

2026 Private Funds Compliance Calendar

The 2026 Private Funds Compliance Calendar (“Calendar”) does not address all potential regulatory obligations applicable to an investment adviser or private fund. The Calendar assumes an SEC-registered investment adviser with a December 31 fiscal year-end that advises one or more private funds.

The information contained in the Calendar is for informational purposes only and is not intended and should not be considered to be legal advice on any subject matter. As such, recipients of the Calendar, whether clients of Dorsey & Whitney LLP or otherwise, should not act or refrain from acting on the basis of any information included in this report without seeking appropriate legal or other professional advice. The Calendar is presented without any warranty or representation as to its accuracy or completeness, or whether it reflects the most current legal developments. The Calendar may be considered attorney advertising. Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.

NEW REQUIREMENTS
6/3/2026	Investment Advisers with under $1.5 billion of Assets Under Management must be in Compliance with the SEC's Amendments to Regulation S-P	The amendments require registered investment advisers to, among other things, develop and implement an incident response program to detect, respond to, and recover from unauthorized access to or use of customer information, and provide timely notification to individuals affected by the unauthorized access of customer information.
10/1/2026	Joint Amendments to Form PF become effective	Joint amendments to Form PF adopted by the SEC and CFTC in February 2024, including (i) enhanced quarterly reporting for all Large Hedge Fund Advisers (Sections 1 and 2), (ii) new requirements for reporting complex fund structures (master-feeders/parallel funds), and (iii) additional disclosures regarding trading vehicles and counterparty exposures come into effect on October 1, 2026, and will apply starting with the third quarter 2026 Form PF for quarterly filers, and the 2026 annual update for annual Form PF filers.
ANNUAL AND CURRENT
Annual	Annual Review of Compliance Policies and Procedures	Rule 206(4)-7 under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 ("Advisers Act") requires a registered investment adviser to review, no less frequently than annually, the adequacy of its policies and procedures established pursuant to Rule 206(4)-7 and the effectiveness of their implementation.
Annual	Annual Holdings Report	Advisers Act Rule 204A-1 requires access persons of a registered investment adviser to submit a report of current securities holdings to the investment adviser's chief compliance officer at least once each 12-month period on a date selected by the investment adviser. The information in the annual holdings report must be current as of a date no more than 45 days prior to the date the report was submitted.

Date	Obligation	Comment
Annual	Annual Acknowledgement of Receipt of Code of Ethics	Advisers Act Rule 204A-1 requires a registered investment adviser to require its supervised persons to provide the investment adviser with a written acknowledgement of their receipt of the Code of Ethics and any amendments.
Annual	Distribute Annual Privacy Notice to Clients	Pursuant to Regulation S-P under the U.S. Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (“GLBA”), an investment adviser must provide an initial privacy notice to its customers at the time the advisory relationship is established and annually thereafter, unless the adviser qualifies for the exception from the annual privacy notice requirement described below. Under Section 503(f) of GLBA, an investment adviser need not provide an annual privacy notice to customers if it provides nonpublic personal information only in accordance with the permitted disclosure provisions of GLBA and has not changed its policies and practices regarding disclosure of nonpublic personal information since the most recent privacy notice provided to its customers.
Annual	Annual Amendment to Form D	This requirement applies to private funds relying on Regulation D. An amended Form D is due annually on or before the anniversary of the most recently filed Form D.
Annual	Annual Renewal of State Blue Sky Filings	This requirement applies with respect to certain states where private funds offer interests.
Within 72 Hours	Section 5 Form PF Current Reporting for Large Hedge Fund Advisers	Large hedge fund advisers are required to complete and file Section 5 of Form PF as soon as practicable, but no later than 72 hours, upon the occurrence of one or more current reporting events with respect to a qualifying hedge fund they advise. An adviser is a large hedge fund adviser if the adviser and its related persons, collectively, had at least $1.5 billion in hedge fund assets under management as of the last day of any month in the
