“

A fairytale... nothing less but so much more than we'd ever dreamed. Firstly, Ashridge House as a setting is incomparable to anywhere else in the UK. Nowhere tops it... we knew we'd found our wedding venue. Breathtaking. The drive into the venue has you sold but what you find inside makes you fall in love.

At Ashridge House, our passion for fine dining has earned us a reputation for creating extraordinary wedding menus. Using the finest seasonal, local produce, our talented culinary team crafts dishes that are as memorable as your day. Paired with carefully selected fine wines and bubbles, every bite is designed to elevate your celebration to something truly spectacular.

Our spectacular neo-Gothic country house has a fascinating history spanning 730 years. It has been a monastery, a family home, a wartime hospital, a finishing school and a world-renowned business school.

We could not recommend Ashridge highly enough. As if the venue wasn't stunning enough in its own right – with fantastic facilities and a seamless flow throughout the building – the staff were incredible. From our wonderful Wedding Co-ordinator to the team who helped on the day, no request was too big. Everyone was kind and helpful, and all of this together made our day so special (and, according to our guests, one of the best weddings they've ever attended!).

In the summer, our stunning terrace, landscaped gardens, and expansive lawns provide an ideal setting for outdoor ceremonies and drinks receptions. Even as the weather cools, the vibrant autumn hues and bare trees offer a breathtaking backdrop for unforgettable photos.

ONCE UPON A GARDEN

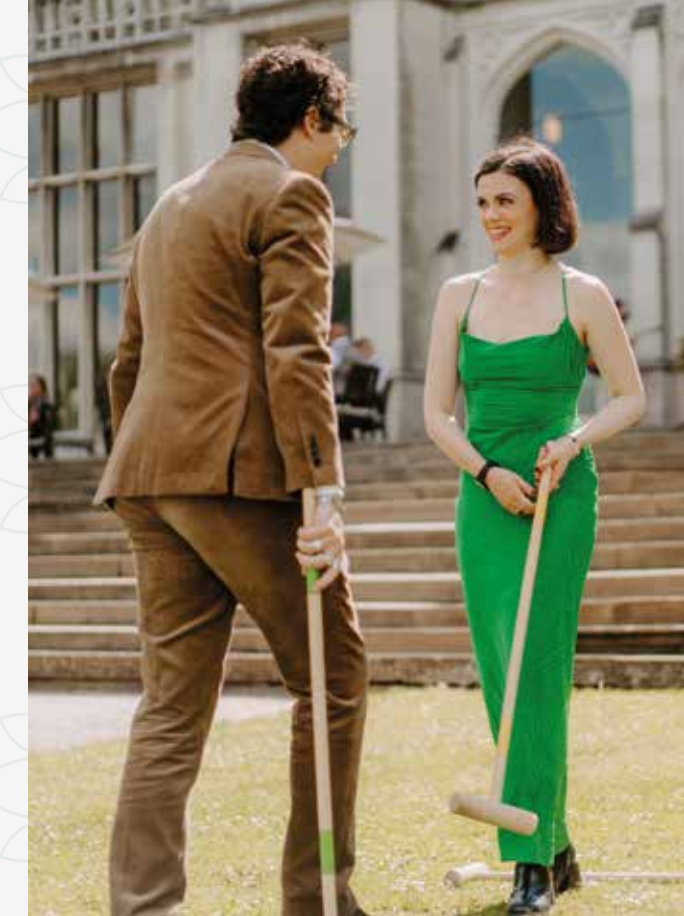

Our Grade II* listed gardens are the perfect grounds for your outdoor ceremony, drinks reception, and countless photo opportunities. Designed by the legendary Humphry Repton, these formal gardens – often called his ‘Garden of Gardens’ – offer a timeless backdrop for your big day.

From the vibrant rose garden and serene rhododendron walk to the sweeping South Lawn, every corner is a picture-perfect spot. Each season brings its own magic, whether it’s spring’s bluebells and tulips, summer’s vibrant blooms, autumn’s rich hues, or the winter wonderland charm.

“We had the most fantastic day, and we can’t recommend Ashridge House highly enough. It was the wedding of our dreams, and we will cherish our photos and videos, which will immortalise it forever!

Eve, 2023 bride, hitched.co.uk
