may be your ticket to an endless supply of weekend exploration. Carbon's burly construction and practical comfort make them one of the best toy haulers for dirt bikes and side-by-sides. Models range from about 12,000-14,000 lb with carrying capacities topping out around 5,000 lb. Carbon fifth wheels have all of the features that make the brand an exceptional value---frame-welded tie-downs, painted front cap, EXCLUSIVE Omni-Chill(tm) high-efficiency A/C systems, hydraulic auto-leveling, and full solar power prep.
