Camp Description

Camp Jazze is the ultimate dance, tumbling and musical theatre camp for boys and girls ages 5-12. Camp Jazze campers will have daily dance, tumbling or musical classes, super arts and crafts, all camp group games, a weekly field trip and film Friday performances! Camp Jazze is for campers of all dance/performance levels so the only thing we require from our campers is enthusiasm and preparation for an unforgettable camp experience!

Each Camp Week Includes:

- Unique themed camp session to keep our campers engaged and entertained all summer
- Dance, tumbling or musical theatre technique classes
- Fun choreography, songs and skits
- Innovative arts & crafts
- Weekly field trip to Main Event or AMC Movie Theater
- End of week performance that will be filmed and edited for your keepsake

Camp Director

Ms. Jay has over 15 years of early childhood and school age education, after school and summer camp experience. She began her career at an early head start program in New York City where she spent summers engaging and chaperoning 2–4-year-olds in various activities across NYC. She has also worked at well-known youth programs including the YMCA of Brooklyn, Grand Street Settlement and Girl Scouts of America sleep away camp in the Hamptons. She is a 4-year Unit/ Camp leader veteran where her responsibilities included overseeing a group of 25+ campers as well as counselors and CITs. With her success, her role was extended to lead after school programmer at these establishments. Any of Ms. Jay's parents can attest that her first priority is safety for children under her care. She is CPR/AED trained, has attended various counselor and leader trainings from the American Camp Association and holds a Master of Science degree.
