|  |   |  |   |   | 1Choreograph a dance to your favorite family song.   | 2Everyone has different abilities! Research famous artists with disabilities.                                    |
| 3Take turns choosing a super power and describe why you chose that power.                          | 4Build your own creative vision board using magazines and newspapers.   | 5Visit your local park and collect different types of leaves to make leaf art.                         | 6Pick out a rock and color it together.   | 7Create a sock puppet and take turns making up a story with it.   | 8Kids, teach parents how to take selfies - the right way.  | 9Trace your hands on a sheet of paper then color and design it.  |
| 10Stamp thumbprints on a paper and decorate it as if it were you, your family and friends.         | 11Design your dream place of where you would like to live and add as much detail as you'd like.                     | 12Decorate both sides of a strip of paper then link each strip to make a heart chain.                  | 13Shade a page with the side of a pencil, then use an eraser to create lines through the shading.                           | 14Create a pattern using the first letter of your name and flip the letter in different directions.     | 15Draw a portrait of a person using only 10 lines. Now try five lines. Can you do it in three lines? | 16How might you show blue and red dancing? What would three colors at play look like?                            |
| 17If your mood was a color today, which color would it be? Make a drawing using that color.        | 18When you hear "accepting Imperfection," what does this look like to you? Write, draw, or dance out your thoughts. | 19Host a family talent show where each person performs a fun song, cool dance, or tells a story.       | 20Trace the silhouette of each family member using white paper against a lit wall, then decorate each one.                  | 21Explore a different culture by cooking a dish or listening to music from that culture.                | 22Draw a family tree and see how many relatives your family members can add.                         | 23Grab some wooden block letters and shapes and decorate them to create a meaningful sign for your bedroom door. |
| 24Check out different murals and artwork across your city and take photos with your favorite ones. | 25Write a haiku with objects around your room or home.  | 26During bedtime, make puppets and other shapes with your hands and a flashlight on your bedroom wall. | 27Make shadow art! Place favorite toys on the ground and a piece of paper behind them, then trace each shadow and color in. | 28Have everyone fold a paper airplane, then see which one flies the straightest, farthest, or curviest. | 29Create a fairy garden using your imagination and upcycle containers.                               | 30What is your family favorite food or dish? Choose a delicious recipe to make together.                         |
| 31Write a letter or number on paper. Now imagine what animal or bird it looks like and draw it!    |   |  |   |   |  |  |
