BOWMAN DANCE COMPANY & SCHOOL

Jill Beckel

Mrs. Jill grew up in upstate NY and studied tap and jazz dance at Dance Dimensions. While attending college at Elmira College, she was a member of Danceline (dance team) which performed at college basketball games and campus events, Orchesis (performing dance troupe with two shows a year) and was a founding member of the Elmira College Tap Ensemble. Upon graduation, she taught tap, jazz and creative movement to children for 3 years before moving to the Philadelphia area in 2011. Jill has studied at the Rockette

Summer Intensive and performed at several Philadelphia area events including Manayunk on Ice and other street festivals. She co-choreographed several dance numbers for a musical performance of Willy Wonka Jr. for A.S.H. Productions in 2013. This is Mrs. Jill's sixth year of teaching dance at Bowman Dance Company & School and she currently teaches Pizzazz Tap, Fierce Tap and is involved with Company.
