

UK Real Estate Horizon Scanner Summer 2025

12 June 2025

The UK government continues to make plenty of promises in terms of reform, a rental revolution and a planning shake-up. What is coming down the line in terms of new legislation over the next few months and which are the crucial cases to have on your radar?

Check out our new Summer Horizon Scanner to see what's happening and when, to help you to plan ahead. Click here to view the new Horizon Scanner to see what's coming down the line in the real estate space.

Also to help with forward planning in a time of constant change see our new Future of Energy hub and our new Building Safety Act Hub which bring together our global thought leadership on these fast-moving topics in one useful place.
