

WEDDINGS AT WOLDINGHAM GOLF CLUB
the perfect setting for your special day

a warm welcome

Woldingham's location in the heart of the Halliloo Valley offers a tranquil setting for your special day.

Surrounded on all sides by its course and dominated by mature woodland, the venue is approached via a long drive allowing you to drink in the splendour of this stunning location.

Build in the style of a Palladian country mansion, Woldingham boasts many fine features including a first floor purpose built function suite offering exclusive facilities.

Entry to the suite is gained either via the main entrance and up the wooden sweeping staircase or from the grand stone staircase which leads from the pillared walkway to the balcony overlooking the 18th green - both of which offer spectacular red carpet opportunities!

Inside, classic, neutral décor echoes the tranquillity of its setting. Stylish and intimate, the first floor suite is tastefully decorated, with private bar & lounge areas and is further enhanced by large windows to three sides, allowing natural light to flood in.

French doors open onto the large stone balcony which offers panoramic views across the course to the countryside beyond, whilst providing additional outdoor space – perfect for reception drinks or as a viewpoint from which to watch fireworks at the end of your day.

Externally, Woldingham offers classic features which, set against the spectacular scenery of the course, lend themselves to beautiful photographs and access is also given to the course for fun wedding photographs that are just a little different, but always beautiful!

Welcome to Woldingham Golf Club.

the Woldingham Suite

With its country mansion-style features and beautiful valley location, our suite offers a tranquil setting which sets it apart from the rest.

A neutral classic décor provides the perfect blank canvas on which to create your own theme.

Enter our gates and drive down through the course, taking in the scenery, before arriving at our venue.

Exit through French doors & step out onto the balcony to drink in our setting — it's also the perfect spot for a group photo! From here you can take the staircase down to the patio with its pillared walkway & access to the course for endless photo opportunities!

Entrance to our suite is gained via a grand sweeping staircase—or perhaps you'd prefer to enter via the balcony, which is accessed via a beautiful stone staircase? Either way, you'll be making an enviable entrance!

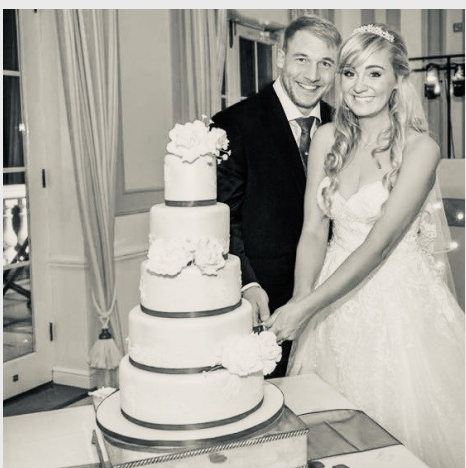

Licensed for Civil Ceremonies and incorporating private lounge & bar areas, a wooden dance floor & air conditioning, The Woldingham Suite is an ideal venue for an intimate celebration.

Windows cover three sides of the suite offering a glimpse of the fabulous views & creating a feeling of space & light.
