This Message Is for You!

Posing clients on railroad tracks and other private property is not only dangerous but illegal.

Responsible Photography

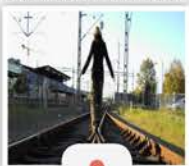

Starts with You.

When you walk on to tracks or rail
property, you are trespassing.

Trains can't stop
quickly to avoid
people or vehicles
on the tracks.

An optical illusion
makes it hard to determine a
train's distance
and its speed.

Never assume tracks are abandoned or inactive.

People in your community mimic
your behavior.
