DOG AGGRESSION: THE BOSS DOG

Know When To Avoid

The Boss Dog thinks they are in charge and that they need to prove it

When to avoid other dogs:

- ▶ Your dog is pulling on leash
- ▶ Panting heavily
- ▶ On high alert
- ▶ Signs of stress

▶ Avoid when the dog approaching is overly excited or stressed

Master The Walk

Avoid hyping your dog. Stay silent.

If your dog edges ahead, walk across the front turning them around 180 degrees.

After a few strides you repeat it again, and continue on the same direction.

Quit While You're Ahead

Overly excited/stressed dogs are like a ticking time bomb

Don't hang around.

Reward them once you've moved on, and count it as a win.

Adding Fuel To The Fire

Don't add fuel to the fire by getting angry or yelling at your dog

Be calm and quiet

Watch how your dog reacts to your calmer energy

Rushing Our Dogs

Rushing the training will only delay you

Become a master at reading your dog's energy

Work on bringing your dog into the green zone

Two Breaths For Success

NON-REACTIVE ENERGY

This technique resets your breathing & your mind for training

Breathe out slowly thru the mouth, breathe in slowly thru the nose.

REPEAT.

Calm Freeze

The Dog Calming Code:
