

Q: Is parking included in the purchase of a ticket?

A: Unfortunately, parking is not included in any of our ticket packages. But if you reference our parking section on this webpage, you will find multiple options that you can utilize to find parking for each service and/or game!

Also, if you don't want to deal with parking, we encourage you to utilize Jacksonville Transportation Authority's Game Xpress option. Click here for more information!

Q: What time will the church service begin? What about the time of tailgate?

A: For Sunday games that start at 1pm, church service will start at 10:00am followed by the tailgate experience directly after around 11:00am.

For the preseason game happening on Saturday, August 14th, the game starts at 7:00pm. This will mean that our church service will begin at 5:00pm.

Q: Do I have to purchase one of the game tickets to attend the church service?

A: No, of course not! You are welcome to join us for the church service without purchasing one of our ticket packages with access to the tailgate and game.

\**Just remember, unless you purchase one of our tailgate or game tickets, you will not be able to participate in the Bono's Pit Bar-B-Q meal that takes place following the church service experience.*

Q: Will this campus hold church services at this location every Sunday?

A: No, this campus will only hold service on the weeks that the Jacksonville Jaguars have a HOME game during football season. On weekends that the team is away, we invite you to join us at one of our other Jacksonville locations for church. Click here for more information on those locations!

Q: Can I bring my own food to the tailgate if I want to forego the available meal option?

A: Of course! If you want to hang out with us during the tailgate experience to participate in the fellowship and community, but don't specifically want Bono's Pit Bar-B-Q, you are welcome to bring your own food.

Q: On home game weekends that Celebration at the Bank will be occurring, will church service still be available at all of our other Jacksonville locations?

A: Yes! All services will operate as normal and still be available for you to attend at all of our other Jacksonville locations each Sunday. For more info, click here.

Q: Do I have to be a member of Celebration Church in order to attend and/or purchase tickets?

A: No; anyone is welcome to join us at Celebration at the Bank!

Q: What happens if there is inclement weather? How would I find out if there are changes to the church service or tailgate experience due to inclement weather?

A: We will have to make decisions on service changes due to inclement weather on a case-by-case basis.

The best place to check when you're wondering if there are going to be changes to service and/or tailgating due to weather is our social media platforms or The Celebration App! Follow us on Instagram or Facebook to stay up to date!

Q: Will there be any fun activities for my kids if I choose to bring them?

A: Yes of course! We will have family-friendly tailgate activities.

Is there a way for me to sign up to serve at the church location?

A: Yes – if you wish to serve during services at this location, click here and we will connect with you next steps!

Q: How will I be able to access my ticket once I purchase?

A: You will be sent your ticket digitally via email. Please ensure you have access to this via your mobile device once you arrive to the stadium.

Q: Can I buy tickets the day of the game?

A: To ensure you are able to receive a game + Bono's Bar-B-Q ticket, you will need to purchase your ticket option no later than the Thursday before each home at 1pm EST. \*Game only tickets (that don't include Bono's Bar-B-Q) will still be available to purchase through the Saturday before each home game by contacting Andrew Parker at (904) 633-6534 or parkera@nfl.jaguars.com directly.*
