

GE Invests in the Future of American Manufacturing

GE is among the country's largest employers, with workers and facilities spanning the U.S., in addition to supplier companies and other partners in communities nationwide. With more than 25 new facilities over the last 7 years, we're investing in a bright future for U.S. manufacturing. Because when GE wins, communities win.

100,000+
U.S. EMPLOYEES

180+
U.S. MANUFACTURING FACILITIES

15,000+
DIRECT U.S. SUPPLIER COMPANIES

235,840
U.S. RETIREES

10,000
VETERANS EMPLOYED

COMMITMENT TO THE FUTURE OF MANUFACTURING

GE has undergone a significant transformation since our founding 125 years ago. As we become the world's leading digital industrial company, our commitment to U.S. employment and manufacturing remains the same.

WHAT WILL ENSURE GROWTH AND SUCCESS FOR THE FUTURE OF MANUFACTURING?

 83% of Americans say providing high-tech job training for workers

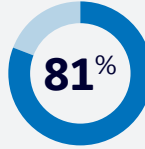

WHAT IS GE DOING?

 $1 Billion
ANNUAL INVESTMENT BY GE IN EMPLOYEE DEVELOPMENT

 82% of Americans say investing in research and development and new technology

WHAT IS GE DOING?

 28,000
U.S. DIGITAL JOBS

 81% of Americans say upgrading U.S. factories

WHAT IS GE DOING?

 25
NEW U.S. FACILITIES IN THE LAST 7 YEARS

WINNING GLOBALLY HELPS PEOPLE LOCALLY

GE is one of America's largest exporters. Last year, over 60% of our orders came from customers located outside the U.S. These orders mean more work for our employees here in America. At GE, we believe winning globally helps people locally.

 61% of Americans say that trade agreements benefit U.S. workers

 70% of Americans say that trade agreements benefit U.S. companies

 58% of Americans say that trade agreements benefit consumers like me

 180
COUNTRIES BUY GE PRODUCTS, SERVICES

 $20 B
ANNUAL U.S. EXPORTS

 60%
OF GE ORDERS CAME FROM OUTSIDE THE US IN 2016

For more information, visit GEVoices.com

*All employment and manufacturing data current as of December 2016. Morning Consult surveyed 2,201 American adults between September 22 and 24th, and has a margin of error of 2 percentage points.