ARISING INDUSTRIES, INC. began production in January, 2008, after many months of planning, analysis, and design of a product that offers something different in the enclosed cargo trailer industry. We are not the cheapest, but we offer the best value on the market. We began looking at this business from the perspective of an end consumer. What does he want? Simply, the most value for the least dollar. ARISING INDUSTRIES, INC. has brought together a management, production, and sales team with many years experience in all aspects of the cargo trailer business. Our goal is not to be the biggest, but to be one of the best. Our mission statement is simple: “Just Do The Right Thing.”
