INTRODUCTION

The Board should grant the protests of the three categories of election protests before it.

The Protestors have filed protests with the county election boards that fall under six broad legal theories. On 20 November 2024, this Board entered an order exercising jurisdiction over three of those theories, which are primarily driven by questions of law. The Board ordered the Protestors to submit this brief in support of these three legal theories. The Board should grant each of the protests before it.

First, ballots were cast by people who did not lawfully register to vote. State law has long required voter applicants to provide their drivers license or social security number before being lawfully registered to vote. However, approximately 60,000 people cast votes in the protested elections without providing that statutorily required information on their voter applications. These voters were not eligible to cast a ballot without first lawfully registering.

Second, county boards of elections have accepted ballots cast by voters who have, by their own admission, never resided in North Carolina. Our state constitution limits eligible voters in state races to North Carolina residents. The county boards, however, have accepted votes from people who were born outside the United States and have never lived anywhere in the United States. The votes of these “Never Residents” cannot be lawfully counted in elections for state offices.

Third, the Board cannot accept absentee ballots cast by people who failed to provide photo identification with their ballots. County boards accepted ballots cast by overseas voters who did not provide photo identification. But state law requires all voters to provide photo identification to vote; overseas voters casting absentee ballots do not get special treatment.

Next, the Protestors anticipate that their opponents will contest whether the Board can consider these election protests at all. The opponents have already argued to this Board that it cannot sustain the election protests because they instead should have been filed as voter challenges. But this Board and our Supreme Court have already rejected this argument.

Finally, the Protestors also anticipate that their opponents may contest the timeliness of some of the election protests. This argument also fails. The vast majority of the election protests were filed on or before 5:00pm on 19 November 2024. The handful of others that may have come later were no more than a couple minutes late. That still constitutes substantial compliance under the election protest statutes, and substantial compliance is all that's required.

ARGUMENT

I. The Board Cannot Count the Votes of People Who Did Not Lawfully Register to Vote.

Before anyone can vote for a state race in North Carolina, he or she must be lawfully registered to vote. Our election boards, however, have been registering people to vote who failed to include their drivers license or social security numbers in their voter registration applications—statutorily required information. These ballots, therefore, lack statutory authorization.

A. State law prohibits anyone from voting unless he has provided a drivers license or social security number when registering to vote.

Under state law, a person must provide his drivers license or social security number at the time of registration before he can lawfully cast a ballot.

Before voting in an election, a person must lawfully register to vote. Under article VI of the state constitution, “[e]very person offering to vote shall be at the time legally registered as a voter as herein prescribed and in the manner provided by law.” N.C. Const. art. VI, § 3(1). That’s also true by statute: “No person shall be permitted to vote who has not been registered under” the state’s registration statutes. See N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-82.1(a) (making registration a “prerequisite to voting”).

The protests here involve people who were not legally registered to vote in a manner provided by law, section 163-82.4, because they failed to provide statutorily required application information. Since January 2004, state law has required voter registrants to provide their drivers license or social security number in their voter application. N.C. Sess. Law 2003-226, § 9 (amending N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-82.4), § 22 (amendment effective 1 January 2004). The State Board of Elections is required to create an application form for voter registration. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-82.3(a). From 2004 onward, the General Assembly commanded that the form require an applicant to provide his “[d]rivers license number or, if the applicant does not have a drivers license number, the last four digits of the applicant's social security number." Id. § 163-82.4(a)(11). However, a board can accept an application without a drivers license or social security number only if the applicant "has not been issued either a current and valid drivers license or a social security number." Id. § 163-82.4(b).

There's a statutory cure process for this type of registration error, but the errors raised in these protests have not been cured. If a person has a drivers license or social security number, but fails to provide those numbers on their voter application, then the election board shall not allow the person to vote unless the voter cures the deficient application before the county canvass deadline. The statutory cure procedure applies to a voter who "fails to complete any required item on the voter registration form." Id. § 163-82.4(f). The board shall notify the voter of the omission and request completion of a corrected application before the county canvass. Id. Only if the required information is delivered by that time will the voter's ballot be counted. Id. ("If the correct information is provided to the county board of elections by at least 5:00 P.M. on the day before the county canvass, the board shall count any portion of the provisional official ballot that the voter is eligible to vote."). No state law, however, permits a board of elections to count a ballot for a person who never provided a drivers license or social security number on his voter registration form.

Mandating such information from voter registrants is not unique to North Carolina. For federal elections, Congress also requires the states to collect the drivers license or social security number from registrants. 52 U.S.C. § 21083(a)(5)(A)(i). If a person with a drivers license or social security card fails to provide those identifiers on a voter application form, then the application “may not be accepted or processed by a State.” Id.

Although federal law doesn’t apply to elections for state offices—such as the ones at issue here—this federal prerequisite to voting in federal elections corroborates the importance of collecting such information from would-be voters. In other words, the information required by the General Assembly is not some new law designed to burden voters but a decades-old feature of American election law that protects the integrity of our elections.

B. This Board admits that it broke the law.

The Board broke the law for twenty years.

Despite the clarity in the law since 2003, this Board did not require voters to provide a drivers license or social security number when people registered to vote. Before December 2023, the voter application form appeared like this:

As this image reveals, the application did not tell registrants that these identifiers were required because it was not in red text. Yet this information is required. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-82.4(a)(11).

The Board admitted this violation of law when it entered an order on an administrative complaint from 2023 that raised the issue. In that order, the Board concluded that a related provision of federal law could be violated “as a result of the current North Carolina voter registration application form failing to require an applicant to provide an identification number or indicate that they do not possess such a number.” Order at 4, In re HAVA Complaint of Carol Snow (N.C. State Bd. of Elections Dec. 6, 2023) [App. 4]. The Board ordered its staff to revise the form going forward.¹ Id. But the Board declined to remedy its past legal violations.

Now, however, the issue has caused irregularities in the protested elections, and those irregularities may well be outcome dispositive.

II. The Boards of Election Cannot Count the Votes of People Who Have Never Lived Here.

At the core of any democracy is a definition of who is within the political community and who is not. When it comes to voting in North Carolina elections for candidates to state offices, our constitution restricts voting rights to people who reside in North Carolina “to preserve the basic conception of a political community.” Lloyd v. Babb, 296 N.C. 416, 449, 251 S.E.2d 843, 864 (1979). That is why, months ago, our Supreme Court explained that “nonresidents” are “categorically ineligible to vote” for state offices. Bouvier v. Porter, 386 N.C. 1, 4 n.2, 900 S.E.2d 838, 843 n.2 (2024).

¹ In light of this order, the Board’s counsel has advised county boards that they cannot register new voter applicants who fail to provide a drivers license or social security number and who also fail to “state in writing that they lack these numbers.” Email of Paul Cox, N.C. State Bd. of Elections, to Directors of County Bds. of Election (Sept. 4, 2024) [App. 6-7].

Yet people voted in the general election who, by their own admission, were born overseas and have never resided in North Carolina or anywhere else in the United States. These overseas voters are United States citizens, but they aren’t residents of North Carolina who can vote for state contests. It’s unlawful to count the votes of these “Never Residents.”

A. The state constitution forbids election boards from counting the votes of “Never Residents.”

The North Carolina Constitution defines the political community for purposes of voting in our elections. No one can vote in a state election unless they meet the “qualifications” in article VI of the constitution. N.C. Const. art. VI, § 1. The constitution then sets out the first of the qualifications in the voter residency clause. Under that clause, to vote in an election for a state office, a person must have “resided in the State of North Carolina for one year . . . next preceding an election.” Id. § 2(1).

Despite the clarity of this constitutional provision, the election boards permitted people to vote in the general election who have never resided in North Carolina or anywhere else in the United States. The evidence is set out in an affidavit from Ryan Bonifay attached to the relevant protests on this issue. This Board, in response to a public records request sent on 9 November 2024, identified overseas voters who voted in the 2024 general election but who self-identified as having never lived in the United States. Affidavit of Ryan Bonifay (Wake County FPCA), 2-3 ¶¶ 10-12 [App. 9-10].² This Board identified a list of voters who, the Board explained, checked a box on a federal post card application “indicating that they never lived in the United States.” Id. ¶ 12 [App. 10]. Specifically, that checkbox states, “I am a U.S. citizen living outside the country, and I have never lived in the United States.” Id., Attachment 1 [App. 14]. Attachment 2 to each version of the Bonifay affidavit submitted to each county board of election lists the voters who checked that box yet actually voted in the general election. Id. ¶¶ 14-20 & Attachment 2 [App. 10-11, 17].

Someone who has never lived in the United States has never resided in North Carolina. These people, therefore, were not qualified to vote in our state elections under the voter residency clause. Nonetheless, the county election boards counted these votes anyway. Under the state constitution, counting those votes was unlawful.

B. The residency clause is not preempted by the federal constitution.

Opponents of this theory have made several objections. The first is a broadside attack on the state constitution itself.

² A version of this affidavit was filed with each county election board. The only difference among the affidavits is Attachment 2, which identifies the non-resident voters who voted in that county. For convenience, the Protestors are attaching to this brief a copy of the Bonifay FPCA Affidavit submitted to the Wake County Board of Elections. See App. 8-17.

In Dunn v. Blumstein, 405 U.S. 330 (1972), the U.S. Supreme Court considered whether a one-year durational residency requirement, as a prerequisite to registering to vote, violated the equal protection clause of the Fourteenth Amendment. Dunn v. Blumstein, 405 U.S. 330, 334 (1972). The Court held that a one-year residency requirement was too long to comply with the equal protection clause. Id. at 334.

Importantly, however, the Court explained what was not at issue. The Court emphasized that it was not ruling on whether Tennessee could “restrict the vote to bona fide Tennessee residents.” Id. The plaintiff-challenger was, without dispute, a Tennessee resident “when he attempted to register” to vote. Id. The issue, as the Court stated, was not Tennessee’s bona fide residency requirement, but the durational part of the residency requirement. Id. It’s only the durational residency requirement that penalizes someone who has recently moved into the state from elsewhere. Id. Indeed, the Court emphasized that its prior precedent had already established the constitutionality of “bona fide residence requirements”:

We emphasize again the difference between bona fide residence requirements and durational residence requirements. We have in the past noted approvingly that the States have the power to require that voters be bona fide residents of the relevant political subdivision. An appropriately defined and uniformly applied requirement of bona fide residence may be necessary to preserve the basic conception of a political community, and therefore could withstand close constitutional scrutiny. But durational residence requirements, representing a separate voting qualification imposed on bona fide residents, must be separately tested by the stringent standard.

Id. at 343-44 (citations and footnotes omitted).

Our Supreme Court has considered the impact of Dunn on the residency requirement of our own state constitution and determined that the bona fide residency requirement continues to apply. Our Supreme Court explained that Dunn drew a “careful distinction . . . between durational residence requirements and bona fide residence requirements.” Lloyd, 296 N.C. at 439, 251 S.E.2d at 858. Thus, “[a]ppropriately defined and [u]niformly applied bona fide residence requirements are permissible” under the federal constitution. Id. at 440, 251 S.E.2d at 859. And although those “who reside in a community and are subject to its laws must be permitted to vote there,” the corollary is that those who do not reside in a community are not permitted to vote. Id. Citing Dunn, the Court held that “[t]he power of the state to require that voters be bona fide residents is unquestioned.” Id.; accord id. at 441, 251 S.E.2d at 860 (“In both Carrington and Dunn, the Supreme Court made it clear that the states could classify persons as residents and non-residents and forbid non-residents from voting.”).

The continued viability of the state constitution’s bona fide residency requirement has already been confirmed twice this year. Just a few months ago, our Supreme Court confirmed that “nonresidents” are “categorically ineligible to vote” under the residency clause of the state constitution. Bouvier, 386 N.C. at 4 n.2, 900 S.E.2d at 843 n.2 (citing N.C. Const. art. VI, §§ 1-2). And a federal district court held that, under Dunn, North Carolina can enforce a 30-day residency requirement consistent with the federal constitution. N.C. All. for Retired Americans v. Hirsch, No. 5:24-CV-275-D, 2024 WL 3507677, at *13 (E.D.N.C. July 19, 2024) (Dever, J.) (to be published). This is not news to this Board, of course, since the Board was a defendant in that case. The Board adopted the arguments of the legislative intervenors, who successfully argued that a 30-day residency requirement does not violate the federal constitution. State Bd. Defs.’ Resp. to Pl.’s Mot. for Prelim. Inj. at 18-21, N.C. All. for Retired Americans v. Hirsch, No. 5:24-CV-275-D, 2024 WL 3507677 (E.D.N.C. July 19, 2024) [App. 51-54]; Intervenors’ Resp. in Opp. to Pl.’s Mot. for Prelim. Inj. at 6, N.C. All. for Retired Americans v. Hirsch, No. 5:24-CV-275-D, 2024 WL 3507677 (E.D.N.C. July 19, 2024) [App. 23]. The argument adopted by this Board even criticized Dunn as bad law. Intervenors’ Resp. at 21 [App. 54].

The continuing viability of Dunn, however, is irrelevant. As these points show, Dunn does not invalidate the state constitution’s bona fide residency requirement.

Nor can Dunn operate to invalidate the residency clause in its entirety, as Lloyd itself demonstrated. It is not unusual for federal law to limit the applicability of electoral provisions of the state constitution. When such conflict occurs, the state constitution necessarily defers to federal law, but our courts still require that state constitutional provisions be enforced as much as federal law will permit.

Consider, for example, the “whole county” provisions of the state constitution. See N.C. Const. art. II, § 3(3), 5(3). Under these redistricting provisions, “[n]o county shall be divided in the formation of” a senate or representative district. Id. But the “one-person-one-vote” principles of the federal constitution require population equality among legislative districts. Stephenson v. Bartlett, 355 N.C. 354, 363, 562 S.E.2d 377, 384 (2002). In Stephenson, this Board and the other state defendants argued that this federal law rendered the whole county provisions totally unenforceable. Id. at 369, 562 S.E.2d at 388.

Our Supreme Court disagreed. Rather than seek to render state constitutional provisions totally preempted by federal law, “North Carolina courts should make every effort” to reconcile state and federal law and avoid “striking State provisions as wholly unenforceable.” Id. at 370, 562 S.E.2d at 389. Although “an inflexible application of the [whole county provisions] is no longer attainable,” those provisions must still be applied where they serve “beneficial purposes” not inconsistent with federal law. Id. at 371, 562 S.E.2d at 389. The Stephenson Court then found the state legislative districts unconstitutional because they failed to conform to the whole county provisions “to the maximum extent possible.” Id. at 374-75, 562 S.E.2d at 391-92.

The same is true of Dunn and the residency clause. It could be true that, under Dunn, the full durational portion of the residency clause cannot be enforced. But Dunn certainly does not stop states from enforcing a bona fide residency requirement. By its own terms, Dunn validates bona fide residency requirements. 405 U.S. at 343-44. And, at a minimum, our residency clause requires a person to be a resident when they register to vote in the state or actually vote in a state election. Indeed, whether looked at as domicile or residence, a person must at a minimum prove that he has been physically present in the state before voting in our elections. See Lloyd, 296 N.C. at 444, 251 S.E.2d at 861 (“The requisites for domicile are legal capacity, physical presence and intent to acquire domicile.” (emphasis added)); accord id. at 446, 251 S.E.2d at 862 (“[A person] resides where he has his established home, the place where he is habitually present” (quoting Berry v. Wilcox, 62 N.W. 249, 251 (Neb. 1895)).

This Board, like the General Assembly, is required to follow the preemption analysis in Stephenson. That mode of analysis requires the residency clause to be enforced “to the maximum extent possible.” Stephenson, 355 N.C. at 374, 562 S.E.2d at 391. Enforcement of that clause, in the context of this case, requires that persons be bona fide residents of North Carolina when they register to vote or vote in a state election. The voters at issue with this protest have already told the election boards that they have never resided in North Carolina or anywhere else in the United States. They’ve never been bona fide state residents. Therefore, counting the votes of these “Never Residents” violates the North Carolina Constitution.

C. If UMOVA permits these votes to be counted, it is unconstitutional.

Those wanting to count the votes of the “Never Residents” have turned to a state statute, UMOVA, to fulfill their aspirations. Of course, if the statute permits voting by those ineligible to vote under the constitution, it violates the constitution. UMOVA, therefore, should not be read to conflict with the state constitution.

In 2011, the General Assembly enacted the Uniform Military and Overseas Voters Act (UMOVA). N.C. Session Law 2011-182 (enacting N.C. Gen. Stat. §§ 163-258.1 to - 258.20). As the name suggests, this bill was originally drafted by the Uniform Law Commission, which recommended its adoption among the states. When the Commission drafts uniform laws for use by all states, it does not consider the North Carolina Constitution.

UMOVA lets a “covered voter” register to vote in various ways for elections for federal and state offices. See N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-258.3 (defining elections covered by UMOVA); id. § 163-258.6 (setting out methods of registration).

At issue is who counts as a “covered voter.” The relevant definition is provided here in full:

(1) “Covered voter” means any of the following:

a. A uniformed-service voter or an overseas voter who is registered to vote in this State.

b. A uniformed-service voter defined in subdivision (7) of this section whose voting residence is in this State and who otherwise satisfies this State’s voter eligibility requirements.

c. An overseas voter who, before leaving the United States, was last eligible to vote in this State and, except for a State residency requirement, otherwise satisfies this State’s voter eligibility requirements.

d. An overseas voter who, before leaving the United States, would have been last eligible to vote in this State had the voter then been of voting age and, except for a State residency requirement, otherwise satisfies this State’s voter eligibility requirements.

e. An overseas voter who was born outside the United States, is not described in sub-subdivision c. or d. of this subdivision, and, except for a State residency requirement, otherwise satisfies this State’s voter eligibility requirements, if:

1. The last place where a parent or legal guardian of the voter was, or under this Article would have been, eligible to vote before leaving the United States is within this State; and
2. The voter has not previously registered to vote in any other state.

Id. § 163-258.2(1).

Protestors are challenging ballots cast by overseas voters who identified themselves as United States citizens who have never resided in the United States. Such voters could only plausibly count as UMOVA “covered voters” under subsection (1)(e). That subsection defines a covered voter as (1) a United States citizen “born outside the United States,” (2) is not described in subsections (c) and (d) as an overseas voter who previously lived in the United States, (3) meets the state’s voter eligibility requirements except for a “State residency requirement,” (4) the voter’s parent was last eligible to vote in this state before leaving the United States, and (5) the voter hasn’t registered to vote in another state. Id. § 163-258.2(1)(e).

UMOVA doesn’t define the phrase “State residency requirement” that such a voter needs to comply with. The term is not defined anywhere in the Act. As it stands, the phrase is ambiguous as to whether it means a durational residency requirement or a bona fide residency requirement. If the ambiguous phrase were interpreted to mean just a durational residency requirement, it’s possible that UMOVA would, at least in some circumstances, be constitutional under the residency clause, as that clause is limited by Dunn. But if, on the other hand, the ambiguous clause were interpreted to let someone vote who has never been a resident, it would be unenforceable under the bona fide residency requirement of the state constitution.

The canon of constitutional avoidance requires the Board to interpret N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-258.2(1)(e) as exempting overseas voters only from a durational residency requirement, and not a bona fide residency requirement. Only such an interpretation could save the statute from being invalidated. “[W]here one of two reasonable constructions will raise a serious constitutional question, the construction which avoids this question should be adopted.” N.C. State Bd. of Educ. v. State, 371 N.C. 149, 160, 814 S.E.2d 54, 62 (2018) (quoting In re Arthur, 291 N.C. 640, 642, 231 S.E.2d 614, 616 (1977)).

But if the Board does not believe this to be a reasonable interpretation of section 163-258.2(1)(e), then it would be the Board’s duty to refuse to enforce the statute at all. Every official in this state is “bound to give effect to the intent of framers” of the state constitution, as well as the intent “of the people adopting it.” Id. (quoting Beaufort Cty. Bd. of Educ. v. Beaufort Cty. Bd. of Comm’rs, 363 N.C. 500, 505, 681 S.E.2d 278, 282 (2009)). And that intent, based on the plain text of the state constitution, is clear: only residents can vote for state offices.

D. This argument has no impact on votes cast for federal elections, military voters, or North Carolina residents living overseas.

To be clear, the Protestors are not challenging the votes of military voters, nor are Protestors challenging any vote cast for federal contests.

None of the Protestors were candidates for federal offices. And federal statutory law, which imposes duties on states for uniformed services voters and other overseas voters, applies only to “elections for Federal office.” See 52 U.S.C. § 20302(a).

This matters for state law as well. Advocates of “Never Resident” voting have suggested that the General Assembly can reduce the residency requirement to zero days—in other words, write it out of the constitution. Although the argument makes little sense, it also isn't relevant to the protests before the Board. The argument could only work for federal elections. Under the state constitution, [t]he General Assembly may reduce the time of residence for persons voting in presidential elections. A person made eligible by reason of a reduction in time of residence shall possess the other qualifications set out in this Article, shall only be entitled to vote for President and Vice President of the United States or for electors for President and Vice President, and shall not thereby become eligible to hold office in this State.

N.C. Const. art. VI, § 2(2). But this provision does not empower the legislature to trim or eliminate the residency requirement for voting for state offices.

UMOVA also distinguishes between, on one hand, uniformed-service voters and overseas voters who have resided in this state, N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-258.2(1)(a)-(d), and, on the other hand, overseas voters who were born abroad and have never resided in this state, id. § 163-258.2(1)(e). The Protestors have challenged the votes of this latter group only.

Anyway, a servicemember who previously resided in North Carolina but is deployed overseas does not lose his North Carolina residency. Unless a servicemember leaves the state and intends never to return, he remains a resident of the state. See Lloyd, 296 N.C. at 444, 251 S.E.2d at 861 (student who leaves for college becomes resident at the place of his college unless he intends to return to his former home after graduation). Unless the servicemember has “abandoned” his home in North Carolina, he remains a resident here for voting purposes. Id. at 449, 251 S.E.2d at 864.³ By contrast, the “Never Residents” whose votes are being challenged in these protests never had a home in North Carolina that they could abandon.

Our state constitution imposes a commonsense requirement: people who are members of the political community can vote in state elections, and people who aren’t part of the community can’t. If the Board were to count the votes of people who have never been members of our political community, it will violate our state constitution. That harms the Protestors as well as the true members of our state’s political community.

III. Overseas Voters Who Did Not Provide Photo Identification Cannot Cast a Ballot in State Elections.

The final category of protests before the Board involves ballots cast by overseas voters. State law requires these voters to submit photo identification along with their absentee ballots. But the county boards accepted overseas absentee ballots without accompanying identification, in violation of state law.

³ Some proponents of “Never Resident” voting have suggested that these overseas voters “inherit” the residences of their parents. This argument analogizes to the law of domiciliary for infants. Yet the analogy crumbles upon inspection because infants can’t vote. N.C. Const. art. VI, § 1 (voting rights limited to those at least “18 years of age”). Unlike an infant, an 18-year-old chooses where he resides. If he wishes to become a member of North Carolina’s political community, he must decide, as an adult, to reside in North Carolina. Otherwise, he is not a member of our political community entitled to vote. There is no such thing as “birthright residency” for purposes of voting in our state’s elections.

Subchapter VII of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes contains the requirements for all types of absentee-ballot voting in North Carolina. Article 20 of that subchapter sets out the general rules for absentee voting. See N.C. Gen. Stat. §§ 163-226 to -239. Article 21A, also known as UMOVA, layers on additional rules for absentee voting by military and overseas voters. See id. §§ 163-258.1 to -258.31. The general absentee voting provisions of Article 20 apply to overseas absentee voting under Article 21A, and not vice versa. Section 163-239 states, “Except as otherwise provided therein, Article 21A of this Chapter [for overseas absentee voting] shall not apply to or modify the provisions of this Article [20].”

One of the key provisions of Article 20 is the requirement of photo identification for absentee voting. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-230.1(a)(4), (b)(4), (e)(3), (f1). These provisions equalize the burden of voting: both in-person voters and absentee voters must show photo identification to cast a ballot. See id. § 163-166.16(a) (requiring photo identification for in-person voting); N.C. Const. art. VI, §§ 2(4), 3(2) (same). If our legislature intended to exempt overseas absentee voters from the photo identification requirement, it would have said so explicitly.

But overseas voters are not exempt from this equalization requirement, and must provide photo identification to vote. All absentee ballots—cast under either Article 20 or Article 21A—must be transmitted to the relevant county board of elections by placing it in a “sealed container-return envelope.” Id. § 163-231(b)(1). Article 21A, however, makes no reference to a “sealed container-return envelope.” See id. §§ 163-258.1 to -258.31. To understand the requirements of the “sealed container-return envelope” for overseas absentee ballots cast under Article 21A, it's necessary to turn to Article 20. Article 20 is clear that the "sealed container-return envelope" exists, in part, to hold the photo identification of all absentee ballots. The container-return envelope must contain a valid photo identification: "Each container-return envelope returned to the county board with application and voted ballots under this section shall be accompanied by a photocopy of identification" Id. § 163-230.1(f1). The failure to include a photo identification in the container-return envelope is a curable deficiency, but only if the proper identification is received the day before the county canvass. Id. § 163-230.1(e).

Even at a more general level, absentee ballots cast both within and without the United States (Article 20 and Article 21A absentee ballots) are generally treated alike and are all considered absentee ballots:

- "The county board shall report ballots cast during early voting under Part 5 of Article 14A of this Chapter separately from mail-in absentee ballots cast under Article 20 or 21A of this Chapter." Id. § 163-132.5G(a1)(4).
- "The sealed container-return envelope in which executed absentee ballots have been placed shall be transmitted to the county board of elections who issued those ballots as follows . . . All ballots issued under the provisions of this Article and Article 21A of this Chapter shall be transmitted by one of the following means" Id. § 163-231(b).
- The lawful procedure for counting absentee ballots cast under both Article 20 and Article 21A are set out in Article 20. Id. § 163-234.

Ultimately, it would make no sense to require photo identification for voters present in the United States, but not for overseas voters. The General Assembly did not require photo identification for one category of voter and not the other. Rather, everyone in North Carolina, whether voting in person or by any kind of absentee ballot, must submit a photo identification to vote in our elections.

This Board has a rule that purports to let overseas voters cast an Article 21A ballot without providing photo identification. 8 N.C. Admin. Code 17.0109(d). That rule is invalid, however, since it conflicts with the correct interpretation of the statutes, as set out above.

The rule would collapse under the state constitution anyway. If voters are to be treated differently, there must be a rational basis for the differential treatment. See N.C. Const. art. I, § 19 (“No person shall be denied the equal protection of the laws”); Lloyd, 296 N.C. at 439, 251 S.E.2d at 858 (“[A] citizen has a constitutionally protected right to participate in elections on an equal basis with other citizens in the jurisdiction.” (quoting Dunn v. Blumstein, 405 U.S. 330, 336 (1972))); N.C. Bar & Tavern Ass’n v. Cooper, 901 S.E.2d 355, 373 (N.C. Ct. App.), review allowed, 901 S.E.2d 232 (N.C. 2024); Askew v. City of Kinston, 906 S.E.2d 500, 507 (N.C. Ct. App. 2024). But there is no legitimate reason to impose a greater burden—photo identification—on actual North Carolina residents than is imposed on nonresidents casting ballots under Article 21A. There is no reason to think that the General Assembly intended that bizarre, differential treatment, which would violate the state constitution’s equal protection clause.

Therefore, these absentee ballots, submitted under Article 21A, cannot be counted for the contests that are the subject of these election protests.

Judge Griffin filed six protests challenging the eligibility of overseas voters who did not provide a copy of their photo identification (or a completed exemption form). Before filing the protest, counsel to Judge Griffin requested the list of such voters from six counties. See Public Records Request from Philip R. Thomas to Directors of County Election Boards re: UOCAVA Voters (Nov. 19, 2024) [App. 66]. At the time of the filing deadline, one county (Guilford) had provided information that identified such voters, and this list was included with the protest filed in Guilford County. Since filing the protests, Durham and Forsyth Counties have also provided information identifying these voters, and Judge Griffin has filed protest supplements that include these lists. See Letter from Philip R. Thomas to N.C. State Bd. of Elections re: Protest Amendments and Supplementation (Nov. 19, 2024) [App. 67-166]; Letter from Philip R. Thomas to N.C. State Bd. of Elections re: Forsyth County Protest Amendments and Supplementation (Nov. 25, 2024) [App. 167-198]. At the time of filing this brief, Judge Griffin is still awaiting the production of lists from the counties of Buncombe, Cumberland, and New Hanover. Judge Griffin has asked the State Board to issue subpoenas for this information. See Letter from Philip R. Thomas to N.C. State Bd. of Elections re: Request to Issue Subpoenas (Nov. 21, 2024) [App. 199-204].

IV. These Election Protests Were Not Required to Be Brought as Voter Challenges.

The Protestors' opponents have argued that these election protests should fail because they should have been brought as voter challenges. But this argument is wrong, and this Board has already rejected it.

The General Statutes define an election protest as “a complaint concerning the conduct of an election which, if supported by sufficient evidence, may require remedy by” a correction in the returns, a recount, or a new election. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-182(4). In other words, an election protest can challenge any “irregularity” in the conduct of an election that changes the outcome of an election. See id. § 163-182.9. A voter challenge, however, does not seek any of these remedies; it seeks merely to remove a person from the voter rolls. Id. §§ 163-85, -90.2. The key distinction is the remedy being sought.

Such protestable “irregularities” include a county board permitting ineligible persons to vote in elections. In 2016, an election protest was filed by the Pat McCrory campaign in the governor’s race, challenging the eligibility of certain voters to cast ballots in that election. Bouvier, 386 N.C. at 5-6, 900 S.E.2d at 843-44. McCrory’s opponent, Roy Cooper, argued that the protests should be dismissed because they merely challenged the eligibility of certain voters, and therefore should have been brought as voter challenges instead. See Bouvier v. Porter, 279 N.C. App. 528, 542, 865 S.E.2d 732, 741-42, rev’d in part and remanded, 386 N.C. 1, 900 S.E.2d 838 (2024); Order at 1-2, In re Consideration of Certain Legal Questions Affecting the Authentication of the 2016 General Election (N.C. State Bd. of Elections Nov. 28, 2016) [App. 59-60].

This Board rejected Cooper’s argument. Id. [App. 59-60]. In an order on Cooper’s request to dismiss the protests, the Board explained that an election protest “must prove the occurrence of an outcome-determinative violation of election law, irregularity, or misconduct.” Id. at 1 ¶ 3 [App. 59]. Although an election protest “may not merely dispute the eligibility of a voter,” an election protest may challenge a voter’s eligibility if the “claims regarding the eligibility of certain voters” are presented “as evidence that an outcome-determinative violation of election law, irregularity, or misconduct has occurred.” Id. at 2 ¶ 5 [App. 60]. Thus, an election board may “discount a ballot cast by an unqualified voter” if an election protest shows “that ineligible voters participated in number sufficient to change the outcome of the election.” Id. at 2 ¶ 7 [App. 60].

The McCrory election protest spun off collateral litigation that wound up at the Supreme Court of North Carolina as Bouvier v. Porter, 386 N.C. 1, 900 S.E.2d 838 (2024). One of the issues in Bouvier continued to be whether an election protest can challenge the eligibility of certain voters. The Supreme Court affirmed the logic of the Board’s 2016 order, explaining that “an election protest may address any ‘irregularity’ or ‘misconduct’ in the election process, including the counting and tabulation of ballots cast by ineligible voters.” Id. at 4, 900 S.E.2d at 843 (citations omitted). Bouvier then specifically held that an election protest could be used to challenge a ballot cast by a “nonresident,” who is “categorically ineligible to vote.” Id. at 4 n.2, 900 S.E.2d at 843 n.2.

Thus, as the Board and the Supreme Court have already determined, these election protests are properly brought as election protests.

V. These Election Protests Were Timely Filed.

There has been a suggestion that a handful of the protests filed with county boards were not timely filed. That suggestion is meritless, for several reasons.

First, the vast majority of the protests were emailed by or before 5:00pm on 19 November 2024, so there isn't a potential timeliness issue with these protests. The deadline for an election protest turns on the time of its "filing" by the protestors, not the time of its receipt by an election board. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-182.9(b)(4). As our statutes generally explain, service by email is timely when the email is "sent." N.C. Gen. Stat. § 1A, Rule 5(b)(1)(a), (b)(2)(c). Thus, if a person sends an email on or before 5:00pm, it is timely filed. Nearly all the protests before this Board meet that requirement. See Affidavit of Kyle Offerman [App. 61-65]. The unfortunate reality is that, due to the expedited timeline for filing protests and the challenges of obtaining pertinent voter information,⁴ the Protestors were working up until the deadline to compile necessary materials and file their protests. In the face of these challenges, the protests at issue were nevertheless filed before, or within minutes of, the deadline.

⁴ Despite submitting some public records requests to the State Board at least 10 days before the protest filing deadline, counsel for Judge Griffin was still awaiting requested information the day before the protest deadline and, therefore, felt compelled to file a lawsuit that morning seeking the State Board's production of the requested information. After the lawsuit was on file, the State Board offered to produce the requested information. See Verified Complaint, N.C. Republican Party v. N.C. State Bd. of Elections, No. 24CV036912-910 (Wake Cnty. Super. Ct.) [App. 205-225]; Email from Paul Cox, N.C. State Bd. of Elections, to Philip Thomas & Craig Schauer (Nov. 18, 2024, 9:51 AM) [App. 226-27].

Second, even if a few election protests were emailed or received by email shortly after 5:00pm on 19 November 2024, the filing of such protests still substantially complied with the deadline in N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-182.9(b)(4)(c). As the election protest statutes make clear, absolute compliance with the election protest procedures is not required. Rather, an election protest is adequate if it “substantially complies with G.S. 163-182.9.” N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-182.10(a)(1) (emphasis added) (“The county board shall, as soon as possible after the protest is filed, meet to determine whether the protest substantially complies with G.S. 163-182.9 and whether it establishes probable cause to believe that a violation of election law or irregularity or misconduct has occurred.”). The protest can be dismissed on procedural grounds only if the protest “does not substantially comply with G.S. 163-182.9.” Id. § 163-182.10(d)(2)(a).

The low and flexible “substantial compliance” standard makes sense. The election protest process is supposed to be “simple so that everyone, not just lawyers, can use it.” Bouvier, 386 N.C. at 4, 900 S.E.2d at 843. Substantial compliance—not perfect compliance—is all that’s called for.

Next, even if the Board thought a protest filed three or four minutes after 5:00pm did not substantially comply with a 5:00pm deadline, the Board would have the discretion to disregard the technical noncompliance. When this Board exercises jurisdiction over a protest, it “may consider protests that were not filed in compliance with G.S. 163-182.9.” N.C. Gen. Stat. § 163-182.12.

An exercise of such discretion would be appropriate here. Because of the nature of their challenges for a statewide race, counsel for the Protestors were required to file protests in every county of the state, based on information and data that was still being received from the state and county boards the day before and day of the deadline for the protests. By contrast, the Protestors' opponents cannot possibly show prejudice from a protest received a few minutes after 5:00pm.

Other courts have also dealt with similar filing issues and have excused them. In a contentious federal case, a party moving for summary judgment filed its motion four minutes after its midnight filing deadline. Hyperphrase Techs. LLC v. Microsoft Corp., No. 02-C-647-C, 2003 WL 21920041, at *1 (W.D. Wis. July 1, 2003). The non-moving party promptly filed a motion to strike the brief as untimely. The federal court denied the motion in a humorous opinion that showed the perils of hyper-zealousness. See id. (“Wounded though this court may be by Microsoft’s four minute and twenty-seven second dereliction of duty, it will transcend the affront and forgive the tardiness. . . . Having spent more than that amount of time on Hyperphrase’s motion, it is now time to move on to the other Gordian problems confronting this court.”). Other courts, including our own, have taken similar views. See, e.g., Hwang v. Cairns, No. COA22-31, 2023 WL 192912, at *4 (N.C. Ct. App. Jan. 17, 2023), review allowed on other grounds, 385 N.C. 298, 890 S.E.2d 913 (2023) (forgiving party’s service of brief “two minutes after the deadline” and denying motion to dismiss appeal); Carnell Const. Corp. v. Danville Redevelopment & Hous. Auth., No. 4:10CV00007, 2012 WL 2367157, at *3 n.2 (W.D. Va. June 21, 2012) (forgiving filing made four minutes late); McCarter v. Univ. of N.C. at Chapel Hill, No. 1:20CV1050, 2024 WL 1142518, at *1 n.1 (M.D.N.C. Mar. 15, 2024) (forgiving late filing, especially due to lack of prejudice); Winebarger v. Bos. Sci. Corp., No. 2:13-CV-28892, 2015 WL 1887222, at *25 (S.D.W. Va. Apr. 24, 2015) (forgiving filing that was made “just minutes after the deadline”).

Under the circumstances, the Protestors request that any late filing be forgiven.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated in this brief, as well as the reasons stated in the protests filed with the county boards of election, this Board should conclude that there is substantial evidence to believe that a violation of the election laws or other irregularity or misconduct occurred and that it was sufficiently serious to cast doubt on the apparent results of the elections being protested.

This the 27th day of November, 2024.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
WAKE COUNTY

BEFORE THE STATE BOARD OF ELECTIONS

IN RE: HAVA COMPLAINT OF

)
)
)
)

Carol Snow (Petitioner) filed a Help America Vote Act (HAVA) Complaint with the State Board of Elections on October 6, 2023, pursuant to procedures set forth in 52 U.S.C. § 21112, N.C.G.S. § 163-91, and the State Board’s adopted HAVA Administrative Complaint Procedure.

Petitioner alleged a violation of Section 303(a)(5)(a) of HAVA, contending that North Carolina’s voter registration form—on the face of the form and in its instructions—does not clearly state that a voter registration applicant is required to provide their driver’s license number or last four digits of their Social Security number if they have been issued such a number, for their registration to be processed. She also asserts that a State Board informational video on YouTube regarding the registration form fails to explain that one of these identification numbers must be provided by the applicant.

Petitioner requests that the voter registration form be revised “to use red colored text and red tinted background for all required personal identifying information, including the Driver License number if issued, or if no Driver License, the last 4 digits of their Social Security Number if issued,” and for a voter without one of those numbers to be required to verify that they lack those numbers on the form. She also requests that the associated YouTube video be revised accordingly. She also requests that no current voter registration applications in circulation be accepted; only forms as revised per her request. Finally, she requests that any registered voters for whom there is no driver's license or last four digits of their Social Security number listed on their voter registration record be asked to provide this information, if possessed.

The relevant provision of HAVA states as follows:

52 U.S.C. § 21083. Computerized statewide voter registration list requirements and requirements for voters who register by mail

(a) Computerized statewide voter registration list requirements

(5) Verification of voter registration information

(A) Requiring provision of certain information by applicants

(i) In general

Except as provided in clause (ii), notwithstanding any other provision of law, an application for voter registration for an election for Federal office may not be accepted or processed by a State unless the application includes—

(I) in the case of an applicant who has been issued a current and valid driver's license, the applicant's driver's license number; or

(II) in the case of any other applicant (other than an applicant to whom clause (ii) applies), the last 4 digits of the applicant's social security number.

(ii) Special rule for applicants without driver's license or social security number

If an applicant for voter registration for an election for Federal office has not been issued a current and valid driver's license or a social security number, the State shall assign the applicant a number which will serve to identify the applicant for voter registration purposes. To the extent that the State has a computerized list in effect under this subsection and the list assigns unique identifying numbers to registrants, the number assigned under this clause shall be the unique identifying number assigned under the list.

(iii) Determination of validity of numbers provided

The State shall determine whether the information provided by an individual is sufficient to meet the requirements of this subparagraph, in accordance with State law.

A separate provision of the same section of HAVA addresses how an applicant for registration is to have their identity verified, before they are allowed to vote a regular ballot, if they do not provide a driver's license number or last four digits of a Social Security number than can be verified. That provision states as follows:

52 U.S.C. § 21083. Computerized statewide voter registration list requirements and requirements for voters who register by mail

(b) Requirements for voters who register by mail

(1) In general

Notwithstanding section 6(c) of the National Voter Registration Act of 1993 (42 U.S.C. 1973gg-4(c)) [now 52 U.S.C. 20505(c)] and subject to paragraph (3), a State shall, in a uniform and nondiscriminatory manner, require an individual to meet the requirements of paragraph (2) if—

- (A) the individual registered to vote in a jurisdiction by mail; and
- (B)(i) the individual has not previously voted in an election for Federal office in the State; or
- (ii) the individual has not previously voted in such an election in the jurisdiction and the jurisdiction is located in a State that does not have a computerized list that complies with the requirements of subsection (a).

(2) Requirements

(A) In general

An individual meets the requirements of this paragraph if the individual—

- (i) in the case of an individual who votes in person—
 - (I) presents to the appropriate State or local election official a current and valid photo identification; or
 - (II) presents to the appropriate State or local election official a copy of a current utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck, or other government document that shows the name and address of the voter; or
- (ii) in the case of an individual who votes by mail, submits with the ballot—
 - (I) a copy of a current and valid photo identification; or
 - (II) a copy of a current utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck, or other government document that shows the name and address of the voter.

(B) Fail-safe voting

(i) In person

An individual who desires to vote in person, but who does not meet the requirements of subparagraph (A)(i), may cast a provisional ballot under section 21082(a) of this title.

(ii) By mail

An individual who desires to vote by mail but who does not meet the requirements of subparagraph (A)(ii) may cast such a ballot by mail and the ballot shall be counted as a provisional ballot in accordance with section 21082(a) of this title.

The State Board met on November 28, 2023, and concluded that a violation of Section 303 of HAVA could occur as a result of the current North Carolina voter registration application form failing to require an applicant to provide an identification number or indicate that they do not possess such a number, and that the appropriate remedy is to implement changes recommended by staff to the voter registration application form and any related materials.

The State Board did not approve the request that county boards refuse to accept any voter registration forms currently in circulation, since HAVA can be complied with by instructing the county boards of elections to require an applicant to complete the required information before processing the voter registration application in its existing form.

The State Board did not approve the requested remedy to contact all existing registered voters whose electronic records do not show a driver's license number or last four digits of a Social Security number, since that remedy, when applied to an existing registered voter (as opposed to registration applicants), is not specifically authorized in HAVA. Importantly, the law's purpose of identifying the registrant upon initial registration is already accomplished because any voter who did not provide a driver's license number or the last four digits of a Social Security number would have had to provide additional documentation to prove their identity before being allowed to vote, by operation of the separate provision of HAVA identified above.

In other words, no one who lacked this information when registering since the enactment of HAVA would have been allowed to vote without proving their identity consistent with HAVA.

It is so ordered.

Subject: PLEASE READ: UOCAVA Requests for new registrants

Directors (via BCC):

I'm writing to clarify the requirement for identification numbers for new registrants who register via FPCA or FWAB. I addressed this briefly in the Huddle chat last Wednesday, but we've gotten some additional questions. So we wanted to be clear about the proper procedures, since UOCAVA ballots start going out Friday.

If a person is registering for the first time using an FPCA or FWAB, the requirement to provide driver's license/DMV number or, if they don't have it, last four of their social security number, applies to these voters—just like for all other new registrants. This requirement in HAVA applies to all new registrants, whether they are civilian or UOCAVA registrants. See 52 USC 21083\(a\)\(5\)\(A\)\(i\).

These new registrants were included in the State Board's decision last December to require new registrations going forward to include one of these numbers, unless the registrant affirms that they don't have either number. We regret if that was not clear.

We are going to have our IT department run a list of new FPCA/FWAB registrants since the State Board's order was released in December 2023, to flag any that may have been processed without one of these numbers, and we'll share that data with your office for review and action. The list should not be very long, since most FPCA/FWAB voters come through the portal, and the portal doesn't allow a UOCAVA voter to submit their request without including one of these numbers.

In the meantime, please review your pending FPCAs before ballot transmission on Friday, to ensure that they included one of these numbers. Be sure to include that number when you enter data into VoterScan. If the record doesn't result in a database match, the FPCA (registration and ballot request) must still be processed. Unlike civilian voters, North Carolina law expressly exempts UOCAVA voters from the requirement to provide HAVA ID if the number fails to match across agency databases. See GS 163-166.12\(f\)\(3\).

If any new FPCA/FWAB registrant did not include DL/DMV number or last four of their SSN as of December 14, 2023, and they do not state in writing that they lack these numbers, you will need to reach out to the registrant to obtain one of these numbers before processing their registration/ballot request. Please email the voter the attached letter requesting this information. If you do not have an email address for the voter, contact the voter by any other means you have available to obtain the information. Should the letter be returned, you will need to scan in the letter as VOTER CHANGE/UPDATE DOCUMENT in the web scanning app. If the voter does not return the request for information the FPCA request will need to be spoiled. Please include in the comments "Spoiled-ID not provided." Spoiling a ballot will need to occur before ballots go out on Friday, for any pending requests that did not include one of the required numbers.

AFFIDAVIT OF RYAN BONIFAY)

I, Ryan Bonifay, being duly sworn, depose and say as follows:

Background and Experience

1. I am over 18 years of age and competent to make an affidavit.
2. I have personal knowledge of the matters described herein.
3. I am a citizen of the United States and a resident of Lexington, North Carolina.
4. I am employed as Director of Data and Analytics at Coldspark, a political consulting and strategy firm. I have been so employed since January 2023. Previously, I have been employed by the Republican Party as Regional Analytics Director and State Analytics Director for North Carolina, as Data Director for Engage Texas, and as Data Director on U.S. Senate, congressional, and gubernatorial campaigns. Altogether I have approximately 10 years of experience as a data analyst for political campaigns and parties, all of them Republican. I have previously worked on North Carolina elections during the 2016 and 2020 election cycles.
5. I was retained by the North Carolina Republican Party to review and compile publicly-available information from the North Carolina State Board of Elections, either on their website or received through public records requests, in connection with the filing of election protests.

6. In my professional work I have become familiar with public sources of data on voter registration and voter turnout in North Carolina, and with the inputs to and limitations of such sources.

Assignment

7. I was asked to submit this affidavit in support of election protests filed with county boards of elections across North Carolina.

8. I was asked by counsel to generate a list of individuals who cast an absentee ballot from overseas and who self-reported never residing in North Carolina, based on publicly available data.

9. In aid of compiling this data, lawyers for the North Carolina Republican Party made numerous requests for information under North Carolina's Public Records law. Once the relevant public agencies produced their responses, I attempted to match the produced records to public voting records to identify voters who may have cast a ballot but were ineligible as of Election Day. The process for doing so is described in more detail below.

10. As to overseas voters who self-reported never residing in North Carolina, the North Carolina Republican Party made the following public records requests to the North Carolina State Board of Elections on November 9, 2024:

- a. A list of voters who self-identified as having never lived in the United States while submitting a Federal Post Card Application ("FPCA"). If such a list does not exist, the North Carolina Republican Party requested the opportunity to inspect and obtain copies of all FPCAs, where the individual marked they have never lived in the United States, that have been submitted since January 1, 2024.

- b. A list of voters who self-identified as having never lived in the United States while submitting a Federal Write-in Absentee Ballot (“FWAB”). If such a list does not exist, the North Carolina Republican Party requested the opportunity to inspect and obtain copies of all FWABs, where the individual marked they have never lived in the United States, that have been submitted since January 1, 2024.

11. In response, on November 13, 2024 the North Carolina Republican Party received from NCSBE a file entitled “FPCA_online_portal_submissions_never_lived_US.csv”.

12. The NCSBE explained in their public records response that this spreadsheet consisted of “data on voters who submitted FPCA requests via our [i.e. NCSBE’s] online portal and who checked the box indicating that they never lived in the United States. The ‘overseasNoUsInd’ is the column that indicates if that checkbox was checked.” The NCSBE also explained that the spreadsheet was limited to overseas voters who submitted a ballot request through NCSBE’s online system. Overseas voters who mailed in a ballot request would have done so to a county board of elections, and are thus not included in the information I compiled.

13. FPCA refers to the federal post card application. My understanding is that the federal post card application is a form promulgated by the United States government, standardized across all states, that acts as both a voter registration application and as a request for an absentee ballot. A true and accurate copy of the FPCA form available on the NCSBE’s website is included as ATTACHMENT 1.

14. On the FPCA, voters may self-identify as having never lived in the United States.

15. This file “FPCA_online_portal_submissions_never_lived_US.csv” (the “NCSBE FPCA List”) is a list of individuals who submitted the FPCA in 2024 seeking a North Carolina ballot, and who self-identified as never having lived in the United States.

16. The file "FPCA_online_portal_submissions_never_lived_US.csv" contains a column "BallotSendMethod" that appears to reflect whether a ballot was sent to the individual electronically ("e") or by mail ("m").

17. I verified which of these overseas individuals actually voted by reference to the statewide voter list, filename ncvoter_Statewide.zip, and absentee voter list, filename absentee_20241105.zip.

18. I matched self-identified overseas never-resident voters in the NCSBE FPCA List to the list of North Carolina voters who cast a ballot in the November 2024 election in the statewide voter list based on voter registration number and NCID number.

19. This process resulted in a list of likely matches in this county, which is attached as ATTACHMENT 2.

20. I am unaware of any records indicating that any of these voters were challenged for being non-residents of North Carolina.

Further, the affiant sayeth not.

This 19 day of November, 2024.

NOW COME Defendants Alan Hirsch, Jeff Carmon, Stacy Eggers, IV, Kevin N. Lewis, Siobhan O'Duffy Millen, and Karen Brinson Bell (collectively, the "State Board Defendants") to provide this Response to Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction. [D.E. 33, 34].

Nature of the Matter Before the Court

Plaintiff, North Carolina Alliance For Retired Americans, filed the present action on October 2, 2023, challenging the requirement in N.C.G.S. § 163-55(a) that to be eligible to vote in a particular precinct in this State, an individual must reside in the State and in that precinct for thirty days prior to the election. [D.E. 1]. Plaintiff alleges that section 163-55(a) violates section 202 of the Voting Rights Act ("VRA"), 52 U.S.C. § 10502(c), as well as the First and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution. [D.E. 1 at ¶¶ 45-59]. With the Motion for Preliminary Injunction, Plaintiff seeks to enjoin section 163-55(a) on those bases. [D.E. 33, 34].

Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Injunction should be denied, because they cannot demonstrate a likelihood of success on the merits and the balance of equities favors the State.

Statement of Facts

A. North Carolina's Residency Period for Voting

The North Carolina Constitution provides the following regarding the residency period for voting in state elections:

Any person who has resided in the State of North Carolina for one year and in the precinct, ward, or other election district for 30 days next preceding an election, and possesses the other qualifications set out in this Article, shall be entitled to vote at any election held in this State. Removal from one precinct, ward, or other election district to another in this State shall not operate to deprive any person of the right to vote in the precinct, ward, or other election district from which that person has removed until 30 days after the removal.

N.C. Const. art. VI, § 2(1).

In section 2 of the VRA, as amended effective 1970, Congress “abolish[ed] the durational residency requirement as a precondition to voting for President and Vice President[.]” 52 U.S.C. § 10502(b). Accordingly, no citizen qualified to vote is to “be denied the right to vote” for President and Vice President; based upon that citizen’s failure “to comply with any durational residency requirement of such State or political subdivision[.]” Id. § 10502(c). Section 2 mandates that each state “provide for the registration . . . of all duly qualified residents of such State who apply, not later than thirty days immediately prior to any presidential election, for registration . . . to vote for the choice of electors for President and Vice President or for President and Vice President in such election[.]” Id., § 10502(d). It also provides that [i]f any citizen of the United States who is otherwise qualified to vote in any State or political subdivision in any election for President and Vice President has begun residence in such State or political subdivision after the thirtieth day next preceding such election and, for that reason, does not satisfy the registration requirements of such State or political subdivision he shall be allowed to vote for the choice of electors for President and Vice President, or for President and Vice President, in such election, [] in person in the State or political subdivision in which he resided immediately prior to his removal if he had satisfied, as of the date of his change of residence, the requirements to vote in that State or political subdivision[.]

Id. § 10502(d).

In 1972, the United States Supreme Court summarily affirmed a decision by a three-judge panel sitting in this district that concluded North Carolina’s one-year residency period for voting as applied to local elections violated the United States Constitution’s Equal Protection Clause. Andrews v. Cody, 327 F. Supp. 793, (M.D.N.C. 1971), aff’d, 405 U.S. 1034 (1972). Also in 1972, the Supreme Court struck down a state’s residency requirement that to be qualified a voter had to live in that state for one year and in the county in which they were voting for three months. Dunn v. Blumstein, 405 U.S. 330 (1972). In so doing, the Court concluded that thirty days “appears to be an ample period of time for the State to complete whatever administrative tasks are necessary to prevent fraud—and a year, or three months, too much.” Id. at 348.

Although the North Carolina Constitution was never amended to reflect the Supreme Court’s holding in Andrews or Dunn, shortly after those decisions, the General Assembly amended the statutory provision effectuating the state Constitution’s durational residency requirement, N.C.G.S. § 163-55(a), by decreasing the requirement from one year to thirty days. See N.C. Sess. Law 1973-793 (effective July 1, 1973). Today, that provision provides the following in pertinent part:

Every person . . . who shall have resided in the State of North Carolina and in the precinct in which the person offers to vote for 30 days next preceding an election, shall, if otherwise qualified . . . , be qualified to vote in the precinct in which the person resides. Removal from one precinct to another in this State shall not operate to deprive any person of the right to vote in the precinct from which the person has removed until 30 days after the person's removal.

N.C.G.S. § 163-55(a).

B. Voter Registration in North Carolina

In North Carolina, “[o]nly such persons as are legally registered shall be entitled to vote in any primary or election[.]” N.C.G.S. § 163-54. A person must register to vote by twenty-five days before election day. N.C.G.S. § 163-82.6(d). North Carolina offers multiple ways to register, including by mail, facsimile, email transmission of a scanned document, or in person. Id., -82.6(a). Additionally, one may register in person through various state agencies. Id., §§ -82.11; -82.12; -82.19; -82.20; -82.21; -82.22; -82.23.

As required by statute, the State Board of Elections has created a standard form for use by all individuals who wish to register to vote, irrespective of the method they use to register. Id., §§ -84.3, -82.4.¹ The content of the form is largely dictated by statute. See N.C.G.S. § 163-82.4. On the form, registrants are required, among other things, to attest to their qualifications for voting, including that they “have lived at the residence identified on th[e] form for 30 days before the date of the election in which [they] intend to vote[.]” Ex. A. As the form notifies registrants, “[f]raudulently or falsely completing [the] form is a Class I felony[.]” Id.; see also N.C.G.S. § 163-82.4(c) (“The form required by G.S. 163-82.3(a) shall contain, in uniform type, . . . [a] statement that specifies each eligibility requirement (including citizenship) and an attestation that the applicant meets each such requirement, with a requirement for the signature of the applicant, under penalty of a Class I felony under G.S. 163-275(13)”; id. 163-275(13) (providing it is a Class I felony “[f]or any person falsely to make or present any certificate or other paper to qualify any person fraudulently as a voter, or to attempt thereby to secure to any person the privilege of voting”).

Since 2007, North Carolina has offered same-day registration as an additional opportunity for individuals to register even if they missed the standard registration cutoff of twenty-five days prior to election day. Session Law. 2007-230; see also N.C.G.S. § 163-82.6B (“Same-day registration”). Same-day registration begins not earlier than the third Thursday before an election and continues until 3:00 p.m. on the last Saturday before the election. N.C.G.S. § 163-166.40(b). In addition to satisfying other requirements, same-day registrants must complete the same voter registration form required by section 163-82.4, described above. N.C.G.S. § 163-82.6B(b)(1); see also Ex. A.

Legal Argument

Legal Standard

“A plaintiff seeking a preliminary injunction must establish that he is likely to succeed on the merits, that he is likely to suffer irreparable harm in the absence of preliminary relief, that the balance of equities tips in his favor, and that an injunction is in the public interest.” Winter v. NRDC, Inc., 555 U.S. 7, 20 (2008).

I. Plaintiff Is Unlikely to Succeed on the Merits.

Plaintiff is unlikely to succeed on the merits of its claim because, for the reasons stated by Legislative Defendants in Parts IV and V of their Response in Opposition to Plaintiff’s Motion for a Preliminary Injunction, Plaintiff cannot establish section 163-55(a) violates section 202 of the VRA or the United States Constitution. [See D.E. 40 at 18-21]. In an effort to avoid unnecessary duplication of arguments and conserve the resources of all parties and the Court, State Board Defendants hereby adopt those parts of Legislative Defendants’ PI Response as their own and incorporate them by reference as if set forth fully herein. See id.

II. The Balance of Equities and the Public Interest Weigh Against Injunction.

To obtain a preliminary injunction, a plaintiff must make a clear showing that they will likely be irreparably harmed absent such relief, that “the balance of equities tips in his favor, and that an injunction is in the public interest.” Winter, 555 U.S. at 20. “Issuing a preliminary injunction based only on a possibility of irreparable harm is inconsistent with our characterization of injunctive relief as an extraordinary remedy that may only be awarded upon a clear showing that the plaintiff is entitled to such relief.” Id. at 22. An averment that a plaintiff’s harm might simply outweigh the defendant’s is insufficient to tip the balance of equities in that plaintiff’s favor. Real Truth About Obama, Inc. v. F.E.C., 575 F.3d 342, 347 (4th Cir. 2009), vacated on other grounds, 559 U.S. 1089 (2010).

The Court must also give “particular regard” to the “public consequences” of any relief granted. Id. Where, as here, granting a preliminary injunction would necessarily impose administrative burdens, including in the form of the significant cost of reprinting voter registration forms, it also presents an irreparable harm because “any time a State is enjoined by a court from effectuating statutes enacted by representatives of its people, it suffers a form of irreparable injury.” Maryland v. King, 567 U.S. 1301, 133 S. Ct. 1, 3 (2012) (Roberts, C.J., in chambers) (quoting New Motor Vehicle Bd. v. Orrin W. Fox Co., 434 U.S. 1345, 1351 (1977) (Rehnquist, J., in chambers)).

Plaintiff’s allegations of irreparable harm are conclusory and therefore should be afforded little weight in determining where the equities lie. Moreover, Plaintiffs ignore that both the Voting Rights Act and North Carolina law allow voters who have moved within 30 days of the election to vote in their prior state using their prior address. 52 U.S.C. § 10502(e) (Requiring that a person who does not meet the registration requirements of their new state, may vote for President or Vice-President in their prior state.); N.C.G.S. § 163-55(a) (Requiring that a person who moves from one precinct to another in North Carolina remains eligible to vote their prior precinct for 30 days after they moved.) Thus, Plaintiffs have overstated the alleged harm that arises from the challenged law because the hypothetical voter will still be able to participate in upcoming elections, even if they are not yet eligible to vote at their new address.

Similarly, Plaintiff’s delay in bringing this motion for preliminary injunction tips the balance of the equities against issuance of an injunction. See Quince Orchard Valley Citizens Ass’n, Inc. v. Hodel, 872 F.2d 75, 80 (4th Cir. 1989) (holding that a plaintiff’s “delay is thus quite relevant to balancing the parties’ potential harms,” since “a long delay in seeking relief indicates that speedy action is not required”); Candle Factory, Inc. v. Trade Assocs. Grp., Ltd., 23 F. App’x 134, 138 (4th Cir. 2001) (“Our decision in Quince Orchard instructs that any delay attributable to plaintiffs in initiating a preliminary injunction request, coupled with prejudicial impact from the delay, should be considered when the question of irreparable harm to plaintiffs is balanced against harm to defendants.”). Here again, the challenged statute has been in effect for over fifty years, over the course of hundreds of elections and primaries. That Plaintiff seeks this preliminary injunction after such a long delay demonstrates that the balance of the equities does not require issuance of an injunction.

Conclusion

For the reasons above, the State Board Defendants respectfully request that Plaintiff’s Motion for a Preliminary Injunction be denied.

INTRODUCTION

For five decades, the North Carolina General Assembly has required that every citizen must “have resided in the State of North Carolina and in the precinct in which the person offers to vote for 30 days next preceding an election” to “be qualified to vote in the precinct in which the person resides.” N.C. Gen. Stat. §163-55; see N.C. Laws 1973, c. 793, §18 (similar). Plaintiff North Carolina Alliance for Retired Americans has existed for more than two of those decades. Nevertheless, after waiting two decades to sue and another three months after filing suit, the Alliance suddenly seeks to preliminarily enjoin enforcement of this law and the constitutional provision that authorizes it, N.C. Const. art. VI, §2, ¶1. See PI Mot., Doc. 30. The Alliance is not entitled to such equitable relief.¹

On the merits, the Alliance has not clearly shown that it is likely to prevail. The Alliance has not established standing sufficient for the preliminary injunction. At the time the Alliance requested the injunction, it could not identify any specific member harmed by the law. Nor has the Alliance established injury to the organization itself, which has sat on its claims so long that they are barred by laches. Claims of future harm are unripe, and this Court is an improper venue. Even so, the Alliance has not discovered violations of the VRA and the U.S. Constitution hiding in plain sight for half a century.

The equities heavily weigh in the State’s favor. After numerous elections occurred with the 30-day qualification in place, the Alliance belatedly asks the Court to nullify the law in its entirety. Such relief would be inequitable and irreparably harm North Carolina.

¹ Magistrate Judge Webster recommended that Intervenor’s Motion to Intervene be granted, Doc. 29. The deadlines for a party to object passed without objection, Doc. 30.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

In 1970, Congress amended the Voting Rights Act and prevented citizens “otherwise qualified to vote in any election for President and Vice President” from being “denied the right to vote for electors for President and Vice President, or for President and Vice President, in such election because of the failure of such citizen to comply with any durational residency requirement.” 52 U.S.C. §10502(c). “[E]ach State shall provide by law for the registration or other means of qualification of all duly qualified residents of such State who apply, not later than thirty days immediately prior to any presidential election, for registration or qualification to vote for the choice of electors for President and Vice President.” Id. §10502(d). Because some citizens “otherwise qualified to vote” might move to a different State “after the thirtieth day next preceding such election and, for that reason, [] not satisfy the registration requirements of such State or political subdivision,” such a citizen is “allowed to vote for the choice of electors for President and Vice President, . . . in such election . . . in the State or political subdivision in which he resided immediately prior to his removal.” Id. §10502(e).

Shortly thereafter, a three-judge panel of this Court ruled, and the Supreme Court summarily affirmed, that North Carolina’s “one year durational residency requirement as it relates to the right to vote in local elections” was unconstitutional. Andrews v. Cody, 327 F. Supp. 793, 795 (M.D.N.C. 1971) (not opining on 30-day qualification), aff’d, 405 U.S. 1034 (1972). The Supreme Court then ruled unconstitutional Tennessee’s “requirement that voters must have been residents in the State for a year and the county for three months.” Dunn v. Blumstein, 405 U.S. 330, 360 (1972). Dunn held that “30 days appears to be an ample period of time for the State to complete whatever administrative tasks are necessary to prevent fraud—and a year, or three months, too much.” Id. at 348.

Consequently, North Carolina amended its qualification law in 1973 to require that every citizen must “have resided in the State of North Carolina and in the precinct in which the person offers to vote for 30 days next preceding an election” to “be qualified to vote in the precinct in which the person resides.” N.C. Gen. Stat. §163-55. Current North Carolina residents who “[r]emov[e] from one precinct to another in this State” have “the right to vote in the precinct from which the person has removed until 30 days after the person’s removal.” Id. §163-55(a). Potential North Carolina voters cannot register to vote without attesting that they qualify to vote. See id. §163.82.4(c)(1).

Normal registration ends 25 days before the election. Id. §163-82.6(d). However, North Carolina also allows “voters who miss the normal registration deadline” to “register to vote through same-day registration, which begins 20 days before the election at the start of the early voting period and ends the Saturday before election day.” Am. Compl. ¶29. To register during early voting, potential voters must attest that they satisfy the 30-day qualification, provide proof of residence, and present photo identification in accordance with N.C. Gen. Stat. §163-166.16. See N.C. Gen. Stat. §163-82.6B.² A same-day registrant must vote via a retrievable ballot. Id. Within two business days, the county board of

On the same day, Plaintiff also requested a preliminary injunction. PI Mot. According to its president, the Alliance has existed since at least 2002. Dworkin Decl. 33-1 ¶2. The Alliance currently operates as a 501(c)(4) that resides at 1408 Hillsborough Street, Raleigh, NC 27605.³ The Alliance allegedly has “approximately 52,000 members across North Carolina, including thousands of members in this judicial district,” but did not identify a specific member who resides in the Middle District or who would be injured by the law. ARGUMENT

To prevail on a motion for preliminary injunction, Plaintiff “must establish that” it is (1) “likely to succeed on the merits”; (2) “likely to suffer irreparable harm in the absence of preliminary relief”; (3) “that the balance of equities tips in [Plaintiff’s] favor”; and (4) “that an injunction is in the public interest.” Winter v. Nat. Res. Def. Council, Inc., 555 U.S. 7, 20 (2008). “A preliminary injunction shall be granted only if the moving party clearly establishes entitlement to the relief sought.” Di Biase v. SPX Corp., 872 F.3d 224, 230 (4th Cir. 2017). This standard is even stricter for mandatory injunctions such as the one Plaintiff seeks here “to alter the status quo” by forcing North Carolina to allow unqualified individuals to register and vote. Perry v. Judd, 471 F. App'x 219, 223-24 (4th Cir. 2012).

I. The Alliance Failed To Establish Subject-Matter Jurisdiction.

The Alliance has failed to establish this Court's jurisdiction because (1) Plaintiff lacked standing when it filed the amended complaint and moved for a preliminary injunction; and (2) its claims based on the possibility of future injury are unripe.

A. The Alliance lacks standing.

"Without standing to sue," Plaintiff "cannot show that it is likely to succeed on the merits." Speech First, Inc. v. Sands, 69 F.4th 184, 191-92 (4th Cir. 2023). "To establish Article III standing, a plaintiff must show (1) it has suffered an 'injury in fact' that is (a) concrete and particularized and (b) actual or imminent, not conjectural or hypothetical; (2) the injury is fairly traceable to the challenged action of the defendant; and (3) it is likely, as opposed to merely speculative, that the injury will be redressed by a favorable decision." South Carolina v. United States, 912 F.3d 720, 726 (4th Cir. 2019) (quotation omitted). "When evaluating standing," this Court "must look to the facts at the time the complaint was filed." Wild Va. v. Council on Env't Quality, 56 F.4th 281, 293 (4th Cir. 2022). For standing at this stage, Plaintiff cannot rely on material it would have had "access to" but chose not to disclose "at the time the motion for a preliminary injunction was filed." Democracy N.C. v. State Bd., 2020 WL 4288103, at *15 (M.D.N.C. July 27).

An organization "can assert standing either in its own right or as a representative of its members." S. Walk at Broadlands Homeowner's Ass'n v. OpenBand at Broadlands, LLC, 713 F.3d 175, 182 (4th Cir. 2013). Neither theory suffices here.

1. The Alliance lacks representational standing.

The Alliance lacks representational standing because it failed to establish that any member at the time Plaintiff moved for a preliminary injunction had standing and because the claim and relief sought require the participation of individual members. “To plead representational standing, an organization must allege that (1) its own members would have standing to sue in their own right; (2) the interests the organization seeks to protect are germane to the organization’s purpose; and (3) neither the claim nor the relief sought requires the participation of individual members in the lawsuit.” Id. at 184 (quotation omitted). “[T]o show that its members would have standing,” Plaintiff must at least “identify a single specific member injured by” each part of the North Carolina voter qualification that the Alliance challenges. Id.

The Alliance has not identified any specific current member who will be injured in fact during the 2024 general election—or any other North Carolina election—by either the state or precinct aspects of the qualification law. Plaintiff claims to have current members only “across North Carolina.” Am. Compl. ¶¶16-17; Dworkin Decl. ¶6. The Alliance has failed to carry its burden of identifying a specific member who—as of January 2, 2024—either (1) currently resides outside North Carolina but will move into the State within 30 days of the 2024 general election and thus be prevented from voting due to the state qualification; or (2) will move to a different county or precinct within the State and thus be prevented from voting in the 2024 general election due to the precinct qualification.⁴

⁴ To the extent Plaintiff attempts to represent the interests of non-members who are “unnamed voters in North Carolinians” or who might move into North Carolina, Plaintiff

Plaintiff thus lacks representational standing to challenge either the state or precinct qualification. See Rosario v. Rockefeller, 410 U.S. 752, 759 n.9 (1973) (no standing to challenge “durational residence requirement” when plaintiffs were not “recently arrived residents of the State” and had not “moved from one county to another”).

Without the participation of a potential 2024 general election voter, this Court cannot determine the validity of Plaintiff’s claims or the necessity of a facial preliminary injunction. New North Carolina residents might prefer to vote one last time in their previous State—as the VRA expressly allows. See 52 U.S.C. §10502(e). And current residents might prefer to vote again at their previous precinct, N.C. Gen. Stat. §163-55(a), which could potentially include every single election on the ballot in the new precinct.

2. The Alliance lacks organizational standing.

The Alliance also fails to establish “standing in its own right” to obtain a preliminary injunction. S. Walk, 713 F.3d at 182. To start, Plaintiff’s own rights are not violated. The Alliance does not claim to possess a right to vote or to travel. The qualification does not “amount to a personal harm to” the Alliance as an organization. Id. at 183.

Instead, Plaintiff alleges only that, “[b]y systematically preventing many of the Alliance’s members from voting in North Carolina or in their new voting precinct,” the qualification law “undermines the Alliance’s get-out-the-vote work in North Carolina and its advocacy work on other public policy issues that are critical to its membership, . . . making the Alliance less effective in furthering its mission than it otherwise would be, and also cannot do so because it lacks a “close relationship” with such potential voters. Democracy N.C. v. State Bd., 476 F. Supp. 3d 158, 190 (M.D.N.C. 2020).

requiring it to spend additional resources that it would otherwise spend in other ways.” Am. Compl. ¶18; see also Dworkin Decl. ¶¶5, 8. That does not suffice.

Start with how Plaintiff describes its “mission” as having a “particular emphasis on safeguarding [retirees’] right to vote.” Am. Compl. ¶16. That “overstates its corporate purpose.” S. Walk, 713 F.3d at 183 n.3 (granting motion to dismiss). The Alliance’s Articles of Incorporation say its “purposes” include “education, communication, and advocacy on issues of importance to older and retired workers and their families,”⁵ not litigating the contours of the right to vote. “The plain language of its articles of incorporation simply does not reflect this exaggeration.” Id. Thus, any “diversion of resources” that “might harm the organization by reducing the funds available for other purposes . . . results not from any actions taken by” North Carolina, “but rather from the” Alliance’s “own budgetary choices.” Lane v. Holder, 703 F.3d 668, 675 (4th Cir. 2012). The Alliance may decide to “further[] its mission by ardently working to protect the rights of its members to vote,” Dworkin Decl. ¶5, or to “accomplish[] its mission by championing and fiercely protecting its members’ right to have their voices heard at the ballot box,” PI Memo. 13. But those tactics are not themselves the mission of the Alliance.

That distinguishes the Alliance from the “voting-rights organization” in Democracy North Carolina, 476 F. Supp. 3d at 236-37 (quotation omitted). Given its Articles of Incorporation, Plaintiff has not clearly established that getting voters registered and to the polls is the “core mission” of the Alliance. Id. at 186 (quotation omitted). The Alliance is asserting no more than a “generalized grievance,” and any “diversion of resources has not stemmed from Defendants’ frustrating” the Alliance’s “mission.” Id. at 188.

Nebulous claims about the qualification making the Alliance “less effective” in achieving policy victories, PI Memo. 14, “without more, do[] not provide a basis for standing,” S. Walk, 713 F.3d at 183. Plaintiff cannot explain why its “special interest” in certain policy topics gives it standing without providing a reason that would mean “any individual citizen with the same bona fide special interest would not also be entitled to do so.” Sierra Club v. Morton, 405 U.S. 727, 739-40 (1972).

Even if that were not the case, Plaintiff fails to provide a concrete example of how, without a preliminary injunction for the 2024 general election, the qualification law will force the Alliance to spend more resources. If anything, the qualification law reduces the resources Plaintiff would have to spend on get-out-the-vote work because new arrivals do not need assistance voting in North Carolina while current residents can still vote at their previous precincts without changing registration. Similarly, the Alliance provides no explanation about what its “advocacy work” entails or how the 2024 general election will impact the resources spent on that advocacy. Am. Compl. ¶18; Dworkin Decl. ¶8. Any financial impact is neither “traceable to the challenged provisions” nor “redressable by a federal court.” S. Walk, 713 F.3d at 182. And Plaintiff might in fact benefit under its ideological effectiveness theory if a majority of new residents for the 2024 general election, most of whom will not join the Alliance, oppose its policy objectives.

B. The Alliance's claims are otherwise unripe.

The Alliance's claims are otherwise unripe. "The question of whether a claim is ripe turns on the fitness of the issues for judicial decision and the hardship to the parties of withholding court consideration." South Carolina, 912 F.3d at 730 (quotation omitted). Courts cannot preemptively "entangl[e] themselves in abstract disagreements over" alleged future violations of the VRA and Constitution. Wild Va., 56 F.4th at 295.

The Alliance's request for a preliminary injunction for the state qualification turns on the idea that, within 30 days of the 2024 general election, some unspecified individual will move to North Carolina, join the Alliance, and then be prohibited by the law from registering to vote and voting in that election. And its preliminary injunction request for the precinct qualification is premised on the idea that, within 30 days of the 2024 general election, some unspecified Alliance member will move to a different precinct that does not have the same elections on the ballot and then be prohibited from registering to vote and voting in that different election. Id. Such anticipated future injury "rests upon contingent future events that may not occur as anticipated, or indeed may not occur at all." South Carolina, 912 F.3d at 730.

The Alliance certainly has not carried its burden "to demonstrate that the claim is ripe." Wild Va., 56 F.4th at 293. A dispute, as in Dunn, over a specific potential voter's concrete claim would illuminate apparent points of dispute. Plaintiff has not demonstrated that withholding consideration of its claims would harm its current members, all allegedly North Carolina residents. Dworkin Decl. ¶6. The challenged law cannot impact their ability to vote in presidential or statewide elections, and Plaintiff has not identified any specific election—local or otherwise—where the ability to vote in a new precinct would matter. To be sure, Intervenor sympathize with the desire to resolve disputes about election laws well ahead of elections. See Purcell v. Gonzalez, 549 U.S. 1, 4-5 (2006). But Plaintiff did not identify any specific member who will be, or even has been, injured by the challenged law.

Similarly, as explained above, the Alliance has presented no concrete example of future injury to the organization itself. Plaintiff can complain of no “hardship . . . of withholding court consideration” because the Alliance waited two decades to challenge the law. South Carolina, 912 F.3d at 730.

II. The Alliance Failed to Establish That Venue Is Proper in This District.

Venue is improper in this district so, rather than issuing a preliminary injunction, this Court must instead dismiss the amended complaint or, alternatively, transfer the case to the Eastern District of North Carolina. 28 U.S.C. §1406(a). Relevant here, a “civil action may be brought in . . . (1) a judicial district in which any defendant resides, if all defendants are residents of the State in which the district is located; [or] (2) a judicial district in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred, or a substantial part of property that is the subject of the action is situated.” Id. §1391(b).

Intervenor and all other Defendants officially reside in Raleigh, which is in Wake County, so venue would be proper in the Eastern District, not in the Middle District. See Jackson v. Leake, 2006 WL 2264027, at *10 (M.D.N.C. Aug. 7) (transferring to the Eastern District because State Board members maintain official residences in Raleigh); Republican Party of N.C. v. Martin, 682 F. Supp. 834, 835-37 (M.D.N.C. 1988) (same); Moore v. Circosta, 2020 WL 6591307, at *2 (E.D.N.C. Sept. 30) (State Board resides in Raleigh); see also 28 U.S.C. §113(a) (district boundaries). Defendants’ residency in a different district of the same State, Am. Compl. ¶14, is not enough for venue.

Further, because Defendants have performed every alleged event or omission giving rise to Plaintiff’s purported claims in Raleigh, jurisdiction is also proper on that basis in the Eastern District, not here. The venue statute “protects defendants, and Congress therefore meant to require courts to focus on relevant activities of the defendant, not of the plaintiff.” Jenkins Brick Co. v. Bremer, 321 F.3d 1366, 1371-72 (11th Cir. 2003) (quotation omitted) (emphasis added); see Res. Room SI, Inc. v. Borrero, 2022 WL 17407968, at *5 (E.D.N.C. Dec. 2) (“[V]enue is a defendant-focused statute[.]” (citing Jenkins Brick, 321 F.3d at 1371)).

Whether Plaintiff would be injured in this district is irrelevant. The Alliance has not alleged that “the official duties” of Intervenors and other Defendants “performed relevant to this action occurred anywhere other than in Raleigh, which is in the Eastern District.” Moore, 2020 WL 6591307, at *2. The State Board’s “mere supervisory role over” county boards of election “does not make” venue proper in the Middle District. Republican Party of N.C., 682 F. Supp. at 836. Even if Plaintiff’s residency were relevant, the Alliance itself officially resides in Raleigh, and Plaintiff has not even identified a specific member who resides in this district and would be injured by the law.

III. Laches Bars the Alliance's Claims and Preliminary Injunction Request.

The doctrine of laches bars any claims the Alliance might otherwise have.⁶ Laches is an appropriate issue for the preliminary-injunction stage in this case. See Marshall v. Meadows, 921 F. Supp. 1490, 1494 (E.D. Va. 1996) (using laches even at motion-to-dismiss stage for VRA claim). Laches applies when a defendant can prove “(1) lack of diligence by the party against whom the defense is asserted, and (2) prejudice to the party asserting the defense.” Costello v. United States, 365 U.S. 265, 282 (1961).

“[L]ack of diligence [] exists where the plaintiff delayed inexcusably or unreasonably in filing suit.” White v. Daniel, 909 F.2d 99, 102 (4th Cir. 1990) (quotation omitted). “The defendant may show lack of diligence either by proof that the action was not commenced within the period provided by the applicable statute of limitations or by facts otherwise indicating a lack of vigilance.” Id. Both apply here.

Plaintiff has existed as a 501(c)(4) organization since January 2016. The Alliance's predecessor 501(c)(3) organization—dissolved in 2016 after the creation of the 501(c)(4)—was founded in June 2003,⁷ and the Alliance's president claims the organization has existed since at least 2002, Dworkin Decl. ¶2. The qualification law “was unambiguous and available for all to see” as it “governed” numerous elections during the Alliance's existence. Perry, 471 F. App'x at 225 (affirming denial of preliminary injunction due to laches). Even considering only the Alliance as a 501(c)(4), Plaintiff has inexcusably and unreasonably delayed filing suit until well after the 2016, 2018, 2020, and 2022 general elections and other elections during that period. The Alliance expressed no qualms in 2016, a presidential election year, when the Fourth Circuit enjoined North Carolina from eliminating same-day voter registration, N.C. State Conf. of the NAACP v. McCrory, 831 F.3d 204, 239 (4th Cir. 2016), which Plaintiff belatedly claims as an impetus for its claims. Section 1983 claims have a 3-year statute of limitations in North Carolina, and the Alliance waited well after that period would have run to file suit. See Epcon Homestead, LLC v. Town of Chapel Hill, 62 F.4th 882, 886-88 (4th Cir. 2023).

⁶ Intervenor has reserved the defense of whether the statute of limitations bars the claims.

⁷ See N.C. Secretary of State, Business Registration Search, <https://tinyurl.com/5875cbrz> (search for “North Carolina Alliance for Retired Americans,” entry appearing with ID#0677808); Ex. C. The Court may judicially notice this information.

Because the Alliance's delay was "inexcusable and unreasonable," Intervenor "need not show the degree of prejudice that would be required if the delay had been less aggravated." White, 909 F.2d at 103. Plaintiff's delay disadvantaged North Carolina by allowing numerous intervening modifications to election laws that might be impacted by a finding that the State's election laws cannot simultaneously impose a 30-day qualification and allow registration during early voting.

On top of the Alliance's silence before and after the Fourth Circuit enjoined a North Carolina law that would have ended same-day registration, Plaintiff waited until the last month of the most recent legislative session to file suit. Preparing for the 2024 elections, the General Assembly had already enacted a comprehensive law in August 2023 that, in part, made clear North Carolina allows same-day registration during early voting and then overrode the Governor's veto of that law 8 days after Plaintiff sued. See S.L. 2023-140 (S.B. 747), §10 (effective Jan. 1, 2024). Throughout the public debate over these legislative actions, the Alliance never advocated for the changes it now asks this Court to impose by judicial fiat. The organization did not even request a preliminary injunction or file its amended complaint—expanding its claims to challenge the precinct-residency qualification on behalf of unidentified North Carolinians—until after the new law’s effective date. The Alliance slept on its supposed rights, so laches now bars its claims and the remedy of a preliminary injunction. See Marshall, 921 F. Supp. at 1494.

IV. The Alliance Failed To Clearly Establish a VRA Violation.

The Alliance has not clearly established that it will likely prevail on its VRA claim because the VRA amendments squarely allow North Carolina to limit “registration” or voting “qualification” for its presidential electors to citizens who reside in North Carolina at least “thirty days immediately prior to any presidential election” and impose no restriction on qualifications for other elections. 52 U.S.C. §10502(d). Reading the words of the statute “in their context and with a view to their place in the overall statutory scheme” shows there is no VRA violation here. King v. Burwell, 576 U.S. 473, 492 (2015).

Section 10502(a) expresses Congress’s legislative findings about “the imposition and application of the durational residency requirement as a precondition to voting for the offices of President and Vice President.” 52 U.S.C. §10502(a). Congress sought to protect “the inherent constitutional right of citizens to enjoy their free movement across State lines” to vote in presidential elections. Id. §10502(a)(2). Next, §10502(b) “declares” Congress’s overarching plan “to completely abolish the durational residency requirement as a precondition to voting for President and Vice President.” The mandatory language in the rest of §10502, not the declaratory language in §10502(a)-(b), provides the rules for States to accomplish Congress’s policy objective.

No citizen “otherwise qualified to vote in any election for President and Vice President” except for a “failure” to “comply with any durational residency requirement,” “shall be denied the right to vote for electors for President and Vice President,” §10502(c), because Congress expressly provides that citizens who move to a new State “after the thirtieth day next preceding such election and, for that reason, do[] not satisfy the registration requirements of such State” can vote in-person or by absentee ballot in their previous state of residence, §10502(e). By requiring the previous state of residence to allow the outgoing resident to vote in the presidential election, Congress protects the federal right to vote somewhere in the United States for presidential electors.

Congress has not commanded States to refer to a 30-day qualification solely as a “registration requirement[.]” PI Memo. 16. Instead, §10502(d) states that “each State shall provide by law for the registration or other means of qualification of all duly qualified residents of such State who apply, not later than thirty days immediately prior to any presidential election, for registration or qualification to vote for the choice of electors for President and Vice President.” (Emphases added.) Tellingly, the Alliance completely ignores that §10502(d) expressly allows 30-days’ residency as a “qualification to vote.” Even if such a distinction made a difference, Plaintiff readily concedes that the 30-day qualification is also a requirement “[i]n order to register to vote.” Am. Compl. ¶24.

That North Carolina does not completely cut off registration 30 days before a presidential election does not transform its run-of-the-mill qualification into a VRA violation. If the Alliance’s reading of §10502 were correct, States as diverse as Illinois,

New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Utah, and Washington would all be violating the VRA.⁸ Like North Carolina, those States allow registration within 30 days of a presidential election only for individuals who have resided in the State for 30 days prior to the election.

Further, the VRA has no bearing on qualifications for any election other than “vot[ing] for electors for President and Vice President, or for President and Vice President,” §10502(c), so no current resident (including all the Alliance’s members) has a VRA claim because the same electors are on the ballot in every North Carolina precinct.

V. The Alliance Failed To Clearly Establish a Constitutional Violation.

Under the Anderson-Burdick framework, an election law’s burdens are “weigh[ed] against the state’s interests by looking at the whole electoral system.” Luft v. Evers, 963 F.3d 665, 671-72 (7th Cir. 2020) (Easterbrook, J.) (citing Burdick v. Takushi, 504 U.S. 428, 434, 439 (1992)).⁹ “Only when voting rights have been severely restricted must states have compelling interests and narrowly tailored rules.” Id. “Where the burden imposed by the state is not ‘severe’—where it is ‘lesser’—courts engage in ‘less exacting review.’” 6th Cong. Dist. Republican Comm. v. Alcorn, 913 F.3d 393, 402 (4th Cir. 2019) (quoting Timmons v. Twin Cities Area New Party, 520 U.S. 351, 358 (1997)).

⁸ See 10 Ill. Comp. Stat. 5/5-2 (qualification); id. 5/5-50 (election-day registration); N.J. Stat. Ann. 19:31-5 (qualification); id. 19:31-6 (registration until 21 days before an election); 25 Pa. Cons. Stat. §1301 (qualification); id. §3071 (registration until 15 days before an election); Utah Code §20A-2-101 (qualification); id. §20A-2-102.5 (election-day registration); Wash. Rev. Code §29A.08.230 (qualification); id. §29A.08.140 (election-day registration).

⁹ Plaintiff cites lower-court decisions from the 1970s, see PI Memo. 20-21, but all those decisions predate the Anderson-Burdick framework.

Less exacting review is appropriate here. See Luft, 963 F.3d at 675-76 (upholding Wisconsin’s 28-day qualification for non-presidential elections despite Wisconsin allowing election-day registration, Wis. Stat. Ann. §6.55). The 30-day qualification is not a severe burden and will not “exclude[] many residents.” Dunn, 405 U.S. at 351. There is no federal right to move into North Carolina within 30 days of an election and vote at the new place of residency. See id. at 348 (allowing 30-day qualification). Interstate travel is also irrelevant for all of Plaintiff’s current members. For those current North Carolina residents, the “Supreme Court has not expressly recognized a fundamental right to intrastate travel” at all. Willis v. Town of Marshall, 426 F.3d 251, 265 (4th Cir. 2005). That a right to intrastate travel “is not entirely clear” is enough to doom that argument at the preliminary-injunction stage. Id. at 265. Even if such a right existed, it would protect no more “than the right of movement from place to place” within a State. Id. at 268 (Williams, J., concurring); see also Marston v. Lewis, 410 U.S. 679, 680 (1973) (upholding 50-day qualification for state and local elections).

Moreover, the ways in which North Carolina’s “election system differs from those of Arizona and Tennessee” in Marston and Dunn—such as allowing registration within 30 days of an election—“make it easier to vote in” North Carolina. Luft, 963 F.3d at 676; see PI Memo. 6 (conceding North Carolina’s law would be constitutional if it completely closed registration then). New residents can still vote in presidential elections in their previous state of residence, and current residents who move within North Carolina can vote at their previous precinct. “[C]onsider[ing] only the statute’s broad application to all” voters, as the Court must for this facial challenge, the qualification “imposes only a limited burden on voters' rights.'" Crawford v. Marion Cnty. Election Bd., 553 U.S. 181, 202-03 (2008) (plurality) (quoting Burdick, 504 U.S. at 439).

Thus, at most, "the State's asserted regulatory interests need only be sufficiently weighty to justify the limitation imposed on the party's rights." Timmons, 502 U.S. at 364 (quotations omitted); see also Gallagher v. Ind. State Election Bd., 598 N.E.2d 510, 514-16 (Ind. 1992) (upholding qualification using rational-basis review). North Carolina's law satisfies that standard. This Court should respect the General Assembly's "judgment" about what constitutes "an ample period of time for the State to complete whatever administrative tasks are necessary to prevent fraud" with its election laws. Dunn, 405 U.S. at 348. The 30-day qualification serves North Carolina's "legitimate purpose [] to determine whether certain persons in the community are bona fide residents" by dissuading "would-be fraudulent voters" who "would remain in a false locale for" a short time before an election. Id. at 351-52. Plus, because "campaign spending and voter education occur largely during the month before an election," making sure that a voter resided in North Carolina for that period serves the State's interest in providing for an educated electorate with at least some minimal ties to the State. Id. at 358.

The 30-day registration cutoff Plaintiff concedes is constitutional also "divide[s] residents into two classes, old residents and new residents," id. at 334-35, by giving only old residents the chance to register in time. Thus, what Plaintiff is truly complaining about is North Carolina experimenting with allowing old residents to register until early voting ends. Same-day registration "does not restrict or deny the franchise but in effect extends the franchise to persons who otherwise would be denied it by state law" due to a failure register in time. Katzenbach v. Morgan, 384 U.S. 641, 657 (1966). This “limitation on a reform measure aimed at eliminating an existing barrier to the exercise of the franchise” is not unconstitutional. Id. The Fourth Circuit itself prohibited North Carolina from ending this experiment. McCrory, 831 F.3d at 239.

Dunn “marked a sharp departure from the [Supreme] Court’s prior right-to-travel cases.” Saenz v. Roe, 526 U.S. 489, 514 (1999) (Rehnquist, C.J., dissenting). This Court should not extend Dunn into new territory with a premature injunction calling into question the constitutionality of McCrory, numerous States’ laws, and the VRA amendments’ allowance of 30-day “qualification[s] to vote.” 52 U.S.C. §10502(d).

VI. The Remaining Preliminary-Injunction Factors Weigh in the State’s Favor.

“[A]ny time a State is enjoined by a court from effectuating statutes enacted by representatives of its people, it suffers a form of irreparable injury.” Maryland v. King, 567 U.S. 1301, 1301 (2012) (Roberts, C.J., in chambers). Plaintiff, in contrast, has failed to identify a single potential voter who will be harmed during the 2024 general election. The Alliance itself has no rights under the VRA and no constitutional right to vote or travel. As explained above, the Alliance is not an organization “with core voter-advocacy missions,” Democracy N.C., 476 F. Supp. 3d at 236 (quotation omitted), and has failed to explain why it needs an injunction for the 2024 general election but not for any election during the previous two decades.

Even if laches does not apply, Plaintiff’s “long delay in seeking relief indicates that speedy action is not required.” Quince Orchard Valley Citizens Ass’n, Inc. v. Hodel, 872 F.2d 75, 80 (4th Cir. 1989) (denying preliminary injunction). The “prejudice caused by” the Alliance’s delay harms the “public . . . as well, as” Defendants who “are charged with ensuring the uniformity, fairness, accuracy, and integrity of” North Carolina elections. Perry, 471 F. App’x at 227. Plaintiff acknowledges the State could retain the 30-day qualification and comply with federal law by simultaneously ending registration but—after failing for decades to request such a legislative change—now asks the Court to completely enjoin enforcement of the qualification via judicial fiat. The public interest and equities do not weigh in favor of allowing unqualified voters to influence the outcome of the 2024 general election.

VII. The Scope of Plaintiff’s Requested Relief is Inappropriately Broad.

The Alliance’s proposed relief is too broad anyway. While its Memorandum requests an injunction only for the 2024 “November general election,” PI Memo. 7, its Motion is so broadly worded that it would apply to every North Carolina election, PI Mot. 1-2, including the imminent 2024 primary election. Equity does not favor such broad and last-minute relief. Purcell, 549 U.S. at 4-5.

CONCLUSION

The Court should deny the preliminary injunction motion.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
WAKE COUNTY

BEFORE THE STATE BOARD OF ELECTIONS

IN THE MATTER OF: CONSIDERATION OF) CERTAIN LEGAL QUESTIONS AFFECTING) THE AUTHENTICATION OF THE 2016)
GENERAL ELECTION)

ORDER

THIS MATTER CAME BEFORE THE STATE BOARD OF ELECTIONS (“State Board”) during a public meeting held November 22, 2016, upon the State Board’s own motion to consider certain legal questions affecting procedures and practices in the authentication of the 2016 general election. The State Board received briefing and heard oral argument from the Republican Party of North Carolina and Pat McCrory Committee, represented by Roger Knight, John Branch, and Brian LiVecchi; the North Carolina Democratic Party and Cooper for North Carolina Committee, represented by Kevin Hamilton (appearing pro hac vice); and the Southern Coalition for Social Justice, represented by Allison Riggs. After hearing from the parties, reviewing written briefs and public comment, and having reviewed relevant statutes and authorities, the State Board hereby orders the following pursuant to its authority under G.S. §§ 163-22(a) and 182.12:

1. The uniform application of law is necessary to ensure fundamental fairness in the administration of elections and to preserve due process for each voter.
2. Article 8 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes (“Article 8”) provides the means by which one voter may challenge the eligibility of another voter. No voter challenge may be entered after the deadline or made indiscriminately. A timely challenge properly sustained against a voter who has cast an absentee ballot will result in the exclusion of that ballot from the canvassed results.
3. Article 15A of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes (“Article 15A”) provides the means by which a voter may protest an election. A successful protest must prove the occurrence of an outcome-determinative violation of election law, irregularity, or misconduct. If a county board of elections (“county board”) finds a violation occurred affecting votes sufficient in number to change the outcome of a single-county contest, the county board must retrieve the ballots improperly cast and note the deduction in the abstract. If a county board finds a violation occurred that did not affect enough ballots to change the outcome of any single-county contest, the county board must forward its findings to the State Board. The State Board shall determine whether all ballots improperly cast are sufficient to change the outcome of any multi-county contest. If so, the State Board will order county boards to retrieve and discount affected ballots and revise its canvass.
4. A protest alleging the occurrence of an election law violation that affected votes sufficient in number to change the outcome of a single-county contest concerns the manner in which votes were counted or tabulated, and therefore such protest must be resolved prior to county canvass as required by G.S. § 163-182.10(a)(2). A protest that does not allege an election law violation regarding a sufficient number of votes to change the outcome of a single-county contest shall not delay the county canvass procedures since the county may not retrieve and discount such ballots. In no case shall the county board delay the timely hearing and decision on a protest timely filed.

5. A protest of election brought under Article 15A may not merely dispute the eligibility of a voter. Such a claim must be brought timely as a challenge under Article 8. Rather, a protest of election may include claims regarding the eligibility of certain voters only as evidence that an outcome-determinative violation of election law, irregularity, or misconduct has occurred.
6. The county board of elections shall dismiss a protest of election that merely disputes the eligibility of a voter. The county board shall instead consider the claim as a voter challenge brought under Article 8 after the election.
7. No county board may retrieve and discount a ballot cast by an unqualified voter unless a challenge was timely brought under Article 8, or the State Board or a county board has found that ineligible voters participated in numbers sufficient to change the outcome of the election. The latter finding may be based on a protest timely brought under Article 15A or pursuant to complaint or directive of the State Board under G.S. §§ 163-22(a) and 182.12.
8. County boards of election must preserve the due process rights of all voters, including adequate notice and a meaningful opportunity to be heard. If a protest brought under Article 15A includes claims regarding the eligibility of certain voters, the county board must provide notice of the protest reasonably calculated to apprise such voters of the pendency of the protest and afford them an opportunity to present their objections. Due process in the context of time-sensitive post-election protests may mean that county boards expedite notice mailings or reach out to affected voters by other means not ordinarily required under Article 8. At a minimum, county boards must provide written notice to affected voters by expedited delivery service, such that notice is received at least three days ahead of any such hearing.
9. If any county board of elections has retrieved and discounted any ballot in a manner inconsistent with this Order in its canvass of the 2016 general election, the county board shall amend its canvass to include the vote. No such re-canvass shall reset any statutory deadline otherwise associated with the canvass of votes.
10. Counties shall proceed to the canvassing of the 2016 general election consistent with this Order, which shall govern future elections unless otherwise directed by this Board.

This the twenty-eighth day of November, 2016.

Re: Amendment And Supplementation of UOCAVA No ID Protest in Durham

Dear Board Members,

On behalf of The Jefferson Griffin Campaign, I am writing to amend and supplement our election protest pending in front of the North Carolina State Board of Elections ("NCSBE").

As you know the Jefferson Griffin Committee has filed election protests in all 100 counties. The NCSBE has assumed jurisdiction over three of the distinguished protest issues, while three others remain at the various county boards of elections.

We are writing to amend the Griffin Protest from Durham County related to UOCAVA voters who did not provide an ID. The legal grounds for the protest remain the same, but the class of voters affected or potentially affected is now different.

On November 24, 2024, Durham County Board of Elections produced the list of UOCAVA voters who cast a ballot without providing an ID. See Exhibit 1. The list includes 1,991 such voters.

This supplemental list of affected individuals should be made part of the record before the State Board. Individuals on this newly produced list will be served notice in the same manner as voters affected by our previous version of the challenges.

These records of overseas voters who never provided identification are authenticated by the act of production by Durham County. The sole issue before the State Board is a legal one: whether these individuals were required to provide photo identification to cast a valid vote.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Best Regards,

Philip R. Thomas

Re: Amendment And Supplementation of UOCAVA No ID Protest in Forsyth

Dear Board Members,

On behalf of The Jefferson Griffin Campaign, I am writing to amend and supplement our election protest pending in front of the North Carolina State Board of Elections ("NCSBE").

As you know the Jefferson Griffin Committee has filed election protests in all 100 counties. The NCSBE has assumed jurisdiction over three of the distinguished protest issues, while three others remain at the various county boards of elections.

We are writing to amend the Griffin Protest from Forsyth County related to UOCAVA voters who did not provide an ID. The legal grounds for the protest remain the same, but the class of voters affected or potentially affected is now different.

On November 25, 2024, the Forsyth County Board of Elections produced the list of UOCAVA voters who cast a ballot without providing an ID. See Exhibit 1. The list includes 1,014 such voters.

This supplemental list of affected individuals should be made part of the record before the State Board. Individuals on this newly produced list will be served notice in the same manner as voters affected by our previous version of the challenges.

These records of overseas voters who never provided identification are authenticated by the act of production by Forsyth County. The sole issue before the State Board is a legal one: whether these individuals were required to provide photo identification to cast a valid vote.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions.

Best Regards,

Philip R. Thomas

Re: Request to Issue Subpoenas

Chairman Hirsch and Members of the Board,

It has become apparent that not all voter history data is publicly available and the data that is available appears to be changing on a daily basis. While we understand this may be par for the course, it is cause for concern and may lead to a lack of public confidence in the results. Moreover, as we proceed through this protest process, the lack of available data makes it nearly impossible to evaluate and weigh the “evidence”. Production and analysis of this data is a prerequisite to a final conclusion of this election.

Pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 163-23, the Chairman of the State Board has the power to issue subpoenas to the county boards of elections to provide records, including those of voter history for the 2024 General Election. Alternatively, any two members of the State Board may issue such subpoenas.

Specifically, N.C.G.S. § 163-23 provides the following:

In the performance of the duties enumerated in this Chapter, the Chair of the State Board shall have power to administer oaths, issue subpoenas, summon witnesses, and compel the production of papers, books, records, and other evidence. Upon the written request or requests of two or more members of the State Board, the Chair shall issue subpoenas for designated witnesses or identified papers, books, records, and other evidence. In the absence of the Chair or upon the Chair's refusal to act, any two members of the State Board may issue subpoenas, summon witnesses, and compel the production of papers, books, records, and other evidence. In the absence of the Chair or upon the Chair's refusal to act, any member of the State Board may administer oaths.

As we understand it, the requested data necessary for the full resolution of these protests is, at least currently, all within the counties’ possession.

Accordingly, we hereby request Chairman Hirsch issue the attached subpoena for service upon all 100 county boards of elections for the purposes of obtaining uniform data from each county. If Chairman Hirsch declines to issue such subpoenas, we request that any other two Board members do so.

The data requested is as follows:

November 21, 2024

Page 2

- (1) Each county's voter history for the 2024 General Election, including election day, absentee (including early voting), and provisional voter history;
- (2) All "mail-in FPCA and FWAB forms". See Exhibit 1;
- (3) A list of UOCAVA voters who cast a ballot without providing a copy of photo identification or a Photo Identification Exception Form Report and had that ballot approved. See Exhibit 2.

The issuance of the attached subpoena and the production of the requested documents from each county board of election is paramount for the parties and the State Board of Elections to efficiently resolve protests of the 2024 Election.

Please indicate via email back to me, cschauer@dowlingfirm.com, and legal@ncgop.org whether or not you intend to issue the requested subpoenas and issue the subpoenas no later than 4:00 P.M. on Friday, November 22, 2024.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Philip R. Thomas

You have all the data we provided to the counties for the voter eligibility audit. Attached are the emails I sent to the counties on the subject. But there were only two data files that those emails pointed to. You have them both.

I will get with our data team on their script for the felon matching. I don't think we can provide you a percentage confidence value for the match. What I can say is what I told the counties on 11/8:

"Counties must review your DOC felon match list on the intranet to make sure that the felon is an exact match with the voter."

"Please note that a county should not automatically challenge any voter for appearing on these lists. Instead, a county should first review the records in its possession to determine whether the voters identified on these lists were clearly ineligible before challenging the voter's ballot. If your board makes that determination, then it must follow the challenge procedures in Numbered Memo 2022-05, pg. 3-5."

On FWABs, here's what we explained to you on 11/14: "We do not store this data field in our databases for mail-in FPCA and FWAB forms. To get those, you would have to request those voters' forms from the county boards of elections, and they would need to first redact confidential information." Perhaps this wasn't entirely clear. We do not receive FWABs via the portal. They are only received directly by the county boards, typically in paper form (and perhaps email or fax). Accordingly, we have no data field in our records to show FWAB applicants who have never been residents.

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

INTRODUCTION

NOW COMES, Plaintiffs the North Carolina Republican Party ("NCGOP"), The Jefferson Griffin Committee, a North Carolina unincorporated state campaign committee, and Jefferson Griffin, candidate for Associate Justice on the North Carolina Supreme Court, Seat 06

(collectively “Plaintiffs”), hereby seek enforcement of the right to inspect public records pursuant to North Carolina’s Public Records Law, N.C.G.S. § 132 et seq. In support thereof, Plaintiffs hereby state as follows:

PARTIES

1. Plaintiff NCGOP is a North Carolina state political party organization recognized under state and federal law. See 11 C.F.R. 100.15; N.C.G.S. § 163-96.

2. Plaintiff The Jefferson Griffin Committee is a North Carolina state campaign committee as defined under state law. See N.C.G.S. § 163-278.6(74)(a).

3. Plaintiff Jefferson Griffin is the authorizing candidate of The Jefferson Griffin Committee, seeking election as Associate Justice on the North Carolina Supreme Court, Seat 06. See N.C.G.S. § 163-96.

4. Defendant North Carolina State Board of Elections is the state agency responsible for overseeing and managing many of the election processes in North Carolina, including the collection of data related to North Carolina elections and the issuance of guidance and information to the county boards of elections throughout the state. Defendant is also the legal custodian of the public records at issue in this action.

5. Defendant Alan Hirsch is the Chair of the North Carolina State Board of Elections. Mr. Hirsch is sued in his official capacity.

6. Defendant Jeff Carmon is the Secretary of the North Carolina State Board of Elections. He is sued in his official capacity.

7. Defendant Stacy “Four” Eggers IV is a Member of the North Carolina State Board of Elections. He is sued in his official capacity.

8. Defendant Kevin N. Lewis is a Member of the North Carolina State Board of Elections. He is sued in his official capacity.

9. Defendant Siobhan O'Duffy Millen is a Member of the North Carolina State Board of Elections. She is sued in her official capacity.

10. Defendant Karen Brinson Bell is the Executive Director of the North Carolina State Board of Elections. She is sued in her official capacity.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

11. This Court has jurisdiction over the action pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 132-9.

12. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 1-82.

BACKGROUND

13. Plaintiff Griffin is a candidate in the 2024 General Election seeking to serve as an Associate Justice on the North Carolina Supreme Court, Seat 06.

14. Defendants collectively are an agency of the State of North Carolina, and, as such, are governed by the public disclosure requirements of the North Carolina Public Records Act, N.C.G.S. Chapter 132.

15. Pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 163-182.5(b), the county boards of elections “shall meet at 11:00 AM on the tenth day after every election to complete the canvass of votes cast and to authenticate the count in every ballot item in the county by determining that the votes have been counted and tabulated correctly.” For purposes of the 2024 General Election, county canvasses began on November 15, 2024.

16. To date, many but not all of the one hundred (100) counties in North Carolina have completed the canvass process. North Carolina State Board of Elections, Several Counties to Certify Election Early Next Week (Nov. 15, 2024) <https://www.ncsbe.gov/news/press-releases/2024/11/15/several-counties-certify-election-early-next-week>.

17. Candidates are permitted to file Protests with the county boards of elections “concerning the conduct of an election” by “5:00 PM on the second business day after the county board of elections has completed its canvass and declared the results” if the subject matter of these Protests “concern[] an irregularity other than vote counting or result tabulation.” N.C.G.S. § 163-182.9(a) and (b)(4)(c). Protests related to the 2024 General Election are therefore due no later than 5:00 PM on November 19, 2024 for those counties that have completed canvass.

18. The vote tallies available through Defendants’ website indicate that the margin for the Supreme Court race is currently twenty-four (24) votes out of more than 5,500,000 votes cast.

19. Since the conclusion of voting on November 5, 2024, Plaintiffs, through counsel, have issued numerous public records requests to various state and local government agencies seeking data and information related to the 2024 General Election.

20. Defendants are one of the agencies from which Plaintiffs seek data and information, as Defendants maintain possession, custody, and/or control of the public records that are directly related to the election processes and procedures that occurred during the 2024 General Election.

21. As of this filing, there are four (4) significant requests relevant to the 2024 General Election that remain incomplete and outstanding from Defendant. These requests relate to: (1) lists of conflict voters (i.e. those voters who are suspected to have cast ballot both absentee and in-person); (2) those voters who utilized the curbside Election Day voting processes to complete their ballot; (3) full and complete lists of felony convictions, including full and complete replicas of datasets and guidance provided to each county board of elections related to felony convictions and treatment of votes cast by those convicted of a felony; and (4) full and complete lists of deceased persons, including full and complete replicas of datasets and guidance provided to each county board of elections related to deceased persons and treatment of votes cast by deceased persons. Exhibit A.

22. Almost all the records requested by Plaintiffs would not have been available prior to Election Day, as those data sets continue to change and update through Election Day. In some cases, those records are not available until after Election Day as county boards of elections conduct their canvasses.

23. While Defendants have provided some data in response to submitted public records requests, review of the provided data and responses from county boards of elections suggest that the information is either incomplete or a non-identical copy of the information that was provided to the county boards of elections. Exhibit B. The material differences between data received from Defendants and other agencies and county boards of elections necessitate additional productions from Defendants to enable Plaintiffs to reconcile apparent disparities.

24. Having identified issues with Defendants' data and information, counsel for Plaintiffs sent a formal follow-up request to Defendants on Saturday, November 16, 2024, specifying the incomplete and outstanding requests and emphasizing the urgent need for additional production given the impending Protest filing deadline. Exhibit C.

25. As of filing this action, Defendants have failed to meaningfully respond to Plaintiffs' request and provide complete records of the requested information.

26. Defendants' failures have impeded Plaintiffs' efforts to meaningfully examine the 2024 General Election processes and unlawfully interfered with Plaintiffs' ability to evaluate the potential need to file any protests in relation to the 2024 General Election.

27. Defendants' document production to date remains incomplete, and, upon information and belief, it does not encompass all documents in Defendants' possession, custody, or control that are subject to disclosure under North Carolina's Public Records Act.

28. This Court's intervention is required to compel Defendants' disclosure of public records in compliance with the law.

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF
(Violation of the North Carolina Public Records Act)

29. The allegations stated in the preceding paragraphs are incorporated herein by reference as if fully set forth herein.

30. The North Carolina Public Records Act, N.C.G.S. § 132-1(b), states that all “public records and public information compiled by the agencies of North Carolina government . . . are the property of the people.”

31. Under the Public Records Act, N.C.G.S. § 132-6(a), the custodian must furnish requested public records “as promptly as possible” in response to a request for such records.

32. Defendant, as the official agency charged with managing and overseeing North Carolina elections, is well aware of the tight timelines under which campaigns must examine election processes and procedures and prepare Protests for filing.

33. The records requested from Defendants are readily accessible and available, as they have been recently provided to county boards of elections in conjunction with the 2024 General Election for use in the county canvass.

34. Under these circumstances, “as promptly as possible” does not contemplate failing to provide Plaintiffs with records less than forty-eight hours before a filing deadline. This is particularly the case when Defendants have been in possession of the requests since November 9, 2024, November 11, 2024, and November 12, 2024.

35. Defendants’ failure to provide the requested information as required by the Public Records Act is, in effect, a denial of Plaintiffs’ request, and will cause Plaintiffs irreparable harm.

36. By Defendants’ continuing willful refusal to provide documents responsive to Plaintiffs' requests, and by Defendants' production of only a partial subset of the documents in Defendants' possession, custody, and/or control, Defendants have violated the North Carolina Public Records Act, N.C.G.S. § 132 et seq., and thereby caused Plaintiffs to suffer damages, including attorney's fees.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court:

1. Assume jurisdiction over this action;
2. Enter an order compelling Defendants to comply fully and without further delay with the North Carolina Public Records Act and to furnish Plaintiffs all public records satisfying the described requests;
3. Award Plaintiffs reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, as authorized by N.C.G.S. § 132-9(c) and to the extent otherwise permitted by law; and
4. Grant Plaintiffs such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

This the 18th day of November 2024.

Respectfully submitted,

I'm not sure what the EC signifies, it's a coding that was included in the State Board's data audit that they sent to us. The "removed only" includes a combination of "Moved Out of County," "Deceased," and "Felon" voters. Again, it was how it was sent to us from the State Board.

Thank you, Tim!

Can you clarify what the "removed only" tab relates to? Also, what does "EC" mean in the voting method column on the "removed only" tab?

Appreciate ya, sir.

Thank you for the responses we have already received confirming your intent to remove those ineligible voters.

In addition to that confirmation, please see the attached records request regarding the same issues.

Thanks,

Subject: Confirmation of Removal of Deceased and Felon Voters

Directors,

I hope your pre-canvass activities are going well. Please see the attached letter regarding removal of voters (and votes) who are deceased or convicted of a felony. In short, we are asking the following:

Please confirm, by noon on November 12, 2024, that your County Board will be following the NCSBE's guidance regarding dead voters and felon voters, and will be timely updating its records to incorporate death and felony conviction information it receives from NCSBE and other pertinent sources to ensure that all ballots cast by eligible voters, and only ballots cast by such voters, will be counted in the canvass.

Thank you for your attention to this matter, and for your service as an elections official.

RE: Outstanding Public Records Requests

Mr. Cox,

Our firm serves as counsel to The Jefferson Griffin Committee and Jefferson Griffin. We have at least four (4) public records requests that are outstanding or incomplete with the State Board of Elections. These requests include:

1. Double Voters: A full and complete production of those lists provided to each county of duplicate votes cast by voters via absentee ballot and in-person during the 2024 General Election that have been identified as "conflict" in SEIMS. The production should also include any guidance provided to the counties by the State Board of Elections to administratively remove said duplicate votes cast by voters.
2. Curbside Election Day Voters: A full and complete list of those voters who voted on election day utilizing the curbside voting processes to complete their ballot.
3. Felony Convictions: A full and complete production of those lists identified in the Public Records Request sent on November 9, 2024, and subsequent email correspondence to Paul Cox on November 14, 2024, concerning felony convictions. Specifically, the data produced thus far appears to be an incomplete or non-identical copy of the data transmitted to the individual county boards of elections. Please provide complete and identical copies of all referenced lists in the form as provided to the counties and all guidance from the NCSBE to the counties concerning felony convictions as outlined in the Public Records Request.
4. Deceased Persons: A full and complete production of those lists identified in the Public Records Request sent on November 9, 2024 concerning deceased persons. Specifically, the data produced thus far appears to be an incomplete or non-identical copy of the data transmitted to the individual county boards of elections. Please provide complete and identical copies of all referenced lists in the form as provided to the counties and all guidance from the NCSBE to the counties concerning deceased persons as outlined in the Public Records Request.

As you know, a candidate has two business days following the conclusion of county canvasses to file Protests identifying election irregularities that could impact the outcome of the race. The information requested is critical to determine whether there were certain irregularities.

The custodian of public records "shall, as promptly as possible, furnish copies" of public records. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 132-6(a). Given the pending protest deadlines, we ask that the requested public records be provided no later than 7:00 AM on Monday, November 18, 2024.

Should the Board of Elections fail to provide the records by this deadline, we will deem the failure to be a denial of the outstanding requests, and we will file an action on Monday seeking emergency relief and an order compelling the production of the requested information. See N.C. Gen. Stat. § 132-9(a). We hope such action will be unnecessary.

If you have any questions concerning the outstanding requests or the production, please contact me. We look forward to promptly receiving the records.

Sincerely,

Phil,

I'm going to get you the data sent to the county boards shortly. And we are working with our data folks to see what we can provide for Election Day curbside. That data, as you can imagine, will be very much incomplete. Only a handful of counties have finalized their election day voter history at this point.
