Sarah Schiewer

Mrs. Schiewer hails from Indianapolis, IN where she studied ballet, modern and jazz for 15 years at the Jordan College of Fine Arts at Butler University. She also studied at The Rock School of Ballet, Ballet Austin, Chautauqua Ballet and North Carolina Dance Theater where she was a trainee for one season. She went on to dance with Tanz Graz at the Grazer Opera Haus in Austria for six years. Mrs. Schiewer's favorite rolls include Aurora from The Sleeping Beauty, Arabian and Sugarplum Fairy from The Nutcracker, and several contemporary works.

Mrs. Schiewer has been teaching classical ballet, pointe, contemporary, and jazz for over 18 years. She loves integrating several different teaching approaches in the classroom, understanding that each child learns differently. She was trained in the Vaganova, Cecchetti and Balanchine styles and enjoys incorporating all three styles into her classes.
