Over the Horizon: The rise and fall of nuclear new build in the United Kingdom

Rory Connor

Marking a major change from the optimism of just a few years ago surrounding nuclear power, nuclear new build in the UK is now a challenging investment proposition as the result of electricity market liberalisation, rising capital costs and risk of delays and cost overruns. This article discusses these challenges and some potential solutions. More »

Fifth Circuit Vacates Bankruptcy Court's Order Requiring Payment of Make-Whole Premium and Interest in Ultra Petroleum Bankruptcy

Sarah R. Borders, Jeffrey R. Dutson, Miguel Cadavid

The U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit reversed a bankruptcy court's decision requiring Ultra Petroleum Corporation to pay its noteholders contractual make-whole premiums and post-petition interest at a contractual default rate, concluding that the failure to pay such amounts was not an impairment caused by the plan but rather resulted from the application of the Bankruptcy Code.
