Preparations

LET'S BEGIN

Get Ready In Style

Start your day in the radiant Preparation Room, spending time with your nearest and dearest as the excitement builds. This stylistically-modern room is conveniently located just moments away from the magnificent Oak Room and Mediterranean-esque courtyard - two of our gorgeous ceremony areas.

The History

Shotesham Park Estate was designed by renowned architect Sir John Soane - perhaps best known for his work on the Bank of England - in 1785. Impress your guests with the historical and architectural significance of Shotesham Park's buildings as they relish in your wedding day.

Ceremony

THE 'I DO'

Say I do...

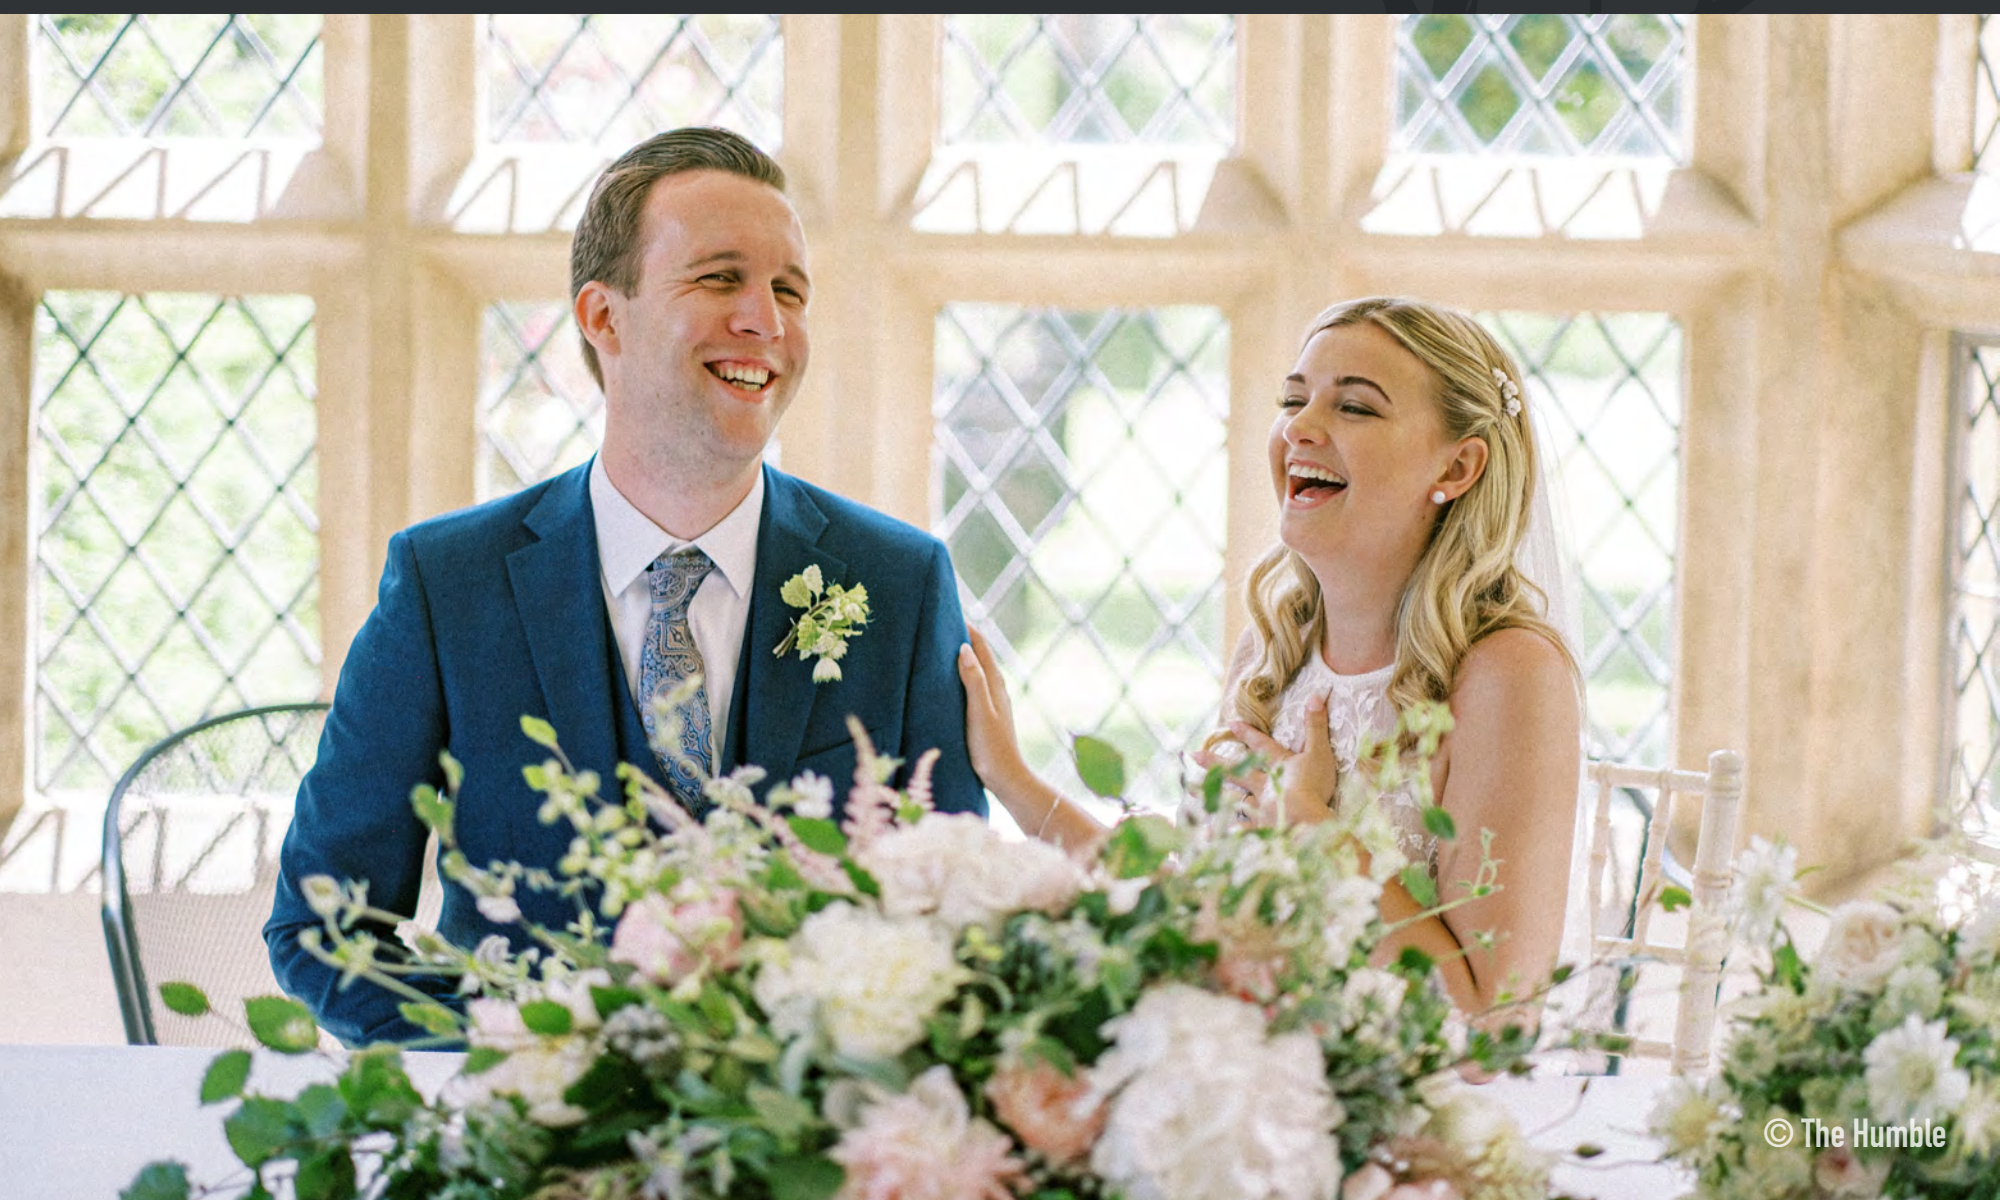

You can choose to have your ceremony in our tranquil woodland area, our exquisitely designed Oak Room (ceremony room) or you could even make the most of the dazzling sunshine in a courtyard ceremony. There are so many options - and ways to style each location - to guarantee your wedding is completely personal to you.

The Oak Room

The Oak Room, along with its stylings and furnishings, is the pinnacle of ceremony class. It seats up to 120 guests.

The Courtyard

The courtyard is another potential ceremony spot. Exchange vows in the brilliant sunshine for a memorable twist on the all-important ceremony.

The Woodlands

Our woodland area provides the perfect opportunity to marry in the beautiful outdoors. Tie the knot in the dappled sunlight; the natural light will allow for truly magical photos to look back on for years to come.

The Courtyard

A GRAND WELCOME

Explore The Grounds

After your ceremony, take a private stroll with your fellow newlywed through the gardens and surrounding woodlands and capture those crucial wedding photos with a variety of stunning scenery.

Then, head to the courtyard to rejoin your guests for mouthwatering canapés and drinks.
