January Newsletter

OGDEN BASE

Happy New Year! We are excited to welcome January with a variety of fun and creative winter-themed activities in the BASE program. This month, children will enjoy making winter hats using colorful craft materials, exploring sensory play by creating cloud dough, and designing unique paper snowflakes through folding and cutting. They will also get to build their own reindeer using craft supplies and create a tie-dye jar of hearts to celebrate creativity and kindness. These activities are designed to encourage imagination, fine motor skills, and hands-on learning while embracing the winter season. We look forward to a fun and engaging month with our BASE participants.

Reminder: There are no pro-ration or refunds for BASE. If the weather is nice, the kids will go outside to enjoy fresh air and participate in outdoor play activities as part of their day
